We recommend for especial consideration, the local benevolences of this conference. Fully ten per cent of the churches of our conference require financial aid in order to exist; and therefore present a preferred missionary claim. The situation requires that we raise the full apportionment for Domestic Missions.

We urge the collection, in every church in the conference, of the 20 cents per member, apportioned for the support of our three conference colleges. If this should be accomplished there would be a total income of $15,000, a revenue equal to that derived from an endowment of $100,000 for each institution.

The church is arousing to the justice of the superannuate's claim as never before. The time has come when the veterans of the ministry should be placed upon the same footing as the veterans of our armies. This would mean half pay for every superannuate. The average salary for the ministers of this conference is only $700. Annual income of $20,000 would mean $350, or half pay, for all the veterans of this conference. It can be done. It must be done.

Home Missions and Church Extension.

The demands in Home Mission and Church Extension work, coming from the South, the West and the densely settled cities among the foreigners are so insistent that each in turn seems paramount in importance.

America must be held for Christ, if the world is to be won for Christ. We therefore pledge our best endeavor in our respectful charges to impress upon our people the supreme importance of this cause, to give it adequate representation, and if possible to meet the appropriation in full. We called attention to the World Wide Mission and the Christian Republic and the literature furnished by the Board and urge the pastors and people to avail themselves of the help and information thus afforded.

Freedmen's Aid.

For the moral and religious training of the colored people our Freedmen's Aid Schools are indispensable. The Christian teacher is more than a mere teacher of trades and industries. He is the director and example of the moral and religious life of the young people. No young man or woman can be in our schools for any length of time without receiving more or less of the great Christian impress necessary to the development of moral manhood and womanhood. In order to do our share toward the moral and spiritual uplift of this race, we must give them the Christian teacher. The Board asks the Conference for $6,000. We hereby pledge ourselves to present this cause at least once during the year to our congregations, and give our people an opportunity to contribute toward this most needful work. Lincoln Sunday has come to be one of the institutions of the Church. It offers the best opportunity during the year for presenting the causes of the Freedmen to our congregations.

Most respectfully submitted,

J. W. MILLER, Chairman.

E. S. COMBS, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

The Literature of the Methodist Episcopal Church, always good and never better than now, superior to many and excelled by none in the whole country, commends itself to the Church with an increasingly popular favor.

This is especially and emphatically true with respect to our Sunday School Publications under the editorial supervision of Dr. McFarland. And we were pleased beyond the power of words to express it when the representative of the Western Book Concern told us of the growing favor with which the Class Mate is being received in all the country.

With the utmost confidence, therefore, in all our Publications, we do most heartily commend them and urgently request our people to patronize our own Publications in preference, if not exclusively, to all others.

We would request all our pastors to leave an accurate list of all subscribers to any of our Church Periodicals, so that his successor may be able to facilitate his canvas for the same.

We would recommend that each pastor make a list of those of his people who might be interested in our Publications by sending to the Publishers the names of the same and requesting them to send the persons copies of the Catalogue of our Publications. The Publishers stand ready to comply with such requests.

COMMENDATION.

Whereas, A portion of the report of Dr. C. Galeener, the Superintendent of Springfield District, to our conference, has been falsely garbled and given to the public by the press, containing statements like the following:

"Springfield is the wickedest city in the world."

"Springfield is ruled by vice and immorality." And,

Whereas, His full report as read before the Conference was published in the "State Register" of Tuesday, Sept. 14th, containing only the following statements concerning the city in question:

"In the Capital City itself, we have all the problems of the greater city, 250 craters of HELL continue to pour forth the smoke of the bottomless pit, gamblers, pimps and scarlet women haunt the streets with tempting bait to lure unsuspecting youth into the jaws of death; politicians, under the plea of expediency, bargain with these depraved elements and sell virtue and human flesh and blood for a price.

"Here race hatred smoulders and needs only the fiery stimulation of intoxicants to some day break forth again into a flame of frenzy." And,

Whereas, No outcry was made till the forces of evil saw an opportunity in the publication of said malicious report to viciously attack our brother as a stalwart leader of reform, an inveterate foe to the liquor traffic, and an enemy of all the powers of darkness; and the Springfield Record, of Friday, Sept. 17th, charged Dr. Galeener with wilfully falsifying as to conditions in Springfield, declaring that "he scorched the wickedness of the city in sizzling sentences." Therefore,

Resolved, That we love our brother for the enemies he has made among foes of righteousness, and stand by him in his efforts for a clean city and a decent civic administration.

Nothing could so besmirch the reputation of our capital city as the disgraceful and awful riot brought on a little over a year ago by the existence of the very conditions which he denounces in all centers of wickedness and which made it impossible to secure a single conviction for the violation of law in such violence and murder; and we suggest that the only way to restore and perpetuate the good name of Springfield is to clean up the city, and wage a perpetual warfare against all abominations.

Signed: W. A. SMITH,
HORACE REED,
E. C. COLEMAN.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the progress made this year in the raising of funds for the Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society through the untiring effort of our efficient field secretary, Rev. Robert Stephens, and trust that he will continue in the great work that he is doing so well.

Resolved, That we are deeply gratified at the interest shown by the laymen in their association in securing an adequate support for our superannuated preachers when the hour of their retirement has come.

W. T. BEADLES, Chairman.

T. F. HARTMAN, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We recommend,

First—That the relation of the following brethren be changed from Effective to Supernumerary at their own request: C. P. Masden, W. M. Johnson, J. S. Dancey, James McCrory, J. H. Meyer, H. H. O'Neal.

Second—That the relation of the following brethren be changed from Effective to Superannuate at their own request: W. H. Musgrove, M. P. Wilkin, T. J. Wheat, A. P. Stover.

Third—That the relation of the following brethren be changed from Supernumerary to Effective: Nathan English, J. W. Waltz, Irvin McMurray, Bertrand Calvin.

Fourth—That the relation of the following brethren be changed from Supernumerary to Superannuate at their own request: E. A. Wanless, G. L. Miller, A. L. Plowman.

Fifth—That the following brethren be continued in the Supernumerary relation:

Class of 1904—O. H. P. Smith.

Class of 1905—J. A. Stout.

Class of 1906—A. J. Ives.

Class of 1907—J. S. Bicknell, N. E. Parsons, H. G. Wass, W. E. Rose, E. E. Strevey, C. S. Jupin, J. L. Dimmitt.

Class of 1908—R. E. Pearce, M. F. Collier, J. M. Goodspeed, J. S. Tull, A. Willard, E. B. Randle, Horace Goldsmith.

Sixth—That M. V. Heidlebaugh be continued in the Supernumerary relation and that he be cited to appear at the next Conference and show cause why he should not be located.

Seventh—That the necessary steps be immediately taken to locate W. C. Woodyard and E. Hale Fuller, who by order of the last Conference were cited to appear at this time and show cause why they should not be located, and who have not complied with the request.

G. W. FLAGGE, Chairman.

C. M. BARTON, Secretary.

CONNECTIONAL FUNDS

First—We recommend the appointment of an Annual Conference Board of Connectional Relief for Conference Claimants to consist of one minister and one layman from each district, who shall advise with the Board of Conference Claimants and assist in emphasizing the connectional and benevolent features of its work in behalf of superannuates and that the members be nominated by the District Superintendents for their districts respectively.

Second—We urge the loyal and hearty observance of a Veterans Sunday in each church in the interests of Conference Claimants, and request that not only the duty of local support of the Conference Claimants of our own Annual Conference on the basis of service, but also the sacredness of the connectional, benevolent features of the Board of Conference, which cares for necessitous cases in all conferences and for the weak and frontier conferences be urged on the people.

Third—We recommend that the treasurer of the Annual Conference be the person authorized to receipt for the allowance made to the conference by the Board of Conference Claimants, and also to send the five per cent for connectional distribution in accordance with Paragraph 427; Section 2 of the Discipline.

Fourth—We request the pastors to present the benevolent, connectional interests of the Board of Conference Claimants at an early date, if possible before the close of the present calendar year, and to take up the collection for connectional purposes, raising an amount at least sufficient to meet the modest apportionment of one per cent of the pastor's salary, asked for the Connectional Fund, in order that the largest possible dividend may be made to the several Annual Conferences for distribution in 1910.

M. N. ENGLISH, Chairman.

JOS. W. VANCLEVE, Secretary.

COURTESIES.

Resolved, That we express to the membership of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Mattoon, and to Brother A. L. T. Ewert, its popular pastor, our appreciation of their splendid and successful entertainment of the Conference. We are indebted to Brother Ewert for his unreserved labors for our comfort, convenience and pleasure, to Brother J. M. McFall, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, for his able assistance to his pastor as our host, and to all the other committees for their labors in our behalf. We desire to thank the women of the New Church Circle for the excellent meals served by them, and also to thank the other churches of Mattoon for their courtesies extended to the Conference, including the excellent meals served by the ladies of the Christian church, and the use of rooms granted us by the official boards of the Congregational and Christian churches, respectively, as well as by the Public Library Association of Mattoon. The State Savings Bank of Mattoon has extended courtesies which are deeply appreciated by the Conference, and the daily press of the city has favored us with full reports.

We desire especially to record our sense of gratitude to the homes of our Mattoon church, and to the homes of the citizens of the city, generally, which have been so freely opened to us and whose generous spirit of real hospitality will long remain a gracious memory among us. We congratulate these homes that they have succeeded in freeing their city from the blight of the legalized saloon, and we pray that God may bless them in all their continued efforts to remain free, as a city, from any fellowship with the unrighteousness of the liquor curse.

We desire to express our appreciation to the Program Committee, for the feast of good things set before us, and especially the popular lecture on Friday night by Dr. F. G. Smith, which was such a pleasure and uplift to the great audience. The musical features of the various sessions and anniversaries have been especially pleasing, and we extend our thanks to the soloists, organists, chorister, and all who have contributed to this feature of the gatherings.

With a full appreciation of one's best endeavors we heartily extend a vote of thanks to our Brother, J. F. Clearwaters, now Sunday School Field Secretary for our church in Wyoming, for his painstaking and efficient services as Registrar of our Conference during the past thirteen years. We add our thanks to all the secretaries and officers of the present session.

We remember with pleasure the former visit of Bishop Goodsell to our Conference, and record our delight at his presence with us again at this session. By his gracious brotherly interest he has endeared himself to us. His addresses have been an inspiration, and his sermon a benediction. We assure him that a cordial welcome will be his whenever he shall be assigned to the superintendency of our Conference.

JOSEPH C. NATE,
PRESTON WOOD,
J. W. MILLER.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

Miss Jane Hawkins has been transferred to the Oklahoma Conference. Miss Muriel Belle Forrester is transferred from the Des Moines Conference.

The licenses of the following Deaconesses are renewed:
Laura E. Aiken, Muriel Belle Forrester, Eleanor Tobie, Anna J. Davidson, Anna L. Logan, Olive G. Webster, Anna Johnson and Roxanna Beck.
The following persons were recommended for consecration:
Mary O. Marquiss, Mary Ledgewood, Amelia A. Christensen, Marjorie McPherson, Edith B. Bird, Mabel G. Millard, Eva M. Brooks. Mary L. Brewer, Mary A. Vermillia and Lillian Watkins.

The Secretary was instructed to write to the Deaconess Association in relation to a resquest for a furlough by Miss Lucile Anderson with a recommendation that her request be granted. The District Superintendents are urged to use the printed forms for the transfer and license of Deaconesses and all forms necessary for the Deaconess Board.

A very satisfactory report was read from the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage, Urbana, showing the value of the property to be Twenty-five Thousand Dollars without any incumbrance, with Twelve Thousand dollars insurance. Four Deaconesses are employed, eighteen children have been placed in good homes.

Cash in treasury at last report was.....	$1,575.24
Received during the year.....	6,867.88
Total	$8,443.12
Disbursed	$6,225.64
Building Fund	590.85
Balance in Treasury	1,626.63

This work is heartily commended to the Conference.
W. A. Smith asked to be relieved from the Presidency of the Board and J. W. Miller was appointed to fill the vacancy.
For the class of 1912 we recommend W. H. Webster, W. T. Beadles, Mrs. A. W. Conkling.

W. A. SMITH, President.

WALTER AITKEN, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AIDS.

Whereas, There are still dependent churches in the Illinois Conference. notwithstanding that about 10% of the churches have received aid from said society, the committee recommends that the pastors endeavor to raise their full apportionment for this cause.

We commend the work being done among the deaf by Philip J. Hasenstab, and join with the Rock River Conference in recommending the claims of this work to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

Your committee recommends that the treasurer's report be printed in the minutes and that the following persons be elected trustees: A. S. Flannigan, Wm. Brandon, G. T. Metzel; laymen, James Ransom, W. A. Payton, J. F. Hammond.

J. C. ENNINGER, President.

LEW E. BALDWIN, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

We desire to call especial attention to the following matter from the Board of Education intended to make plain the three subdivisions of the educational collection:

1. The Children's Day Fund, taken in the Sunday School on the Second Sunday in June. This is for Student Aid and belongs to the Board of Education, and is apportioned at 10% of the foreign missionary collection. It should be sent to New York and should be carefully discriminated from the Rally Day collection in October, which is for the Board of Sunday Schools and which should be sent to Dr. David C. Downey, Chicago, Illinois.

2. The Collection taken in Our Church Congregation as an Addition to the Conference or Public Educational Collection. This is apportioned by our Board in an amount equal to 3% of the apportionment for Foreign Missions and is for the aid of our schools for people of the white race in the South. The proceeds should be sent to the Board of Education at New York.

3. The Conference Educational Collection, taken at Whatever Time Your Conference Orders. This is for the aid of the denominational college or colleges in your own territory and should be sent to the president of such institution as your conference directs, or paid over to the conference treasurer for these local institutions. Where there is no designated local institution, this collection is forwarded to our Board in New York for the Aid of Institutions.

Children's Day Fund.

During the year closing June, 1908, 2,082 students, representing twenty-four different nationalities, were aided by the Children's Day Fund. The Christian Student for February, 1909, gives a detailed statement showing by nationalities and races, by intended callings and from various other points of view, who they were. We urge our pastors to give prominence to the Children's Day collection. The number of students in our Methodist schools increased by ten thousand in three years, and the demands on the Loan Fund have been more than the funds could meet.

Southern Schools.

The trust committed to the Board of Education by the General Conference of 1908, in the care of the schools for white people in the South entitles it to increased attention on the part of the Conference. The collection asked is an amount equal to 3% of the apportionment for foreign missions. This is a most valuable investment for our Church. The influence of these schools is beyond estimate. Every pastor should get the facts and give diligent attention to this collection.

Inter Conference Ministerial Institute.

Whereas, There is a plan launched to organize an inter-conference ministerial institute;

Resolved, That we elect a Conference Institute Committee of three, the chairman of which with the chairman of like committees from each of the other conferences co-operating, shall form an executive committee who shall have authority to organize and maintain such an institute, without power to incur any financial indebtedness on the Illinois conference.

We recommend as committee, J. W. VanCleve, F. L. Buck and W. W. Drake, Theological Schools.

Reports from Boston School of Theology and Drew Theological Seminary show substantial progress, with the introduction of a Department of Sociology at Drew and some new features at both; while the old foundations remain sure. S. R. Reno and C. F. McKown, visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, bring pleasant personal reports, and we deem it fitting to embody in this report a resolution passed by the board of visitors:

We, the Board of Conference Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, with thirty-two members present, representing twenty-eight Conferences, hereby record our profound faith in the faculty of the Institute as men of wisdom, probity, sound doctrine, and safe spiritual leadership.

Unanimously adopted May 26th, 1909.

We recommend the election of the following as Conference visitors:

To Garrett Biblical Institute, C. F. McKown, M. N. English.

To Drew Theological Seminary, R. L. Steed, G. E. Scrimger.

To Boston School of Theology, F. A. McCarty, T. N. Ewing.

Illinois Woman's College.

Another annual increase continuing the record of the past sixteen years compels another addition to the equipment: the $60,000 Harker Hall just completed, also a $10,000 enlargement of the dining room and kitchen. The total valuation of buildings and endowment now aggregates $360,000.

The enrollment shows that students come from all parts of the Union and from territory beyond its bounds.

The college is listed with full collegiate rank and gives recognized B. A. degrees. Its graduates are in increasing demand, therefore, as teachers for grade and high school work in this and in other states. Full literary courses, both preparatory and collegiate are offered. The finest equipment for Domestic Science, Music, Art, and in fact all departments that a young woman might practically desire is installed.

The Woman's College aims to give to its students the highest ideals and to make strong, earnest, womanly women. It stands for such habits of life as will prepare the young women best for every womanly relation in the home, or the school room, or the church, or in society.

We note with great satisfaction the continued expansion of the institution under Dr. J. R. Harker's administration.

It is with deepest regret we make note of the death of its former president, Dr. Harker's predecessor, Dr. W. F. Short, for so many years its honored head and greatly beloved by the alumnae of those years.

The following trustees whose term will expire in 1915 are recommended: Richard Yates, Edmund Blackburn, W. E. Veitch, and Joseph R. Harker. For alumnae trustees, term expiring in 1915, we recommend the following: Mrs. Belle Short Lambert and Mrs. Marietta Mathers Rowe. For conference visitors, we recommend the pastors residing in Jacksonville, A. A. White, Preston Wood, M. G. Coleman, W. C. Willets and A. C. Piersel.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The selection of Rev. Theodore Kemp by the trustees of this school has been fully justified by his administration of its affairs during the past year. There was a larger enrollment in a number of the departments last year than ever before and the present indications are for a still greater increase the present year. President Kemp commands the confidence and hearty co-operation of the entire city of Bloomington and patronizing territory.

The year has witnessed the completion of the raising of the money to meet the Carnegie proposition and Mr. Carnegie has instructed his banker to pay over the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars on demand for the erection of the new Hall of Science. The erection of the building will be begun as soon as the plans can be perfected.

The various courses have been revised and extended. To the Domestic Science Department has been added a Department of Domestic Art and the department will be known as the Department of Household Economics. Miss Ina Pitner, who has been selected as its head, is a graduate both of Lewis Institute, where she also taught two years, and of the teachers' college of Columbia University, and taught last year in the Illinois Woman's College.

By the provisions of the will of C. T. McCarty who has died during the year the Wesleyan ultimately will come into the possession of property worth Sixty Thousand Dollars.

Notice has been given of the remembrance of the University in a number of other wills.

Plans are being developed for the creation of a Sustaining Fund for a few years with which to meet the deficiency in the expenses of the school until larger endowment is secured.

The arrangement of last year by which the young women were provided for in dormitories under the direction of competent matrons will be continued this year, thus providing for the comfort and safety of the young women.

The spiritual life of the school is of the deepest character and is carefully guarded. About thirty young men and women are preparing for the ministry and missionary fields.

We heartily commend this splendid institution to the patronage of our constituency and respectfully urge the pastors and laymen of our Conference to press its merits upon prospective students and its claims upon all friends of the best type of higher education.

We congratulate the school on the acquisition of the four new members of the faculty, Prof. P. W. Sommerville, Rev. Ross L. Finney, Miss Ina Pitner and Prof. Shiveley.

We recommend as visitors: Christy Galeener, Geo. Scrimger, W. D. Fairchild, J. C. Nate, and the Superintendent of Bloomington District.

We recommend as trustees: Judge Owen T. Reeves, Wm. H. Wilder, Chalmers C. Marquis, J. W. VanCleve, all of whose terms are to expire in 1912.

Chaddock Boys' Home and School.

The ninth year of this unique institution of our Methodism, like all the preceding ones, since it has been in its present work, has been one of advancement.

The wisdom of purchasing the 26-acre farm, almost in the heart of the resident district of Quincy, and the establishing there of an academy of such grade as is soon to be recognized by the university senate, has long since been established.

The institution has outgrown its present facilities and an added building is now being planned, to aid in the accomplishing of which Dr. Hunt of the South Dakota conference, is to act as the agent. We would ask for him the largest opportunity and co-operation from the pastors and people and that the entire management and school receive at all times the sympathy, love and appreciation which the self-sacrifice and work would warrant.

Conference visitors: F. A. McCarty, Pastor of Mt. Sterling, Dr. J. C. Willits, Walter Aitkin, Thornton Clark.

J. C. NATE, Chairman.

C. D. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

Educational Money.

First—We recommend that the regular educational column of our minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provisions of paragraph 414 of the Discipline of 1908 as the "Public Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gifts, if certified by vouchers, shall be reported as "Special Gifts to Educational Institutions" and we recommend the insertion of a column in our conference minutes for such report.

Second—We recommend that the moneys of the regular collection shall be equally divided among Illinois Wesleyan University, Illinois Woman's College and Chaddock Boys' Home and School. In case any charge has given a note to any of our three schools, the educational money from such charge shall be paid on such note provided the conference treasurer be notified of the amount.

Third—We recommend a total apportionment of 20 cents per member for the entire conference membership, and we urge upon District Superintendents and pastors the raising of these apportionments in full.

J. C. NATE, Chairman.

C. D. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

EVANGELISM.

Whereas, We agree that the Methodist Episcopal Church must maintain her evangelistic character, and that the work done in the past year in our Conference has determined that District Evangelism is no longer an experiment, but has demonstrated a way of strengthening the weaker charges and of evangelizing and holding the unoccupied strategic points and conserving the interests of the Kingdom throughout our Conference:

We recommend:

First—That each Conference District be the unit of organization.

Second—That the matter of District Evangelism be presented at the stewards and ministers fall meeting for consideration.

Third—That the plan for remuneration be similar to that adopted by the Evangelistic Commission.

Fourth—We further recommend: That no person be employed by any pastor in our Conference, as an evangelist, who is not in perfect harmony with our doctrine and polity, and who has not the endorsement of the District Superintendent, and that this provision of the discipline be enforced.

Fifth—Recognizing street preaching as an effective means of reaching the unchurched, we recommend its practice.

Sixth—We desire to conform to the action of the last General Conference and recommend that a Conference Evangelistic Commission be appointed, and further, that the Rev. Robert Stevens be appointed by the Bishop president of said commission.

FRANK LUCAS, Chairman.

R. F. McDANIEL, Secretary.

HISTORY OF METHODISM.

Whereas, The first volume of the History of Methodism in Illinois by Rev. W. N. McElroy, D. D., is ready for the press, therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily commend this work and recommend that the Historical Society take steps to have the same published as soon as practicable.

HOSPITALS.

Everybody believes in and sees the utility of the good Samaritan spirit which seeks for the alleviation of human suffering and no more worthy form of philanthropy can be found than that which finds expression in the hospital. It is the spirit of Christ at work for the salvation of the body.

Wesley Hospital.

Our own Wesley Hospital at Chicago in its excellent equipment in surgical skill and other special facilities for ministering to very special cases commends itself as our western mother hospital to the entire church. It is with gratitude of heart that we note its continued prosperity. It is being enlarged at a cost of $136,000. Of the 4500 patients treated during the year 1000 were free bed patients. It has accommodations for 200 patients daily.

Methodist Memorial Hospital.

Within the bounds of our own conference we have a most worthy institution known as the Methodist Memorial Hospital, located at Mattoon, Illinois, made possible by such generous donors as Dr. and Mrs. McFall, Mrs. Mary Morris and the late William Taylor. From the day of its opening to the present moment it has been of untold blessing to the people of Mattoon and surrounding country. It is the only philanthropy of the kind within the bounds of our conference under Methodist auspices. But so pressing is the need for larger equipment in the way of a new building for the accommodation of the increasing number of patients that the Hospital Aid Society, composed of the most influential ladies of all the churches of Mattoon, having made a careful investigation of the needs, make to our conference the following proposition: "The people of Mattoon will raise $5,000 each year for three years, if the Illinois conference will raise a like sum of $5,000 each year for three years, making a total of $30,000 for the erection of a new building."

We, the Committee, most heartily recommend this proposition to the conference, and that it be referred to the district superintendents for further consideration; provided, that no definite financial obligation be assumed on behalf of the conference.

Nominations of Officers.

GENTLEMEN :

As Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Memorial Methodist Hospital, I beg to report that at the annual meeting of said Board of Trustees, held at Memorial Methodist Hospital, Mattoon, Illinois, September 2, 1909, the following Directors were elected, to-wit: Dr. D. M. McFall, J. M. Glasco, S. W. Phillips, E. C. Craig, G. H. Cokendolpher, S. G. Auer and J. F. Lawson.

These Trustees elected the following officers: Dr. D. M. McFall, President; J. M. Glasco, Vice-President, and J. F. Lawson, Secretary and Treasurer; E. C. Craig, Attorney.

Under the charter and By-Laws of the Hospital the District Superintendent and pastor of the First M. E. Church, Mattoon, Illinois, are Directors by virtue of their ministerial offices.

We ask that the Conference confirm the election of the trustees and officers above enumerated for the ensuing conference year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. LAWSON,
Secretary.

ILLINOIS VIGILANCE ASSOCIATION.

Dr. Horace Reed, having been called to the position of Field Secretary of the Illinois Vigilance Association, the object of that society being the suppression of the traffic in women and girls, known as the white slave trade, the abolishing of the social evil in towns and cities; the creating of a public sentiment that will demand better marriage and divorce laws, and proper purity teaching in our high schools and colleges and universities, and making known the awful consequences of the social vice, therefore Resolved, That this Conference request the Bishop to appoin Dr. Reed to said position, and we hereby pledge our hearty cooperation to this reform movement which he has been elected to represent.

METHODISM AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

Whereas, There are now in attendance at the University of Illinois at Urbana approximately 1,000 students of Methodist connection and the number continues to increase each year;

We recognize the tremendous importance of so caring for these young people that they may be kept for Methodism and the cause of Christ in the world.

Already the Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregational and Disciples, State bodies have taken action with a view to making their work more effective at the State University. The Home Missionary Society of the Unitarians have erected a chapel and support a minister. The Episcopalians are just finishing a Girls' Hall costing $30,000 and are planning a Boys' Hall to correspond. The Presbyterians and the Baptists each support a student pastor through their state organizations. All who have studied the situation recognize that the problem of caring for these hosts of young people must be solved by the churches of the entire state cooperating, and that the local churches unaided cannot deal with the situation as it must be dealt with.

Methodism now has a beautiful church situated at the corner of the campus—Trinity by name—which was built for the express purpose of caring for the Methodist community at the University. Its erection has already been justified. It now has in its membership more than fifty members of the faculty, including the President; and many other faculty men are members of the congregation. Three hundred University students were enrolled in the Trinity Sunday School last year, and many more than that number were regular attendants at church worship.

The local church will care for its own expenses, the support of its pastor, its music, etc. But the furnishing of special workers among the young men and the young women, the provision of a social center, dormitory accommodations, etc., must be cared for by the Methodism of the State.

The undersigned committee, therefore, appointed by the District Superintendents at their July meeting at Decatur to go over this situation and formulate some plan, recommend:

1—That we endorse the work already being done to care for our young people at the State University.

2—That we authorize the District Superintendents of the Illinois Conference to nominate a permanent committee consisting of three ministers and three laymen, the work of said committee being to devise ways and means for meeting our problems at this strategic center.

3—That we send a temporary committee from this Conference session to the Central Illinois, Southern Illinois and Rock River, Annual Conference with a copy of our action, and to secure like action from them.

4—That with this committee made up from the four conferences of the State, and as a part of the same, there shall be selected five Methodists from the local churches in Urbana and Champaign.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee.

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES.

We recommend that each Pastor and District Superintendent be required to take and pay for one copy of the Conference Minutes for every hundred dollars, and fraction thereof amounting to fifty dollars or more, of the salary claim of his charge including house rent, plus two additional copies.

Photo Edition.

Whereas, The Committee on Publication of the Minutes has received a proposition to print in them the cut of all the preachers of the Conference, be it,

Resolved, That the committee be requested to investigate the cost of printing the same and if it can be done by making the cost not to exceed twenty cents per copy that they be authorized to arrange for printing the same next year.

A. S. CHAPMAN,
J. S. THARP.

Report on First Day.

Moved, That the Statistical Reports be received on the morning of the first day of the next Conference session and that all members not reporting on the first day be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

E. A. HEDGES.

Corrections.

Resolved, That corrections in the reports of the pastors to the Statistical Secretary and the Treasurer of the Conference be not allowed after the second day of the session.

LEO HOWARD,
A. K. BYRNS.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORM.

Article 1.—Temperance.

Section 1.—We rejoice in the State and National progress in temperance reform since our Conference session of a year ago, and pledge ourselves to a continuous advocacy of any just measures that promise a final victory.

Section 2.—We again heartily endorse the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois as the most practical agency for the annihilation of the liquor traffic. We rejoice in what has been accomplished and pledge our heartiest support to the League in the future. We urge our pastors to give its representatives the fullest opportunities to speak to our people that the Church may thereby have the best and latest information of the conflict. And,

Whereas, In every dry locality the fight for law enforcement is on, we urge our laymen to vote for men who will stand by the enforcement of law regardless of party lines.

Section 3.—We renew our commendation to the Churches everywhere of the valuable work of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal church and earnestly request all our pastors to observe World's Temperance Sunday, to take a collection and forward the same to Alonzo E. Wilson, Treasurer, 92 La Salle street, Chicago.

Article 2.—Sunday.

We regret the increasing disregard for the Sabbath Day on the part of Church Members and appeal to our people to refrain from patronizing wide-open chautauquas, ice cream parlors, baseball, and unnecessarily patronizing Sunday trains, and all such forms of amusements that make Sunday a day of pleasure rather than a day of worship.

M. G. COLEMAN,
Secretary.

W. A. BOYD,
Chairman,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We call attention to the disciplinary requirements in regard to the Rally Day; Financial Support of the Board of Sunday Schools; Decision Day, and, Monthly Missionary Day.

Since the Graded System of Lessons is to the Sunday School what the State Course of Study is to the Public School, we recommend that all our Sunday Schools adopt as soon as possible, the Graded System of Lessons or as much as is practical to the individual school.

Recognizing the fact that the worth of the Sunday School is better appreciated; knowing the greatest difficulties lie in the lack of knowing how and what to do, we recommend that one day of our District Ministerial Associations be given to the Sunday School interests.

We further recommend that each Pastor be requested to take to this Sunday School Day at the Ministerial Associations the best work done in his Schools and place it on exhibition.

C. S. LYLES,
Secretary.

HY S. ALKIRE,
Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We recommend that the Conference endorse the following proposed amendment to the State Epworth League Constitution:

Officers.

Section 1.—The officers of the State Cabinet shall consist of the members of the Board of Control for this General Conference District, a president, four vice presidents, a junior superintendent, a corresponding secretary, a treasurer and the presidents of the Conference Epworth League.

Section 2.—The president shall be elected from the various conferences, alternating regularly. Two of the other officers, elected by the State Convention, shall be from each Conference.

Section 3.—These officers shall be nominated by a nominating committee of two from each Conference, said members to be elected on such committee at the preceding Conference convention if the Conference Epworth League holds convention. If there is no Conference convention the said committee shall be named by a caucus of the delegates from the respective conferences at the State Convention. Any vacancy on the nominating committee elected by the Conference convention shall be filled by such caucus.

We recommend that this Conference elect a Conference President and a Conference Secretary of the Epworth League. These officers, with the presidents of the different districts, to constitute the Conference Cabinet.

We nominate for president Dr. J. W. Van Cleve; for secretary, W. A. Joy, Springfield, Illinois.

Illinois State Epworth League Institute and Chautauqua.

The Illinois State Epworth League Institute at Havana, had, in this its second year, an enrollment of nearly one hundred and fifty—double that of last year; its faculty was exceptionally strong and devoted; it paid all expenses with a handsome surplus, and more than thirty of our brightest young people consecrated themselves to different forms of Christian service as a life work. In view of these facts and the plans now perfecting for still greater things in the future, we heartily commend this institute, and urge our patrons to attend and secure the attendance of as many as possible of their young people.

We commend also the State Epworth League Chautauqua at the same place. Its ideal grounds; strong program, and strict observance of the Sabbath, destine it to become not only the great summer camp of Illinois Methodism, but also the great religious and educational Chautauqua of the West.

CHARLES S. LYLES,
Secretary.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in annual session in the Methodist Church in Mattoon, Illinois, September 15, 1909.

Present, W. A. Smith, W. H. Webster, George E. Scrimger, S. H. Whitlock, J. W. Miller, H. C. Gibbs and Horace Reed.

W. A. Smith, the president, in the chair.

W. H. Webster, the treasurer, made his annual report, and on motion of S. H. Whitlock, was received and placed on file.

On motion of G. E. Scrimger the treasurer was directed to turn over the draft for $800, the amount of accrued interest for the year, to the Board of Stewards.

W. H. Webster, after serving as treasurer for twenty-eight years, tendered his resignation as treasurer, and on motion of Horace Reed, was accepted.

H. C. Gibbs offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby express our appreciation of the eminent service rendered this Conference by Rev. W. H. Webster, who for the past twenty-eight years has served as treasurer of the Board of Trustees, investing its funds with profit and at the same time with such care that not one dollar has been lost.

Motion adopted.

On motion of H. C. Gibbs, Charles B. Taylor was elected treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees to succeed W. H. Webster.

On motion of Horace Reed, B. F. Shipp, T. N. Ewing and F. B. Madden were elected as publishers of the minutes.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock, J. J. Dugan was nominated to preach the Annual Strawbridge, with M. G. Coleman as alternate.

H. C. Gibbs offered the following resolution, which was seconded by S. H. Whitlock, that We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. C. B. Taylor treasurer of the Board or Trustees and chairman of the Investment Committee of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Motion adopted.

Resolved, That in the death of Dr. A. C. Byerly the Board of Trustees loses one of its most efficient members, the Conference one of its ablest representatives, and the Church one of its most faithful and successful preachers and pastors.

Respectfully submitted,

HORACE REED,
Secretary.

W. A. SMITH,
President.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN AND HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Whereas, We recognize in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society the most effective agency in carrying the gospel to the women in heathen lands and the Woman's Home Missionary Society an equally effective agency in saving the women who know not the Christ, in our own land,

Resolved, That we pledge them our heartiest co-operation and support and as far as possible promote the organization of both of these societies in our charges, feeling that where one exists the other may the more easily exist.

That we open our Churches to their representatives for the purpose of bringing their message to the women of our charges.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. DAVIS,
Chairman.

IN MEMORIAM

LESLIE LELAND BAKER

LESLIE LELAND BAKER was born August 4, 1875, three miles northeast of Waynesville, Illinois, on a farm where his grandfather settled in 1836. His father soon afterwards purchased a farm two miles east of town, and there Leslie grew to young manhood.

At seven years of age he began his education by attending his home district school; at the age of 15 he entered the Waynesville Academy, and there completed a three years course of study with credit to himself and the institution. When 19 years of age he entered the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Illinois, and four years later graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. In this school he graduated with more credits than any other graduate of the institution. One year after graduation he spent as a teacher in the city schools of Hoopeston, Illinois, and the next four years he spent on the farm.

Convinced at 12 years of age that the time had come when he should become a disciple of Jesus, he followed the inclination of his heart and publicly professed himself a follower of Christ. At this time he united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Waynesville, and from that time to the day of his decease he remained a faithful member of that denomination. Yet while a member of the church, and trying to serve Christ faithfully, there were mental questionings arising from some preconceived ideals he held of what a Christian should be that kept him from claiming all he was entitled to; but these mental questionings were finally settled, and while teaching at Hoopeston he came into the light of full assurance.

Feeling God wanted him to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, he applied for admission to the Illinois conference in 1903, and was received, and appointed to Minier; in 1904 he was appointed to Butler, and re-appointed to that place in 1905. As a minister of the Gospel he was beloved and honored by the people he was appointed to serve. His brethren in the Conference, who became acquainted with him, looked upon him as a man of great promise in his chosen field of labor.

In the autumn of 1906, Brother Baker decided to attend a theological school, and so was left without appointment at that Conference. He went to Madison, New Jersey, where he attended Drew Theological Seminary.

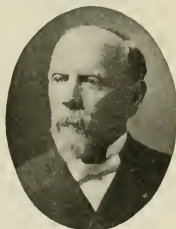

The mission field appealed to him as the place his service was most needed, and so he offered himself for that work. Probably, had he lived, he would in the near future have gone to some foreign field to bear the cheering news of Christ's salvation to those who long for some such welcome tidings. But the Master had other plans for him—missionary plans, no doubt, but a mission not to the benighted in heathen darkness, instead a mission to dwellers in Glory. A cold contracted rapidly developed, as time went by, into la grippe, then pneumonia, and at last into a speedy form of consumption. His parents were telegraphed for, and went to his bedside. They found him still anxious to recover health, and work on earth for the glory of God, but equally resigned to a transfer to a heavenly appointment if it should be the will of his Master. This appointment came to him on the Sabbath day, Sunday, February 28, 1909, at 3:45 p. m., and he entered upon the work of God in the Eternal World to serve there forever, and to gladly welcome his fellow laborers of earth to the same field when they come; but especially to look with gladness to the time when his loved ones shall be permitted to enter into his joy, and labor with him.

Accordingly his father and mother, and his two sisters, who remain for awhile separated from him, sorrow not as those who have no hope, but as they might for a messenger of the Cross gone from their midst to a foreign land, sorrowing only because he is absent, rejoicing because they shall meet him again, and be with him forever, and because that land is after all not foreign soil to them, but rather, home.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Clinton, Ill., March 3rd, 1909, and were participated in by the Revs. C. A. McKay, W. O. Roush, Elmer E. Strevey, Horace Reed, J. B. Horney, G. W. Flagge and B. F. Shipp, who preached the sermon. Resolutions of sympathy and esteem sent from Drew Seminary were presented by Dr. Reed. The following day the body was taken to Waynesville, his former home, for burial. Here the Rev. G. W. Flagge delivered a short sermon, and the Revs. B. F. Shipp and E. E. Strevey and Prof. W. H. Smith participated in the services.

ALEXANDER CLAY BYERLY, D. D.

ALEXANDER CLAY BYERLY first saw the light of life in Johnson County, Indiana, August 21, 1845. He beheld a greater light, like Saul of Tarsus, February 4, 1866. At the last he opened his eyes upon "the light which no man can approach unto" while in the flesh, and looked upon the hitherto invisible glories of the immortality which Christ brought to light, March 20, 1909. When a youth he came to Illinois. On January 1, 1864, he entered the United States army, and was assigned to duty in the Civil War on the gunboat "John Rain," in the Mississippi Marine Brigade. He was in many battles and skirmishes both on the river and in the adjacent country. On February 22, 1865, with his companions in arms, he was honorably discharged because his country needed their services no longer in that capacity. He came to DeWitt County, Illinois, and was converted to God in a country chapel named after Rev. J. C. Rucker, preacher in charge at that time. He united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Bell Point, Wapella Circuit, Illinois Conference. Interpreting his call to preach to include a call to prepare to preach, he entered the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, in the spring of 1867. By his own efforts he worked his way through college, and graduated therefrom in June, 1871. He completed the classical course, taking the degree of Bachelor of Arts. In three years his alma mater gave him the degree of master of arts, in cursu, and afterward conferred on him the degree of doctor of divinity.

He united with the Illinois Annual Conference in Jacksonville in 1871, and was sent to Twin Grove and Covel, where he remained two years. His subsequent appointments were as follows: 1873, Gibson City; 1874, McLean; 1875-77, Green Valley; 1878-79, Tolono; 1880-82, Virden; 1883-85, Urbana; 1886-89, Vermont Street, Quincy; 1890-91, First Church, Springfield; 1892-97, Champaign District; 1898-1901, Lincoln; 1902-07, Springfield District; 1908, Delavan. He preached only three Sundays in his new charge, when he went to Springfield for treatment for a malady that had been preying on his vitals for several months. A surgical operation afforded him only temporary relief. He sufficiently recovered, however, to enable him to return to his people, who had already learned to love him as he loved them. But in two weeks he was again compelled to put himself under the care of his Springfield physician. He continued to slowly but surely fail. He was a great sufferer, especially near the close, while his whole life was unusually full of bereavement and sorrow, which baffled his understanding, but he was patient and resigned to the will of Him who "doeth all things well." He naturally wished to live and labor longer for his Lord, but as the end drew near, he prayed for release. Pillowing his head on the unfailing promises of God, like the breathing of infancy, he peacefully fell asleep. Saved at first with a great salvation, saved constantly with a greater salvation, he is saved in his coronation with the greatest salvation of all, among the saints who have gone up "out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Dr. Byerly was a faithful pastor and a successful preacher, but he was a man before he was a minister, ever and utterly incapable of being less than a manly man, and like Paul, made a minister by the grace of God. His genial nature made him a most congenial companion. His religion was full of sunshine. He was a friend to everybody, and nearly all reciprocated that feeling of good will. His ideals were lofty, his purposes were pure, he was honest to the core, and a man of principle rather than of policy. He was evangelistic as well as evangelical, a gospel preacher, emphasizing the eternal verities, and many revivals attended his ministry. He was never heterodox, or "liberal," so-called, in his theology, yet he was not narrow, or bigoted. He raised no clouds of doubt to obscure the Sun of righteousness—no mists of semi-infidel questionings to veil that precious Light. The Hero of the gospels was the inspiration of his life and ministry. His commanding theme was Jesus, and Jesus only. The cardinal feature of his life-work was Paul's, "I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." He was scholarly, illustrative, logical, rhetorical, yet he "came not with excellency of speech—not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power."

Rev. A. C. Byerly was first married to Miss Julia Moore, daughter of Rev. W. H. H. Moore, of the Illinois Conference, at Normal, Ill., April 2, 1873. Three children born of this union all survive him; Mrs. Russell Johnson and Miss Julia Byerly of Springfield, and Lawrence Byerly of Clinton, Ill. The mother of his children died after a painful and lingering illness in Urbana, Ill., March 13, 1898. His second wife was Miss Alice Sudduth, whom he married May 15, 1900, and who died February 19, 1904, at Citronelle, Ala. His third matrimonial union was with Mrs. Hannah M. Giberson of Carlinville, Ill., on December 6, 1906. She still lives, and did all for him that she could in her ministry of love, and now deplores the loss of a husband beloved. Three brothers and three sisters preceded him into the beyond, two of them within the last five months, and he leaves three sisters on the shores of time.

For years Brother Byerly, as a leader in his Conference, served as a member of its board of trustees; for a shorter period, as a director of the Illinois Anti-Saloon League, elected by the Conference, and his brethren honored him by sending him as one of their representatives to the General Conference at Los Angeles, Calif., in May, 1904. In his two terms as presiding elder, he showed peculiar adaptation to the responsibilities of that high position, and in many respects was a model district superintendent. Last fall, in making his final report as such, he said he was ready to touch elbows with his brethren in the ranks and march to "victory, superannuation and heaven." No wonder he was ready when the time of his departure came. But God spared him the "superannuation." He has marched to "victory and heaven."

The funeral services were held in First Church, Springfield, March 23, and his body was buried at Urbana beside the remains of his first wife. Dr. C. Galeener, superintendent Springfield District, was in charge. Dr. S. H. Whitlock offered an appropriate prayer. Drs. G. E. Scrimger, W. N. McElroy and Horace Reed paid beautiful tributes to his memory, and the writer, at the request of the deceased, and to whom he dictated his funeral program, wrote the memoir, while others of his brethren assisted in the tender services. Nearly fifty of the members of his Conference were in attendance, and about half as many at the interment at Urbana.

W. A. SMITH.

WILLIAM McKENDREE McELFRESH, A. M., D. D.

WILLIAM McKENDREE McELFRESH was born in Nicholas County, Kentucky, April 9th, 1825. He was the son of Rev. John McElfresh, formerly a member of the Baltimore Conference. With his parents he removed to Morgan County, Illinois, in the fall of 1834, and settled on a farm near the Ebenezer Church, four miles northwest of Jacksonville. He departed this life at his home in Jacksonville March 23rd, 1909. He was converted at Ebenezer Church on July 17, 1836, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church on the same day under the ministry of Rev. James Bristow, preacher in charge of Jacksonville circuit, about three o'clock in the afternoon. At the night service of the same day he innocently joined the church again, giving his hand to Dr. William Window, the junior preacher of the circuit. Attending a camp meeting with his parents, at the now historical Robinson's Camp-ground, now known as the Hebron Church, near Sinclair, Morgan County, during the fall of 1837, he determined to seek and attain more clearly the great blessing of the "Witness of the Spirit." The following is his own account of his experience at that time.

"One-half mile northeast of the encampment, just as the natural sun was setting, the Sun of Righteousness shone in on my spiritual nature. In a moment, quick as thought, all was Light and Love. What a mysterious change! I was too young to comprehend or explain this wonder that came to my youthful nature, and now that I am more than eighty years old, and more than three score and ten years a feeble follower of the Divine Master, I am yet unable to explain the mystery of the New Birth."

He graduated from McKendree College July 17th, 1850. His diploma bears the signature of Dr. Erastus Wentworth, conferring the degree of Bachelor of Science. That institution subsequently conferred upon him the honorary degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Divinity.

He entered the Illinois Conference on trial in the fall of 1851 at its session in Jacksonville, Bishop Waugh presiding. His conference class numbered forty-seven, the largest class up to that time, and possibly to the present time, admitted at one session of an annual conference. His conference record is as follows:

Received on trial in Illinois Conference 1851 Rushville Circuit, junior preacher; 1852, Chili; 1853, Pulaski; 1854-5, White Hall; 1856, Danville; 1857-8, Clinton; 1859, Griggsville, First Charge; 1860-1, Winchester; 1862-4, Waverly; 1865-7, Island Grove; 1868-9, Waverly; 1870-1, Delavan; 1872-5, Springfield District; 1876, Bloomington University charge; 1877-80, Danville District; 1881, Jacksonville Circuit; 1882-4, West Jacksonville Circuit; 1885-6, Alexander; 1887-9, Versailles; 1890-2, Payson; 1893-4, Barry; 1895-7, Superannuated; 1898, Financial Agent of the Woman's College; 1899-1909, Superannuated. He was the last one of his class of 1851 to receive superannuation, a fact which he announced to the Conference when it occurred in 1897. For 44 years he served the Church in the regular line of the itinerancy without cessation. During that time he had voted to him a two weeks' vacation. He was appointed to eight Circuits; ten stations and two Presiding Elder Districts. He was appointed a delegate to the General Conference which was held at Brooklyn, New York, in 1872. The ministry has been his life work. He once said to the writer of this memoir:

"I have always felt my weakness. I have tried in much fear to do the work laid upon me. I have not sought to burden the Conference respecting my appointments. I have avoided the work of a district in five instances, by personally working for the promotion of other brethren. My Conference has advanced me more than I deserved. I have always loved the members of the Illinois Conference, and my prayer is that God may guide and prosper her future work and history. If I have ever been of any service to my fellow men; or if I have been the instrument of the salvation of a single soul, let the praise be given only to the blessed Christ, who is worthy of our supreme adoration."

In the fall of 1853 he was married to Miss Matilda J. Belford, who has always stood by him, true and faithful.

Dr. McElfresh was a scholarly and able preacher. In the preparation of his sermons he made large use of writing. That gave strength and force in their delivery. He was a very popular and successful pastor. His genial spirit and friendly manners made him many friends. He left every charge that he served better than he found it. "He fought a good fight, he finished his course, he kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give him at that day."

Dr. McElfresh's father, Rev. John McElfresh, was ordained Deacon by Bishop Asbury, and Elder by Bishop McKendree. Two of his brothers, Aquila and Greenbury, deceased, were members of the Illinois Annual Conference. So Dr. McElfresh was in the true Methodist Apostolic Succession.

It had long been the wish of Dr. McElfresh that the writer of this memoir should have charge of the funeral exercises, but the illness of the writer at the time, prevented this arrangement. The services were held at the old historic Centenary Church, Jacksonville, and were in charge of Dr. Joseph R. Harker, President of the Illinois Woman's College, who read the sermon prepared by the writer on the text, Jeremiah I, 18. "Behold I have made thee this day an iron pillar." He was assisted by Rev. F. A. McCarty, pastor of the church; Rev. A. A. White, District Superintendent; Rev. Joseph C. Nate, pastor of Grace Church; Rev. Chas. R. Morrison, pastor of Brooklyn Church, and Rev. C. C. Snow, an old time friend of the family, himself more than ninety years of age. An unusually large audience attested the high esteem in which Dr. McElfresh was held in the community. Interment was made in Diamond Grove Cemetery.

WILLIAM F. SHORT.

WILLIAM FLETCHER SHORT, D. D.

REV. WILLIAM FLETCHER SHORT, D. D., minister, educator and man of public affairs, was born of Scotch-Irish parentage in Butler County, Ohio, Nov. 9, 1829, and departed this life on Sunday morning, August 29, 1909, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. D. Waller, at Oak Park, Ill. He was the son of Rev. Daniel Short, who came with his family to Morgan County, Ill., in 1834, and who was widely known and esteemed as a local preacher of our church. The subject of this sketch grew up on a farm, experiencing the "hard labors and privations incident to the life of a farmer's boy of that early period. At the age of twenty he felt himself called to the gospel ministry and, accordingly, entered McKendree College at Lebanon, Ill., completing the course of study up to the senior year. He then entered the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Ill., and graduated therefrom in 1854. His doctorate degree in divinity was conferred by the Ohio Wesleyan University in 1877. Immediately upon his graduation from college Dr. Short became the principal of the Missouri Conference Seminary at Jackson, Mo., where he remained for nearly three years. He entered the Illinois Conference in 1856 and was, successively, pastor at Island Grove, Williamsville, Waverly, and Winchester, each two years; Carlinville, three years; Hillsboro, one year; Grace Church, Jacksonville, three years; and Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville District, four years.

In the fall of 1875 Dr. Short became President of the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, and served in that capacity for eighteen years. His administration as the head of this important institution of our church is memorable among its graduates of that period, and was characterized by a wise Christian policy, resulting in the great advancement of the school in many directions. He was a delegate from the Illinois Conference to the General Conference of 1884, and served with distinction in many other important gatherings and councils of his church. In 1893 President Short was appointed Superintendent of the Illinois School for the Blind at Jacksonville, at the head of which he remained for four years which are noteworthy in its history. At the Conference session of 1897 Dr. Short was appointed Presiding Elder of the West Jacksonville District, upon which he served the full term of six years. The expiration of that period completed fifty years of continuous service in connection with the Methodist church when, at the Conference held at Quincy, Ill., in 1903, under Bishop Fowler, he retired from the active work. The remaining years of his life, however, were filled with activity and usefulness. His home during this period has been in Jacksonville, Ill., where for so many years he has been regarded as one of the foremost citizens of the place. No public function of importance was complete without him, and the ministry of his later years in a multitude of homes, in baptisms, marriage, sickness and death, as well as in his constant assistance given to his brother ministers, evidenced both the deep love and the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him.

Dr. Short was married on Aug. 23, 1854, to Miss Sarah B. Laning of Petersburg, Ill. He is survived by her, by their three daughters, Mrs. Edward C. Lambert, of Jacksonville; Mrs. J. D. Waller, M. D., of Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth, D. D., pastor of Central M. E. Church, Brocton, Mass., and by a large number of other relatives.

The funeral services were held in Jacksonville on Wednesday, September 1st, and were in charge of the writer as the pastor of his home. Addresses were made by President Harker of the Illinois Woman's College; Rev. W. L. McElroy, D. D., Springfield, Illinois; Rev. W. H. Webster, D. D., Danville, Illinois, and Rev. Horace Reed, D. D., Decatur, Ill. Others who assisted in the service were Rev. A. A. White, District Superintendent of the Jacksonville District; Rev. A. B. Morey, D. D., Jacksonville; Rev. Christie Galeener, D. D., Springfield, Ill., and Rev. Robert Stevens, Danville, Ill. Many others of our ministers were present and shared in our last tribute of love and respect to the memory of one who was for so many years a leader of his Conference and a true minister for the Kingdom of God.

JOSEPH C. NATE,
Jacksonville, Ill.

MARY FULTON WANT

MRS. MARY FULTON WANT was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, March 26, 1867. Her ancestry were of Scotch origin, although her father and mother were born in Ireland. With them at the age of two years she came to America. Her parents were members of the Church of England and Mary was christened in the Parish Church where she was born. She was reared in the Church and in a Christian home and so from her infancy kept a constant relation of confidence and trust in God. She spent her girlhood days on the farm in southern Champaign County, where she united with the Methodist Church at its organization in Fairland. She was the church organist for years and occupied that position at the time of her marriage to Rev. M. M. Want,

Dec. 26, 1889. She was the mother of four children, Cullen Henry, Ruth, Maurice Fulton, and baby Mary Lois, named for her mother.

Mrs. Want has recently been bereaved of both father and mother. Her sister, Mrs. W. T. Gwinn of Newman, Ill., and her brother, William G. Fulton, of Fairland, have both been with Mrs. Want during her sickness.

Mrs. Want was a woman of strong character and unusual ability. Her chosen sphere was that of a home maker. She has been the inspiration of her companion's life. She was a great mother. The training she has given her older children has stamped on them her own true character.

She was a woman of deep spirituality and spent herself without hesitation in the service of the church and had remarkable success as a Sunday School teacher, and a leader in the Missionary Societies of the churches her husband served.

Her death, April 9, 1909, came as a shock to her family and to all the many friends who have known and loved her. On the 13th of March the little babe who bears her name came to the home. She had anticipated its coming with much pleasure. She rallied after the birth and was able to be up for a short while. Complications, however, arose and the poor heart after fighting bravely for nearly two weeks, at last tired from its too great task and ceased its toil. She has gone to her reward and will watch for her family's coming.

The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Bement Saturday at 1 p. m. and the interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, Urbana. Rev. Theodore Kemp, President of the Illinois Wesleyan University of Bloomington, had charge of the services and preached the sermon. Hon. Leslie J. Owen of LeRoy also made an address.

Dr. McElroy, who was her Presiding Elder for five years, spoke of her life in the Parsonage as he had known her. Dr. Reed, who gave Brother Want his first license to preach, made the prayer. Brother P. P. Carson read the Scripture lesson from the last chapter of Proverbs. Fourteen Clergymen were present. Mrs. Want's Men's Bible Class, and many other friends came from LeRoy, the W. F. M. S., the Bement Men's Bible Class, The Official Board, the Woman's Club, and the B. H. S. Class of 1911, each attended in a body.

AMERICA ROBERTSON HOOPER

MRS. AMERICA ROBERTSON HOOPER was the daughter of James D. and Mary Hardesty Robertson and was born Oct. 7, 1837, on a farm adjoining Bloomington, Ind., where her father's people had come as pioneers and did much as did her mother's people in the advancement of that part of Indiana. Here she grew to womanhood, receiving a splendid education, completing it in the seminary which her grandfather, Samuel Hardesty, helped to build on land he donated for the purpose. Both branches of her family were of the Methodist faith, the Robertson branch having built the first Methodist church in Indiana territory, which was of logs about 20 by 40 feet. After serving its time it fell into disuse and for years was used as a stable by a farmer of Clark county. In respect to the family, the people of Indiana a few years ago bought the farm, restored the building and dedicated it in memory of the Grandfather Robertson, who did so much for the church and was so widely honored.

On April 17, 1862, the granddaughter of this noble line, Miss America Robertson, was married to W. S. Hooper by Rev. Cyrus Nutt, president of the Indiana University. Mr. Hooper was at that time president of an academy at Rockport, Ind., and it was there he established his home. It was there, Nov. 7, 1863, that their first and only son, Cyrus Laaron Hooper, was born. Later he moved to Marshall, Ill., where he entered the ministry and became a member of the Illinois Conference in which his life as a minister was spent. In 1867 the little family moved to Charleston and there on June 2, 1868, Mabel Hooper, the first and only daughter, to bless the home was born. Among other cities in the state where the family lived during Rev. Mr. Hooper's pastorate, were Quincy, Hillsboro, Paxton, Paris, Danville, Winchester and Shelbyville. In 1890 they moved to this city from Shelbyville and it was here that Mrs. Hooper suffered the deepest sorrow of her life in the death of her husband, who died April 19, 1906, just two days after they had lived forty-four years together, in that perfect harmony of spirit which marks the ideal life of a wedded couple.

During Mrs. Hooper's life in this city she wove herself into the affections of every one and was the most generally beloved of our women. She was quiet, unpretentious, unassuming, but was an ideal home maker, devoted to those interests which reach out for the building of character in society, the church and the home and was ever ready to lend her influence for the furthering of good ends.

The death angel called her while she was visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. Walter Robertson, at Bloomington. After but a few hours warning she went to her Heavenly home, July 2, 1909. The body was borne to the Kern residence in Mattoon, and on Tuesday morning, July 6th, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, while she lay in the church parlor on her snowy couch, in robes of white, in a crescent of flowers, and guarded over by the pall bearers, Rev. Mr. Ewert, pastor of the local church, assisted by Rev. D. W. English of Kansas, Ill., a former pastor and district superintendent, Parker Shields of Charleston, conducted the service, which was appropriate and beautiful and largely attended, after which all that was mortal of Mrs. Hooper was borne to Dodge Grove cemetery and placed in the receiving vault to await the completion of the vault which was being built by the side of that in which her husband now rests.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mabel Hooper Kern, with whom she made her home, and grandson, Armstrong Kern. one son, Cyrus Laaron Hooper of Chicago, and two brothers, Walter Robertson of Bloomington, and James Robertson of Ellettsville, Ind.

MRS. ELSIE LOWE

MR. ELSIE LOWE was born at Trafalger, Canada West, in 1815. Her father was one of the first white children born in that country. Mrs. Lowe was one of eleven children, and at the time of her death was the last survivor of the family. In 1841 she was married to Rev. W. F. Lowe, who at the time of his death was a member of the Illinois Conference. Soon after the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe the husband was converted and united with the Methodist Church of Canada. With his conversion came the call to the ministry and he became a member of the Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada, where they labored for twenty years, doing pioneer work. In 1860 they left Canada and moved to Wisconsin for the benefit of Mrs. Lowe's health, but her health not improving, they removed to Illinois where Brother Lowe became a member of the Central Illinois Conference. In 1867 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference. Brother Lowe died in 1889 and since that time Mrs. Lowe has made her home with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Nattinger, of Omaha, Neb. Sister Lowe cheerfully shared with her husband the toils and privations of the pioneer work of the ministry. She was the mother of six children, three of whom still remain. She passed to her reward from the home of Mrs. Nattinger in Omaha, Neb., August 24, 1909, having reached the ripe old age of ninety-four years. She was faithful in all the relations of life as wife, mother and helper in the ministry. The last decade of her life was spent in an invalid's chair, but grace kept her sweet and trustful always, saying to her friends, "I am only waiting for the call of the Master to take me home." Funeral services were conducted at the home in Omaha by Rev. Scott Hyde of the Hascome Park Methodist Church, and the body was brought to Macon, Illinois, where service was again conducted by the Rev. H. H. O'Neal, D. D., and she was laid to rest beside her husband.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

MARY R. SINNOCK

MARY REBECCA BAKER, daughter of George and Anna Baker, was born in Hampshire County, West Virginia, September 16th, 1837, and died in Raton, New Mexico, on July 7th, 1909. When she was about fourteen years of age, the family moved to Illinois and settled in Payson, Adams County, where she was shortly afterwards happily converted to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On October 20th, 1857, she was united in marriage to Rev. J. W. Sinnock, who, two years previously, had become a member of the Illinois Conference. To them four children were born: Charles, Adah, Emma and Myrtal. Adah and Emma both went home to Heaven in the flower of their young womanhood. It was the hope of saving, or prolonging, Emma's life that led Brother Sinnock, on December 3rd, 1873, to move his family from Williamsville, Illinois, to Raton, New Mexico, where he was immediately appointed pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. He subsequently held other strong charges in the New Mexico English Mission with marked success. His membership, however, still remains in the Illinois Conference.

Brother and Sister Sinnock have lived in happy comradeship for more than half a century. On October 20th, 1908, they celebrated their golden wedding in Raton, and were given ample evidence of the love and esteem of the people among whom they have lived for twenty-five years. It was, indeed, a memorable occasion.

Sister Sinnock was a faithful helper and wise counsellor to her husband in all his ministerial and pastoral duties. She had a strong even temperament—that splendid balance of mind and heart which is in itself a great blessing—good judgment, and remarkable intuitive insight into human nature. She was one of those beloved saints of God whose spirits never grow old. She loved, and labored in, the Sunday School and exerted a great influence over young men, to whom, until physical feebleness rendered it impossible, her home was always open, and her motherly sympathy ever extended. After she was compelled to give up her Sunday School work, and as long as she was able to attend the morning service of worship, she always came early enough to visit the Sunday School and to hear the report read.

During the last few weeks of her life she suffered severely from heart affection, but the peace of God which passeth all understanding possessed her tranquil soul. Her end came very suddenly and unexpectedly. She appeared to be rapidly improving, when, on the beautiful summer evening of July 7th, while she was sitting in her chair conversing cheerfully with her husband and her daughter, without warning, she was gone. God's finger touched her and she slept. Besides her husband, who, in his declining years, is greatly sustained by the grace of God, she is survived by her son, Charles, and her daughter, Myrtal, Mrs. E. W. Fulghum, both of whom reside in Raton.

The funeral service was conducted by the writer on the morning of July 9th, and her remains were interred in Fairmont cemetery, Raton, New Mexico, to await the morning of the resurrection.

Laymen's Association

The Laymen's Association met in its second annual session in the Congregational Church, in Mattoon, on Friday, Sept. 16, 1909, at 1:45 p. m., with about two hundred laymen present.

James L. Loar, President of the Association, called the meeting to order.

The Laymen's Quartet, consisting of S. A. D. Harry, John M. Glassco, J. J. Hamilton and A. C. Shriver, were present and sang.

The devotional exercises were conducted by H. R. Crawford, the music being in charge of Prof. S. A. D. Harry.

On motion, a committee consisting of Frank T. Kuhl, Milton Johnson and Frank Harold were appointed to wait on the ministers and invite them to join in the parade at 6:45 in the evening.

The program as published was then taken up and W. B. Patterson, of New York City, being unable to be present on account of illness, his place was acceptably filled by Rev. James P. Chadbourne, of New York City, Assistant Secretary of the Brotherhood Movement.

Mr. Chadbourne gave a talk that was replete with the good things accomplished by the Brotherhood throughout the country.

At this juncture a collection was taken, amounting to $21.34.

Mr. J. A. Patton, of Chattanooga, President of the International Laymen's Association, made a fine address, in which he told of the good that a Laymen's Association can do and what some of them are doing.

The quartet sang another selection.

Mr. W. C. Pearce, of Chicago, made an address on the growth and efficiency of the adult Bible class movement throughout the country.

The men's parade at 6:45 in the evening was a notable and inspiring feature of the convention. About five hundred ministers and laymen, headed by the Mattoon Band, paraded the principal streets of the city.

James L. Loar, President of the Association, presided at the joint session in the evening, and the speakers were J. A. Patton, of Chattanooga, and Rev. J. C. Floyd, of Chicago.

The conference convened at 9 a. m. Friday, Sept. 17, in the Christian Church.

Devotional exercises were conducted by J. W. Perry. On motion a committee of one from each district was named on organization, consisting as follows: John C. Reed, John Kissack, S. A. D. Harry, I. L. Long, J. J. Hamilton, D. Leslie Davis, C. W. Coughlin and M. B. Garber.

This committee was instructed to wait on the Bishop and his Cabinet and find out if possible whether there would be an elimination of one district this year before our organization was completed.

It was also suggested that an executive committee of five members be named from each district to assist the Vice-Presidents.

On the roll call of reports by districts, E. H. Peine was not present to report for Bloomington.

John Kissack, of Champaign District, made a good report. Only one charge in his district failed to pay the pastor in full.

S. A. D. Harry gave a good account of the work done in the Danville District.

H. R. Crawford, of Decatur District, spoke briefly of the work done in that district.

Jacksonville had no report on account of the absence of the Vice-President E. K. Metcalf, who was ill.

D. Leslie Davis gave a good report for Mattoon District. T. E. Orr, Vice-President of the Springfield District, being absent, J. W. Perry reported that the men's work was progressing in that district.

U. S. T. Rice made the announcements and urged the laymen to move up and take advance in the work of the Lord.

Rev. J. C. Nate, pastor of Grace Church, Jacksonville, was presented to the conference, and extended a cordial invitation to the Laymen's Association to meet in Jacksonville in 1910.

On motion the invitation was accepted.

On motion it was ordered that every one present be allowed to participate in the open discussions of the conference.

Rev. A. G. Kynett, of Philadelphia, representing the Church Extension Board, addressed the conference.

Rev. James P. Chadbourne, of New York City, made a brief address to the convention.

The President appointed the following committees: Resolutions—John W. Perry, Miss L. I. Mace and Henry B. Wise. Nominating Committee—S. A. D. Harry, Frank Harrold and A. A. Carruthers.

On motion a recess was taken for the noon hour.

Convention reconvened at 2 p. m. in the Congregational Church.

Devotional exercises were conducted by the President.

The quartet sang.

On motion it was requested that each charge send in at least one dollar to the Treasurer to defray expenses for the year.

The committee on organization reported as follows: "We recommend that a committee consisting of seven members from each district be appointed by the Vice-Presidents to serve as an executive committee in the district and each to be chairman of a special line of work, as follows: Aggressive Evangelism, Brotherhood, Hospital and Charities, Benevolences, Pastoral Support, Conference Claimants and Adult Bible Classes."

The committee further reported that the Bishop was as yet undecided as to the elimination of a district, and asked that a vote of the Lay Conference be taken.

On motion the report of the committee was adopted.

A motion was introduced that the number of districts be reduced to seven. Amended that the districts remain at eight.

After considerable discussion a vote was taken, resulting in two to one in favor of eight districts.

Miss Tobie, representing Chaddock Boys' School at Quincy, addressed the conference.

Dr. Harker briefly presented the good points of the school at Jacksonville.

President Kemp, of Bloomington, made a good report of the condition of the Illinois Wesleyan College.

Mr. J. F. Lawson, Secretary and Treasurer of the Memorial Hospital at Mattoon, made a brief report.

Rev. M. W. Satterfield, of Wesley Hospital, Chicago, spoke briefly.

The nominating committee reported as follows:

"Your committee beg leave to place in nomination for the ensuing year the following:

"President, James L. Loar, Bloomington; Vice-Presidents, Bloomington District, E. H. Peine, Mason City; Champaign District, John Kissack, Farmer City; Danville District, S. A. D. Harry, Hoopeston; Decatur District, H. R. Crawford, Hillsboro; Jacksonville District, J. W. Breckon, Jacksonville; Mattoon District, D. Leslie Davis, Shelbyville; Quincy District, Milo Galloway, Pleasant Hill; Springfield District, T. E. Orr, Buffalo; Secretary, John M. Glassco, Charleston; Treasurer, Milton Johnson, Decatur.

"We further recommend that if the number of districts be reduced, then be it resolved that the President, Secretary and Treasurer, together with the executive committee, appoint the Vice-Presidents, selecting from those above named as far as possible.

"S. A. D. HARRY,
"ALBERT CARRUTHERS,
"FRANK E. HARROLD,
"Committee."

On motion the report of the committee was adopted and the above named officers were declared elected for the ensuing year.

A motion that the Secretary be authorized to arrange for the publication of the minutes of this convention in the minutes of the Annual Conference was amended that the Secretary use his discretion in the matter.

Motion carried.

Dr. Freeman, of Mattoon, spoke in behalf of the Memorial Hospital.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

"We come to the close of the second year of the organization of the Laymen's Association of the Illinois Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church.

"With a spirit of thankfulness to our heavenly Father for the blessings of the year and appreciation of the faithful efforts of the membership, we look forward to a year of greater achievements, in which we shall be found steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, inasmuch as we know our labors are not in vain in the Lord.

"Whereas, the object of the Laymen's Association is, 'To mutually interest the laymen throughout the Illinois Conference in all the general affairs of the church, and especially in every local interest whereby the church may be stirred up to a greater efficiency and usefulness in the hands of God in advancing his cause; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we renew our loyalty and devotion to this Association, and as the larger demands of the church may press upon us pledge our support to the full extent of our opportunity.

"We urge every charge in the Conference to contribute through the Treasurer, as early as possible in the year, $1.00 for the financial support of the Association.

"We congratulate the State Epworth League on their success in founding the Chautauqua and Institute at Quiver Lake, Havana. We know the advantages of the fine location they have selected and the high standard of the institution they are establishing.

"We urge our people to make this a great summer gathering of Christian people of Illinois.

"We rejoice in the triumphant work of the Anti-Saloon League in its fight against the liquor traffic. We are glad our Methodism is standing so loyally back of this great organization that has led the fight which has closed the doors of sixteen thousand saloons in the past eighteen months, sixteen hundred of which have been in our own State. As laymen we pledge to the Anti-Saloon League our heartiest support and urge our men throughout the Conference to aid the organization in every way possible. Realizing the fierceness of the struggle, we are glad our pastors are giving the League the best possible opportunity to present its claims to our people.

"We heartily indorse the Brotherhood and Adult Bible Class Movements, and urge the laymen of the church to give them their practical and enthusiastic affiliation.

"Resolved, That we extend our hearty thanks to the citizens of Mattoon for the splendid entertainment furnished to the Congregational and Christian churches for open doors; also to our President for his enthusiastic leadership; to our Secretary for his devotion and untiring efforts in behalf of the Association, and to our Treasurer for his faithful duties in behalf of the financial department of our work.

"Further, we wish to manifest our appreciation and approval of the various speakers, who have presented to us such splendid and helpful truths, and we urge our members to strive, with God's help, to practice in our daily lives these great lessons, so ably presented.

"(Signed.)

"L. INGRAM MACE,
"HENRY B. WISE.
"JOHN W. PERRY."

On motion the report of the committee on resolutions was adopted.

Rev. Chadbourne spoke briefly.

On motion the Conference adjourned to meet in Jacksonville in September, 1910.

Conference Studies

Board of Examiners

Chairman—W. A. Smith, Lincoln.

Registrar—J. M. Bennington, Arcola.

Examiners—Walter Aitken, Danville; J. C. Baker, Urbana; H. M. Derby, Philo; W. D. Fairchild, Pana; E. A. Hedges, Augusta; E. H. Lugg, Ross-ville; R. F. McDaniel, Urbana; F. A. McCarty, Jacksonville; C. F. McKown, Chatham; J. W. Miller, Quincy; J. C. Nate, Jacksonville; H. H. O'Neal, Duncan, Miss.; C. D. Robertson, Findlay; R. L. Steed, Green Valley; S. W. Thornton, Springfield; W. N. Tobie, Springfield; J. W. Van Cleve, Champaign; M. M. Want, Greenfield.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examinations for 1910-11

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the Chairman and Registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the Chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the Chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the Chairman shall arrange with a member of the Conference as Special Supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

(a) Before the day of examination the Registrar will supply the Supervisors with questions on all the books on which examinations are to be conducted, which shall cover the books for the whole Course of Study for the August Period.

(b) As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.

(c) Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass, and any one not making an average grade of 75 upon the year's work shall be required to take over all studies on which there was not made a grade of 75.

8. No syllabus or book Review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books).....
 (Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.
 (Signed).....

These certificates will be forwarded by the District Supervisors to the Registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in the Methodist Review.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the Chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the Chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the Chairman; and the financial accounts of the Chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of Orders, at least thirty days before Conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the Chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of District Superintendents to report to the chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes, before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13; to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorab!e mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at each Annual Conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors.

Conference Rules

Your committee on rules appointed at the last session of the conference, begs leave to submit the following report:

"1. The conference shall meet at 8:30 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the conference.

"2. In any session of the conference it shall require two-thirds of the whole number of members of the conference who shall have answered to their names at the calling of the roll during that session to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may take steps necessary to secure a quorum or may adjourn.

"3. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"4. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"5. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member or of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"6. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"7. No effective member of the conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"8. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"9. All written motions, reports and communications to the conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the conference.

"10. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president, it shall be deemed in possession of the conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"11. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"12. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"13. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"14. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"15. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"16. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"17. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the conference, and if the call be sustained by — — — members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The district superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the conference in advance of the conference session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the conference.

"22. Vacancies in the conference board of trustees, the conference board of stewards and the conference deaconess board shall be filled by election of the conference on nomination by the district superintendents.

"23. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"24. The statistical secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the conference session immediately following the organization of the conference.

"25. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"26. These rules shall not be suspended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting."

J. W. VAN CLEVE, Chairman.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT

In reviewing the year's work on the Bloomington District, so many interests press for recognition that there is danger of exceeding the time at my command, while on the other hand, the abbreviated form might seem to imply indifference, partiality or neglect. I can say in justice to all the pastors, that a noble work has been accomplished throughout the District and that success has crowned the painstaking and energetic work of those who labored earnestly, sparing not themselves so as God's Kingdom might be advanced. Many have shown the spirit of the words,

"Great duties are before me and great songs,
And whether crowned or crownless when I fall;
It matters not so as God's work is done."

When a year ago I was commissioned by Bishop D. A. Goodsell of blessed memory, to assume the superintendency of the Bloomington District there came to me a sense of its multiform responsibilities. The task did not appear easy and its fulfillment has called forth the best I have had to give.

At the opening of the year two charges had to be supplied, Waynesville and LeRoy. For the former I secured C. P. Adams, a supernumerary of the Kansas Conference, and for LeRoy C. M. Barton, from the Quincy District of our own Conference. Both men have served their charges faithfully and well.

In the month of March, Dr. J. W. Somerville of First Church, Bloomington, and Dr. George E. Pickard of Wichita, Kansas, perfected an exchange which has resulted most favorably for the interest of both. Dr. Pickard has established himself in the hearts of the people of First Church and preaches to large audiences.

Rev. Merle English has done a notable work in enlarging Grace Church, Bloomington, at a cost of $14,000. At the reopening he raised enough money to liquidate every cent of indebtedness. This enlargement makes Grace Church, Bloomington, one of the most complete in the Conference. At Mason City Rev. T. H. Tull led his people in the same work. About $8,000 will be expended. When completed, this Church will be a finely equipped edifice, adequate to the needs of Sunday School and congregation. At McLean Rev. G. W. Wetzel succeeded most admirably in extensive repairs and frescoing of the entire church. Rev. L. W. Selby of New Holland rejoices in a like victory, having a newly papered and mission finish auditorium. At San Jose Rev. F. M. Harry led his people in the same work of church improvement and now enjoys a handsome audience room.

At the beginning of the Conference year three places became stations: Beason, Chestnut and Kenney. All have prospered. Beason has responded most generously to the missionary appeal; Chestnut has built a beautiful parsonage, modern and complete in every way; Kenney has had a good year and will advance to greater things.

At Middletown, the pastor secured the assistance of Evangelist Forsyth in a tent meeting and as a splendid result eighty-seven new members were added to the church roll. This increase has brought new life and an increase in salary.

And while I mention only these special cases I would not have you infer that the other preachers have not done well. Indeed, many in reducing debts; in bringing peace and unity; in uniting the forces of the church for steady and successful work; in preaching to uniformly large audiences; in faithful attention to all the details of a wide awake ministry; in reaping the results of a constant evangelism, have contributed largely to the success of the District and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom.

That the influence of our pastors is still for good I need but say that I have given Local Preachers' Licenses to seven young men, all of whom expect to pursue their collegiate studies at the Wesleyan University.

It is with some degree of joy that I report an increase of salary in two-thirds of my charges, aggregating $3,100. When other professions are doing so well for their men; when prices are so high for every necessity of our homes, it is but just that our pastors share in the general prosperity and receive a more generous compensation.

Our Sunday Schools, as a whole, are flourishing. Never have I witnessed more concerted interest upon the part of men than during the past year. There are large Men's Bible classes. In the First Church, Bloomington, the report of one quarter told of an average of ninety-three in attendance. In a very signal way the men are becoming a factor in the life of the church in all her enterprises.

The Epworth League will ever hold an important place in the affairs of our young people. Could I impress one supreme need it is that there should be a more aggressive purposeful endeavor to advance the revival interest of the devotional services. We are optimistic in our faith in these young workers, and believe most heartily in the healthful enthusiasm and abiding consecration of the Epworthians of our church.

I will not indulge in statistics. Enough to say that so far as I have been able to get returns from the charges, with few exceptions, increase along all lines has been reported. On the whole, the year's work will show good results.

Bloomington District feels a just pride in reporting that from within her borders an elect lady has given a splendid farm to the Preachers' Aid Society. No doubt the champion of that worthy cause, Rev. Robert Stephens, will tell you about it.

The health of our pastors and their families has been good. In some of the parsonages new life and promise have entered in the advent of a precious girl or boy. (LeRoy and Delavan share in mutual congratulations.) In one home came the sad reverse. On July 26th death entered the parsonage home of Rev. Arthur F. Ewert and wife, of Park Church, Bloomington, taking away their boy of about two years. He was not only the pride and joy of the manse, but of the church and community. The Junior League of Park Church was named after him, "The Wendell Ewert Chapter."

At Havana a successful Ministerial Institute opened up a possible series of coming institutes for the quickening of our Ministers in thought and faith. I mention this to remind the preachers of our Conference of the great good near at hand available to those who desire to keep abreast of the times in the fulfillment and upbuilding of an efficient ministry.

I must not close without a word relative to our beloved Wesleyan. Her day of gloom is past, though not her struggles. The outlook is that of a beautiful morn when the light has driven the night far away. We are indeed proud that we were not compelled to go afar in search of a man worthy the leadership of this institution. We found him in our midst, busy in the pastorate. When invited to assume the responsible task, Dr. Theodore Kemp after due prayer and consideration could not refuse the call of duty. He accepted and lo! the day-star of hope arose and has been shining ever since. The freshman class of last year was the largest ever enrolled in Illinois Wesleyan and there was graduated at the last commencement the largest class in the history of the school. The new Science Hall is rapidly nearing completion. A new heating plant is in process of construction at a cost of $10,000, that will furnish heat for all the buildings. We hail the new era with praise and would urge all our pastors to direct their young people to the doors of Illinois Wesleyan University.

My relation to all the pastors and charges has been most pleasant and cordial. I have held all the quarterly conferences save three. I have preached one hundred and fifty-three sermons. The work, while exacting, has been an inspiration; and above all it has been a new revelation of the importance of the church to every community to the state and to the world.

"Lead on, O King Eternal,
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of Might."

A. L. T. EWERT.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop Cranston, Fathers and Brethren:

With gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His benignant providence and abundant mercy, I present my first report of Champaign District to the Illinois Annual Conference.

My esteemed predecessor, Dr. C. B. Taylor, left the district in splendid condition and well-manned. He has shown me every courtesy and granted wise counsel. The graceful manner in which he has taken his place in the pew of First Church, Urbana, has been a benediction to that church and its pastor.

Pastoral Changes

Immediately upon adjournment of Conference and with the consent of Bishop Goodsell and Dr. Galeener, C. F. McKown of Fithian and J. J. Dugan of Chatham were exchanged with mutual benefit. At the autumn meeting of the Board of Superintendents a series of exchanges was arranged and later approved by Bishop Goodsell. This took E. L. Darley out of and put T. O. Holley into Mahomet. On Feb. 19, Lloyd K. Ellesberry, the student pastor of Savoy, was released at his own request, having decided to give his life to the business world. Then Elmer A. Leslie, a student and local preacher, acting as assistant pastor of Trinity Church, Urbana, was appointed preacher in charge at Savoy. Upon his graduation at the University of Illinois in June, he secured a student appointment near Boston that he might attend the Boston School of Theology. The then recent death of his father and the care of his widowed mother made it necessary that he should go east at once. With the consent of the Quarterly Conference he was released on June 19. Rev. D. W. Morton, a local deacon and professor in the University of Illinois, supplied the charge until Aug. 21, when Rev. Melville E. Osborne, a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University and son of a noted missionary in India, the late Dr. Dennis Osborne, was appointed as supply preacher in charge. He has continued unto this day.

Methodist Students at the University of Illinois

Before giving a resume of the year's work may I present briefly two problems of grave importance that demand an early solution.

There are one thousand Methodist students at the University of Illinois. They are there because they cannot get elsewhere the training they desire. They are as strong mentally and as valuable spiritually as any like body of Methodist young people. The state cannot provide Methodist, or any other kind of religious, culture for its students. These are not Champaign and Urbana young people, nor will they be Twin City old people. They belong to the Methodist homes of the state and the Methodists of the state must provide for their religious life while they are at the University. If they do not, other denominations will; and our serious loss will be their rich gain.

One year ago the four Conferences of the state appointed a Commission on Methodist students at the University of Illinois of three ministers and three laymen from each Conference with a local committee of five laymen and the Methodist pastors resident in the Twin Cities. The Commission met Jan. 10 and recommended that $1,200 be apportioned to and raised by the four Conferences of the state to meet the expense of a man and a woman who should be employed to help the pastor of Trinity church care for this army of Methodist students; and to provide and circulate literature among the Methodists of the state as a campaign of education on this subject. The helpers have been secured; the literature has been prepared and distributed; but only a fraction of the money has been received.

Further, the Commission made the local committee its executive committee, with power to act. It has secured the property across the street east from Trinity Church and holds it till such time as money shall be raised to purchase it and erect thereon a Parish House or Oxford Hall. Such a building would make possible many greatly needed features of modern religious life and work among students.

Tuesday, May 24, the Commissioners and more than one hundred Methodist laymen met at a banquet in Trinity Church. This delightful occasion was the gift of a generous Methodist of Champaign City. President James was the guest of honor and delivered an address on the duty of the church to its student young people. The local situation was thoroughly discussed in an open conference and these representative men pledged their support for the larger and more efficient care of Methodist students at the University of Illinois.

We will ask the Conference to continue the Commission, to ask the Home Missionary Society to make a special appropriation for this work, and to pledge the support of the Conference to the solution of this imperative problem.

The Rural Church

The problem of the country church is also a serious one. From these churches have come many of the leaders in state and church and much of the financial and spiritual strength of the larger churches of town and city. The death of the country church means, therefore, not merely an unchurched rural population, but an ever increasing proportion of godless leaders in state and national life and an awful dearth in the life of the city church of the next generation.

As a rule there are more people and more money in these rural communities than there were twenty-five years ago. The tenant's half is greater today than the owner's whole income was a quarter of a century ago. Why, then, are so many of these churches dying, or already dead?

First, there are too many of them. Four or five little Protestant churches in one township are too many. In most instances one would be enough. Federation and church union with common sense would help to solve the problem.

Second, the character of the people and the conditions of living have changed, but the church moves in ancient grooves of method. Because the rural church does not adapt its methods to new conditions it is dying. A farmers' institutional church, open seven days in the week and the center and moulder of the community life, would, in my judgment, contribute to the solution of the problem and to the salvation of the rural and urban populations. If this be true, a generation of ministers is needed, who shall be qualified in agriculture as well as in theology to lead the community life of a generation of scientifically educated farmers. Methodism, the church of the people, must produce a new brand of saddle bags as well qualified for these strenuous times, as were those of a century ago for the work of that age.

Third, the meager salaries paid the clergy guarantee such a niggardly support that thoroughly equipped men of strong personality and qualified in body, mind and spirit to revolutionize the barren rural church-life, are, with rare exceptions, driven from the ministry to other forms of altruistic service. Not until the average daily wage of the minister is more than that of the unskilled day laborer can our wealthy husbandmen hope for skillful toilers in the vineyard of the Lord.

These may be called "hair-brained schemes," but a solution that contains anything of promise is better than no attempt at solution.

Notable Gatherings

Early in October the pastors and district stewards were the guests of the Superintendent in the parlors of First Church, Champaign. They became acquainted and studied the problems of the district.

On Jan. 31, the Pastors' Quiet Hour was held in Trinity Church, Urbana. Sermons of great power and beauty were preached by President McConnell, of DePauw, and President Kemp, of the Illinois Wesleyan. The afternoon session closed with the Lord's Supper. After a pleasant social hour more than one hundred and fifty Methodists enjoyed a bountiful banquet, artistically served by the ladies of the church. President James of the University of Illinois, and Bishop Quayle delivered eloquent and inspiring toasts. Later, that evening, in First Church, Champaign, Bishop Quayle lectured for the benefit of the Conference claimants. The day was a great blessing to the parsonages and Methodist homes of the district.

The Ministerial Association, held at Philo, April 17 and 18, was largely attended, royally entertained, and of exceeding profit. Dr. C. M. Stuart, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, and Rev. J. O. Randle, pastor of Sheridan Road church, Chicago, brought timely messages and won friends.

For the first time in its history the Cisco church entertained the district Epworth League Conference on June 16 and 17, and entertained so delightfully that the delegates all want to go there again. Bishop

Lewis gave two statesman-like addresses on China and Rev. K. E. Pease on Malaysia. Dr. Pickard, pastor of First Church, Bloomington, lectured on the "Young People and the Devil" with eloquent familiarity. A series of seven sub-district institutes had quickened League life and contributed to the success of the splendid Conference. O. B. Wysong, of Fithian, was re-elected president.

Bishops McDowell and Berry and Drs. Herben and Downey have counselled and cheered us by their presence and words of wisdom.

A number of Leagues, Brotherhoods and Organized Bible Classes have cultivated the social life by banquets.

At the beginning of the year's study of the Gospel of Matthew in our Sunday schools, the Superintendent gave his lecture on "Matthew and His Gospel," with a printed outline for home study, in fifteen charges in the district.

Seventeen of the pastors and laymen of the district attended the Missionary Congress in Chicago in May.

Anti-Saloon Territory

Champaign district is Anti-Saloon League territory. There is not a licensed saloon in the district and the enforcement of law becomes increasingly effective. Last spring wherever the issue of license was raised our pastors took the lead against license. Champaign City was the Waterloo of this campaign in the district; and the Wellington, who organized and led the "Drys" to glorious victory, was the fearless and skillful pastor of First Church. Other pastors did equally as valiant service elsewhere. The student vote saved the Twin Cities from the curse of the licensed saloon and the cities and the state are the proud debtors of these brave young men.

The Benevolences

For thirteen consecutive days in April, Rev. G. L. Davis, a returned missionary, made a tour of the district, and Rev. K. E. Pease, of Singapore, made a like tour in July, presenting the interests of missions. The pastors have faithfully and wisely presented the various benevolent enterprises of the church and the outlook is an increased offering. But when the bountiful harvest and phenomenal prosperity are compared with our meager offerings, the conviction is inevitable that our Methodist laymen are not faithful stewards of God's manifold gifts. The kingdom of God waits for justice, not generosity, at the hands of its citizens. The Epworth Leagues continue to support their missionary, Elric Williams and wife, of China. The W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. are doing splendid service.

Material Interests

Early in the year, by Quarterly Conference action, Gibson City and Monticello decided to erect much needed churches. Later they postponed these enterprises for a more convenient season, that is, for a season when they would not be so seriously embarrassed by prosperity and automobiles. Bondville dedicated its new $7,000 church in November, and Bellflower has a new brick church, costing about $10,000, nearly ready for dedication. Both of these handsome modern edifices are free from debt. First Church, Champaign, bought the disused German M. E. church and moved it to a lot in the northeastern part of the city and conducts a Sunday school there every Sunday afternoon. It is wisely located and will stand for Protestant Christianity in a hitherto neglected locality. The cost of the enterprise was $1,800 and has been paid. This Society also paid $4,302 on its debt and $350 on repairs. The little Society at Dewey purchased an abandoned U. B. church for $300; have remodeled it, and are now comfortably homed.

Wednesday morning, July 27, the Cisco church was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. It was valued at $10,000 and insured for $5,000 with $300 additional on the furniture. The policy was paid promptly, and the trustees have plans for the erection of a $15,000 brick structure. They had just spent $185 on the church and $183 on the parsonage.

Other charges have improved their property as follows: Pesotum, Hayes church $100, parsonage $15; Seymour, churches $500; Monticello, church $325, parsonage $25; Mansfield, church $500, parsonage $200; Ogden, church $133; Fithian, parsonage $169; Fisher, church $30; parsonage $120; Sadorus, church $50; DeLand, church $165; Weedman, church $25, parsonage $50; Rantoul, church $40, parsonage $30, church debt $1,380; Philo, church $1,000; Bement, parsonage $2,000; Sidney, parsonage $600; Thomasboro, church $150; Gibson City, church $350, parsonage $100; Mahomet, church $25, parsonage $107, debt on church $500; Savoy, church $50; Rankin, church $10, parsonage $15; Gifford, church $725, parsonage $25; Farmer City, church $99, parsonage $409.

Tolono paid an $800 debt legacy for repairs on church and incidentals. At the beginning of the year Trinity, Urbana, had a mortgage on its church for $6,000 and on its parsonage for $1,500. The Quarterly Conference authorized the Trustees to sell the parsonage, which was not well located nor adapted to present needs, pay off the mortgage thereon, and apply the balance on the church debt. The Trustees did so and the congregation paid the balance of the mortgage. Not only have they wiped out the mortgaged indebtedness of $7,500, but they have also paid $500 for repairs. The total amount raised on the district for material improvements is $40,942.00.

Literature

The number of reported subscriptions for the Christian Advocates is 323. I am of the opinion that more are taken and that subscribers are lost because the mailing lists, sent out by the publishers, are not, owing to the system of rural delivery, at all accurate. These lists do not give the pastor all the subscribers on his charge. But, all told, they are too few. The Sunday schools report 1,011 Classmates, 1,592 Advocates, 507 Teachers Journals. Four hundred and thirty Epworth Heralds are taken and twelve Methodist Reviews.

Revivals

Bellflower, Bement, Champaign, DeLand, Fithian, Gifford, Pennfield and Pesotum had revivals that resulted in numerous conversions. In other charges the pastors worked faithfully, but the visible results were meager. Without formal revival services some charges have had accessions. The number of conversions is 807; of accessions 600. First Church, Urbana, has the greatest prayer meeting revival. The average attendance has increased from about twenty-five to over 100 with a corresponding increase in spiritual life.

Return of Pastors

Nineteen of the charges, believing that their pastors are not able to breast the moving tempest, have kindly invited them to return to better charges than those they received one year ago. Others, being fully convinced that their pastors are entirely able to take care of themselves elsewhere, have left the doors wide open that these shepherds may seek greener pastures. A few charges, being unable to decide whether the staying or the going ability of their pastors is the greater, have left the doors unlocked that their shepherds may go in and out at will. The heroic nineteen charges are Bellflower, Bement, Champaign, Cisco, DeLand, Farmer City, Fisher, Fithian, Gibson City, Gifford and Pennfield, Ludlow, Mahomet, Pesotum, Philo, Rantoul, Sadorus, Urbana, First and Trinity, and Weedman. For personal reasons the Superintendent prefers not to pursue this interesting theme further today.

Salaries

The advance in the amount allowed for pastoral support was as follows: Champaign and St. Joseph, $200 each; DeLand, Ludlow, Pesotum, Philo, Rantoul, Sadorus and Fithian, $100 each; Fisher, Seymour, Sidney, Urbana Third and White Heath, $50 each; Mansfield, $40. Total increase, $1,340. In these there was a decrease: Thomasboro and Tolono, $200 each; Bement, $45; Savoy, $75. Total decrease, $520. The decrease at Tolono and Savoy was due to student supply and was so understood at the last Conference. The net increase is $820. The total cash salary allowed for the thirty-two pastors of Champaign district is $34,640.00, an average of $1,082.50. With one or two exceptions the claims are paid in full. A number of charges have already allowed an advance for next year.

Sickness and Death

Death has not entered the parsonages of the district, and in one only has there been serious illness. Brother Fultz, of Bellflower, was critically ill for one month during the summer, but it pleased our Heavenly Father to restore his health.

Rev. Thomas J. Wheat, one of the fathers, who was granted a Superannuate relation last fall, was stricken at Decatur as he journeyed from the Soldiers Home at Quincy to make his home in Rantoul, and in a few days he went to be forever at home in the beautiful beyond. His widow and sons have the fragrant memories of a noble Christian life to solace their lonely hearts. With the honors due a brave soldier and a faithful minister, he was given funeral and burial at Rantoul.

Rev. James Alexander West, an instructor in the University of Illinois, and a member of this body, fought his way through a long siege of typhoid fever last summer, only to be conquered by quick consumption. Sunday morning, April 17, at the Ottawa tuberculosis colony, this valiant young knight of the cross passed from warfare to reward. The grief-bowed young widow and her two little children returned with the fallen husband and father to the Champaign home, where the pastor, Rev. J. C. Baker, had charge of the funeral. The Masonic fraternity bore the body of their crowned brother to Mount Hope cemetery.

In June the Superintendent was absent from the district for two weeks at the bedside of his widowed mother, who, on June 7, at almost 82 years of age, triumphantly entered the heavenly home.

Our Honored Veterans

The beautiful Twin Cities are the mecca for retired preachers of this Conference. Our roster is graced with the names of these honored fathers and brethren: M. W. Everhart, J. R. Reasoner, L. F. Waldon, W. M. Poe, S. H. Tryon, M. P. Wilken, S. H. Huber, D. T. Miles, and R. N. Hathaway, who resides at Paxton. Bertrand Calvin and A. M. Danely are non-resident members of our clerical colony.

Personal Appreciation

Did time permit, gladly would I call the roll and place the merited laurel on the brow of each of the thirty-two pastors, whose faithful toil has wrought the success of the year. To them and the officery, who have cooperated, belong the honor and reward. To God, our Father, the glory and praise. For his grace and mercy and for the loving kindness and patient forbearance of the pastors, their courteous families and officials, I am sincerely grateful.

F. B. MADDEN.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop Cranston and Brethren:

My worthy predecessor, S. H. Whitlock, turned over his work to me last Conference in good condition. The evidences of his interest and devotion to the church are everywhere manifest over the District. The work has moved forward with a good degree of success and I am glad to report advancement along all lines.

Of the thirty-six charges which make up the Danville District, twelve increased the salary of their pastors, amounting in all to $1,600.

A few pastoral changes may be noted. For business reasons, J. E. Miller, pastor at Tilton, gave up his charge in April. This work has been served since that date with great acceptability to the people by James A. Hills, a local preacher, who will enter Drew Theological Seminary this fall to equip himself more fully for ministry as a Methodist preacher.

Three months ago Ira S. Haverfield, pastor at Murdock, in order that he might more easily avail himself of the assistance of his mother in caring for his motherless babe, exchanged fields of labor with J. L. Sturgell, pastor at Oconee. Owing to some misunderstanding, Ames, formerly a point on the Homer charge, was left without a preacher at the last session of the Conference. For this reason W. F. Stevenson has been doing double service during the year by serving both as pastor at Homer and supply at Ames.

At Potomac a fine new church, valued at $12,000, was dedicated by Bishop Berry, February 20th. The untiring efforts of the pastor, W. T. Beadles, brought this enterprise to a successful issue. At Jamaica, a point on the Fairmount charge, a beautiful new church, valued at $10,000, was dedicated April 17th. Charles Wehrman, the pastor, was at his post of duty constantly and to him much credit is due for this new edifice. Early in the year debts to the amount of $350 on Grace Church, Danville, and $325 on the Oakwood church were lifted. The financial obligations incurred by the building of the churches at Ridgefarm and Chrisman have been materially reduced during the year and it is confidently expected that both churches will be free from debt before another annual Conference convenes. In June last, about $1,200 was raised by the Lincoln church to apply on an indebtedness of $3,200. Our church at Vermilion Heights, Danville, has been greatly burdened this year by a debt, amounting to about $2,400, most of which was incurred by the building of a new parsonage last year. It is hoped, however, that plans may be put in operation very soon which will relieve this congregation to some extent of the heavy load. E. S. Vorbeck has worked diligently in securing subscriptions for a new church at Georgetown, which is very greatly needed. He reports pledges amounting to $8,200. At Newman the old parsonage has been sold and another property purchased for the use of the pastor. An elegant new parsonage, costing $6,000, is now in the process of erection by the Kimber Church, Danville.

During the year a number of charges on the District have been visited by gracious revivals of religion. Some months ago Ray O. Wyland, a young local preacher in school at Georgetown, began work at Hildreth, a small station on the C. H. & D. railroad, three miles south of Sidell. He pushed this work with great energy and enthusiasm. We are pleased to report that we now have there a church with about thirty members and a flourishing Sunday school. Brother Wyland enters the Illinois Wesleyan this fall. Early in the fall Evangelist Lowry held a union meeting at Hoopeston and quite a number of the converts came into our church. Brother Coleman reports in all one hundred and one additions to the church for the year. Early in the Spring Evangelist W. A. Sunday conducted a great union campaign in Danville, resulting in three thousand professed conversions. The six Methodist churches of Danville report eight hundred additions this year. Following the Sunday meeting Evangelist Hobson conducted a union meeting at Rossville. Brother Lugg, the pastor, reports one hundred and twenty-five additions to the churches on the Rossville charge this year. Following the Hobson meeting Evangelist Thomas led a meeting at Collison which greatly stirred the country round about, as a result of which Brother F. C. Read, the pastor, gathered into the churches at Collison and Newton, nearly two hundred members. L. S. Ellison, the pastor at Armstrong, was his own evangelist. He had a great meeting, and reports one hundred and thirty-three conversions, with sixty-three additions to the church. W. W. Henry conducted a successful revival at Sidell and reports seventy-five conversions and forty-seven additions. A. J. Patrick reports sixty-five additions to the church on the Broadlands work and William Reynolds seventy additions to the churches on the Henning charge. Brother C. D. Robertson reports forty-two additions at Catlin, and C. F. Juvinall thirty-seven additions at Ridgefarm, and C. E. Taylor forty-eight additions at Villa Grove. At other points on the District the brethren have worked very hard and have conducted special revival services which have resulted in the quickening of the churches and salvation of many. The whole number received into the churches on the District during the year amounts to nearly two thousand members.

E. H. Lugg, District President of the Epworth League, has been untiring in his efforts to promote League work on the District, as a result of which many defunct leagues have been reorganized and a decided advance made in this important line of work. Miss Clemma Cooley has proved a very efficient helper as District Junior League Superintendent and reports eleven Junior Leagues reorganized this year.

The benevolences have been presented by the pastors and an increase is confidently expected on all lines.

It is with sincere regret that I note the death of the wives of two of our pastors. Last October Mrs. A. L. Norfleet laid down earth's burdens for a heavenly crown. Last February Mrs. Ira S. Haverfield, the young wife of the pastor at Murdock, left behind her little babe and went home to glory.

Brother W. F. Stevenson, the pastor at Homer, suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever and was unable to perform his regular duties for almost three months, but seems now to have fully recovered and is ready for active service.

It is with pleasure that I record my appreciation of the many kindnesses bestowed upon me and the generous hospitality which has been extended to me by both pastors and people during this, my first year as District Superintendent.

H. C. GIBBS.

DECATUR DISTRICT

To review the work of the Decatur District during the past year may be pleasing but not without its difficulties. The tabulation of statistics may reveal some conditions and facts, but these tables do not reveal the thousand details, the daily routine of the faithful pastor, the visiting and watching with the sick, the comforting of the sorrowing, the house to house visitation on the rural charge, the long siege of revival effort at the remote appointment, with its consequent exposure, the personal canvass for the benevolences, where every dollar represents miles of travel, the furnishing of enthusiasm and inspiration, so necessary on some charges, to insure success in almost every activity. No District Superintendent's report reveals how much is involved, in all these details, in time, toil and sacrifice. Little more than results can be mentioned. The cost of these results can only be appreciated by the faithful pastor who has purchased them at a price so great.

Two appointments were left to be supplied at the close of the last session of our conference, namely, Butler and Decatur Circuit. The Rev. Phirman Edwards, a student of Garrett Biblical Institute, was secured for Butler and the Rev. C. W. Clark, of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, for the Decatur Circuit.

Soon after the opening of the year, on account of the condition of his wife's health, C. H. Davis, of Nokomis, was compelled to seek a less rigorous climate, and received an appointment from Bishop Hughes to Cananea, Mexico. W. H. McGhee, a member of our Conference, was appointed to succeed him at Nokomis, and has discharged faithfully every duty of a Methodist preacher. At the same time T. O. Holley was changed from Hammond to Mahomet, and Dr. E. B. Randle succeeded him at Hammond. Under his ministry the charge has made steady advance. Early in April, on account of throat difficulty, D. U. Park asked to be released from the Lakewood and Zion charge. He sought relief for this trouble in Kansas, where he is now preaching. Oscar Stewart, a recent graduate of the Boston University School of Theology, has rounded out the year on this charge. With the consent of Bishop Cranston, Ira S. Haverfield, of Murdock, exchanged with J. L. Sturgell of Oconee. Brother Haverfield is now in the midst of a gracious revival at Oconee.

The spirit of revival has been abroad on the District, though perhaps not marked with such intensity as during the past few years. While there is scarcely a charge which has not engaged in an evangelistic campaign, the largest success has been achieved at Cerro Gordo, Owaneco, Hillsboro, Niantic, Latham and at Cadwell on the Arthur charge. Generally the results of these campaigns have not been as large as formerly and consequently not so large an increase in membership as usual, though the indications are that we shall show a substantial advance.

This reduction in the increase of membership is not altogether due to any lack in revival effort or waning of the evangelistic spirit, but somewhat to a seeming plan of concerted action on the part of the pastors, to make this, the census year, the pruning year of the church records. Some of them have pruned so mercilessly that I have been compelled to beseech them to spare the tree. The new order of business of the Fourth Quarterly Conference, pertaining to the complete record of membership during the year, is certainly reducing the membership to the minimum, on the Decatur District. Some of the pastors have such positive convictions about this matter that for one to be sure of his membership in the church he should take it with him, if he is taking anything more than a brief vacation.

Evidence of our material progress is found in the increase of the salaries of the pastors, in the new $14,000 church at Cowden, commodious substantial, and architecturally beautiful, the new church at Latham, at the same cost, not so commodious, perhaps, but no less beautiful, with complete and adequate equipment for the prosecution of every department of our church work, the new modern and ample parsonage at Rosemond, the new $5,000 church at Long Creek on the Mt. Zion charge, and another under construction at Irving, costing approximately $9,000, together with the extensive repairs on the parsonage at Arthur and Garrett, the repaired and rearranged church at Pana, as well as remodeled parsonage, costing several thousand dollars, the churches improved at Witt, Hillsboro, Butler, Illiopolis and Garrett, and the installing of a new lighting system at Forsyth, on the Decatur Circuit, as well as the addition of a new tower to the First Church, Decatur, approximating in cost $5,000, in which will be installed a set of costly chimes, donated by Mrs. W. A. Conklin, as a memorial to her deceased husband.

Though many parts of the District have been greatly affected by the strike of the coal miners, which has lasted over five months, causing serious business depression in the mining towns and villages of the District, from data at hand, I am warranted to believe our benevolent offerings will exceed, by some hundreds of dollars, those of last year.

Throughout the year faithful and earnest service has been rendered by both the Woman's Missionary Societies. The Woman's Home Missionary Society will show an appreciable advance in membership and in offerings, while the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society set for itself a much higher mark in membership and contributions than last year, and every promise, from recent reports, is, that the goal, toward which they are pressing, will be reached.

We regret we cannot report greater progress in the Epworth League Department. The new district officers are entering upon their duties with much zeal and earnestness, which promises to be an inspiration to the Chapters of the District.

The matter of the instruction of the children is receiving greater attention than ever before. There is a steady advance in our Sunday school work, in the greater efficiency of the teachers, in the quality of the results accomplished, and in the attendance at the Sunday schools, especially of the adults.

Aside from that mentioned in connection with the changes which have taken place on the District, we have had no serious sickness, except that of Brother B. E. Williams, of Arthur, who underwent a serious surgical operation, early in the conference year, from which he recovered well, if not speedily, and is now enjoying better health than formerly.

Our hearts were saddened, in the Springtime, by the transfer to the Church Triumphant of our Brother, Phillip F. Gay, one of our honored superannuates, who since superannuation resided at Ohlman. His was a rare spirit, gentle, serene and calm, his character was meek, unassuming and attractive, his service earnest, consecrated and faithful, and his death was beautiful, hopeful and triumphant.

My relations with the pastors and their families have been most delightful; none could be more gracious, while the cordiality and kindness of the laity could not be surpassed. For this I here record my highest appreciation and gratitude.

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To the Bishop Presiding and Brethren of the Conference:

With steady, resistless strides the year has passed away, leaving the record of its doings and the memory of its struggles, victories and defeats. There has been nothing out of the ordinary to mark its history, neither fire, flood, pestilence or scarcity has been experienced, for which we are devoutly thankful.

Temporal prosperity has continued to shower upon us the blessings of daily life, our bread has been plentiful and the people have abundance. It has been the verdict of the centuries that such conditions are not conducive to a deep spiritual experience; but such a fact calls with added strength, for a more perfect consecration to the service of God, on the part of his faithful people.

It is our great pleasure at this time to welcome the Illinois Annual Conference for the second time in three years to the territory of the Jacksonville District; the brethren who tread with pride the black soil of the rich corn belt on the eastern side, are recognizing the growing worth, resources, and large heartedness of their fellows in the western portion of the state.

We also extend the glad hand to Bishop Cranston, now presiding after an absence of five years, and note the coincidence, that he was pastor of Grace Church in this city, when the former building was constructed thirty-eight years ago; it is another indication of the growth of the land and of Methodism, that this more beautiful temple should take the place of the one in which he ministered.

All the preachers appointed at the last annual Conference proceeded to their work, but there has been considerable change in this regard during the year. On April 1st, Rev. Thornton Clark was released from the Beardstown charge, on account of being elected to the Superintendency of the Pythian Home in Decatur; by the consent of Bishop McDowell and the unanimous desire of the membership, Rev. Arthur S. Chapman was appointed to fill the vacancy; at the same time Rev. George E. Rainsberger, of Murrayville, was sent to Pittsfield, while Rev. Edwin Gibson has ministered at Murrayville. These changes have been perfectly satisfactory to all concerned. In May Rev. Sheridan Phillips asked to be released from Concord on account of ill health. He was succeeded by Rev. W. H. Cundy, who has done well. Bath and Fairview were left to be supplied. D. L. Hackney performed the work until January, after which it was carried forward by W. I. Brown.

The revival campaign commenced early, and has been pushed with considerable vigor. Centenary Church of this city, F. A. McCarty, pastor, assisted by Rev. Tillman Hobson, began in October, and after a successful season, there developed a united effort on the part of the Methodist churches of the city, and was successful in unifying the interests of Methodism, and reviving the societies involved. The following named charges held very successful meetings: Meredosia, Waverly, Franklin, Bluff Springs, White Hall, Manchester, Astoria, Concord, Rockbridge, Greenfield Circuit, Murrayville, Ashland, Hettick, Astoria Circuit, Naples, Kilbourn, Alexander and Virginia.

Successful tent and other meetings were held during the summer at Palmyra, Island Grove, Bluffs, Oakford, and Astoria. These meetings held during the winter and summer resulting in 600 conversions and 500 additions.

We are gratified to report the erection and dedication of three beautiful churches.

It is said that some enthusiastic admirer of Sir Christopher Wren demanded that a monument be placed to the memory of the great architect in St. Paul's Cathedral. He was well answered by an equally admiring person, who said, pointing to the finished house of worship: "If you want to see Sir Christopher's monument, look around you."

We change the wording just a little, and say: "If you desire to see a monument to the skill, fidelity, enterprise and untiring energy of Rev. J. C. Nate, and the noble band of men and women cooperating with him, 'Look around you.'" On September 4th this beautiful building, valued at $85,000, was dedicated to the service of God with imposing ceremonies by Bishops Cranston and McDowell. With such a splendid equipment free of debt, Grace Church should enter upon a period of prosperity never before experienced in its history.

Palmyra Memorial Church was dedicated August 14 by Rev. W. D. Parr. This beautiful temple, costing over $20,000, was made possible by the generous gift of $14,600 by Mrs. Etta A. Hanshaw, in memory of her deceased husband, the stones in the wall of which declare, "He being dead, yet speaketh."

Pastor Browning deserves much more than passing mention regarding this successful enterprise, for with his tact, energy and good business ability, this church would have been impossible.

At Wrights, a point on the Berdan Circuit, a neat church was erected, costing $2,500. It was commenced under the pastorate of Rev. Thomas Symons, completed by his successor. Both pastors and people deserve much credit for it is a victory against great odds, being a weak society numerically and financially.

Beside church erection there has been considerable improvement in existing property. Astoria has placed a basement under the entire church building, costing $1,350.

Brooklyn has adorned her house by frescoing, carpeting and other ways, spending $650. Shilo has spent $200 in a similar way. Carrollton has paid out $600 in making more attractive a house of the Lord. Bath and Island Grove put forth effort and funds in this way. Chandlerville has painted their church and parsonage, while White Hall made the parsonage more pleasant and comfortable for their pastor.

Beardstown paid $1,000 on old indebtedness; Winchester $500; Naples has cancelled the last dollar of indebtedness against their parsonage, thus making a grand total expended for building and improvements this year of $110,130.

It gives us pleasure to report a decided revival of interest in the Epworth League.

This Society is so vital to our church that any decline therein would soon manifest itself in a decided way. Several successful sub-district meetings culminated in the largest, most enthusiastic, and probably the best all around Convention ever held within our borders. Too much credit can not be given to Frank L. Draper and his faithful district cabinet. We shall strive to lift it a notch higher.

The Benevolent interests have had the prayerful and careful consideration of the pastors.

Rev. Don W. Nichols, late of China, visited a considerable portion of the District with excellent results by his stirring addresses and pleasing manner. We confidently anticipate not only an increased collection, but a deeper and more intelligent understanding of Missionary effort, because of his labor among us.

The other benevolent objects have not been neglected and the reports of the pastors will show an increase of $1,200 in the benevolent collections over last year.

The membership are more and more realizing the value of a faithful pastor, and are responding to his temporal necessities; we gladly report an increase of $1,200 for the support of the Ministry.

The work of the Woman's College will be found in the Conference report, but suffice it to say that the past year has been the greatest and most successful in its history. The splendid new building erected last year has been crowded, making it necessary to outline broader plans, which will doubtless materialize in brick and stone, brain and life, equipment and character in the generations to come.

The faith of President Harker for a million dollars, half of which shall be used for endowment, half for equipment, has never faltered—He "Laughs at all impossibilities and 'cries' it shall be done."

Death has spared the ranks of the preachers. All are able to respond to roll call. But on February 19 the angel came and carried away Dorothy, the four year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Alkire. We gladly remember the words of the Master, "For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

We can not close without expressing gratitude to God for this continued goodness, "It surely endureth forever." For myself and colleagues,

I must say, we have striven to be faithful, but "who is sufficient for these things?"

While it would be a pleasure to speak of each preacher personally, time forbids. But to the untiring energy, faithfulness and devotion of these men under the blessings of God, we attribute the victories of the year.

May the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, endow us with the power of the Holy Spirit, and enable us to triumph for His name sake.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. WHITE.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

Bishop Cranston and Brethren:

The Mattoon District has had a year of earnest labor on the part of the pastors and faithful co-operation as a whole from the people.

Changes Among Ministers.

C. E. Parsons was released from Westfield in April and is now located at Muskogee, Okla. Charles M. Duncan, a student at the Garrett Biblical Institute, was appointed to fill out the year at Westfield. Health considerations led Ira E. Bula to ask a release from Redmon in May and a transfer to southeastern Kansas. W. H. McLean, who had just graduated from De Pauw University, was placed at Redmon.

Revivals.

While the district has not witnessed such a general revival spirit as characterized last year there have been many glorious outpourings of the Divine Spirit. The most remarkable of these came to Mattoon where all the Protestant churches united in a great tabernacle meeting that resulted in a blessed awakening of the people of God and in the salvation of many hundreds of souls. Almost four hundred of these united with our church at Mattoon.

At Westfield; First and Tabernacle churches, Paris, Zion Hill on Etna circuit; Allenvile and Grays; Hindsboro and Martinsville circuits, there were occasions of remarkable power marked by deep conviction and clear conversions.

Our plans are completed for a great revival campaign the coming year. We have secured the service of L. T. Henninger and wife who will give the entire year to work in the weakest points of the district. Their support will be arranged for by the Laymen's association. Evangelist Harris will labor five months in the district under the supervision of the district superintendent. Most of the brethren have already planned for an aggressive evangelistic campaign.

Pastoral Support.

There was an advance on pastors' salaries of $2,928 over the preceding year. So far there has been secured $2,053 in advance for the coming year, making a total advance of $9,829 during the last five years. For all this we give God the praise.

Benevolences.

Rev. Kingsley Pease of Singapore gave three weeks and Rev. George Davis of Peking gave two weeks in a missionary campaign that reached every charge in the district and did much to increase the deepening interest in the great task of evangelizing the world. There will be a generous advance on benevolences in many of the charges and practically every church has either held its own or made some improvement in the support of these causes. At Mattoon there is an advance of nearly six hundred and fifty dollars. Every dollar of the apportionment was pledged inside of six weeks after the last conference session. Splendid advancement has been made at Charleston, Kansas circuit, Redmon, Humbolt and other points.

Material Improvements.

This has been a year of great victories along material lines in many charges. At Paris, the Tabernacle church, under the leadership of W. L. Ewing was dedicated in December by Bishop David H. Moore; at Westfield the new church built under the leadership of C. E. Parsons, was dedicated in March by Dr. W. D. Parr; and at Findlay the church erected under the leadership of C. S. McCullom was dedicated in May by Dr. W. D. Parr. These are all different styles of architecture, but are modern in arrangement and beautiful and substantial in finish.

One of the most notable victories was the lifting of the debt of over $7,000 that has hung over our church at Mattoon for almost eight years. The new pastor, A. W. Mills, announced his purpose to wipe out this debt at the first Quarterly Conference. The benevolences were first fully provided for and then a thorough personal campaign to sweep away the debt was begun. Not only was this amount provided for, but $5,000 more which was used to repair the roof, refrescoe and otherwise beautify the inside of the church. This total of $12,000 was pledged and paid in without the loss of a dollar and all within a period of ninety days. In all things the pastor has shown the strongest type of leadership.

Other material advancements should be noted at Zion Hill on the Etna circuit; Mt. Zion on Clarksburg circuit; Isabell on the Kansas circuit; Armstrong on the Marshall circuit; and Redmon. Arrangements are being made for the purchasing of a parsonage property for the Humboldt circuit, also for the moving of Wesley chapel on the Clarksburg circuit to the town of Clarksburg.

We had a largely attended and most helpful ministerial association at Neoga and a spiritual and enthusiastic Epworth League convention with an enrollment of 170 at Oakland.

Every foot of territory within the bounds of the district, with the exception of the little German Catholic town of Siegel, voted the saloons out two years ago last April. This great victory freed thirteen cities and towns of the accursed saloon so far as legal enactment is concerned. A most bitter fight was made at many of these places to bring back the saloon in many of these places in the fight last spring. In one place, Mattoon, were the liquor leaders successful and then after every method known to the leaders of this hellish business. Today the forces of temperance and of the saloon are lined up at the primary election and only God knows what may result for home, church and state from this contest.

The Death Angel.

During the spring Herschel, the oldest child of Rev. C. S. McCullom of Findlay contracted a severe cold which rapidly developed into pneumonia and ended in death. He was just merging into young manhood and was the boon companion of his father. His dying testimony to the power of Christ to save will ever be a joyful remembrance to the loved ones who tarry here for a while.

Memorial Hospital.

Every member of this body is more or less interested in this, our only hospital within the bounds of our conference and all will be glad to know that at least it is not only free of debt, but has come into a good endowment. This is largely to the generosity of the late Dr. David M. McFall. The institution was founded as a memorial to his son. He deeded half section of fine land near Mattoon as an endowment for the hospital. This is now in full possession of the trustees and this together with funds soon to be raised will give the hospital a fine modern building sufficiently well endowed to perpetuate the work of mercy and love this institution is doing.

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCY DISTRICT

Dear Bishop Cranston and Brethren:

I herewith bring you my third annual report of the Quincy District, which has been committed to my oversight. As many of you know, it is one of the largest Districts in the Conference; and it is, moreover, the hardest to travel. While the work has been hard, it has been very pleasant in many respects. My own health has been perfect; and that of my brethren in the ministry, and that of their families has been good. Not a minister in the effective ranks has died; and the shadow of death has fallen across the threshold of only one of our pastors, that of J. C. Ewing, of Milton, and that of one of our superannuates, Brother W. T. Heater. In the first, a babe was taken; and in the other, our brother, who had served faithfully in this Conference for twelve years, went to his coronation on the 14th day of August, just passed. He was buried at White Hall.

The office of a District Superintendent is a trying one. So much is expected of him that is scarcely required of another. He is to resuscitate dying churches, find pastors for the hypercritical, financially weak and other churches; carry financial burdens, find a way out for churches at the end of their resources, avert trouble at the hands of belligerents, harmonize contending factions, inspire Quarterly Conferences to give a reasonable pastoral support, and look after all the interests of all the churches. He is to be a man whose personal character is calculated to leave a wholesome impression throughout the churches, and to exercise a formative influence upon the preachers, especially upon the younger men. He is expected to be a man of fine presence, of good voice, with ability to represent the church brilliantly in pulpit and on the platform; with far-sighted and balanced judgment, good administrative gifts, devout habits, a brotherly spirit, an evangelistic sympathy, dignity without affectation, and strength without harshness. I may not possess all of these qualities; yet I hope I may lay claim to some of them. I am sure that in no office are superior gifts and graces more indispensable; and nowhere does their exercise require more patience, more discretion, or more complete self-effacement. And yet our people, and some of our ministers, do not fully appreciate the services of this office.

The achievements of my District for the past year have not been brilliant nor spectacular, but I believe them to have been real and substantial. Much of our work has been done under hard conditions, and in the face of many difficulties. Some of our territory is under the influence of a pseudo-Christianity that seems to satisfy many; and the indifference that so many feel toward an experimental religion, makes it very hard for us to win converts in some places. The pastors, as a rule, have been diligent, earnest, and self-sacrificing.

My District was disturbed more than any other, so far as I know, by changes through the year. A month after Conference Bishop Goodsell reappointed C. M. Barton, of Barry, to LeRoy, and E. L. Darley, of Mahomet, to Barry. W. E. Kern, of the Coatsburg charge, was transferred by Bishop McDowell to the Rock River Conference, and his place was supplied by the transfer of George C. Bechtel, of the St. Louis Conference. N. M. Jones, of Griggsville, was transferred to the Columbia River Conference in the middle of the year, and I secured one of our own men, H. C. Munch, who had been attending Garrett Biblical Institute, to complete the year at that point. He has done good service for the charge. L. A. Powell was obliged to relinquish the work on the Mt. Sterling Circuit, and I secured a young man who seeks admission to our Conference to finish the year. About the middle of the year Bishop McDowell took Brother Chapman out of Pittsfield and appointed him to Beardstown, and G. E. Rainsberger out of Murrayville and put him into Pittsfield. He is handling the situation to the satisfaction of all concerned. At about the same time Brother C. S. Rodman, on account of failing health, resigned Grace Church, Quincy, and I secured H. G. Swope for the place. He has served very acceptably, and were he not going to teach in one of our Conference schools, would like to have him stay another year. Nebo and Pearl, which were left to be supplied, have been served most of the year by B. D. Malinson, who now knocks at the door of our Conference for admission.

Some of these changes, especially those of the mid-year, have affected our benevolences unfavorably. The outgoing men had done little or nothing toward raising the benevolences, and the new men had to feel their way before attempting anything, until it was too late to do justice to the causes.

Insufficient and irregular support has handicapped many a good preacher. To remedy this has been part of my aim. Early in the year I sent out an appeal to the estimating committees for an increase of salaries wherever possible. I am glad to say that we can report an aggregate increase of $2,900. Our next step shall be to have these salaries more promptly paid. We have already secured this in many charges; but we must keep at it until every man gets his money every month, the same as if he worked for some corporation. The Roll of Honor Sunday wherever we have prevailed upon officials to adopt it, has worked wonders in the respective charges.

In debt-paying, and in improving churches and parsonages, we have done well. At Hulls, Mr. L. S. Cory, not a member of our church, but whose wife is, paid off the entire indebtedness on the parsonage there. May his like increase in other charges! At Paloma, where they undertook to be a station, they assumed $1,650, the equity the other three points of the old circuit had in the parsonage, and on July 31st, Dr. Ennis, of Camp Point, distinguished himself by extinguishing that debt, and raising $80 more to paint and improve the parsonage. The little station is full of life, and Fred Reed, the pastor, is happy. At LaPrairie the parsonage has been thoroughly renovated at an expense of $535. It is now a comfortable home, and Pastor Metzel, who brought it about, is beloved by all his people. At Versailles they built an addition to their church, greatly improving conditions there, at a cost of between $1,200 and $1,500. Brother F. E. Smith led his people on to this wonderful achievement, and they want more of his leadership for another year. Many other churches on the District have made like improvements, expending lesser sums.

At Valley City, Brother J. M. Duff has built a new church. It will be dedicated soon after Conference. A new and larger church has been built on the old site of Marden Chapel. These churches have each cost between $2,000 and $3,000. Much credit is due to L. A. Powell, who launched the latter church enterprise, and to J. S. Tharp, and N. M. Rigg, nearby pastors, in seeing the house dedicated free of debt. At Huntsville, Brother Kasiske is directing a new church building project. We recently laid the cornerstone, and a $4,000 concrete church is going up where the old one stood.

It will be ready for dedication by Christmas. At Camden, W. R. Shores has secured subscriptions toward a new church amounting to $2,000.

The District Ministerial Convention and the Epworth League Convention were helpful gatherings not soon to be forgotten. Topics vital to the welfare of the church were discussed, and fresh inspiration was received by all in attendance. Bishop Quayle was at our young people's gathering and gave the many who heard him a larger vision of life's possibilities.

We are making marked progress in our Sunday school work. The attendance is increasing, and we are getting more efficient teachers through our teacher-training classes, organized here and there. Our own literature is used in nearly all of our schools in the one hundred church of the District.

The work of the Epworth League is also improving. The competitions going on for the District Banner, is provoking many Leagues to good works. To look up, and to reach up, and to climb up is the purpose of each chapter.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary societies, and the Ladies' Aid societies all over the district are doing excellent work in their respective fields. Indeed, in some places we would not be able to support a pastor without the help of the Ladies' Aid. By their aid and that of the Domestic Missionary society of our Conference we are able to keep our work supplied in many weak charges. I have urged the pastors of the stronger churches to come to the aid of these weaker charges. They are responding nobly; they are in sympathy with the brethren who have to stand in these trying places. It would be a good thing if some of our wealthy people would leave legacies or endowment funds for the support of some of our weak country churches. It would be one way of solving the perplexing country-church problem.

Chaddock Boys' school, which has done such magnificent work, under deaconess management for the past ten years, has found the academic department too expensive. Almost double the force of helpers, and double the current expense were required to maintain the two schools. So the management has decided to maintain but one school in which the boys are carried up to the eighth grade. The new principal, Miss Alverta Simpson, is getting hold of the situation nicely, and the school is opening with a nice lot of boys. We hope the new field worker, Miss Edith C. Neal, will find many friends and contributors for this worthy institution.

From items gathered from the pastors I believe we will make a good report concerning conversions and the gathering of benevolent monies throughout the district. I have deplored the lack of sweeping revivals. I fear too many of us depend upon others to get people converted. The evangelist has his place, but more of us ought to be our own evangelists. We ought to see men and women converted under our own ministry.

I believe that most of the brethren have worked hard to bring things to pass. Their record is in Heaven. I am sorry that time and space in the minutes will not allow me to mention each one by name and tell of his efforts to do good work. But I must beg leave to mention a name or two. Brother T. W. Greer, one of our most faithful men, on account of family conditions, has moved his family to Oklahoma. We regret to lose such men as Brother Greer from our ranks. Brother M. M. Davidson, who for nearly forty years has served this Conference, and of late has been the efficient chaplain at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Quincy, now feels that he must take a superannuate relation. He will join the other honored men of that relation in this district, namely, Brothers Wilson, McKinney, Akers and Powell, whose praise is in all the churches.

The ministry and laity have been uniformly courteous and kind to me. I have had a cordial welcome everywhere. My pastors are a splendid lot of men, and their families are equally fine. They and the people have contributed in many ways to my comfort, and for their faithful loyalty I am under many obligations. Indeed, I am debtor to all beyond what I am able to repay. If God shall so order that we shall labor together for another year, I am ready to renew my vows of consecration and face the responsibilities and tasks of another year. And may God give us all larger success than ever!

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Bishop Earl Cranston and Members of the Illinois Conference:

Methodist preachers make history and leave others to write it. They are a busy lot of men. Their hands are full of a multitude of things and numerous are the burdens that rest upon them. They touch more phases of human welfare than any other vocation on earth. They are more interested in education than the schoolmaster, more concerned about the health of the community than the doctor, far more anxious about good government than the politician, and more wide awake to the development of good morals than all of them put together.

The business of the Methodist preacher calls for the exercise of the highest talents and the employment of more common sense than is possessed by the average man. That the preachers of Springfield District possess talents and common sense is proven by the fact that they are in that district.

Geographically, the district is quite compact. The farthest appointment lies less than forty miles from the capital and three-fourths of them are less than half that distance. There are sixteen stations and twenty-one circuits. The circuits are, for the most part, compact and easily handled; many of them being about as desirable as stations paying the same salaries. Leaving out of consideration two very weak works which do not expect to have a resident pastor, all the charges save three have comfortable parsonages.

It will be practically impossible for me to embody in this report those facts that will appear complete in the statistical tables a little later on. I therefore refer those of you who desire to know exactly what are the gains or losses financially and numerically to the printed minutes. I think, however, that the reports of the pastors will show handsome gains almost everywhere.

* Ministerial Support

Thirteen charges advanced the salaries of their pastors to some extent. The sum total of this advance was two thousand dollars over the year before. The claims of the pastors will nearly all be reported paid in full. In many charges, the stewards cheerfully shouldered up the claims of the superannuated preachers and while in others this was not done, I am certain that this worthy cause will show a nice advance. I have done all that I could to educate the quarterly conferences in this matter.

If my audience were composed of laymen instead of preachers, I would be tempted to digress a little at this point and say something for the "good of the order."

I have never heard so great a demand from the laity for an educated and sprightly ministry as I have heard in the last two years. Our people are insisting on having us send them "up to date" men. On hearing the specifications, the superintendent naturally thinks of the brightest and best man in his district, but when he begins to ask as to what pay the ministerial genius who comes to fill the bill may expect, we sometimes learn that it will be less than the average brick mason receives for his service.

We are appalled at the present scarcity of young men presenting themselves for the ministry and we are dismayed when we discover that of those who present themselves, less than fifty percent have the equivalent of a high school education. But why should we wonder that bright young men hesitate to spend several years in school and several thousand dollars for an education, when one can learn the plumber's trade and earn fifty per cent more money than he can preaching the gospel. But laymen say, "This is a very mercenary view to take of it." Perhaps it is, but it is no more mercenary than that spirit which withholds from God's laborers that which justly belongs to them, viz., a comfortable support.

Taking my own district as a basis for calculations, I find that in the last ten years, the salaries of the pastors have increased eleven per cent. This sounds good, but when we look at government statistics and discover that in the same decade, living has increased thirty-seven per cent, it occurs to us that instead of an advance the preacher's salary has suffered a dreadful slump.

Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues

I am convinced that in the work of the Sunday schools there is a manifest improvement, and an increasing interest. In most of the schools modern methods are being adopted. All the departments are being organized, old and young are becoming more interested and our pastors are beginning to see that the Sunday school is the most fertile and fruitful field from which to recruit the church.

I believe that the Epworth Leagues are renewing their youth. An effort is being made to enlist the support of the younger element in the church. For many years the danger to the growth of the League has grown out of that tendency for the original organizers of chapters to hold on to power and unwittingly keep the very youth for whom the League was created from getting under the responsibility. But in every place where the older members stand gently aside and yet use their best influence to put the younger ones into the harness and encourage them to do their best, there is a great revival of interest in the League.

The Rural Church

The rural church has become a serious problem in some communities. There has been a shifting of the population in some places. Methodist families have removed and very often their places have been taken by Roman Catholics or others who care nothing for evangelical religion. Sometimes the rural church is pretty much abandoned by their old supporters moving into the cities and towns and renting their farms to non-Methodist families. Little by little the support is cut off, the Sunday school is depleted and interest fades away, the preacher becomes disheartened and the service ceases and the sanctuary is closed. But the question arises, Should these strategic places be abandoned without a struggle? I candidly say, I think not. I personally know of a few places where the case seemed almost hopeless, yet a persistent pastor planned, prayed and organized for a revival, secured the aid of an evangelist or some evangelistic pastor, and went in to repossess the land for the Lord and saved the fort for the Lord Jesus Christ. It is at least worth the effort.

Foreign Population

The district is honey-combed with coal mines and this industry has brought into our midst a very large foreign population. Many of these people have no idea of evangelical Christianity. They have brought with them their foreign ideas, ecclesiastical, political, and moral. They have settled in compact communities, and so far as religious culture is concerned they are utterly neglected. They are not, as many suppose, loyal Romanists. Numbers of them have thrown off the yoke of the hierarchy. Where the attempt has been made, their children take kindly to our Sunday schools. I have wished that we might find workers who understood their language and could go into their homes with the Gospel of Christ. God has brought them into our midst. We need not be at the expense of going to them. They have come to us and it seems to me that it is a providential opportunity. May God open the way for us to reach them.

In several communities the long drawn out miners' strike has very greatly embarrassed our churches financially. It has made it hard to collect the benevolences and even to keep up the current expenses of the church.

During the year the preachers for the most part, pressed the battle to the gates and there were handsome ingatherings in a large number of the charges. Early in the year a great revival occurred under the care of Brother Nyman at Morrisonville, where the active membership of the church was almost doubled.

Edinburg enjoyed a season of refreshing from the presence of the Lord which resulted in the injection of quite a lot of new blood into that church and greatly to its benefit.

On the Chatham circuit extensive revivals occurred and greatly quickened the spiritual life and increased the membership.

Rochester Circuit also enjoyed a great quickening of the spiritual life and the good people are much encouraged by the numerical increase which followed.

At Auburn our people joined with the other churches in a union meeting that resulted in the strengthening of the forces of righteousness.

Loami also felt the quickening touch of Divine power as the result of a union meeting.

Right in the midst of harvest E. V. Young and A. M. Sinclair pitched a gospel tent at Kincaid, a flag station on the railroad west of Taylorville. No town exists there, but for a long time there has been no evangelical service within a radius of five miles. With the initial service the people began to come and continued to come for over three weeks and the results were over a hundred conversions, most of whom attached themselves to the nearest churches. This experiment shows that the gospel has not lost its power if given a fair chance to be heard.

Buckhart circuit and vicinity was blessed with stirring revivals under the preaching of Hugh A. Knowles.

Just at the close of the year revival meetings were commenced at Pleasant Plains, the old home of Peter Cartwright. The prospects at this time are flattering. E. K. Crews is pastor.

I believe that in almost every charge there has been a good degree of revival interest. The pastors have all worked diligently for the spiritual development of their charges and the Lord has honored both their faith and their works. I can not state definitely at this time what the ingathering will amount to in numbers, but I am certain that it will make a good showing.

Material Developments

We are able to make something of a showing in the way of material improvements. Douglas Avenue, Springfield, began early in the year to plan for extensive improvements on their church. The Sunday school was crowding the church to the limits. More room must be made. So the plan developed to add extensively to the church. So a two-story addition was constructed at the rear, which contains Epworth League room, Sunday school rooms, boys' club rooms, Ladies' Aid room, dining room, kitchen and kindergarten. This gives this progressive church about the best facilities for work of any church in the city. The improvements cost about ten thousand dollars.

At Buffalo, Bishop Spellmeyer dedicated, last winter, a beautiful $17,000 church, entirely free from debt and money in the treasury.

At Morrisonville the old church which has done service for about thirty years was moved to one side and the foundation has been laid for a new and complete brick church, which will cost about twelve thousand dollars.

At Virden the indefatigable Brandon has torn the old church all to pieces. But out of the pieces, together with the necessary amount of new material, and on the old site will arise a splendid new temple to the glory of God. The cost will be about sixteen thousand dollars, but the church will be well worth twenty thousand.

Brother M. H. Ewers, a veteran of the Illinois Conference, but now a member of the Southern Illinois Conference, has served Divernon the last year as supply. Among the remarkable things that he has accomplished is the raising of sufficient money with which to purchase a new parsonage and at the same time secured the promise of an advance in salary sufficient to make it possible for a preacher with a small family to live there.

I will not tax your patience with a detailed report of all the minor improvements that have been made on churches and parsonages during the year. Suffice it to say that there have been many such, aggregating several thousand dollars. Our churches and parsonages throughout the district will compare well with those anywhere in Methodism. They are for the most part kept in good repair and in attractive condition.

At Thayer a troublesome debt of nearly $1,000 has burdened the society. A couple of months ago Mr. Austin Landon of Virden on his death bed provided for the payment of $650 of this debt and through this fine gift it became possible to remove the incubus, and very soon this debt will be a thing of the past.

Health of the Preachers

For the most part the health of the preachers and their families has been excellent. They have stuck to the work through thick and thin without complaint. Brother W. L. Cunningham developed a throat trouble that caused him to seek a more temperate climate and in July he found a place to work in the state of Texas and has transferred from our midst.

Mrs. Jasper Miller has been sorely afflicted for several months and at last Brother Miller concluded that for her sake he would better take her away from the exactions of the parsonage life and moved into a home of his own in Charleston. If he can secure a light work that can be managed from there he is willing to still continue for a season in the effective ranks; if not, then he will have to ask for a change of relation.

Plans are being laid for a great Home Missionary Conference to be held in the city of Springfield, December 8, 9 and 10 under the direction of Dr. Coker. To this gathering the whole Conference will be invited. Speakers of international reputation will be present to entertain and instruct and we hope and pray that the church may receive from it a mighty inspiration. You will be more fully informed about this event as the time approaches.

The work of the year is closed. The year that is past will never be ours again. If we have failed, alas! the opportunity has gone forever. But we trust that our failures are few and our victories many. Looking back over the year, I can see much in the work of the faithful pastors of Springfield District, that causes my heart to rejoice. Several hundred souls will sing the praises of the Redeemer in the world to come as the result of faithful self sacrificing effort on the part of these devoted men during the year. Eternity alone can tell what is the measure of their success.

I wish that every man could be given a better place. Many of them will have better places next year than they had last, because they are going to return to charges greatly improved by their own efforts.

CHRISTIE GALEENER.

B. Committees

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE.

With the great commission, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel," ringing in our ears, and hearing also the call of our needy brothers in all of our fields of benevolence, and appreciating the means of grace afforded us and the people to whom we preach by benevolent giving; be it resolved:

First—That we give to our local benevolences the attention and support due them. Such are, Domestic Missions and Church Aid, Temperance Work, and our local educational interests. We concur with the Committee on Education in their recommendation that an assessment of 20 cents per member be assessed for the support of the three schools in the bounds of this conference.

Second—That we make the benevolences of the home field which are, Home Missions and Church Extension, Education, and Freedman's Aid, a matter of our most earnest prayer and support, that this great nation which we fervently believe God has called to be the world's evangel may not fail in her mission.

Third—That the larger interests of the Kingdom of God represented by Foreign Missions be not neglected, but that we strive as never before to present this great cause to our people so that they may catch the missionary spirit of the age, and enter gladly into God's great world program with their heartiest support.

We rejoice in the work being done by our missionary bishops and their consecrated workers, Bishops Bashford and Lewis in China, Bishop Oldham in India, Bishop Hartzell in Africa, Bishop Burt in Europe, and Bishop Harris in Japan and Korea.

We pledge our co-operation to Bishop Harris in the especial effort he is making for Korea in the Semi-Centennial Jubilee which he is at this time initiating.

C. W. HAMAND, Secretary.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

1. Believing that the 20th century has called the men of the church into a larger sphere of activity and that in the past the church has not reached men in as large a measure as it should and believing that men must be reached by men and that this can be most effectually by organizing our men since two men working together can do more than two men working separately, we call upon every pastor in the Illinois Conference to get his men together on reaching his charge and organize for the winter's campaign.

2. We recommend that since the General Conference has recognized the "Methodist Brotherhood" as the official organization among the men of the church, that all other men's organizations such as Men's Clubs and Adult Bible Classes become affiliated with the Methodist Brotherhood.

3. We rejoice in the increasing purpose on the part of the church to hold the boys to the church and heartily endorse and hereby promise to co-operate with the Sunday School Board, the Epworth League and the Brotherhood in their plan to solve the Boy Problem in our churches.

We nominate for Conference Officers for: President, M. G. Coleman; Secretary, P. P. Carson; and for District Vice President: Bloomington, E. L. Pletcher; Champaign, P. P. Carson; Danville, C. E. Liston; Decatur, E. S. Combs; Jacksonville, C. M. Wilson; Mattoon, C. F. Buker; Springfield, T. E. Orr; Quincy, R. W. Ennis.

P. P. CARSON, Chairman.

M. G. COLEMAN, Secretary of the Committee.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We the Committee on Publishing Interests, beg leave to submit the following report:

In view of the fact that the Book Concern sent us a draft for $3600.00 we urge our pastors to commend our publications, and acquaint our people with our Publishers.

Recognizing the value of good literature upon the young people of our church, we recommend the Methodist Book Concern as the proper place to secure such books.

We recommend the use of our own church literature in the Sunday Schools and all other departments of the church. We have the best.

We recommend the more conscientious effort upon the part of our pastors to secure a larger circulation of our church papers in general and the Central and Northwestern Advocates in particular.

A. S. MAXEY, Chairman.

RICHARD B. HUBBART, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with great pleasure the addition of $170,000 in gifts and bequests to the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society. The rapid growth of the Permanent Fund of this Society promises that the Illinois Conference will soon have an investment for the benefit of its worn-out preachers second to none in Methodism.

Resolved, That we commend in the highest terms the splendid work of the Rev. Robert Stephens, Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society whose untiring and efficient labors have been productive of such excellent results and we hereby pledge to him our hearty support and co-operation.

Resolved, That we earnestly exhort all members of the Conference who are not also members of the Preachers' Aid Society to become Beneficiary members as soon as possible, so that in membership and in community of interest the Conference and the Preachers' Aid Society may be one.

Resolved, That we request the Disbursing Committee of the Preachers' Aid Society to report their disbursements to the Conference Stewards, and that said report be printed in the Minutes of the Conference in a column parallel with the disbursements of the Stewards.

Resolved, That we insist upon the faithful observance of the law of the church which requires that the appointment for Conference Claimants be paid pro rata with other claims for ministerial support, and that we will, as far as practicable urge our Stewards and Official Boards to include this claim in the regular budget of expenses, and that we request the District Superintendents to give this matter their personal attention.

Resolved, That we deprecate the fact that with our present insufficient resources and our large necessitous claims the Stewards feel themselves compelled to make so slight application of the Annuity principle and we recommend that this matter of Annuities be referred to a committee of five who shall report to the next session of the Conference.

JOS. W. VAN CLEVE, Chairman.

LEWIS CAMPBELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We your Committee on Conference Relations submit the following report. We recommend:

First—That the relation of W. H. McGhee be changed from Superannuate to that of Effective.

Second—That U. G. Johnston be re-admitted on certificate of location and made effective.

Third—That A. J. Ives be continued in the Supernumerary relation.

Fourth—That the relation of Bertrand Calvin be changed from Superannuate to that of Supernumerary and notice be given why he should not be located at the next Conference.

Fifth—That the relation of O. H. P. Smith be changed from Supernumerary to that of Superannuate.

Sixth—That the relation of M. M. Davidson be changed from Effective to that of Superannuate.

Seventh—That L. C. Moore be continued in the studies of the Second Year.

Eighth—That the relation of T. K. Holliday be changed from Effective to that of Supernumerary.

Ninth—That the relation of Sheridan Phillips be changed from Effective to that of Supernumerary.

Tenth—That the relation of J. D. Hennessy be changed from Effective to that of Supernumerary.

Twelfth—That E. E. Strevey be continued in the Supernumerary relation.

Thirteenth—That the relation of W. M. Gooding be changed from Effective to that of Superannuate.

Fourteenth—We recommend that T. W. Green be granted Superannuate relation.

Fifteenth—W. L. Cunningham be granted a Supernumerary relation.

Sixteenth—H. H. Young be granted a Supernumerary relation.

Seventeenth—G. E. Burton be granted a Supernumerary relation.

Eighteenth—Jasper Miller be granted a Supernumerary relation.

Nineteenth—M. L. Browning be granted a Supernumerary relation.

Twentieth—J. S. Bicknell be made Effective.

Twenty-first—J. M. Goodspeed be continued in the Supernumerary relation.

Twenty-second—C. S. Turpin be made Effective.

Twenty-third—We recommend that E. L. Darby be granted a Supernumerary relation.

COURTESIES.

As the Eighty-seventh session of the Illinois Conference draws near the closing hour the impression becomes manifest and audible that this has been one of the most happy and satisfactory sessions in many years. This beautiful and commodious Grace M. E. Church has afforded the Conference abundant facility for its public services, the meeting of committees, the social intercourse of members and friends, and through its ample accommodations greatly aided the work of the Conference.

From the beginning to the end Dr. J. C. Nate, the pastor of the Church, which is our host, has carefully looked after every detail that would contribute to the comfort and convenience of the Conference. The handling of this large body has been done with such apparent ease that all care has been removed from our minds.

Much that has contributed to make this a most delightful session is due to the well planned and carefully wrought out ideas of Dr. Nate and other pastors. The well known hospitality of Jacksonville Methodism needs no word of emphasis from the Illinois Conference. But to say that it has this year surely surpassed other years means much. The Churches have offered delightful meals while hospitable homes have received us and made us comfortable. The Daily Press has given full and careful consideration to the thrice sessions and public services of the Conference.

The open doors of the Women's College have continually invited Conference members and visitors to enter and explore its magnificent buildings and rest in its parlors. President Harker has extended to the Conference the courtesies of the College on all occasions.

Due to the consideration of Hon. J. J. Reeve the government mail service has been at the disposal of the Conference. The officials of the Jacksonville National Bank have greatly assisted and safe-guarded the work of our Treasurer.

Among the features of the Conference itself is the gracious and manly administration of honored Bishop Cranston. His address to the class of new Conference members and the noble sermon of Sabbath morning will not be without fruitage. He has greatly endeared himself to the Conference and is thrice welcome to govern this body in the future.

The presence and religious leadership of Dr. John Harmon have been an inspiration and blessing to all the ministers and laymen in attendance. Rev. Robert Stevens deserves the thanks of the Conference for the planning of the devotional program. He has been ably assisted by Rev. W. S. Phillips.

To all these the Conference extends thanks, and entertains the hope that our brief stay in the city of Jacksonville may add to the moral forces that make for the upbuilding of the kingdom of righteousness in this city.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

Miss Rae Lawton, Miss Edith C. Neal, and Miss Constance King are each recommended for license and consecration to the work of a Deaconess.

The licenses of the following Deaconesses were renewed: Mable G. Willard, Anna Logan, Marjorie McPherson, Edith B. Bird, Mary C. Brewer, Alverta Simpson, Anna J. Davidson, Anna Johnson, Amelia A. Christensen, Eva Brooks, Mary A. Vermillia, Olive G. Webster, Roxanna Beck, Mary Ledgerwood, Eleanora Hubbell, Muriel Belle Forrester, Laura E. Aikin.

Miss Eleanora Hubbell was transferred from the Colorado Conference and Miss Alverta E. Simpson from the Nebraska Conference; Olive G. Webster and Laura E. Aikin are transferred to the Rock River Conference; Lillian B. Watkins to the North West Indiana Conference; Eva M. Brooks and Emma Heverly to the Colorado Conference; Miss Rae Lawton to the Missouri Conference.

J. W. MILLER, President.

WALTER AITKEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID.

We call attention to the fact that the changing social conditions in the city and country demand increased contributions to this cause. Large populations throughout the Conference are practically without the Gospel, and many weak churches are utterly incapable of meeting the spiritual needs of the community in which they are located.

We are a connectional body; no portion of our great Conference can suffer alone. The perils and needs of the most remote country church and the uncultivated fields of our cities alike imperil the progress of the Gospel in every charge within the bounds of the Conference.

We believe if our people knew the facts, there would be a far more liberal response to the calls of this society.

We, Therefore

Recommend, That Rev. L. A. Powell, one who is well qualified to represent the cause of the needy fields, be appointed Field Secretary of The Domestic Missions and Church Aid Society of the Ill. Conference, and urge that all our pastors give due consideration to this most worthy cause.

We Recommend continuing the work being done among the deaf by Philip J. Hasenstab, and join with the Rock River Conf. in recommending the claims of this work to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

Amendment.

In the appropriations made by this Society by the Board of Managers in which the District Superintendents are members ex-officio, these appropriations are specific. No pro rata with other claims of District Superintendents, Bishops or other preachers or other collections or charges shall be allowed.

JOHN A. KUMLER.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education begs leave to report as follows:

Children's Day.

We urge the pastors to give prominence to the Children's Day collection to be taken in the Sunday Schools on the second Sunday in June. This is for Student Aid and should be sent to the Board of Education, 150 Fifth Ave., New York City.

Educational Money.

First—We recommend that the regular Educational column of the Conference Minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provisions of paragraph 414 of the Discipline of 1908 as the "Local Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gifts, if certified by vouchers, shall be reported as "Special Educational Gifts," and we recommend the insertion of a column in our Conference Minutes for such report.

Second—We recommend a total apportionment of twenty cents per member for the entire membership of the Conference as the Local Educational Collection. Of the amount secured by this collection we recommend that eighty per cent be divided equally among the Conference Educational Institutions, and that twenty per cent be sent to the Board of Education, New York City, for aid of institutions, in lieu of the collection taken the past year for the white schools of the south.

In case any charge has given a note to any of the Conference Educational Institutions the money from such charge shall be applied on such note provided the Conference Treasurer be notified of the amount.

Third—We call attention to the following facts:

(a) The raising of the full apportionment of twenty cents per member would mean that each of the schools of the Conference would receive the equivalent in income of the interest on One Hundred Thousand Dollars of endowment.

(b) While substantial progress is being made toward the goal adopted by the conference last year the average for the Conference was less than five cents per member, the amounts ranging from eight cents in the highest to two cents in some of the districts, and that there were ninety charges that reported nothing for this purpose.

Fourth—In view of these facts and the vital importance of the proper presentation of the cause of Education, we request the District Superintendents to make the apportionments for the various charges on the basis of twenty cents per member, and that at the first Quarterly Conference in each charge they call attention to the matter and urge upon the members of the Quarterly Conference the importance of raising the apportionment in full, and that they see that the educational sermon as required by the Discipline be preached in every charge.

Fifth—We suggest that in the Statistical Reports all Educational Money be reported in three columns as follows:

Children's Day,

Local Educational Collection,

Special Educational Gifts.

Sixth—That the Statistical Secretary erase the words "Board of Education" and "General Education" and insert below Local Educational Interests the words "Special Educational Gifts."

Theological Schools.

We again urge upon the candidates for our ministry the importance of securing not only a college education but also the specific ministerial education such as is offered in the theological schools of our church. We express our gratitude for the indispensable service being rendered to our ministry by the Scientific, Spiritual and Christian instructions of the faculties of these institutions. We rejoice in the steady progress of our theological schools toward the standards required of them to perform their part in setting free the vital forces of the Christian gospel for the redemption of our religiously and socially needy age.

We note with appreciation the re-opening of the Iliff School of Theology of the University of Denver under the leadership of a strong faculty of expert Christian scholars.

The election of Conference visitors are recommended as follows: To Garrett Biblical Institute, M. N. English; to Drew Theological Seminary, J. C. Buker, J. S. Dancey; to Boston University School of Theology, F. B. Madden, F. A. McCarty, A. K. Byrns; to Iliff School of Theology, W. D. Fairchilds, A. F. Ewert.

Chaddock College.

During the past year there was a total enrollment of 89 boys from 27 different states, Mexico and Canada in both departments of the school.

This year the Academy which has been operated for four years as an experiment has been abandoned, the Board feeling that with the well-equipped Academy in connection with our Illinois Wesleyan University, the demand for a secondary school of this character was not sufficiently great to justify the additional expense required for adequate instruction and equipment.

The state course of study is supplemented by courses in manual training, agriculture, vocal and instrumental music, under efficient instructors, thus providing both practical and liberal training.

With the number of students already enrolled and applications being daily received it is believed that the elementary school will reach during the year an enrollment equal to that of both schools maintained last year and this at a great reduction of expense.

The immediate need of Chaddock this year is free scholarships maintained by Churches, Societies and individuals of its own Conference, in order that dependent boys for whom applications from all parts of the United States are being daily received and who are the chief argument for the existence of a school of this character, may be cared for.

Beyond any doubt, if a sufficient number of scholarships could be provided, the next two or three years would see five hundred boys being trained for the highest possible type of Christian citizenship.

We recommend the following for trustees for the term expiring 1913: Edwin Beggs, W. T. Beadles, W. T. Sinnock, F. W. Osborne and Parker Shields. For visitors: J. D. Tharp, J. C. Nate, R. W. Ennis, E. P. Hall.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The past year in many respects has been the best in all the sixty years of its splendid history. The increase in attendance, the receiving of new funds, the erection of buildings, and the bright prospects, and enlarged plans for the future, make the year epochal in the work of the university.

The new Science Hall will be completed in December. At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees and Visitors a modern central heating plant was ordered built and it will be completed in October of this year. The Board also authorized the raising of a sustaining fund of at least five thousand dollars a year for five years. This fund is necessary immediately for the pressing needs of the rapidly growing school to meet the enlarged opportunities of the new era. All who pledge fifty dollars or more per year to this fund are allowed a scholarship at the Illinois Wesleyan University during the life of the subscription. This fund is but preliminary to the raising of an endowment fund of at least three hundred thousand dollars within the next five years.

Over one hundred young men and women the past year earned their way wholly or in part while attending the University. During the year several students have been sent to the foreign mission field and thirty young men were in training for the work of the ministry.

The fall term has already opened with prospects for the largest attendance in the history of the institution.

We nominate for trustees whose term will expire in 1913: George P. Davis, A. M., L. L. D., of Bloomington, Jesse Meharry of Tolono, Benjamin F. Harber of Bloomington, H. B. Prentice of Chicago.

For Official Visitors, who are also ex-officio Trustees we nominate: Christie Galeener of Springfield, George E. Scrimger of Farmer City, Joseph C. Nate of Jacksonville, M. N. English of Bloomington, and A. L. T. Ewert of Bloomington.

Illinois Woman's College.

The Illinois Woman's College, having passed its 64th anniversary, can no longer be reckoned as in the experimental stage. While far from having reached the limits of its possibilities, it has achieved a position worthy of the attention and respect of all persons, interested in the higher education of women.

While credit is due many both living and dead, yet by universal consent President Joseph R. Harker has been the inspiring genius in many of the struggles through which the institution has passed. Only those intimately acquainted with the college, know the broad plans that are outlined, and which will doubtless materialize in brick and stone, brain and character.

The trustees have inaugurated a movement which is expected to increase the value of the property and endowment to one million dollars, half of that sum being expended for equipment, the balance being held as productive endowment. As a measure contributing to this end Mrs. Belle Short Lambert, a daughter of Dr. W. F. Short has been appointed field secretary. She will devote all her time to the work of visiting alumnae, former students and friends, to soliciting funds and otherwise increasing interest in the institution.

The Woman's College combines in most acceptable proportions all those elements which enter into the culture of women. It gives due heed to mental and physical development, but above all it aims to surround each student with a genuinely Christian atmosphere.

In 1898 the total estimate of property and equipment was $85,000. On June 14, 1910 the total estimated value of property and endowment was $431,300. On the same date the total liabilities were $55,113.

To fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees Dr. C. E. Welch and Hiram Buck Prentice are recommended for the term expiring 1915, and for Conference visitors, the pastors resident in Jacksonville, the District Superintendent of the Jacksonville District, John C. Willits, A. C. Piersel, M. G. Coleman and P. P. Carson.

Financial Statement.

We respectfully request the authorities of the Conference Educational Institutions to present to the Committee of Education at the next Annual Conference a full and complete report of the Resources and Liabilities of each institution, together with a report of the Enrollment of students of Elementary, Secondary and Collegiate rank.

Inter-Conference Ministerial Institute.

We call attention to the success of the Inter-Conference Ministerial Institute held at the State Epworth League Chautauqua Grounds, July 12-22, and the excellent instruction given by the faculty which consisted of Professor's Eislein of Garrett Biblical Institute, Sitterly of Drew Theological Seminary, Sheldon and Cell of Boston University School of Theology, and Dr. David G. Downey of the Board of Sunday Schools.

We recommend that all members of the Conference who can do so attend the Institute to be held on these grounds next summer. Especially do we commend the Institute to the young men of the conference who have not had the advantage of the training of our Theological schools.

Educational Rally.

We endorse the plan of the Secretary of the Board of Education to hold a series of Rallies in the interests of Education within the bounds of the Conference during the coming year and urge our pastors and laymen to co-operate in this plan:

Educational Banquet.

We recommend the appointment of the following as a committee to arrange for the annual Educational Banquet to be held during the session of the next annual conference: the Presidents of the Institutions within the conference and F. A. McCarty, A. S. Chapman, and M. N. English.

WILLIAM BRANDON, Chairman.

M. N. ENGLISH, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

Recognizing the vital importance of evangelism to the life and power of our church, we recommend:

First: That a large place be given to Sunday School evangelism especially with reference to decision day.

Second: That the district superintendents arrange for an evangelistic conference early in the conference year in each district.

Thirdly: That we require conference evangelists to present to the conference each year a written report of their work.

Fourth: That the conference insist on more care on the part of district superintendents regarding the character of men admitted to their districts as evangelists, and that pastors co-operate in this matter; and we advise that the district superintendents make effective some system of exchange among the pastors whereby the strong evangelistic pastors may aid in revival work on the weak charges.

Fifth: That W. N. Tobie, E. K. Towle, and J. C. Willits be appointed a conference evangelistic commission to have charge of the conference program which has reference to evangelism.

Sixth: That we commend the addresses of Drs. Harmon and Downey and urge their advices on all.

E. K. TOWLE, Chairman.

T. LEE KNOTTS, Secretary.

HISTORY OF ILLINOIS METHODISM.

Whereas, The Illinois Annual Conference at its session at Carrollton, in 1908, unanimously requested Bishop Berry to appoint Rev. W. N. McElroy to write a History of Methodism in Illinois; and,

Whereas, The Rev. W. N. McElroy, in compliance with this request entered upon the work of writing said history, understanding that he was to receive $1,000 to defray his expenses while doing the work; and,

Whereas, He has toiled at this task for two years, producing a fine history of Illinois Methodism, ready for the press, in two volumes, bringing the history from the beginning down to 1870, and is now at work upon a third volume, which will finish the work down to the close of the nineteenth century.

Therefore, as the work is of great value, and as the workman is worthy of his hire, be it,

Resolved, That we ask the Annual Conference to instruct the District Superintendents to apportion $2,500 to the charges to pay Dr. McElroy the $1,500 due yet for the past two years' work and $1,000 for the coming year, and instruct the pastors to take the collection early for the Historical Society and send it to Rev. Preston Wood, the treasurer of the same.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to secure the early publication of the work, either by securing its publication by the Methodist Publishing House on a share of the sales or by securing a guarantee fund to pay for its publication and for advertising the work through the church papers and public press; the same to be repaid out of funds secured from the first sales of the history; and after such expenses of publication are paid, two-thirds of the net profits are to go to the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference and one-third to the author of the work.

W. T. BEADLES,
A. P. STOVER,
A. M. WELLS.

CONVENTION.

Resolved, That we, in annual conference assembled, request Henry J. Coker, Field Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, to organize within the bounds of the Illinois Conference, a Conference Home Missionary Convention, having for its aim the education of our people and pastors in the need for and importance and fundamental nature of the Christianization of America and her Insular possessions.

Resolved, That this Convention be held December 6th and 7th, 1910, and shall hold for two days.

Resolved, That H. J. Coker secure one or more of our Bishops to preside and address the Convention; a Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension; Dr. Fred H. Wright, Superintendent of Italian work; a representative Japanese worker; if possible, Dr. Haywood of Porto Rico; a representative of the Colored work; Dr. James Rowe, Superintendent of City Missions of Chicago; a representative of the Young People's work; a national representative of Women's Home Missionary Society.

Resolved, That inasmuch as these Conventions are to be self supporting, therefore, to meet the expense of printing, postage and traveling expenses of program talent, we recommend that each pastor secure from his charge, from $1.00 to $2.50, according to ability, to be sent as soon as possible to H. J. Coker, No. 1121 McGee street, Kansas City, Mo., who is responsible for all expenses.

Resolved, That each charge shall be entitled to one (1) delegate for every fifty (50) members, or fraction thereof.

Resolved, That we request the church where the Convention is held to pay Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and entertain the persons on the program, and do everything possible to accommodate the delegates, and thus make the Convention a success, and said church shall—in return—be entitled to fill the Auditorium of the church, after the regular delegates are provided with seats.

HOSPITALS.

Wesley.

We, your Committee on Hospitals, would call attention to the marked improvement made in buildings and scientific equipment of the well known Wesley Hospital which enables it to take first rank in expert surgery, and to do more work and do it most efficiently.

In view of the fact that 4,000 patients are treated annually and about 25% of them treated gratuitously, we urge our pastors and people to a liberal support of this great philanthropic institution.

Mattoon Memorial.

The trustees of Memorial Hospital submitted their report to the committee for consideration, which we incorporate and present as a part of our report, as follows:

Receipts.

Donations	$ 211.19
Treatment	8,009.69
Rents	368.21
Sale real estate	7,941.90
		$16,530.95

Disbursements.

Running expense	$ 7,186.12
Nurses' cottage	180.70
Interest	810.57
Repairs	618.76
Real estate, taxes, etc.....	375.04
Notes paid	6,365.46
Insurance	124.00
		$15,660.65

	$ 870.30
Number patients admitted	328
Number patients discharged	306
Number deaths	22
Average number of patients	12
Free patients treated	23
Free work	$546.00
Patients refused because of lack of room—more than.....	100
For the months of July and August—more than.....	70
Private rooms	6
Large ward will accommodate.....	7
Small ward will accommodate.....	4

Thus it will be seen that we can only accommodate 17 patients, except in emergencies, when the Office and Superintendent's rooms are used.

The Hospital building and grounds are out of debt, but the buildings are constantly in need of repairs. The building was constructed about forty years ago. Since converted into a Hospital it has been the means of rendering a great service to the sick and afflicted, but it is entirely inadequate to the demands of the present. We need accommodations for at least fifty patients. The Hospital is under good management; its Board of Trustees is composed of men numbered among the best business men of the community; and its Board and management are striving for the accomplishment of the greatest possible good.

We have the use and benefit of a farm of 320 acres, near the city of Mattoon, but it will be absolutely necessary to spend a large amount of money in tiling and draining this farm, in order to receive substantial benefits, and we believe these necessary expenditures will consume and absorb the rentals of the farm, for at least, two years to come, so that we can expect little from that source toward the running expense of the Hospital until after the farm has been put in good condition for the raising of crops.

When the founding of a hospital was first conceived a strip of land of nearly three acres adjoining this city was purchased for $2,700.00, but later the idea of constructing a hospital at that point was abandoned, and another and better site procured. The Hospital still owns the three acres, upon which there is a mortgage of $1,000.00. It is not believed by the present Board of Trustees that the land can be sold for more than $2,000.00 to $2,250.00. The land returns no income worthy of mention, and we are making an effort to dispose of it.

Our current bills are all paid up to September 1st of this year, but we still owe the $1,000.00 mortgage before mentioned; also a balance of about $450.00 on a note, and an annuity of $75.00.

It is not a condition precedent to admission for treatment into this Hospital that the applicant have money with which to pay for his treatment, or that the bill be secured, but the poor, the destitute, and they that have no money, are as freely admitted and as tenderly cared for as are those who have money or influential friends. Lack of room is the only bar—none are discriminated against. The large majority of patients treated are able to pay, and willingly do so, but it is not demanded.

In the death of Dr. D. M. McFall, the founder of the Hospital, we have met with an irreparable loss. As a conference we extend to the widow, Mrs. D. M. McFall, and son, Dr. J. A. McFall, our most sincere sympathy.

We would refer all those desiring information to communicate with the president, S. W. Phillips, or J. F. Lawson, Secretary, Mattoon, Illinois.

A. L. NORFLEET, Secretary.

METHODIST STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS.

Your committee on Work Among Methodist Students at the University of Illinois respectfully submit the following report:

We call attention to the great and increasing problem which confronts Illinois Methodism at our State University. The freshman class brought into this institution last year nearly 300 young people from the Methodist homes of the state and we feel that we are safe in estimating the number of Methodist students at 1,000. The opportunity and obligation represented by this body of young people are emphasized by the fact that the faculty of the University, although they are inhibited from official recognition to our denominational work, are in full and hearty sympathy with it, and are ready to give it all legitimate encouragement.

We wish to emphasize the fact that this problem belongs not to the Methodism of the University cities, but to the Methodism of the whole state. It is least of all a matter for the churches of Urbana and Champaign. These churches are taking care of their own young people and require no help whatever in solving their own problems. But to require or expect them, in addition to their own proper responsibilities, to assume a responsibility which belongs to the whole of Illinois Methodism, would be to ask what is unreasonable and impossible. The homes and communities from which these students come and to which the larger number of them will return must shoulder the responsibility of providing for their religious nurture during these critical college years.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we indorse the action of the Joint Commission from the Conferences of the state in the initiation of a campaign of education, and in arranging for the employment of assistants to work among students under the direction of the pastor of Trinity church, and we urge upon the Methodists of the Illinois Conference, that our full share of the money for this work be promptly raised and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Commission.

Resolved, That we commend the wisdom and foresight of the commission in taking steps to secure a valuable and strategically located property for the erection of a church house.

Resolved, That we earnestly request all our preachers to send to the pastor of Trinity church the names of all Methodist young people who are in attendance at the State University from their respective charges, and to use every effort to influence such young people to affiliate by letter with Trinity church, or at least, with some one of the Methodist churches of the University cities.

Resolved, That we memorialize the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, requesting the said Board to make a missionary appropriation to this Conference for the purpose of helping to support the assistants employed for work among Methodist students at the University of Illinois.

Resolved, That we recommend the continuance of the Joint Commission from the Conferences of the state, and we recommend as members of the commission from this Conference the following persons:

F. B. Madden, T. N. Ewing, F. A. McCarty, Jesse McHarry, Harvey Sconce, Samuel N. Bullard.

WAYS AND MEANS.

We, the members appointed by the Illinois Conference to serve on the Commission to devise ways and means for a more adequate dealing with the problem of the care of students from Methodist homes at the University of Illinois, beg leave to report as follows:

1. We found more than 1,000 Methodist students at the University, and the number is increasing each year.

2. The University authorities welcome constructive efforts of the Christian churches of the state to care for the young people.

3. We commend most heartily the work being done by Trinity church, and urge the recognition of the truth of Bishop McDowell's words that in the care of this large student body "it is the natural duty and privilege of the Church throughout the state to share."

4. Two assistants have been engaged by the Commission to help the pastor of Trinity church for this coming year. For their support we look to the Methodism of the state.

5. The Commission has also taken steps looking toward the building of a large Methodist House on the corner opposite Trinity.

6. We recommend that this Conference join with the other Conferences of the state in urging the claims of this work upon the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

7. We wish to express our cordial appreciation of the sympathy and help given us so far by individual members of the Board of Bishops, by the Northwestern Christian Advocate and the local Conference papers.

8. We recommend the continuance of the Commission during the coming year.

J. W. MILLER, Chairman.

J. W. VANCLEVE, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Your committee on State of the Country beg to submit the following:

Temperance and Reform—Anti-Saloon League.

We endorse the Anti-Saloon League as the best agency through which the federated churches of America can work to secure the abolition of the liquor traffic, and we condemn the scurrilous attacks which recently have been made upon the League under the cover of friendship for temperance and prohibition, and we re-affirm our confidence in our national and state leaders.

We nominate the Rev. Chris. Galeener, Horace Reed, and Joseph Harker as the representatives of the Illinois Conference on the Board of Directors of the state Anti-Saloon League to take the place of Rev. A. C. Byerly, deceased.

We urge the Christian voters of the Illinois Conference to petition their respective congressmen, urging each to do what he can for the passage of the Miller-Curtis Inter-State Liquor Bill, now pending.

We put ourselves on record as defending scientific temperance instruction in our public schools.

Church Temperance Society.

The purposes of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church are education and enlightenment. To this end, two Field Secretaries have been elected, to carry forward an aggressive campaign.

We urge the observance of Worlds Temperance Sunday Nov. 13 and the use of the program prepared for it, and in conformity to the spirit of Methodism we urge co-operation in making World's Temperance Sunday a success under our own auspices, and the taking of a free will offering for this work, the same to be forwarded to Alonzo E. Wilson, 92 La Salle street, Chicago.

We lament the Legislative scandals which have held the center of public thought for the past year, and we call upon our people to rally to the support of all good men who shall bring about conditions that will make a recurrence of such debaucheries of public trust an impossibility. We most heartily endorse the efforts of those States Attorneys in attempting to ferret out crime; and we commend the refusal of good men to recognize the claim to any title not honorably secured.

Divorce.

We feel that no greater evil threatens the American home than the very slack ideas held of the sanctity of the marriage vows. We call upon our Ministers to stand against this evil, and to live strictly to the letter of the Church Law concerning such things.

White Slave Trade.

Our attention has been called to the awful White Slave Traffic and its steady inroads upon the young life of the home. We commend the efforts already made for its suppression, and endorse the work of Dr. Horace Reed in the interests of social purity and move his continuance in the field of moving pictures.

Whereas, One of the most powerful means for influencing the formation of character is the impression made upon the mind by vivid suggestion, and one of the most potent means of suggestion is that of striking pictures; and

Whereas, The ordinary present day cheap Vaudeville picture shows are without doubt demoralizing in tone; Be it

Resolved, That we deplore the manifest evil influences of these and kindred institutions which, in many places, are not content with the week-day work, but use Sunday night as well, and that we will, as much as possible, discourage their patronage by our people.

Resolved, That we vigorously protest against the attempt to exclude the Bible from the public schools, realizing it to be the work of the foes of the Bible itself. We urge our state and national legislative officers to oppose all such attempted legislation. And we further record our disapproval of any assertion that the Bible is a sectarian book.

Sunday Chautauquas.

Whereas, Many of the Chautauquas held in our communities operate pay programs, which often tend to minister to Sabbath desecration, and to becloud the whole subject of Sunday observance in the minds of the people Therefore;

Resolved, That, while we commend the Chautauqua movement as a whole, we protest against the evils of the present system; and hereby express our disapproval of the Sunday pay program, and our opposition to giving up the Sunday services, unless it be for a religious program, free to the public.

HY S. ALKIRE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Realizing that the Sunday School is the Hope of the Church, We urge that the Sunday Schools of the Conference receive the largest possible attention during the next year. We call attention to the Disciplinary requirements regarding Rally Day and Decision Day. We recommend the adoption of the International Course of Graded Sunday School Lessons in all of our Sunday Schools so far as practical. We urge upon all pastors the importance of raising in their charges the full apportionment for the support of the Board of Sunday Schools which is equal to 1 1-2 per cent of the total ministerial support.

At the request of the Board of Sunday Schools, we recommend the organization of a Conference Board of Sunday Schools consisting of one minister and one layman from each District to be named by the District Superintendents. The District Superintendents shall be ex-officio members of this Board. This Board shall be auxiliary to the General Conference Board of Sunday Schools, and shall have general oversight of the Sunday Schools of the Conference.

These officers, with the presidents of the several Districts, to constitute the Conference Cabinet.

F. F. GARRETT, Chairman.

E. A. WEAVER, Secretary.

TRUSTEES.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in Grace Church, Jacksonville, Sept. 16th. 1910.

Present W. N. McElroy, S. H. Whitlock, Geo. E. Scrimger, C. B. Taylor and Horace Reed.

W. A. Smith, the president, not being present, W. N. McElroy, the vice president, occupied the chair.

The Treasurer, C. B. Taylor, made his annual report, which was received and on motion of S. H. Whitlock was placed on file.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock the Treasurer was directed to pay over to the Board of Stewards $700.00, the amount of accrued interest on invested funds.

On motion of Geo. Scrimger, C. B. Taylor was re-elected treasurer.

The following action was taken in relation to the McFarland fund. On motion of C. B. Taylor, M. G. Coleman was nominated to preach the Straw-bridge sermon with A. C. Flanigan as alternate.

S. H. Whitlock moved that the Bishop be requested to appoint C. B. Taylor Financial Agent of the Conference Claimants Fund.

On motion of Geo. Scrimger the board adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS.

Welcome to Dr. Davidson.

Whereas, Dr. W. J. Davidson, formerly a member of this conference, who for many years enjoyed our highest esteem, for his fraternal spirit, for his worth and work's sake, and left us two years ago, followed by our best wishes and prayers, to another field of labor; and,

Whereas, He has recently been elected to a professorship in Garrett Biblical Institute, bringing him, in his labors, in close proximity to the bounds of this Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we shall heartily welcome him back to membership in this Conference, and hereby request Bishop Cranston to transfer him back among us, assuring Dr. Davidson that we welcome him again to a place in our councils, and his old place in our heartts.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Bequest of Wm. H. McFarland.

Whereas, The late William H. McFarland, of Clinton, Illinois, did by his last Will and Testament, bequeath to the Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, in trust for the use and benefit of the Clinton Methodist Episcopal Church, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000) the income of which was to be paid to the Trustees of the Clinton Methodist Episcopal Church, and

Whereas, It is not convenient for the Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference to execute said trust, Therefore,

Resolved, That we the members of the said board of Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, hereby resign the said trust and suggest that the Court having jurisdiction in the matter appoint as our successors in trust the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Clinton, Illinois, the Treasurer to be bonded according to the statute of the state.

The resolution was adopted.

In Memoriam

THOMAS JAMES WHEAT, D.D.

Departed

The morning drum call on my eager ear
Thrills unforgettable yet; the morning dew
Lies yet undried along my field of noon.
But now I pause at whiles in what I do
And count the bell, and tremble lest I hear (My work untrimmed) the sunset bell too soon.

—Stevenson.

THOMAS JAMES WHEAT was born April 23, 1843, in Portland, Ind., and died in Rantoul, Jan. 16, 1910, aged 66 years, 8 months and 23 days. His ancestors came to America from Oxfordshire, England, after the war of the Revolution and settled in Maryland, where his great grandfather, a communicant of the Roman Catholic church, was converted under the preaching of Bishop Soule and became a Methodist preacher.

Dr. Wheat's father was a millwright. He died when his four children were quite young. An uncle, Benjamin Wheat, was a member of the Central Illinois Conference and is buried at Bloomington, Ill. His brother, Charles, was a member of the Upper Iowa Conference until his death in Dubuque, Iowa, last spring.

He was married to Sarah Martin Aug. 21, 1860. To them were born six children: Mrs. Rosa Tingley, who died; Charles Wheat, of Chicago; Mrs. Anna Foster, of Greenfield, Ill.; Mrs. Laura Bailey, of Tulsa, Okla.; Samuel Wheat, of Fort Worth, Texas, and William H. Wheat, of Rantoul, Illinois.

One year after his marriage he enlisted in the Third Iowa Cavalry and was not finally mustered out until the fall of 1865. His was an honorable record of service for the flag he loved so much.

He was converted at Salem, Iowa, under the preaching of Lieutenant Colonel William A. Pyle, a militant Methodist preacher, and was licensed to preach while in camp in Little Rock, Ark., by the Union Band organized in his regiment. At the close of the war his license was renewed by the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Salem, Iowa.

Dr. Wheat was educated in the public schools of Indiana and Iowa, and at Baird's Classical Seminary. His instructor in the languages was the scholarly J. S. Bardwick, late professor in Lewis College, and in law in the non-resident course of the Chicago University.

In 1869 Dr. Wheat began preaching regularly as pastor of the Reform School in Iowa. In 1870 he was assigned to Williamstown circuit in Missouri. Besides holding revival meetings at all of the seven appointments in this charge, a good church was erected at Williamstown. In 1871 he was appointed to Canton, Mo., the seat of the University of the Disciple church. Here a successful revival meeting was held and a new church building erected. In 1873 he was appointed to Edina, Mo., where on the circuit three new churches were built and successful revival meetings were held at all of them. In 1876 he was sent to Kahoka, Mo., where he did a grand work. In 1879 he was stationed at Mexico, Mo., where Hardin college is located. Here he had successful revivals and built a parsonage, besides paying off a heavy church debt. In 1882 he became pastor of the Kirksville, Mo., charge, where the large church was completed and extensive revivals held. In 1885 he was appointed presiding elder of the Hannibal District in the Missouri Conference. At the close of a successful term on the district he transferred to the Illinois Conference and was stationed for four years at the Trinity church, Quincy. At the close of his first year in this charge he was also made vice-president of Chaddock College and served in this dual relation for three years. Here he received his degree of Doctor of Divinity. Quincy has had few ministers of the Gospel more popular personally than was the deceased. An instance may be cited by quoting from the files of the Quincy Herald of September 18th, 1892, the Sunday on which the Doctor closed his third year's pastorate. Of the occasion the Herald said: "Dr. Wheat preaches his farewell sermon today, but if Quincy people of every class have anything to say he will be back in Trinity next year. Judge Bonney personally circulated a petition among the business men, irrespective of church or creed, asking the conference to return him. A large number, including the mayor, signed the petition." In 1893 he was appointed to Mattoon, where for four years he served faithfully and acceptably this difficult field. One of the greatest revivals that ever came to this charge was held under his ministry. It was during the week of Conference preceding this appointment to Mattoon that the governor appointed him chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' home in Quincy, which he declined. In 1897 he was assigned to Grace church, Bloomington. Here the heavy church debt was largely reduced and the benevolences greatly advanced. In 1899 he became pastor of the church in Rantoul and in 1901 he was appointed to Greenfield, where a fine church was completed and paid for, a new parsonage purchased and a large ingathering came to the church as the result of a blessed revival. In 1905 he became pastor of the church in Sullivan. During his four years at that charge many improvements were made, among which was the installation of a fine pipe organ, fully paid for. As a result of a great union meeting many members were added to the church. During the first two years of this last pastorate he did splendid work for the Memorial Hospital at Mattoon as financial manager. It was through his influence that the endowment for the institution was secured.

His health began to fail during the third year of this pastorate at Sullivan. Three times during that period he suffered fainting spells in the pulpit. Having regained his wonted vigor he continued another year as pastor, though it was apparent to his friends that he was overtaxing his weakened constitution. At the session of the Conference in Mattoon last September he asked for the superannuate relation and thus closed a ministry of forty years of effective service.

While on his way to Rantoul with his wife on December 18, 1909, he was stricken by paralysis at Decatur. His loved one succeeded in getting him to the home of his son in that city and though he rallied sufficient to converse with his friends, he never became strong enough to leave his bed. On Jan. 15, 1910, another stroke came and at a quarter past six the evening of Jan. 16, 1910, he quietly went to his home above.

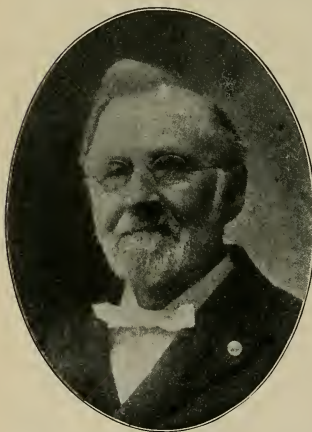

Dr. Wheat was loyal to his country, his church and his Christ. He was a clear, logical, earnest and evangelical preacher. He was a diligent student of the Word of God. He maintained his studious habits to the close of this life. He kept in sympathy with the life of the whole church. He was an ideal pastor, to the poor, the discouraged, the tempted, the afflicted, the bereft, he and his devoted wife had the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time. He carried cheer and hope into all the homes of his charge.

Faithful servant of God, well done. You have discharged every order from the great Captain of our salvation. Now you have entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The funeral services were held at Rantoul, January 18, 1910. The following ministers took part: F. A. Havighurst, the pastor; W. F. Beadles, J. E. Artz, District Superintendent Shields, Dr. Horace Reed and District Superintendent Madden.

PARKER SHIELDS.

REV. REUBEN GREGG.

REUBEN GREGG was born in Waterbury, Vermont, July 31, 1828, and died Sept. 23, 1909, at his home in Princeton, Kansas, aged 81 years, 1 month and 23 days. He was the youngest of a family of eight children, six boys and two girls, all of whom with the exception of one sister, have passed on to the other world. Two of his brothers and the husband of one sister were ministers of the Gospel. He was married, Jan. 10, 1867, to Fannie M. Bird, daughter of the Rev. R. Bird, for years a member of the Illinois Conference. He was bereaved of his beloved wife, June 10, 1905. Four children survive him, as follows: C. W. Gregg of Princeton, Kans.; Dr. A. C. Gregg of Aguilar, Colo.; A. B. Gregg of Clairemont, Okla., and Mrs. Dr. Crocker of Ewing, Mo.

Brother Gregg was converted at Waterbury, Conn., March 8, 1841, and was received on trial in the Troy Conference in 1854, serving that year at Green Island and North Troy; 1855, North Troy; 1856, Williston, and 1857, St. Albans. After serving for a time as Conference Temperance evangelist, he was received into the Illinois Conference and served as follows: York, 1868; Har-ristown, 1869-71; Payson, 1872-74; Augusta, 1875; Columbus, 1876-77; Mechanicsburg, 1878-79; Camp Point, 1880, and Mt. Sterling, 1881. In 1882 he took a superannuate relation and moved to Princeton, Kans., where he continued to reside until he was called hence.

He was a man strong in the pulpit and with pen. He was the author of several books, the last of which, "God Is Love," contains his richest and maturest thought. He had rendered good service in his charges and had, during the active years of his ministry, delivered 7,109 sermons and addresses. His last sermon was delivered a little more than a month and a half before his death from the words, "Great peace have they who love thy law and nothing shall offend them." Being of a fiery temperament he was susceptible of high emotions. One remembers seeing him in a state of great joy, at a camp meeting at Clayton, Ill., in 1878; when he left the speakers' platform and walked the aisles of the camp, apparently trying to restrain himself, but fairly bursting forth with the high praises of God. He will be greatly missed from the little church where he worshipped in later years. He has gone from the Church militant to the Church triumphant, and his steps will not be feeble and slow as he walks the gold-paved streets of the New Jerusalem.

Funeral services were held at Princeton, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. C. I. Rose, assisted by the Revs. Pugh and Emerson of Ottawa. The pall bearers were chosen from the G. A. R. post. Beautiful floral offerings were given by several societies of the church and community and were much appreciated by the family. Burial was in the Princeton cemetery.

REV. W. T. HEATER

DEATH again wins the victory. Sunday evening, Aug. 14, 1910, at 8 o'clock, after an illness of nearly eight months, Rev. William T. Heater gave up the struggle and passed away at his home, 520 Madison street. For the last four months Rev. Heater was confined to his bed much of the time.

He came from his work last winter broken and enfeebled, and was not able to recover his strength. A very stubborn, though mild form of pneumonia attacked him that, added to valvular heart trouble, gradually wore down a naturally strong constitution. Mr. Heater and family have made their home in Quincy for the past five years. Most of the time he has been employed as sales agent for the Egg-O-See company. They came to Quincy from Litchfield, where Mr. Heater and son were engaged in the grocery business. Mr. Heater was engaged in the work of the ministry for about fifteen years. He entered the Illinois Conference in 1889. The session of the conference that year was held in the Vermont Street Methodist church of Quincy. He served the following charges: Chesterfield, Oakford, Palmyra, Franklin, Newman, Warrensburg. Mr. Heater was a very successful minister. He was highly esteemed wherever he served as a minister for the sterling qualities of his character and for the excellence of his work. As a preacher Mr. Heater was an earnest and faithful expounder of the Gospel. He was well grounded in theology and felt deeply the truths he preached to others. It was a frequent thing for men and women of his congregations to be deeply impressed by his words and to seek to turn toward a better way of living. His associations with the people of the various charges was very pleasantly and mutually helpful. He came from the ranks of the people and knew their needs and knew how to reach and inspire them to nobler living. Many could be found today in the various walks of life who owe to Brother Heater the first deep impression to lead a Christian life.

Mr. Heater was born near White Hall, February 24, 1853. His father, Solomon Heater, was one of the strong men of his community and was widely known as a man of striking personality. Mr. Heater was married to Miss Myra L. Culbertson, May 28, 1873, who survives him. To them were born seven children, four of whom died while quite young. Three are living: Arthur of Newman, Carl of Omaha, and Ruth, who lives at home. None of Mr. Heater's father's family survive him save a half sister, Mrs. Emily Mitchell.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist church, White Hall, Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. J. W. Miller preached the funeral sermon. These two brethren entered the Illinois conference the same year. A number of ministers from adjacent towns attended the funeral.—Quincy Methodist.

JAMES ALEXANDER WEST

JAMES ALEXANDER WEST was born in the parsonage at Nokomis, Illinois, March 29, 1876. His father, Rev. James M. West, was for many years an honored member of the Illinois Conference and went to his reward in November, 1906.

Brother West entered the Illinois Wesleyan University in 1894 and was graduated from that school, with the degree of B. S. in 1899; A. B. in 1902, and A. M. in 1903. He studied two years in Northwestern and Garrett, and one year in Boston University, from which he received his degree of S. T. B. in 1903.

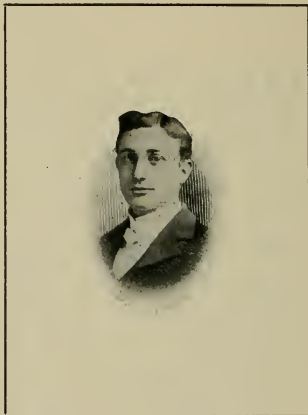

Brother West married Miss Mary Josephine Varty of Chicago, Sept. 19, 1901. She and their children, Dorothy and Robert, survive him.

The deceased was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1899. Aside from supply work, his appointments were, Cantrall, and Lucretia Chapel, Bloomington. In 1905 he took detached work in the University of Illinois and became first assistant in the department of Entomology. Despite his outdoor life, tuberculosis made him its victim. After some months in the tent colony at Ottawa, a violent hemorrhage from the lungs brought the end, April 17, 1910.

Brother West was converted early in life and united with the church. His Christian life was quiet and faithful. After an attack of sickness last year, he said to a friend: "I never knew such intimate communion with God before: He seems so near to me and is such a real friend." Not knowing the gravity of his case then, he looked forward to years of life and service.

Quiet and unassuming, and faithful, Brother West has left us just when life seemed to hold much of promise for him; but his Lord has given him fullness of life at his right hand.

REV. JAMES SHAW, D. D.

REV. JAMES SHAW, D.D., was born in the County Longford, Ireland, July 29, 1820. The family was Scotch-Irish in descent. Raised in the Established, or Episcopal, church, at 16 years of age he was converted during a revival conducted by Sergeant Wilson of the regular army. He then joined the Methodist church, as did his father, mother and other members of the family. He had previously hoped to be a missionary in the Episcopal church, but now planned to be a Methodist preacher. He attended college in Dublin for some time and then was assigned to a mission at Mount Shannon, where he both taught school and preached. Here he had one of the largest revivals of that day. At this time the Irish famine came and he was put in charge of the distribution of food by the commission. His next Irish charges were Lisburne, Lucon, and Newton Limavady. He then followed his parents to Bloomington, Illinois.

He arrived in America after the session of Conference, but took work under Rev. Mr. Bartholomew on the Bloomington Grove circuit. Then followed Petersburg, 1856-7; Old Town, 1858; Decatur circuit, 1859; Clinton, 1860-1; Rushville, 1862-3; Atlanta, 1864-5; Tuscola, 1867-8; Urbana, 1869; Pana, 1870-2; Charleston, 1873; Farmer City, 1874-5; Rossville, 1876-8; Griggsville, 1879-80; Quincy, Trinity, 1881; Beardstown, 1882-3; Agent Preachers' Aid Society, 1884-9; Agent Epworth League Conference, 1890; Downs, 1891; Bloomington Mission, 1903; superannuated, 1903.

In 1856 he returned to Ireland and married Miss Mary B. Coley of Lucan. Her father was a wealthy and prominent Methodist layman.

Dr. Shaw did not confide all of his energies to the active work of the church. He was one of the most public spirited men of Bloomington and turned a great deal of his attention to the charitable institutions. He was for several years president and agent for the Deaconess hospital and was the main one who influenced the late Abram Brokaw to give a large sum of money to that institution, which was afterward named for him and which now bears his name. Brokaw had loaned the hospital $10,000 and was not satisfied with the manner in which the interest was being paid. Dr. Shaw went to him and induced him to donate the sum of $50,000, the institution thereafter bearing his name.

While agent for the Preachers' Aid Society he raised over $40,000. He was one of the pioneers that organized this society. He was especially interested in it as he knew what had been accomplished in the Irish Conference, where a superannuated minister receives some $450 a year.

Six years ago in company with his son, Mr. James H. Shaw, the chaquetaqua manager, the deceased went to the International Sunday school convention at Jerusalem and while on the boat enroute from New York to London, interviewed Andrew Carnegie, who was also making the trip across the water. The two gentlemen greatly resembled each other, were both of Scotch descent, and a friendship sprang up between them which was of great interest to the deceased. While talking to Mr. Carnegie, he mentioned the fact that the Wesleyan was in need of funds for its support and the millionaire said that on his return to America he would have his secretary take up the matter. The result is well known, for President Barnes of the Wesleyan started the movement that was completed by Dr. Kemp.

While in Jerusalem on this trip Dr. Shaw was much impressed with the fact that the only Protestant church or mission in Jerusalem was a high Episcopal and all the great Evangelical denominations were unrepresented in the City of Our Lord.

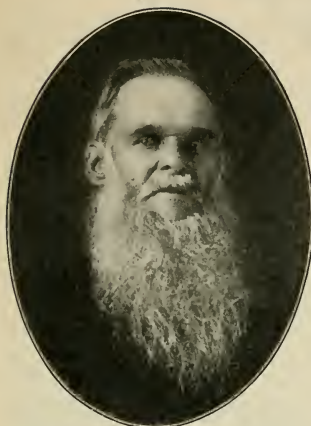

He so interested himself in securing a Methodist mission in Jerusalem, that largely through his instrumentality, the widow of the late Bishop Newman willed property, valued at $25,000, for the establishing of a Methodist mission there.

Rev. Mr. Shaw was for a time editor of the American Methodist Magazine and in addition, wrote four books, as follows: "The Scotch-Irish in History," "Temperance Reforms," "The Roman Conflict," and "American Resources." He had other books in process of writing at the time of his death.

Dr. Shaw died at his home, 705 South Center street, Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 11, 1910. He was ill about ten days. Valvular insufficiency of the heart was the cause of his death. If he had lived to July 29 he would have been 90 years old, but did not seem so old, as he was very active. He regularly conducted a large Bible class in the First Methodist Sunday school. The funeral took place in the First Methodist church, Bloomington, at 2:30, Jan. 13. It was an innovation. Rev. Jay W. Somerville, the pastor, and Dr. Theodore Kemp, president of the Wesleyan, were in charge. The exercises were in the form of the old Methodist Love Feast. No one was called on to speak, but the various preachers voluntarily spoke or started one of the old hymns and the congregation joined in the singing. The class meeting, or love feast, plan of exercises seem to take away a great portion of the heavy pall of ordinary funerals. When the congregation rolled out, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Am I a Soldier of the Cross" and others of the grand old songs of the church there was uplift and the great work of the preacher of the Gospel of Christ stood out so strong that the sorrow of his departure was lightened. There remain of the family, his wife, Mary B. Shaw, and his son, James H. Shaw. Two daughters died in infancy. There is also one sister, Mrs. Kate Dean, of Bloomington; Mr. William Shaw, brother, and Mr. Alexander Shaw, brother, in Montreal.

PHILIP FRANCIS GAY

PHILIP FRANCIS GAY was born in Prince Edwards Island, April 28, 1835, and died at Ohlman, Ill., May 9, 1910, aged 75 years and 11 days. His parents emigrated to Taunton, Mass., in 1841, and his mother died two years later. The family moved several times and in 1850 came to Wisconsin, where they settled on a farm near Fond du Lac. Here he attended school and worked on the farm, in the pineries, taught school and worked at the carpenter's trade. He was converted in 1854, and his life ripened into great beauty as the years passed by.

His first residence in Illinois was at Payson in 1858, and later at Barry. In 1860 he again returned to Wisconsin and from there went as a soldier in the 21st Vol. Inf. in 1862. He was in a number of historic struggles, faced death and starvation and was one of the 308, left of his regiment of 1012, at the close of the war. He fought at Perryville, saw the triumphs of Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge; he was at the siege of Atlanta, and went with Sherman to the sea. He was honorably discharged June 17, 1865.

On Sept. 5, 1860, he was married to Amy S. Bacheller, and to them were born five children, two of whom died in infancy, and the following, with the wife, survive him: Minnie L. Osborn, of California; Francis E., of Pittsfield, Ill., and Flora S. McAfee, of Springfield, Ill.

He became a licensed exhorter in the Methodist church in 1861. In 1866 he received local elder's orders and took charge of the United Brethren church at Chilton, Mo. He later served several charges in the United Brethren conference. He came to Illinois and joined the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in September, 1877, and served the following charges: Atwood, Oconee, Assumption, Blue Mound, Harristown, Mount Pulaski, Warrensburg, Rosemond, Griggsville Circuit, Palmyra, Greenfield Circuit, Manchester, Girard and Edinburg Circuit. He was appointed to Clarksburg in 1902 but was unable to go and he superannuated in 1903. Brother Gay was a good man, and faithful to the charges he served. He was earnest, honest, industrious and pious, but his chief characteristic was cheerfulness. He was the embodiment of hope. His heart was full of kindness and his face of sunshine. His affability attracted to him multitudes of friends and he literally had no enemies.

Funeral services were held at Ohlman, May 10, Rev. B. F. Shipp officiating, and the remains were laid away to rest at the Rosemond cemetery.

ABNER CLARK.

MARY B. SPRUILL

WITH the passing of this saintly pilgrim of the cross there ceases to exist longer in this life a noble woman and a faithful disciple of Christ. Like Paul's character, Persis, it can be said of the subject of this sketch, "she labored much in the Lord."

Mrs. Spruill lived a life of sanctity and service, though it may never have drawn the public gaze in a conspicuous way and the record of which may not be written in any earthly book. But it was a life beautiful for its devotion, and expressed in the kindly acts which she performed and made her worthy to be classed with the mothers in Israel. Her loved ones, relatives, and those with whom she ministered, testify that a womanly heart, expanded by the love of God, has enlarged its borders, has passed beyond the limits of the family circle, and has commanded the reverence and love of God.

Born in Scott County, Ky., Nov. 25, 1837, Mary B. Babbitt was the child of the parsonage. Her father was the Rev. Carlisle Babbitt, who, though being a native of Vermont, was one of the pioneer Methodist ministers in Kentucky, but later transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference, and at the time of his death was presiding elder of the Olney District. His daughter, Mary, was married Oct. 3, 1854, to the Rev. W. F. T. Spruill and no Methodist minister ever had a more efficient and loyal helpmate. Her character was an unusual combination of rare qualities, strength, piety, intelligence, sympathy, self-sacrifice and consecrated service. In every church where they served Mrs. Spruill made an ineffaceable impression of the beauty and glory of Christian womanhood. In each she gathered precious souls for the Master's kingdom.

Christian missions lay heavily on her heart, and to their advancement she contributed her best service and possessions. Sister Spruill had great power and fervency in prayer and gave exulting and moving testimonies to deep experiences of God's love and grace to save to the uttermost. Her testimonies were an outgrowth of an intimate knowledge of her Bible. It was to her a treasure book and a storehouse from which she drew supplies for every need. Its counsels, admonitions and promises were constantly in her thoughts and on her lips.

The joy of a life well lived was witnessed in the closing moments of Mrs. Spruill's earthly existence. A halo rested upon her sick room and a benediction fell upon those privileged to enter it. The call of the King came to her at the blessed Christmas tide, and instead of transient earthly gifts she received her immortal crown. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yea, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Mrs. Spruill died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. John Punton, in Kansas City, Dec. 27, 1909, in her seventy-second year. The funeral services were in charge of Dr. E. Combie Smith, pastor of the family. Dr. J. W. Jennings offered prayer, District Superintendent

Campbell read the Scripture lessons and Dr. Smith and Dr. C. B. Spencer delivered addresses. The body was taken to Evanston, Ill., for interment.

Sister Spruill has gone home, but the memory of her saintly life and the genial sunshine of her Christ-like spirit abide.

LOUELLA B. MAYFIELD NORFLEET

MRS. LOUELLA B. MAYFIELD NORFLEET was born in Lebanon, Mo., Feb. 8, 1871, and died in Edgar, Ill., Oct. 19, 1909. The immediate cause of her death was heart failure, after an illness of two weeks. She had for a number of months previous been greatly worn and overburdened with the care of her aged mother in Lebanon, Mo. This service, which she cheerfully rendered, overtaxed her strength. Added to this, while her husband was in attendance at the session of the Illinois Conference in September last, Sister Norfleet was severely burned by the bursting of a jar of hot fruit, which she was sealing and the injury and fright were such that she never fully recovered from the shock. These, with a complication of physical difficulties, so weakened her condition that she passed away suddenly.

In 1894 she was married to the Rev. A. L. Norfleet, at that time a member of the St. Louis Conference. To this union were born three children, one daughter and two sons. Mrs. Norfleet was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in her childhood, and became an active and earnest worker in the church. She was educated in the Woman's College at Lexington, Mo., and became a leader among the young people. She was always a ready helper to her husband and the charges where they served. She loved her home, her family and the church. To these she devoted her strength and energy, and in these her Christian character shone the brightest and best. The funeral services were conducted at Edgar, Ill., by the Rev. S. H. Whitlock, assisted by the Rev. J. E. Strevey. The body was taken to Lebanon, Mo., and deposited in the Lebanon cemetery near that of her mother, who had just gone on a little before.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

JULIA A. MOORE

JULIA A. MOORE, widow of the late Rev. W. H. H. Moore, died at her home in Normal, Ill., Dec. 8, 1909. She had been failing for many weeks and the end was not unexpected.

She was born in Livingston county, N. Y., July 3, 1818, and came west with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Hungerford, in 1836. They came with a number of other families in wagons part of the way and then by boats of their own construction down the Ohio river and up the Wabash, landing at Darwin, Ill., near which place they resided many years. On Nov. 6, 1838, she was married to the Rev. W. H. H. Moore. For more than sixty years these two walked together through life in the service of their Master; forty years of that time being spent in the itinerant ministry in the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Moore served charges at Danville, Georgetown, Urbana, Rushville, Clinton, Bloomington district, Mason City, Leroy and elsewhere. He was Presiding Elder several terms; and after taking up his residence at Normal he did mission work in and around Bloomington.

In the spring of 1867 they purchased the property at 905 Hovey avenue, Normal, where they spent their later years, and where Doctor Moore passed to his reward in the other world on Sept. 8, 1899. After the death of Mr. Moore, his son-in-law, the Rev. George W. Read, and family lived with Mrs. Moore and strove to make her last days as comfortable as possible.

In her early life the deceased was quite a student and for several years before marriage was a teacher. In her later years her mind was strong and active, and her memory excellent. The passages of scripture and poetry which she learned years ago were a great comfort to her, as she repeated them over to herself or family, word for word. Her character was a true example of Christianity; her aim being to aid others in every way possible. She was a true and devoted helpmeet to her husband through his labors in the ministry. She was the mother of nine children, six sons and three daughters. Four of the sons, with their families, survive her, while the others have passed away. The surviving are: Thomas W. and John H. Moore, of Lincoln, Neb.; William E. Moore, of Red Oak, Ia., and Robert E. Moore, of Stamford, Conn. Those who have gone before are: Charles H. and James Moore, Mrs. Mary S. Read, Mrs. Julia M. Byerly, and Olive, who died in infancy. There are surviving twenty-two grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren. She is also survived by one brother, the Rev. Bradley Hungerford of Los Angeles, Cal., and one sister, Mrs. Clarissa Evans of West York, Ill.

The body was interred beside the remains of her husband in the cemetery at Urbana, Ill.

Funeral services were held from the late residence, Normal, Dec. 10th, in charge of the Rev. J. W. Sommerville, pastor of First Church, Bloomington, assisted by the Rev. R. E. Smith, pastor of First M. E. Church, Normal. The remains were taken by train to Urbana and laid beside those of her husband. Her four sons, and two grandsons were present at the impressive funeral services.

RACHEL HENRY WEST

RACHEL HENRY was born in Limavady, County Derry, Ireland, Dec. 16, 1833. She was married to Henry Salthouse in 1851. To them were born four children: Mrs. R. S. Simpson, John T. and Henry L., all of McPherson, Kansas, and Mrs. D. H. Henschie, who died last July. Mr. Salthouse died in 1859. In April, 1864, she was married to the Rev. James M. West, who was for more than forty-eight years a member of the Illinois Conference. One son, James A., of Urbana, blessed this union. Brother West went to his reward Nov. 8, 1906, and his devoted wife joined him Jan. 11, 1910, from McPherson, Kansas.

Blessed with good health and untiring energy, Sister West discharged faithfully the duties of the wife of an itinerant Methodist minister. Her sympathy responded quickly to the needs of the sick and sorrowful; her interest in all departments of church work was unfailing and her buoyant faith and hope where unfaltering. Her delight was to point the penitent soul to the Lamb of God; and many through her prayers found a personal Savior.

Sister West's own Christian experience was very definite. She knew that the blood of Jesus Christ cleansed her from sin, and rejoiced in His power to sanctify wholly. Last fall a relative visited her, expecting to find her saddened by her daughter's death. With serene confidence she talked of the Christian life and beautiful home-going of her dear one. Her mind was alert, her interest in old friends active and her desire for the advancement of God's kingdom her absorbing passion. She rejoiced in the abiding presence of her Savior and spoke of going "to be with the Lord."

Her life remained active until near the last. Then seven weeks of intense pain dissolved her earthly tabernacle and she went to be "Forever with the Lord."

MRS. O. H. P. ASH

MRS. ASH was born at Liberty, Ind., December 15th, 1828. She was united in marriage to Rev. O. H. P. Ash who was a young Methodist preacher in Indiana, Oct. 15th, 1846. For twenty three years they served the church in Indiana, coming to the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1869. For many years they labored together in this conference building up the kingdom, strengthening the church and training a large family of children, ten in all, of whom five survive, all of whom were led into the fellowship and service of the church. For several years they lived in their little home in Adams County, Ill.

From this home Rev. Ash passed on in the strength of the Christian's Hope, July 17th, 1904. Mrs. Ash was a noble Christian woman. She was admirably fitted, both by natural and acquired graces of disposition, for the difficult relationships of a minister's wife. She was able to render invaluable service to her husband in his work. Her counsel, her influence, her fine Christian example and spirit were important factors wherever they served the church. Her knowledge of human nature, her tact and sympathy fitted her for leadership among the people. Since her husband's death she has grown feebler very rapidly. For the last two years the vital powers have been low. Last spring she seemed near the end. In August the children were called home for the parting greeting. She finished her long and beautiful Christian career on earth Sept. 2nd., 1910. She was buried in Woodland Cemetery, Quincy, Ill., by the side of her husband. Five children survive, Conwell Ash, Anderson, Ind.; Dr. J. M. Ash, Redlands, Calif.; Rollin Ash, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mrs. C. W. Monson, Washington; Miss Anna Ash, Quincy, Ill.

Nomination for Conference Boards—On motion of F. B. Madden it was ordered that the nominations of the District Superintendents for members of the various Conference Boards be confirmed without reading the names.

Courtesies—J. C. Nate read for the Committee on Resolutions an expression of our appreciation for the courtesies shown the Conference during the session just closing. On motion of J. O. Kirkpatrick the Conference endorsed the resolutions by a rising vote.

Election of Robert Stephens—On motion of H. C. Gibbs the Conference voted to retain Robert Stephens in the office which he held last year as Corresponding Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund, and also that he be elected Conference Evangelist.

Final Adjournment—S. H. Whitlock moved that after the reading of the Minutes and the closing devotional service, the reading of the appointments followed by the benediction should conclude the session and that the Conference should adjourn without date.

J. C. Willits moved to amend that the Conference dispense with the reading of the Minutes and instruct the Secretary to edit them for publication. The amendment was approved and the motion carried as amended.

Charles Wesley's Hymn, 568, "Come let us anew our journey pursue," was sung, and prayer was offered by E. B. Randle. The appointments were read, and the Conference of 1911 adjourned sine die, with the benediction by Bishop Moore.

Conference Studies

Board of Examiners

Chairman—W. A. Smith, Virden.

Registrar—J. M. Bennington, Arcola.

Examiners—Walter Aitken, Danville; J. C. Baker, Urbana; H. M. Derby, Sidell; W. D. Fairchild, Paxton; E. A. Hedges, Augusta; E. H. Lugg, Ross-ville; R. F. McDaniel, Urbana; F. A. McCarty, Jacksonville; C. F. McKown, Waggoner; J. W. Miller, Jacksonville; J. C. Nate, Champaign; H. H. O'Neal, Nashville, Tenn.; C. D. Robertson, Heyworth; R. L. Steed, Green Valley; S. W. Thornton, Cerro Gordo; W. N. Tobie, Lincoln; C. M. Barton, Moweaqua; M. M. Want, Greenfield.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examinations for 1911-12.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the Chairman and Registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies names in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the Chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the Chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the Chairman shall arrange with a member of the Conference as Special Supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

(a) Before the day of examination the Registrar will supply the Supervisors with questions on all the books on which examinations are to be conducted, which shall cover the books for the whole Course of Study for the August Period.

(b) As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.

(c) Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the Chairman of the Board.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the Chairman of the Board. Such appeals shall be decided by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. No syllabus or book Review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period:

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....
 (Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.
 (Signed.....

These certificates will be forwarded by the District Supervisors to the Registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in the Methodist Review.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. "All Grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the Conference Examiners, shall be designated by the letter 'P', as an indication of Passing Grade."

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the Chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the Chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examine, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondents, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the Chairman; and the financial accounts of the Chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the Board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of Orders, at least thirty days before Conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the Chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of District Superintendents to report to the Chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference Classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of *12:30 o'clock p. m. Examinations to begin at 9:30 o'clock a. m. of same day, to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at each Annual Conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors. Rule Fifteen to be amended by adding the clause, "and no one can be 'Honour Man', who shall not have (50) Fifty Per Cent Conference Grades."

*Further, Rule Fifteen shall be amended to read, "The Annual Meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of, and on the day before the First day of the Annual Conference, at 2:30 p. m. Examinations to begin at 9 a. m. on the same day, to examine any who have not been examined, &c., &c."

Reports

A. District Superintendents

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT

To Bishop David H. Moore and Members of the Illinois Conference:

Dear Brethren:

In giving my second annual report I am prompted to a spirit of thanksgiving for the many blessings and successes that have come to the pastors and charges of the Bloomington District.

In an age when many attractions vie with the churches in an appeal to the people, our preachers find themselves confronted with increasingly new and difficult problems. The situation demands a profound conviction and knowledge of man's deeper need, and the power of Christ to satisfy that need.

This is an age demanding excellence in the pulpit and faithfulness in pastoral work in order to win the attention and allegiance of the people to the claims of the Kingdom; to worthily direct an ever broadening public intelligence, and to divert toward nobler and higher ends the present headlong pursuit for superficial attractions.

In a survey of this work over the Bloomington District I shall speak briefly regarding some of the major items of interest.

Revivals

It is worthy of note that in a territory enriched again and again by the great revivals of the past, the promise of sweeping revivals has for the present been unrealized. The preoccupation of mind in competition of business, in pursuit of pleasure makes the immediate surrender in large numbers to the appeals of Christ an ever more difficult matter.

To meet these changed conditions we must have an ideal co-extensive with the year, not the spectacular meeting of a few weeks duration, but an evangelism that continues throughout the year in its uplifting and converting power. If this is not the experience of our pastors doubtless it should be. I believe that if every preacher of our great church should labor to this end, and the members cooperate we would have such an aggregate ingathering as has not been realized for many years.

Sunday School

The Sunday School continues to prosper. Never have I seen more men actively associated with the school than now. We have an enrollment of eight hundred in our Men's Bible classes. This is indeed a happy omen for the future.

The study of the Bible is of perennial interest and appeals to the best minds. Not only is this interest and study of supreme benefit to the men themselves, but it is also valuable as an influence and example to our youth. No longer can our boys declare themselves too old to attend Sunday School. As pastors we should encourage every advance movement to make our schools more efficient and attractive. At First Church, Bloomington, and at Delavan, the pastors have combined the Sunday School and morning service in order the better to reach these young lives. I would suggest a conference of the preachers to consider this form of service. Unless something is done the Sanctuary will lose its hold upon childhood now, and in after years its attractiveness and importance. Get the children out to the preaching service.

Epworth League

The Epworth League is still a strong factor in our work. The young people deserve much praise for their contribution to the activities of the church. I have often been gratified to hear the originality of thought and clearness of interpretation of scripture in their devotional meetings.

Bloomington District is justly proud of the year's record under the efficient leadership of the District President, J. L. Loar. The advancement has been gratifying. Notice:

First: Bloomington District has the largest per cent increase in Mission Study classes in Methodism.

Second: It has now the largest number of Mission Study classes of any rural district in Methodism. By rural district I mean one not wholly within a city.

Third: The Epworth League of our district will give for missions this year over fourteen hundred dollars.

The Junior League is organized in quite a number of our charges. I desire greatly that a junior chapter be organized in every church of the district if possible. We cannot begin too early to instruct our children in religious truths.

Prayer Meeting

I regret to say that the prayer meetings are not attended as they should be. Since the class meeting is almost a thing of the past the prayer meeting must be made of paramount importance. It ought to be made a great mid-week service. It should not be relegated to some small room which in itself suggests that many are not expected. It should be given the best we have in the church, even the auditorium if necessary, and then the best preparation made to make it attractive, uplifting and spiritual. Perhaps no other service demands more originality, genius and leadership. I bespeak for this service the consecrated interest of both people and pastors.

Missionary

This is a missionary age. Rarely has so much been given to the cause of missions as now. It is an age of Christian philanthropy and missionary enterprise. If properly presented the people respond well. The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies continue to prosper. They are doing well their part by their devotion and liberality. The collections in some churches because of conditions may not be as large as last year, but in other churches the offerings have largely increased.

Education

The educational age is still ours. The church must meet the requirements for higher education. At Bloomington Wesleyan has stood for sixty years. Many of her alumni are prominent in the ministry. Wesleyan continues to advance and has a big future if the conference and men of means are willing to make it so. There is greatly needed a dormitory for young women. Would that some one generous of heart might build a memorial dormitory in honor of a daughter. There is need of a Conservatory of Music building and a library building. Above all is there need of added endowment. Here is an opportunity for men of wealth to do a great thing for succeeding generations by giving largely to this school. The new Science Hall is complete. It has a fine interior with an adequate equipment. Dr. Kemp is doing his best to advance every interest of the institution. He needs the cooperation of every pastor in the conference to acquire students and assist in the upbuilding of old Wesleyan.

Pastoral Support

In the Bloomington District eleven charges gave an increase in salary. The average cash salary is now $1,070 while the average salary including parsonage is over $1,200. In the two years the district has advanced in pastoral support over $4,000. The people appreciate the need of a better support for the pastor and will continue to advance toward the more generous ideal.

The Work

What a task is that of the faithful pastor and preacher. The work is manifold, taking in many lines of activity. While the preacher is to be a man of one work, he must do many things well. The people expect the pastor to be a leader, resourceful, tactful and ever alert to every need of the charge. He must not disappoint them or they will disappoint him. The preachers in the Bloomington district have not been infallible but they have sought to do a good year's service in their respective field of labor. Not every one has done a spectacular work. Each has had his own difficulties, problems, encouragement, results. The survey, were I to make one, would reveal that "one star differeth from another star" but all are stars. Dr. Pickard has in embryo a great new church building which we hope to see him realize. Rev. Merle English is back from his trip to the Old World and is ready for renewed work. At Chestnut, C. R. Booth is building a $12,000 church. At Beason, Z. O. Avery has a parsonage about ready for occupancy. At Park, A. F. Ewert in the face of reducing church debt collected enough money to purchase a fine parsonage property next to the church, giving a frontage of an entire block. While these visible material advances have not been realized by all, some have had advances in benevolences far in excess of last year; others have had a general uplift of the work. While still others have kept the church steadily toward the line of duty, seeking earnestly the best results in every way.

The Appeal

I would emphasize the immeasurable greatness of the preacher's task and opportunity. The work is glorious. To put into it one's best should be the ideal. The man in the pulpit must be a preacher or his day is o'er. He must be social or the church will grow cold. He must be spiritual or the world will outmatch him. He must have leadership or he will lag and fail. He must be a man of prayer or he will become material. To the School of Christ must he ever go! His words ring out clear and true—"Learn of me."

"O Son of Man! O Son of God!
Whose love brought all men on the rod,
Give us thy mind, Thy Soul's desire,
Thy heart of love, Thy tongue of fire,
That we Thy gospel may proclaim
To every man in Thy great name.

A. L. T. EWERT.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop Moore, Fathers and Brethren:

This is the fourth visit of the Illinois Annual Conference to the Twin Cities. The forty-fourth session in 1867 and the seventy-first session in 1894 were held in Champaign. The sixty-third in 1886 was held in Urbana. The presiding bishops were Kingsley, Bowman and Foster. Once again you are with us with Moore of a bishop than ever as president. We extend the glad hand and bid you a hearty welcome. The city is yours.

Pastoral Changes

Savoy, left to be supplied, has been ministered to by M. P. Wilkin, one of Urbana's many superannuates. At the post-conference cabinet session, now so popular in this conference, H. M. Derby of Philo was transferred to Sidell in the Danville district, and L. C. Moore, one of our successful conference evangelists, accepted the pastorate of the Philo Charge. Results have justified the appointment. In May A. L. Norfleet of Tolono was transferred to the N. W. Iowa Conference. Edson K. Chew, a local preacher of Danville District, has supplied Tolono acceptably.

Material Improvements

The new church at Belleflower was dedicated October 30 by the Superintendent. The building is a brick structure, modern, adequate, beautiful. C. M. M. Fultz, the pastor, had the cost subscribed and nearly all paid before dedication day. In a ministry of twenty-six years, Brother Fultz has built fourteen churches and three parsonages. The Charge voted an increase of $200 in salary and invited the pastor to return.

On December 4th the recently purchased and remodeled church at Dewey was reopened. The pastor, J. M. Judy, is a past master in church finance and had the expense, about $900, all paid before the reopening.

June 4th the Superintendent dedicated the new church at Cisco. For their frame building, burned by lightning, they received $6,120.40 insurance. They now have a beautiful, substantial, modern brick edifice worth $18,000. With a joy almost hilarious this proud people completed payment by a dedicatory offering of $1,800. They have given $12,000 this year for their building, have paid all current expenses in full, advanced their pastor's salary $100 for this and the same for next year, and have increased their offering for benevolences. Pastor J. C. Enninger and his people constitute a mutual admiration society.

At Monticello W. E. Bell took up the building enterprise launched by D. V. Gowdy and will have a $20,000 church, colonial in style, with a pipe organ, ready for dedication December next.

At Fisher, Pastor Hartley has the money subscribed, and is the architect and superintending contractor for a new $10,000 church. The foundation is laid.

In the teeth of adverse community conditions, A. M. Wells has proved himself a wise master builder at Mansfield. Financially, numerically and spiritually he has built up the church. For the Men's Bible Class a neat chapel was built so that it might also enlarge the seating capacity of the auditorium. Its cost, $600, was paid before it was dedicated. The salary has been advanced to $1,200 and the pastor invited to return.

At Philo L. C. Moore and wife led the people in a gracious revival. Among the visible results are a Men's Bible Class with an enrollment of sixty; a $1,000 basement with dining room and Bible Class room; and the advancement of the pastor's salary at Philo, without Alice Chapel, from $900 to $1,200. The pastor's return is asked for.

Trinity church, Urbana, is installing a new $5,000 pipe organ, for which the money is provided; and has purchased a parsonage on Green street near the University campus. This commodious modern house so valuably located was contracted for at $8,000 on terms of easy payment and has been renovated at a cost of $850. The property is easily worth $10,000.

Farmer City refrescoed and repaired at an expense of $775. Paxton installed a steam heating plant at a cost of $860 and is refrescoing, recarpeting and repairing to the amount of $1,000. Other charges have made minor repairs on church and parsonage property. We have forty-nine churches, valued at $430,000, with practically no debt except about $21,000 on this building, which the trustees are planning to pay during the coming conference year; and thirty-one parsonages, valued at $88,000, on which there is less than $10,000 debt.

At noon, March 22, the windiest day of the year, Wesley Chapel, on the Savoy Circuit, six miles southwest of this city, burned to the ground. The fire was started in the belfry by a blazing corn husk blown across the road from the field of Brother J. M. Milliken. The church, built in 1873 by Rev. Dr. W. H. Wilder during his first pastorate, and where so many of our pastors began their ministry (the writer included), had been practically abandoned for two years and the insurance had lapsed. Brother Milliken, recognizing the justice of the law which says "a man must follow his fire," paid the trustees $250—the valuation set upon the church as an abandoned building. The trustees have sold the one acre lot for $225. They are holding the money as a nest-egg for a new building more favorably located within the bounds of the Charge.

Of the thirty-two pastors, twenty-seven spent ninety-nine weeks in revival meetings and report a total of 559 conversions; 405 persons were received on probation and 436 into full membership; of whom thirty-one were received without having been first received on probation. Evidently some pastors do not know that our church still has a probationary system. Seventy-nine persons have come to us from other denominations. Our membership numbers 8,290, including seventy-six probationers.

Literature

Our adult members do not read Methodist periodicals. Only 169 Advocates are reported. Again I note that the policy of the Publishers in dealing directly with subscribers, and of mailing to pastors the lists according to postoffices instead of pastoral charges is an error. Several pastors have reported that they do not know how many Advocates are taken by their members.

The young people read more of our periodicals. There are taken 395 Epworth Heralds, 1,691 S. S. Advocates, 1,209 S. S. Classmates, 481 Teacher's Journals and many grades of S. S. Literature.

Only ten copies of the Methodist Review are taken.

Auxiliaries

The Sunday Schools are well attended and are doing fairly efficient work, though the methods in some are very archaic. The Epworth Leagues are engaged in a spirited but friendly contest and the splendid district convention demonstrated that this Society, at least in this district, is not a spent force. The Leagues contribute $1,050 for the support of Elric Williams and wife in China. The Women's Missionary Societies are in Missionary Educational Methods the liveliest auxiliaries. They are training the girls of today for still more skillful leadership tomorrow. The W. H. M. S. is erecting a new and greatly needed building at the Cunningham Orphans Home, Urbana, at a cost of $10,000.

The organized Men's Bible Class has supplanted the Brotherhood in most Charges, and is doing successful Brotherhood work.

At Trinity church, Urbana, the assistants, Ralph C. Scott and Helen Faye Noon, have done successful work; and under the leadership of its talented pastor, James C. Baker, this well organized church is accomplishing, with increasing efficiency, its purpose in caring for Methodist students at the University of Illinois. The commission will report statistics and plans.

Benevolences

Sunday, April 13, the Methodist pulpits of the Twin Cities were filled by Drs. Stuntz, Forbes and Downey. Monday evening the ladies of this church served a two course Fellowship supper in forty minutes to over 400 Methodists, of whom more than 100 were out-of-town folks. Then for three hours the secretaries and representative local laymen talked missions. The results of this District Convocation reached practically every Charge and with but one or two exceptions they report increased offerings for the benevolences.

Ten Charges report a total of $234 for the Chinese famine relief, of which Gibson City gave $100. Twelve Charges took a Korea thank offering amounting to $178. Other special gifts to foreign missions amount to $1,487. For all benevolences there will probably be an increase over last year's gifts of nearly $1,000.

Health

Only one pastor has been seriously afflicted in personal health. Brother John J. Dugan, of Fithian, after thirty-nine years of effective service, is compelled by serious heart trouble to ask for a superannuate relation. The long continued critical illness of Mrs. T. O. Holley seriously interrupted Brother Holley's work at Mahomet and he will ask for a change of relation. April 27 Brother Presley P. Carson's aged father passed from the parsonage home at Gibson City to the longed for heavenly mansion. Clifford, the first born of Brother and Sister R. E. Mathis, of Sidney, suddenly fell in the prime of young manhood and at the threshold of business success. The bereavement was doubly severe because the loved son died in Pennsylvania before the parents had received the announcement of his brief illness. Beautiful was the manifestation of God's love and grace in this affectionate family under this heavy blow. Mrs. James C. Baker's mother, Mrs. V. M. Benson, after a long and painful illness in her daughter's parsonage home, slipped the earth moorings and crossed the bar, August 21.

W. M. Poe passed through a critical surgical operation and is now able to be with us. The ten other honored superannuates of the Twin Cities enjoy the usual health of battle-scarred veterans and all are sweet-spirited and optimistic.

Gratitude

By their uniform courtesy and co-operation the pastors, their families and the officials of the district have placed me under manifold obligations for which I am sincerely grateful.

To God, Our Father, be all praise for His redeeming and sustaining Grace.

F. B. MADDEN.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop Moore and Brethren:

In reviewing the work of this Conference year on the Danville District, I am glad to report that the majority of the pastoral charges have enjoyed a year of spiritual blessing and material prosperity.

Changes of Pastors

Soon after the last Conference session W. F. Stevenson, the pastor at Homer gave up his charge and surrendered his parchments for reasons which will be stated later, and W. W. Henry, pastor at Sidell, was assigned to the work, and H. M. Derby, pastor at Philo, was appointed to take charge of the church at Sidell.

Early in the Conference year J. S. Dancey, pastor at Newman, was transferred to the Rock River Conference by Bishop Cranston, and W. L. Ewing, pastor of the Tabernacle church, Paris, was assigned to the work at Newman.

Pastor's Salaries

Seventeen of the thirty-five charges of the District have made increase in the salaries of the pastors ranging from $25 to $250 and aggregating $2,240.

Building and Improvements

The new parsonage at Kimber church costing above $7,000 was completed about the first of January. This church now has an elegant parsonage property worth at least $10,000 and the pastor enjoys the comforts of a house which is probably second to no parsonage in the Illinois Conference.

The parsonage property purchased at Newman last year not being large enough, has been sold and a new parsonage built on the lot adjoining the church at a cost of $3,800. For comfort and convenience it is a model parsonage.

The churches at Catlin and Mann's chapel on the Rossville work have been frescoed and present a very attractive appearance inside.

A hot water heating plant has been installed in the parsonage at First church, Danville.

Ridgefarm, Chrisman and Potomac met the last dollar of financial obligation incurred in building and these churches are now all free from all encumbrance.

Substantial reductions have been made this year in the indebtedness on the parsonage at Vermilion Heights and the church property at Hume.

The total amount raised and applied in building, improvements, and indebtedness this year throughout the District will amount to a little more than $13,000.

A site has been purchased for a new church at Georgetown which is to cost about $20,000. The building committee is now pushing plans for its construction.

The people at Metcalf are making an active canvass for funds with which to build a much needed house of worship. It is hoped that before another year these people will be housed in a modern church.

Revivals

Many of the charges of the District have been visited by gracious seasons of refreshing during the year.

The pastors at Armstrong, and Fairchild on Henning work, East Lynn, Chrisman, Potomac, Georgetown, Ridgefarm, Fairmount, Tuscola, Allerton, Cherry Point on the Metcalf work and McKendree chapel on the Georgetown circuit work were ably assisted by efficient Evangelists. At all these points believers were quickened and many souls added to the church. The revival at Fairmount was more far-reaching than the church has known in many years. When the conditions which prevailed here are considered, we have another example of what the gospel can do in transfusing the community.

The pastor at Henning was assisted by C. W. Hamand, pastor at Oakwood; and at Jamesburg by Alfred Wicks, pastor at Allerton, both meetings led by these pastor Evangelists were successful. Souls were added to the church and the work built up. Quite a number of the pastors conducted their own meetings with good results, among whom may be mentioned Henry at Homer, Derby at Sidell, Coleman at Hoopeston, Patrick at Catlin, and Ewing at Newman. The meeting at Newman was a sweeping revival and resulted in the addition to the church of 148 members. No charge in the District can show greater results this year than Newman.

Several of the pastors in the District whose names have not been mentioned held revival meetings and labored with great earnestness. While the number of reported conversions have not been so many, yet the foundations for better things in the future have been laid.

Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues

There has been a general increase in the activity, attendance, and efficiency in the Sunday School work in the District this year. This is one of the most hopeful indications in the church life of today. The faithful superintendent with his consecrated band of Sunday School teachers is an indispensable aid to a successful pastorate today.

Most of the Leagues over the District have done good work along evangelistic, missionary and charitable lines.

The District convention held at Hume June 21-22 was well attended. The program was full of good things. The young people were enthusiastic. The outlook for the coming year is bright.

Benevolences

The various benevolent causes have been looked after by the pastors and an advance along all lines is confidently expected.

The W. F. M. S. of the District as usual has had a good year and will probably report over $6,000 in the way of collections. Hoopeston, Newman and Allerton report all collections taken and in full. Some of our pastors would do well to learn from these women the secret of how to conduct a successful Missionary campaign.

The W. H. M. S. has not been lacking in energy and have toiled earnestly in the interest of the Home Land.

Deaths

Early in the Conference year Brother Preston Wood and wife were greatly afflicted in the loss of their only child, their little daughter, Eliza.

The hearts of Brother Phirman Edwards and wife have been saddened by the loss of their three months old babe.

Brother D. C. Burkitt, a highly respected and honored Superannuate, who for a numebr of years had lived in Tuscola, was called to his reward in July.

It is with pleasure that I record my appreciation of the loyalty of the preachers of the Danville District and take this occasion to thank both preachers and people for their generous hospitality and their many other acts of kindness.

H. C. GIBBS.

DECATUR DISTRICT

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In presenting to you this, my sixth and last, report of the Decatur District, it would seem that the accounting of the years' activities would become an easier task, but it grows more difficult from time to time, for how can one crowd the story of the toils and burdens, the joy and sorrow, the struggle and defeat, the triumph and victory of forty men, whose eyes have been fixed upon the cross, and who have been anticipating the coming "again with rejoicing," into the brief time and space allotted me for this report?

Changes

The present Conference year was ushered in with all the pastoral plans of Methodism in full operation, with a charge for every pastor and a pastor for every charge. In granting the request of the Superintendent of the Mattoon District for the appointment of A. D. Davis of Lovington to succeed E. E. Hunt at Marshall, other changes were made necessary on the District thereby, consisting of the appointment of R. B. Hubbard of Latham to Lovington, and the placing of S. N. Wakefield, of Martinsville, at Latham. These changes were all made under the direction and with the sanction of Bishop Cranston. The wisdom of these changes is justified in the splendid success which has attended the labors of the men involved.

For some time Arthur, the leading appointment of the Arthur Circuit, had cherished the hope of becoming a station. The opportune hour for the realization of this hope came at the close of a successful revival campaign held within the bounds of the charge early in the Conference year. The plans were consummated at the time of the Second Quarterly Conference, held in January, after which the pastor, T. S. Mitchell, gave his full time and service to Arthur, which appointment then assumed the full amount of pastoral support which had been estimated for the entire charge. The two other appointments were then organized into a charge, known as the Cadwell Charge. To this new charge W. A. Reynolds, Jr., son of our W. A. Reynolds, long a member of this Conference, was appointed. His services for the rest of the Conference year have been a delight to the people.

Under the faithful service of A. B. Carlberg, a local preacher, of the Cerro Gordo charge, a new appointment has been organized, northeast of Decatur, at present attached to the Cerro Gordo charge, for which we are requested to make some permanent provisions at this session of our Conference.

Ministerial Association

The session of the District Ministerial Association held at Niantic, May 3rd and 4th, was largely attended, and is believed to be the most enthusiastic session of the Association held during my incumbency, and declared by all to be the most profitable in results. Drs. Homer Stuntz, Thos. Nicholson, Robert Forbes, F. H. Sheets and others contributed largely to the interest and profit of the session.

Material Progress

The material progress of the District continues unabated. Almost immediately after the last session of our conference a new church was dedicated at Long Creek, on the Mt. Zion charge. It is architecturally beautiful, amply adequate for that enthusiastic congregation, with unusual Sunday School facilities. All the cost, $6,000, was fully met.

In the month of February a new church was dedicated at Irving, costing $9,000. Here, too, every appointment and equipment is thoroughly modern and attractive. In its plans the needs of every department of church work has been anticipated and no activity that makes for success has been overlooked.

The tower in connection with First Church, Decatur, mentioned in my last report, has been completed and a rare chime of bells installed, making music for the entire city. This is a memorial to the late A. W. Conklin. This enterprise adds to the value of that church property not less than $10,000.

During the month of May, the church at Argenta was reopened, after thorough remodeling and repairing, which has doubled the value of that property. In this undertaking too large a share of the toil and responsibility fell upon the faithful pastor, W. A. Phillippe, who feels that he finds more than ample compensation for all his toil in the added attractiveness of the building, in the comfort of the congregation and in the many expressions of pleasure and appreciation on the part of the people. At Hammond, almost immediately after the closing of this session, a new church, costing over $7,000, will be ready for dedication. Here Pastor York's experience of former years is proving valuable. Extensive remodeling is nearly completion at Cerro Gordo, and at Stonington, which will add much to the Sunday School equipment and the social side of the church life. Less extensive improvements have been made on the parsonages or churches at LaPlace, Butler, Millersville, Macon, Moweaqua, Elwin, Sanner and Witt, representing no small outlay in means, and adding much to the convenience, comfort and attractiveness of these buildings. Besides this not a few debts have been fully liquidated and plans are being formulated for material advances at other places.

Evangelism

The pastors had scarcely reached their appointments at the opening of the year when the evangelistic note was struck, and its echo has not yet died away. Almost every charge has had its campaign, either with the assistance of a competent evangelist or under the leadership of the pastor. These efforts were attended with no small measure of success. The more notable successes were enjoyed at Arthur, Bethany, Decatur Circuit, LaPlace and Lake City, Lovington, Maroa, Moweaqua, Oconee, Rosemond and Warrensburg. Though the pastors of this District cannot be surpassed in the art of ecclesiastical pruning, and delight in the art, and consequently practice it most strenuously, the roll of membership, from data furnished me, will reveal a net increase this year of more than seven hundred and fifty members.

Sunday Schools

A deeper and growing interest is found in our Sunday School work. In this department of our church life, which we regard as the greatest asset of the church, we are developing more efficient workers. The schools are being better equipped and organized. Adults are attending in larger numbers and the organized adult Bible Class movement is growing in popularity. The graded system of Sunday School lessons is greeted almost everywhere with enthusiasm and gladness, and under the efficient direction of our Board of Sunday Schools the long felt need of a more efficient teaching force is being gradually met. Our gains in this department of our work are most gratifying.

The Epworth League

The progress of the Epworth League is somewhat varied, though we believe in this department we are moving in the right direction. Here success or failure is measured by the efficiency of the leadership. While here some progress is manifest, the progress is not as marked as in other departments. We are hoping for more rapid progress under the new district leadership.

Ladies' Aid Societies

Ladies' Aid Societies are organized in almost every charge, and I find them to be a greater factor in the progress of the work than many are ready to admit. Not a few pastors are under no small obligations to this organization for the launching of projects and carrying these projects to a successful issue, which could not possibly have been launched and consummated without the aid of this organization. They have disbursed thousands of dollars through the various treasuries of the district, and over many an enterprise they have written the word victory where otherwise the word failure would have been glaring. They have wrought well, and there are not many financial undertakings of the brothers which would sustain any injury by the application of the financial systems and methods now in practice by this organization. But aside from the financial aid rendered, this organization is the largest factor in the social life of the church.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies are rapidly gaining in numbers and achievement. Six years ago the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society disbursed in its work $2,414. This year it will disburse considerably over $5,000. That year the Woman's Home Missionary Society disbursed $1,850. This year it will disburse over $2,500.

Benevolences

In the early Spring, just preceding Easter, we engaged in a campaign in behalf of the Benevolences. We sought to reach the entire district. The pastors of the district exchanged with each other, and the plan of campaign contemplated the delivering of four addresses within the bounds of each charge. With few exceptions the plan carried well. These addresses delivered by the pastors, in behalf of these various causes, were of a high order and received the highest commendation. They were forcefully, impressively and enthusiastically delivered. By these, and other means, the brethren sought earnestly to enlighten the people and to lay upon their hearts the vast importance and the great needs of these several causes.

The past year has not been the most favorable for the securing of the largest offerings for our various benevolent causes, due to the shortage of the crops in some parts of the district, especially the southern part, nor was the task easy in those parts of the district where we are dependent, in no small measure, upon the mining interests, for in many instances that industry has been almost stagnant throughout the Conference year; and yet from the data at hand, which covers about three-fourths of the district, I find that the aggregate on our general benevolences is some few hundred dollars in advance of last year. The advance, though, will not be as gratifying as the sacrifice and toil expended, on the part of the pastors in behalf of these causes, would warrant.

Health

With one exception sickness has not assumed very serious aspects in any parsonage home, and the work of the pastors has been but little interrupted thereby. Only at one parsonage door did the Death Angel knock, and that was at the home of Brother G. N. Wilkerson of Stonington. The call was for his eldest son, Cranston, fifteen years of age. He was beautiful in character, kindly in spirit, manly in bearing and promising in gifts and graces. With him life's mission was brief but full. We would have retained him and did ask God to give him life and He graciously answered by giving him "even length of days for ever and ever." The entire district share the sorrow of the bereaved family.

Resumé

In a brief resumé of my incumbency on the district, as superintendent, it would be impossible to mention the varied details which have entered into the activities, sacrifices, toils, service and joy of these men with whom it has been my privilege to associate and whose fellowship has become to me most delightful. The changes of pastorates through the term have been not a few, but all of those who have labored in this field, have been noble, high minded and manly men. We may have failed in achieving all we had hoped and for which we had planned and prayed, but all through the years we have been brethren, and a spirit of delightful fellowship and brotherly interest has characterized all our associations. The sacrifice of these men has been great, their zeal intense, their earnestness deep, their loyalty enthusiastic, their devotion unwavering and their service unflinching. Their reward is found in the knowledge of their achievement, in the fact that the roll of membership has been increased by over 43 per cent; in the fact that the district is affording in pastoral support over 40 per cent more than it did at the beginning of the term, and in the other items of ministerial support being increased over 65 per cent; that under their leadership the people have increased the value of their church property considerably over 100 per cent, and their parsonage property over 50 per cent; in the fact that they have increased the regular benevolences about 30 per cent, that their toil has increased the enrollment of the Sunday Schools 44 per cent, the Epworth League 17 per cent, the Junior League 27 per cent and the Domestic Missionary Societies offerings 37 per cent. Besides this, through the sacrifice of the elect women, the offerings of the Women's Foreign Missionary have advanced about 250 per cent and those of the Woman's Home Missionary Society 55 per cent; while labor which has been expended in other directions has been productive of proportionate results. To be a little more explicit and concise, so faithfully have this band of men wrought and so hearty has been the co-operation of their loyal people, through this period, that they have enabled the district to make a general advance of between 45 and 50 per cent.

I desire here to express my gratitude to all the brothers who have served on the district during my incumbency, and made these notable results possible, and I would that I could now thank the laity for its hearty co-operation and loyal support; for we must recognize the fact, in whatever has been achieved, your leadership would avail little apart from the sacrifice of a consecrated laity.

I entered the office with fear and trembling, I leave it with gratitude; gratitude to God for His guidance through the years, gratitude to a host of laymen, loyal and true, and gratitude to my brethren in the ministry, for their sympathy, thoughtfulness and kind consideration, for their home joys and hospitality, which I have shared. I shall miss their fellowship, but shall never forget it, for in kind, to me, it "is like to that above."

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT

In reporting the year's work on the Jacksonville District I am impressed with the significance of the scriptural injunction, "Sow beside all waters—In the morning sow thy seed and in the evening withhold not thine hand."

From the human standpoint there is a lack of startling things to mention compared with last year. Our building enterprises have not been so extensive, and revivals have not been of such a sweeping character, that "the Kingdom of heaven cometh not with observation" has again been demonstrated.

But we would be traitors to our trust and unworthy the confidence of the master, if we concluded that little or nothing had been done. It is inconceivable that nearly half a hundred men ordained and consecrated to the ministry of the gospel, serving at the altar day and night should reach the end of the year without great results. We may not be able to tabulate them, but that many souls have been enlightened, inspired, uplifted and more completely saved is undoubtedly a fact; that the church is still a mighty factor in our civilization none will dare deny.

We desire to put on record the faithfulness of these men who preach the gospel, often with comparatively little moral support, amidst worldly surroundings, and sometimes pinching poverty, they exhort, testify, whether men will hear or not; a more loyal, courageous and devoted body of ministers cannot be found, their reward is not here; better than human hands is recording their sacrifices in the "Lamb's book of life."

A typical illustration of what has been accomplished is found in the five years ministry of Dr. J. C. Nate; a beautiful church building takes place of the antiquated structure, membership increased 50 per cent, benevolences correspondingly, while the organization by virtue of its superior conditions, will take front rank in the moral and spiritual uplift of the community. Who can measure the value of this service? Yet similar and sometimes greater results occur in the smaller towns and villages under the most trying and difficult circumstances.

The year started with a successful District stewards and Laymens meeting, and we would not fail to recognize the worth of these men who freely give both time and money to carry on the work; standing by the pastors, supplying the needed funds, proving themselves worthy of their high calling.

While it is true there has not been wide sweeping revival interest, it must not be inferred that the pastors were indifferent in this regard, all were faithful in this matter, and while some failed of deserved results, others had glorious ingatherings. Grace church, Jacksonville, had a good revival in which 150 conversions occurred. Centenary church had a good meeting and some 30 souls were saved; in this Pastor McCarty and T. N. Ewing assisted each other—they are a strong team in this line of work. Old Centenary still keeps the revival fires burning on her altars, and her pastor is constantly in demand in all the civic and religious affairs of the city. Rev. Hugh Knowles held a tent meeting under the auspices of Brooklyn church and a hundred conversions are reported. The same brother held a similar meeting on the Greenfield circuit and over one hundred souls confessed Christ; it was a great meeting. Pastors Kittle, Chapman, Myers, Carter, Adams, McPherson all had good meetings. A. K. Byrns engaged in a union revival at Carrollton resulting in a hundred conversions and a general quickening of the spiritual life of the church and the community. This church is on the upgrade.

These are some of the conspicuous revival efforts, but there were other very delightful and helpful meetings held.

We urge the brethren wherever possible to arrange for special meetings before winter weather and bad roads make such gatherings difficult if not impossible.

Again the District League Convention reached higher ground. Its recorded delegates leaped from 150 to 186 with a certain attendance of 200. Its spirit was in full harmony with the numbers, and the membership catching the inspiration of the hour went out to do better for the Master.

An increase of $1,800 in pastoral support proves the worth of the preacher in the estimation of the churches they serve.

The benevolent objects have had the attention of the preachers from the beginning of the year. We urge keeping these important interests before the people all the time. They are a stimulation to faith, sacrifice and good works on the part of all those who love God. From reports in hand the benevolences will be in excess of last year.

Rev. H. W. McPherson has led the Ashland people to victory in building a beautiful modern church with every convenience costing at least $12,000, the corner stone of which was laid Sept. 3rd. This structure is largely the result of an organized class of over a hundred men gathered together by the pastor, and brought into the Sunday School, packing the old building beyond its capacity to accommodate them, thus resulting in a new church. When such men get the vision and the touch it will move things in the right direction. We constantly exhort the brethren to personally work with individuals, with children, because they are the men and women of tomorrow; with young people, because they need the church and the church needs them; with men and women, because they control everything.

After a struggle lasting many years, covering retreats without number, Roodhouse comes forth to prove, "Though cast down she is not defeated." These people, never numerous or wealthy, are building an $8,000 church, which will give life and prestige to the society. It is the result of careful and prayerful work on the part of Pastor McMurray and his loyal people.

Plans are under consideration for a new church at Scotville. The old church has been sold and a lot purchased in a very desirable location, and the building proposed will cost about $6,000.

Improvements have been made on the churches at Bath, Meredosia and Wesley Chapel. A new furnace is to be placed in the Centenary church on the Ashland charge. The parsonage at Virginia has undergone extensive improvements.

Special mention should be made of the heroic efforts of Pastor Theobald and his noble corps of workers at Winchester to reduce their indebtedness on their church. Five years ago they were left with a debt of $9,000. Each year they have been paying the interest and principal until today only three thousand remain. The Ladies' Aid of this church deserves much credit for their untiring efforts in this direction.

A report of this district would not be complete without recognition of the Illinois Women's College and its indefatigable president. Space forbids details which are given separately, but we can not forbear calling attention to the advantages offered by this institution, which are now equal to any female school in America, or at least in the middle west. Those in control have the faculty of continuous progression, but it is carried on with such conservatism as makes forever increasing usefulness and stability. A call to an immediate advance for the raising of $40,000 for endowment and needed equipment has been issued by the president and heartily endorsed by the visitors and trustees of the college. We urge our pastors to present the claims of the college to those having daughters to educate, with the assurance that all the elements of soul culture, mental, moral and physical, can be secured in its halls.

Death has not entered the ranks of the active pastorate, neither has there been a case of marked sickness. But the reaper has taken three of our veterans. Archibald Sloan who began his ministry in 1855 passed away at Ashland on February 10, 1911. He was a saintly man, a benediction to the community in which he lived, a faithful worker in the church he loved and an inspiration to all who came in contact with him.

Brother R. P. Droke, received on trial in 1869, passed to his reward at his quiet home in Hettick on April 13th, 1911. He was always active in service of God. He stands as an example of loyalty, faithfulness and consecration to God and a great help to his brethren in the ministry.

Brother J. N. Dewell was received in 1885, traveled until 1893, since which time he has been superintendent of the Illinois Children's Aid Society at Whitehall.

He was a man of feverish activity and seemingly rugged physique, but we did not know how hard his burdens were, and how heavily they weighed upon his heart, and when he fell January 26, it was a great shock to his many friends. The writer had conversed with him the day before his death, but he passed to his reward just when we thought him in the heat of the conflict. These were worthy men and all died in the Faith, and true to the church they loved.

We are glad to report a reaching out for better things. The old frame meeting house gives place to the modern church, the haphazard methods of the past to the well digested plans of today. While much is to be accomplished, we are accomplishing much. Our greatest need is a Baptism of Power that will enable us to overcome the combined attacks of the world, the flesh and the devil, and lift up a crucified and all conquering Christ as the Saviour and brother of men.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. WHITE.

MATTOON DISTRICT

Bishop Moore and Brethren:

We present this, our last annual report as Superintendent of the Mattoon District, with a feeling of sadness for our failures and of profound gratitude to God for whatever successes that may have been achieved.

Changes Among Ministers

The district was greatly disturbed by many changes at the beginning of the year. S. N. Wakefield failed to take his charge at Martinsville and Albert M. Ewert was transferred from the Iowa Conference to that field; Emerson E. Hunt was transferred from Marshall to a District Superintendency in the Black Hills Mission and A. D. Davis was moved from Lovington in the Decatur District to the church at Marshall; W. L. Ewing was changed from the Tabernacle church in Paris to Newman in the Danville District and Leo Howard was moved from Casey to the Tabernacle church, while Daniel D. Canfield was transferred from the Ohio Conference to fill the vacancy at Casey; Granville Osborn, who had by forged documents secured an appointment as a supply on the Grandview Circuit, was soon discovered to be a fraud and Herman F. Moore, a local preacher, was appointed to that charge with fruitful results.

The above changes all took place within a few weeks after the adjournment of the annual conference and since the storm abated all has been as peaceful as a day in June.

Revivals

This has been a year of many blessed revivals which have swept hundreds into the Kingdom. Prominent among these was the meeting at Windsor where the various denominations united in a tent meeting that resulted in more than two hundred conversions and accessions to the various churches of the community. Our local pastor, C. S. McCollom, was the real leader in this great victory. Another tent meeting held at Brocton under the leadership of Evangelist Carlin resulted in many scores of conversions and a vital quickening of the churches. Our pastor, E. B. Houck, was the leading spirit in this work. Evangelist Carlin also led in a successful campaign at Moulton church, Shelbyville, in the winter. The work done by Evangelist L. T. Henninger and wife under the direction of the District Superintendent and supported largely by the Laymen's Association of the district has been of great blessing to the weaker churches where their labors were exclusively confined. They were at Mode, Asbury on the Greenup Circuit, Plainview on the Lerna Circuit, Trilla on the Neoga Circuit, Shiloh on the Toledo Circuit, Livingston and Clarksville on the Marshall Circuit, Darwin and West Union on the West Union Circuit, Oliver, Dudley and Grandview on the Grandview Circuit, Bushton on the Charleston Circuit and Patton on the Paris Circuit. At Charleston and Mattoon, Evangelist Hugh E. Smith labored earnestly and with glorious results; at Oakland, Neoga, Westfield, Kansas and Martinsville the pastors were assisted by Evangelist Harris with varying degrees of success. Stewardson, Lerna, Casey, Greenup, Hindsboro and both Tabernacle and First churches in Paris were all visited by gracious awakenings under the leadership of their pastors.

Pastor's Salaries

The advance on pastor's salaries has not been as heavy this year as during the preceding five years. This has been due to the crop failures in many parts of the district. The total advance for the last six years has been close to $11,000.

Benevolences

The entire district has suffered somewhat from the long drouth of the summer. In the southern part, or white land section, the effects have been more apparent and crop shortage has meant shortage along other lines. In a few charges there has been a decided advance as on the Stewardson Circuit, Isabell Circuit, Redmon Circuit, Brocton Circuit, Humbolt, Martinsville and First Church, Paris.

Material Advancements

The fine new $10,000 church at Hindsboro is rapidly nearing completion and H. E. Crane, the happy pastor, has planned to dedicate it on November 12th, with President Kemp as the preacher of the day and Dr. Parr managing the finances. At West Union, where we organized a class three years ago and have since worshiped in the Friend's Meeting House, a lot has been purchased in one of the most desirable sections and the money is subscribed for a new church. This is a stragetic point in that part of Clark county in which four Presbyterian churches have been turned over to our denomination and form a part of that circuit. At Findlay the trustees of the former circuit sold the parsonage to the trustees of the present circuit and then the trustees of the newly organized station purchased a new and pleasantly situated parsonage for their society. At Grandview the old parsonage has given way to a modern eight room house and all fully paid for. At Stewardson a large addition has been added to the old building and a fine commodious eight room parsonage is the result. Extensive repairs and improvements have been made at many other points in the district.

The Country Church

One of the most serious problems is the rural church. Wealthy land owners move into the towns and cities and fail to remember, in most instances, the little country church that has helped so much to enhance the value of their land and save their children. In very few instances do the renters become interested in the nearby church and so the problem of arranging circuits compact enough to be cared for and at the same time financially strong enough to provide support for the pastors becomes most perplexing. One solution to this problem is the development of loyalty in the rural communities sufficient to permit the elimination of weak churches within two or three miles of the towns and cities and attendance upon churches in the urban centers. Another solution of this vexing problem would be to authorize the Laymen's Association of each district to appoint a committee to investigate into conditions surrounding any country church paying less than one hundred dollars as direct ministerial support and if the financial ability of the membership is found to be insufficient to pay one hundred dollars for the support of the pastor, then to recommend that the Domestic Missionary Society be requested to make up that amount. But if this committee shall find that the financial ability of the church is sufficient to meet this amount and they refuse to do so then to recommend the discontinuance of that preaching place. This would throw the responsibility on the laymen and not on the ministry.

Our Superannuates

The brethren within the bounds of the Mattoon District who are in the superannuate list continue to be of service to the church in varying degrees and are a benediction where they live. In this class are the following: S. H. Whitlock, E. S. Wamsley and Jasper Miller of Charleston; J. L. B. Ellis and D. D. Kensil of Shelbyville; P. F. Thornburg and J. A. Stout of Martinsville; D. W. English, P. A. Swart and W. E. Means of Paris; Elijah Gallagher of Stewardson; R. H. Osborne of Neoga; W. W. McIntosh of Mattoon and Joseph Coombs of Arcola.

Memorial Hospital

This, the only hospital under the direction of our church within the bounds of the Illinois Conference, has had a most prosperous year. There are no debts resting upon the institution and an agreement with the court makes possible the sale of the half section of fine land left the institution by the late Dr. D. M. McFall and thus the erecting of a modern building with all the latest and best appliances. Memorial Hospital is a great blessing to suffering humanity.

Retrospect

Six years ago we were assigned to the Mattoon District by Bishop Cranston. We found thirty-five pastoral charges. Three years ago three of these charges were given to the Decatur District and no new territory has been added. This same territory now has forty-five pastoral charges. There were ninety-one preaching places; today there are 110; the valuation of churches has increased \$175,000; of parsonages over \$43,000; ten new churches have been erected and the money is pledged for another while Windsor feels that the decisive hour has arrived for a new church within her borders; seven churches have either been bought or given us by other denominations and have been rededicated. These are as follows: Two from the Methodist Protestants, one located at Blue Mound on the Redmon Circuit and one on the Martinsville Circuit; three from the Presbyterian church as follows, Darwin, Beulah and Walnut Prairie on the West Union charge; one from the United Brethren church at Allenville and one from the Disciple church at Hitesville; nine new parsonages have been built; an advance of over \$11,000 has been made on pastor's salaries and every charge in the district save one has entered into this advance; the membership of the churches has advanced over three thousand, or about 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %; thousands have bowed at our altars and confessed Christ; and over 3,500 increase in attendance at our Sunday Schools, or about 40% advance. For all this we give praise to our God, rejoicing that He has led us and that while there has been 117 different men appointed to the various charges during these six years not one has fallen in death or suffered serious illness.

I wish it were possible to characterize the work of every one of these faithful men of God but other important interests must be considered. For detailed report of work done by the pastors, see the files of the Mattoon District Methodist. With a loyalty that has often meant great sacrifice and at times genuine heroism, they have labored and trusted God for their reward. I rejoice that I have been permitted to associate with such men and the memory of these years will remain with me forever. I have been in their homes, sharing their problems, rejoicing in their successes, seeking to comfort in their sorrows, and all this has but increased my appreciation of their worth and given me a larger sympathy with them in their labor. I hope there is no egotism or mere sentiment when I say that I have tried to be a brother to each of these servants of the Master. I have made mistakes in my administration but there has never been an hour when I did not seek their best interests and the building up of the church.

With gratitude to the laymen of the district who have helped us in the forward movements that have come, to the pastors who have loyally sought the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ and to our Heavenly Father for His love and care, this report is respectfully submitted.

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCY DISTRICT

Dear Bishop Moore and Brethren:

In making this, my fourth annual report, I desire first of all, to record my gratitude to Almighty God, who has given me good health all through the year. I also desire gratefully to acknowledge, in this public and permanent form, the uniform courtesy and kindness I have everywhere received on the District, from the ministry and the laity and the churches. It has helped to make possible whatever success we have achieved.

The situation of a District Superintendent is exacting. We are supposed to know all the preachers; their dispositions and their characters; their points of strength and weakness; their adaptability to various conditions; whether they are good "mixers;" whether they are given to much visiting, and are good sermonizers. We must know the social and intellectual needs of their families; and whether their children are well-trained. We are supposed to know the laymen and the churches; and measure the strength or weakness of the ordinary church faction; to meet all sorts of church problems, and, if possible, solve them.

Like all other districts, I have churches that want better preachers than they are either able or willing to pay for. But they are doing much better by their pastors than ever before. We have a set of self-sacrificing preachers on this district equal to any that serve charges anywhere. I should like to give them the best appointments in the Conference. But the Bishop makes the appointments and the District Superintendents and the churches (and possibly a few preachers) the disappointments.

The Conference year began with every man at his post as appointed by the Bishop. And every man was apparently determined to do the best work of his life. The year has passed quickly, and for the most part, pleasantly. The health of the pastors and their families, in the main, has been excellent. Only one of our Conference members in the district, Rev. M. M. Davidson, an honored superannuate, and for fifteen years the efficient and beloved chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Quincy, after serving the church for fifty-two years, went to his heavenly reward. Brother McKendree Gooding, another superannuate, has been appointed by Governor Deneen, to supply the vacancy, and he is doing it well, being beloved because he was himself an old soldier.

At Augusta, Dr. E. A. Hedges held his own meeting and a number of souls were converted and added to the church. His Epworth League captured the District League Banner, and his Sunday School has flourished all the year. The music of that charge, under his leadership, is equal to anything in the district.

At Barry Brother D. V. Gowdy has had an excellent year. The Boys' Scout movement has shown its possibilities as an organization to save the youth to our churches, under his manly leadership. They spent about $800 in adding to and remodeling the parsonage, and it is now a comfortable and very desirable home. On the Beverly charge Brother C. S. Jupin led on the forces in material improvements on all four of the churches. At Bowen T. A. Adams, assisted by his brother, had a good revival. They like their pastor so well they have invited him back with an increase of $200 in his salary. At Camden they purpose building a new church; they have already secured $3,000 in subscriptions. At Camp Point Brother J. S. Smith has been organizing men's classes and Queen Esther Circles.

At Chambersburg Brother J. M. Tull has moved the churches along until they now give an average of $7 per member. Clayton, a very conservative charge, has moved on steadily under the leadership of J. W. Dundas. He has had a good year and they wish him reappointed.

The old Columbus Circuit has had one of the best years in all her history. Brother C. T. Pilch is an evangelist and good all round man who does things. He has put in several lighting systems, and organized many adult classes, had gracious revivals and brings up the best benevolent report in many years. At Detroit Brother E. C. Swaney reports a great revival and benevolences nearly double that of last year. At Golden Brother Floreth has moved on steadily like a good German brother. He is entrenched in the affections of his people.

At Griggsville T. L. Hancock has handled a critical situation admirably. He is loved and revered by all. One of his members, Miss Sallie Funk, left $936 to be equally divided between the W. F. and the W. H. Missionary societies. He has paid off all indebtedness, amounting to $525, and improved the parsonage. On the 3d of this month he unveiled a group picture of all the preachers who have served the charge since its organization. It was a great day. Dr. Wm. McElroy preached the sermon on the occasion. On the Circuit in October, right after Conference, we dedicated a new frame church, which is a monument to a former pastor, J. M. Duff's faith and courage. On the day of dedication Dr. Robert Stephens was the money raiser. He was assisted by the pastor, the district superintendent, and the nearby pastors. The people gave until they "felt it." They were rewarded with a gracious revival in the new church in which fifty were converted under the leadership of R. L. Shores, the pastor, and John Biddle, a consecrated local preacher. At Huntsville, under the inspiring leadership of H. R. Kasiski, they built a new church of concrete blocks costing in the neighborhood of $8,000. Brother Stephens was again the money raiser on this occasion, assisted by nearby pastors and the district superintendent. Over $3,500 was raised on the day of dedication. As long as we have our inimitable Robert Stephens with us, we need not go outside of our Conference for a church-dedicator. He knows how to make a crowd feel good while they are giving away their money.

At Hulls Brother J. M. Nash has been busy all the year holding meetings and improving the parsonage. He purposes to enjoy it a while longer if the Bishop will consent to the wishes of the people. Kinderhook has been efficiently served by Brother W. M. Haily, while living at Barry.

At LaPrairie one of the saddest events of the year occurred. Brother G. W. Metzel, a supply, had been returned for a second year and had held his protracted meetings and was instructing his new converts, when he was suddenly killed by a Wabash train near his home. Brother Metzel was one of the best supply preachers the writer has ever known. He spent all of his ministry in our Conference in three charges within a radius of twenty-five miles. I know of no man among us with such a record. He was a sincere man and loved by everybody.

"He was pure Gold." So witness one and all Who knew him. Gentle, uncomplaining, brave,
A simple heart, a stalwart, wholesome brain,
A steady will, a hand outstretched to help,
A tongue touched now with music, now with fire,
Telling the truth of heaven to earth's worn hearts.
"He was pure gold." And heaven has gained him now.

Funeral services were held at LaPrairie, and many of his brethren bore loving tribute to his worth. His wife was so prostrated that she could not be present, either there or when we took his body to Baltimore for burial. She now makes her home with her only child, Rev. G. V. Metzel, of this Conference. I secured a student, T. A. Carter, who finished the year to great satisfaction. They would like to have him continued, but he wishes to attend school more. At Lima, Brother P. R. Powers has done a great work, besides helping several of the brothers in evangelistic work. He is a much-sought man. If God spares his life he will do our churches much good. At Littleton J. L. Sturgell has had a good year. The people love to hear him preach. At Loraine Brother W. A. Reynolds has endeared himself to everybody. They regret that he deems it necessary to take a superannuate relation. He has given the Conference thirty-five years of faithful and efficient service. Many have been converted under his ministry, and quite a few young men have entered the ministry because of him; the last to enter is his own son, Alonzo. Brother Reynolds expects to spend the remnant of his days in California. At Mendon Brother Woodworth has labored hard but not in vain. At Milton things have moved on steadily for two years under Brother J. C. Ewing.

Brother J. S. Tharp has had two successful years at Mt. Sterling. The church is too small for their growing Sunday school. And their Epworth League is one of the most progressive in the district. At New Canton they have purchased a new parsonage. Brother Mallinson is highly respected by all. Nebo and Pearl remain a problem for district superintendents to worry over. Paloma does not regret taking the steps to become a station, though it costs them "right smart," as the southerner would say. They do not wish a change of preachers. At Payson Walter Mitchell is closing four pleasant years. He has won some back who had strayed from the fold.

At Pittsfield they had the largest revival on the District. Pastor Rainsburger was assisted by Evangelists Beadles and Fischer. The meeting cost them $800, but they got some of the strongest men in the community into the church. About 150 were converted. The pastor has secured Dr. Louis A. Banks for a revival campaign next year. If they can duplicate the meeting of last winter everybody will rejoice. At Pleasant Hill Brother A. L. Shafer was assisted by a neighboring pastor in the Southern Illinois Conference, W. R. Mooreman, and about sixty-five were saved. The Ministerial Association of the district was held at Pleasant Hill to the delight of people and pastors.

At Plainville, owing to impaired health, Brother Carl T. Whitson felt obliged to transfer to the Kansas Conference. I secured a student preacher, whom I had tested a few years ago in another charge, and he has pleased the people. They would like to retain him, but he has determined on going to Garrett Biblical Institute. Brother Whitson had a gracious revival at Plainville before going to Kansas, in which fifty or more were converted. He was helped in this meeting by Brother Davis, of Farmer City. Brother J. E. Smiley, a local preacher, held the work together until I could secure a new man. At Plymouth Brother Ingram has worked hard, and not in vain. He has reduced their debt to six hundred dollars.

Vermont Street, Quincy, has enjoyed the efficient services of Dr. J. W. Miller for the past six years. And they have been years of steady growth. He held his own meeting this year, and had seventy-two accessions to the church as a result. This church has the largest Sunday school in the district. Brother H. F. Lummis has been its able superintendent for many years. The church is using the Duplex System of Finance, and think it is working very satisfactory. Grace church, under W. S. German, has held its own. His family was in a precarious condition as to health much of the best part of the year, and the harvest was not up to expectations. He hopes to have better health for his loved ones by transferring to the Wyoming Conference.

At Rushville Dr. R. W. Ennis was handicapped by the long illness of his wife. But she has fully recovered. He has secured the services of Evangelists Beadles and Fischer for a meeting to begin right after Conference. Some very valuable changes were made in the parsonage, and it is now one of the most comfortable homes. The Rushville Circuit has had several good years under Brother C. W. Haney, and many would like to have him returned to the charge.

At Stillwell, where a sister church puts so much "distress" on Baptism, as a local preacher spoke of it, the pastor secured the services of Brother W. G. Lloyd, of Virginia (our Conference) who went over the whole subject in three sermon-lectures to the quieting of many minds on the subject of "mode." The church people for miles around were pleased with his work.

At Warsaw and Timewell Brother Pepping gave good satisfaction. With the great $7,000,000 power plant being built at Keokuk, there is a hopeful future for our church at Warsaw. We need to "hold the fort" there for things are sure to come. At West Point and Basco we have the right man in the field. Brother Haas has the confidence of both communities. And if not disturbed he will put Methodism in her rightful place. At Versailles, Brother F. E. Smith has with his quiet manners and good pastoral work and preaching won victory as in the past.

And now a word as to Chaddock Boys' School. Nine of the boys graduated in June. The attendance has not been as large since we eliminated the academy feature, but the work done has been excellent. Miss Simpson, and all the other deaconesses, are winning the confidence of all who know them. During the year the school has lost, by death, two of its staunchest supporters and trustees, W. T. Sinnock and H. J. Vickers. The latter has at different times given upwards of $25,000 to the school. These have proven that they were not created to stay on earth. They were intended for a better country, for a place not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

I am persuaded that most of the brethren have been faithful in the collections; but many should have begun earlier in the year. It will do no preacher any good to hold the key to a situation if he does not use it. And since the churches are calling for competent persons, with education and enthusiasm, with common sense and consecration, with love and loyalty, to advance the Kingdom of Jesus Christ; and a sound body, a clear head, and a warm heart are among the necessities if one would achieve success,

I am determined to become better fitted by self-knowledge, self-reverence, and self-control, under the influence of the Holy Spirit to serve the present age; and if I may I'll serve another day.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Bishop Moore and Members of the Illinois Conference.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

In presenting this, my third annual report, it is with a keen sense of my personal limitations. There was a time when I felt sure that if I ever was honored by being chosen to the high and responsible office of Presiding Elder (or District Superintendent) I would show the brethren something that would make them gape with wonder. Since those adolescent days I have been hoisted twice into this prominent place and it has turned out that I am doing the wondering.

There are many things that make an observant fellow wonder. He wonders to see what some preachers can do with the material at hand and he wonders at what some others don't do with better facilities. He wonders how some preachers say "peace, be still," when they move into a community as turbulent as Galilean waters, while others seem to evoke the spirit of riot though the parsonage stands in a graveyard. He wonders how intelligent laymen expect the genius of a Simpson, a Beecher or a Spurgeon while paying a stipend less than the wage of a hod carrier. And he wonders no less how a preacher can expect advancement and high remuneration while putting into his work less brains than a tinker does in his.

But this is not an essay on the seven wonders, but a report of the "acts of the apostles" in Springfield District. There were thirty-one of these apostles sent out by Bishop Cranston and six by the district superintendent, and all these have continued in the field during the year. All have been blessed with good health and none have flinched from labor.

Before beginning to compose this document I pondered for several days (at odd spells) on the best way to make it interesting and at the same time to tell the truth. But how can one tell the whole truth about matters, intangible to human fingers and imponderable on human scales? Things that come not under the dominion of the addition table and can not be made susceptible to the rules of multiplication are difficult to compute.

But the Church of Christ is constantly dealing with these higher values. To say that a church has had a gain of one hundred members, may sadly mislead the listener; for the addition may be like placing one hundred more passengers on an already sinking barge while the loss of members may be the lightening of cargo that means the salvation of the ship. Therefore, I have concluded that an ideal report is not so much a matter of arithmetic as it is a collection of facts which tend to show the activities of the Divine Spirit.

Judged by the addition table we have not done marvelous things, though the statistical tables will show some gains in membership, benevolent collections and ministerial support. I shall be able to make a creditable showing in the matter of church building and improvement, but the improvements of which I would like to speak are far more subtle than wood and stone, yet more profitable to the real growth of the Kingdom of God.

Material Development

During the past year, three new churches have been dedicated to the worship of Almighty God within the bounds of the district.

Virden

At Virden, on Sunday, March 12th, it was my privilege to assist Bishop McIntyre in the dedication of one of the most beautiful churches in the conference. This achievement is a great victory for pastor Brandon; coming in the fifth year of a vigorous pastorate, during which he has waged an incessant warfare against lawlessness, with such prudence as to never alienate the good people from his church, he deserves great credit for his ability to carry this enterprise through to a successful completion. The building is worth about thirty thousand dollars.

Morrisonville

At Morrisonville, on April 23rd I assisted Bishop Quayle in the dedication of the beautiful $16,000 church. Here Pastor Nyman has won a victory of which any preacher might be proud. The new edifice will place Methodism to the front for the next generation.

Loami

At Loami the old church was so completely remodeled as to amount to a new building, at an expense of $3,500, giving that village a modern and capacious edifice for worship. No bishop being available for the dedication, I had to do it myself, but got through on August 6th, with no great damage to my reputation. George H. Neff, a supply man has been the pastor for two years and deserves great credit for the enterprise.

There have been extensive parsonage improvements at Girard, Nilwood, Rochester, Raymond and Pleasant Plains. At all these places the parsonages have been added to or so renovated as to make them much like new.

Carlville will celebrate the silver anniversary of the present church edifice by the completion of very extensive repairs. New windows, pastor's study, choir room, new heating plant, organ receptacle and decorations will make the old church look like a new one. The improvements will cost approximately $6,000.

Kumler church has been improved by a new furnace, and frescoing to the amount of over $1,000.

At Williamsville new furnaces and hardwood floors have been placed at a cost of about $500.

Revival Influences

I would like to write of revival influences if I knew how. Large accretions do not always mean a true revival. There was a revival going on in the apostolic church when Annanias and his spouse were eliminated. But what philosopher can begin to trace the currents of life. Like the wind "it bloweth where it listeth and we hear the sound thereof, but can not tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth." The real revival should go in advance of large accretions to the church. It is a quickening of an awakening interest. A true revival gets hold on all interests, political, financial, social. It makes Hezekiahs in politics, Peabody's in financial circles and Good Samaritans in society.

I believe that a real close observer can hear the first sighs of the moving winds amid the tangled mass of human affairs. The Holy Spirit is certainly beginning to stir civic conscience, and the church is beginning to demand a cleaning up in municipal matters. In the city of Springfield as well as in smaller communities, things are greatly improved. Better men are in office and better methods are employed. The public conscience revolts against shameless crimes at which it formerly winked. Law breakers have been driven to cover and dare not face the public with that brazen effrontery which formerly characterized them. Yea, verily, the revival is on. Now is the time for the church of our Lord Jesus Christ to awake and put on her beautiful garments and go forth to the conquest of the world.

The coming revival is evinced in the awakening interest in all benevolent enterprises. Our people are beginning as never before to inquire into the work of our missionaries. They are broadening out in their knowledge of the work at home and abroad. Missionary conventions are well attended and missionary literature is better read than ever. I think our people are beginning to realize something of the mighty sweep of the Kingdom of Heaven. The leaven in the lump is working steadily and before long, if I mistake not, the world will be surprised at the onward rush of the hosts of God.

I would like to speak personally of the work of each faithful pastor in Springfield District, but where all have done so well, comparisons would be odious. I think in every instance they have been paid their full allowance and this speaks well for them, though the allowance, in many instances was not all it should have been.

The health of the preachers and their families has in general been good and none have had to retire from the work. In only one instance have we been called to mourn a loss in any parsonage. That one was occasioned by the sudden death of the beloved wife of Brother Warlick. On Friday, January 20, she heard the summons of the King and entered peacefully into the gardens of God. Hundreds grieved when they heard that she was gone from earth, for she was greatly loved.

I am not going to enter into detail with reference to numbers added to the church, or the amounts raised for benevolences, for you will find a more accurate account of these things in the minutes by and by.

With scarcely an exception there is a goodly interest in religion in every charge. A good many preachers are preaching to increasing congregations. Sunday Schools are maintained at a high degree of efficiency. The Epworth League is a live wire within the bounds of Springfield District. Women's Missionary Societies vie with each other in friendly rivalry for first place in conquering the world for Christ. We have a fine body of laymen, some excellent specimens of which you may see by attending the meetings of the Laymen's Association.

During the year four of our chief pastors have made visits to our district; The stately and brotherly Cranston; the sunshiny and genial Quayle, twice; the poetical McIntyre; that big brother Anderson. These leaders of Methodism gave us an inspiration and left fine impression upon the mobile minds of our preachers and people.

Now, in conclusion I desire to thank every preacher for numerous kindnesses. They have helped to smooth my weary way many a time and by their cheery welcomes and hearty God-speeds have sent me on my way rejoicing. They are a noble lot of men and I would rather belong to this fraternity than to wear the diadem of royalty. I would rather sit down in their humble homes and converse about the matters of the kingdom than to lounge in the palaces of nobility. God bless them and finally give them an abundant entrance into the fadeless mansions above. Amen.

CHRISTIE GALEENER, D. S.

B. Committees.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

We rejoice in the privilege of being co-laborers with God in the great work of His kingdom among men. The personal devotion and gifts of God's people are potent factors in the progress of His kingdom. This responsibility should be met in the spirit of enthusiastic good will and according to the noblest standard of service and benevolence. A careful study of the field of Christian benevolence reveals both hopeful and discouraging facts; in many instances a noble generosity is seen, but in the main, Christian men and women fall short of their duty in the light of their resources and the needs of God's kingdom.

Foreign Missions.

In the year of 1910 the total contributions for foreign missions from this great Conference of 83,683 members with its splendid material resources was only $66,357, including the contributions of the Church, Sunday school, W. M. F. S. and special gifts amounted to only 75c per member. This low average of our gifts for foreign missions is unworthy of this great Conference. We urge, therefore, that both pastors and laymen do all in their power to raise this standard of giving.

Home Missions and Church Extension.

In an arrangement between this Board and the Board of Foreign Missions we are asked to raise the same amount for each.

We failed in this last year, slighting Home Missions and Church Extension to the amount of $10,966.00 We raised only $22,679.00. This amounted to only twenty-six cents per member. We can never win "America for Christ" until we are willing to give more money to the building of churches and the support of Home Missions.

The million and a quarter foreigners that come to our country annually and the vast new territory yet to be opened, makes America the greatest mission field in the world.

We rejoice that this Board has helped to build more than fifteen thousand churches, and is helping to support four thousand of our ministerial brethren at home. Through it the gospel is being preached in more languages than were spoken on the day of Pentecost.

Domestic Missions.

For years the collections of the Domestic Missionary Society have supplemented the meager salaries in many parts of the Conference. The encouragement and help this fund has rendered is beyond estimate. We urge the enlarging of this collection and that it be held strictly for its original purpose, the supplementing of the small salaries of the district.

Education.

That we recognize the fact that the great demand of this and every age is for Christian leadership and that the Christian College exists for and is peculiarly qualified for the training of Christian leaders and that we therefore heartily endorse that great forward movement for increasing the efficiency of our educational institutions of Illinois and pledge ourselves to co-operate in every possible way in carrying out the proposed educational program. The Conference paid for this great cause barely 7c per member the last year.

We urge the consideration of the following important facts: Systematic methods of giving on the part of the entire church are necessary in order to meet the needs of the worldwide opportunity of Christ's kingdom today. The small gifts regularly received is the method we urge upon the pastors and church officials. The Duplex Envelope System which provided for a weekly offering for both the local church and the wider needs is one of the best methods now in use and is coming into general favor. We commend it to pastors and Church officials.

Financial plans most frequently fail because all the possible contributors are not included. All are entitled to give and should give. We urge upon pastors to see the last man and bring him into line that these causes may be successfully met.

J. W. MILLER, Chairman.
E. S. COMBS, Secretary.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

The Methodist Brotherhood stands for fellowship and co-operation among men and increased efficiency in their efforts to win men and boys to Jesus Christ and the Church.

Since the Brotherhood sprang into being thousands of men have become active who previously were only a latent force in the Church and community. There are other thousands that need to be developed.

There is great need of specializing in masculine religion. The men on the outside must be reached by the men on the inside of the church.

This can best be done by organization, since two men working together can do more than two men working separately.

We, therefore, recommend that adult Bible Classes, Men's Clubs, and all other men's organizations in the church become affiliated with the Methodist Brotherhood.

The Boy.

The future of the Brotherhood depends largely upon the care of the boy and, therefore, we urge the pastors to give much attention to this matter during the coming year. The church has never enjoyed such advantage and self help as it has today, and the boys ought to be organized and special effort made in their behalf.

The official organ of the Brotherhood is a monthly periodical called the "Methodist Men," published at 150 Fifth Avenue, N. Y. No Methodist pastor or Brotherhood man can afford to do without it.

We nominate for Conference officers: President, M. G. Coleman; secretary, C. E. Taylor, and for district vice-presidents: Bloomington, J. L. Loar; Champaign, S. A. Murdock; Danville, G. L. England; Decatur, R. C. Augustine; Jacksonville, J. W. Brecken; Mattoon, H. R. Snively; Quincy, J. K. Crawford; Springfield, Frank Kuhl.

M. G. COLEMAN, Chairman.
C. E. TAYLOR, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Your Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society submit the following report:

In view of the large and growing demands upon the funds for necessities claims we are pleased to learn of the advance of several hundred dollars in the offerings and the dividends from the other several sources for this cause.

We urge the conscientious recognition of the full apportionment for this feature of pastoral support, and a faithful observance of the disciplinary plan for providing for it.

We have a growing appreciation of the invaluable services of Rev. Robert Stephens, Field Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society, and note with pleasure the steady building up of that permanent fund.

In harmony with the declarations of previous committees we continue to exhort every member of this Conference to become a beneficiary member of the Preachers' Aid Society at once.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. TAYLOR, Chairman pro tem.

A. K. BYRNES, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS COMMITTEE.

Your Committee on Annuities, appointed at the last session of this Conference, beg leave to make this report:

In view of the comparatively new plan with reference to Annuity Claims and the great number of necessitous cases, we recommend that the brothers and sisters who can do without this annuity claim, release the same in the interest of the more needy claimants.

2. We recommend that the Board of Stewards apportion their funds on the basis of 25 per cent to the annuity and 75 per cent to the necessitous claims.

3. We urge our pastors to make a special effort to increase the Permanent Fund for the Conference Claimants.

4. We recommend that the District Superintendents emphasize the disciplinary question as to whether the pro rata has been observed.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. TAYLOR, Chairman.

C. R. MORRISON, Secretary,

W. H. WEBSTER.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, submit the following report. We recommend:

First—That the relation of W. N. Rutledge be changed from Effective to Superannuate.

Second—That the relation of D. T. Black be changed from Superannuate to Effective.

Third—That the relation of T. F. Hartman be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Fourth—That the relation of J. S. Bicknell be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Fifth—That the relation of H. H. O'Neal be changed from Superannuate to Effective.

Sixth—That the relation of T. O. Holly be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Seventh—That R. A. Hartrick be located at his own request.

Eighth—That the relation of J. M. Goodspeed be continued as Supernumerary.

Ninth—That W. E. Rose be continued in the Supernumerary relation.

Tenth—That the relation of J. B. Pawson be changed from Effective to Superannuate.

Eleventh—That the relation of E. S. Borton be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Twelfth—That the relation of J. L. Dimmitt be continued as Supernumerary and that he be notified to show why he should not locate at the next Conference.

Thirteenth—We find that Jas. McCrary was permitted to withdraw in 1909, and that the record should so show.

Fourteenth—That the relation of T. F. Shouse be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Fifteenth—That the relation of J. P. Morton be changed from Effective to Supernumerary. This appears to be an error. See page 77 Conf. Min. 1914

Sixteenth—That the relation of Fred Enslow be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Seventeenth—That the relation of Fred L. Buck be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Eighteenth—That the relation of A. D. Davis be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Nineteenth—That the relation of E. E. Strevey be changed from Supernumerary to Effective.

N. M. RIGG, Chairman.

ROYAL W. ENNIS, Secretary.

COURTESIES.

In glancing backward over the past sessions of the Illinois Conference, we recall none more pleasant. The genial and brotherly administration of Bishop Moore has been a chief element. We most heartily appreciate his spirit of cordiality and fairness and believe that the entire Conference has caught the spirit of its presiding officer. The earnest gospel sermon, so truly representing the spirit of the Master, encouraging and emphasizing unto us all the great essential elements of true preaching, will never be forgotten. May his life be spared to the church for many years, and it is our hope that he may again direct the affairs of the Illinois Conference at no distant day.

We give our sincere and hearty thanks to Dr. J. W. Van Cleve, and his ministerial and laymen associates, for their happy and successful provision for this Annual Conference. This beautiful church has been found a most satisfactory place for all our sessions and work. The splendid program of the Conference, throughout, has deserved our highest praise. And our thanks are extended to the sister churches of the city, which, by the use of their edifices and otherwise, have assisted us.

We desire to express our appreciation of the hospitality of the people of Champaign and Urbana in their care of this Conference. The heavy task of entertaining both the ministerial and lay conferences has been assumed and carried out with a graciousness and cordiality of spirit which will constitute this annual conference always a most happy memory among us. We also acknowledge with thanks the reception tendered to ministers and laymen by President Edmund J. James of the University of Illinois.

We congratulate these beautiful Twin Cities that, for the sake of their own homes and under their great responsibility to the young people of Illinois, they have freed themselves from the curse and sin of the licensed saloon. There is a special significance for us as a Conference in Superintendent Madden's statement that there is not a licensed saloon within the bounds of the Champaign District. Methodism ought to fight the devil by circuits, and stations, and by districts, conferences and general conferences. And there is no problem before the church of today more central, more vast, more terrible, than its conflict with the legalized saloon.

The conference is indebted to the First National Bank of Champaign for generous courtesies extended to us. The Illinois Traction Company has contributed to our pleasure by the trolley-party given the ministers and laymen. The Brown's Business College of Champaign has greatly facilitated our work by clerical and stenographic assistance furnished, and the daily press reports of this Conference, have given, full and careful consideration to all our work.

JOSEPH C. NATE,
J. W. MILLER,
PRESTON WOOD.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The licenses of the following Deaconesses were renewed: Miss Alverta E. Simpson, Miss Anna J. Davidson, Miss Mary L. Brewer, Miss Mabel G. Millard, Miss Edith Bird, Miss Constance McKing, Miss Marjorie L. McPherson, Miss Anna L. Logan, Miss Edith C. Neal, Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Roxana Beck, Miss Eleanora Hubbell, Miss Mae Ledgenwood, Miss Muriel Forester, Miss Lillian E. Bishop.

Miss Mary A. Vermilya was transferred to the Central Ohio Conference and Miss Roxana Beck to Helena, North Montana Conference. Miss Lillian E. Bishop was transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference.

The annual meeting of the board is to be held on Friday at 2 p. m. during Conference week at the seat of Conference.

The past year has been the most prosperous of any previous year in the "Cunningham Children's Home." The much needed building is approaching completion and will soon be ready for use. The management cares for twenty-seven boys and twenty-two girls. We earnestly commend the work to the friends who are charitably disposed as a suitable place for profitable investment.

The work of the Chaddock Boys' School is conducted in the most approved fashion, and splendid results are being achieved by the Christian tact, skill and consecrated energy, of the deaconesses in caring for the mental, moral and religious condition of the boys. The work done justifies the largest hopes and is its own commendation.

J. W. MILLER, Chairman.
WALTER AITKEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID.

This is a time when our attention should be called to the fact that there are many places in our Conference where there is a larger call for greater contributions toward helping weak and needy churches, which are incapable of meeting the spiritual needs of the community in which they are located. Also that to the extent we fail to respond to the needs of these weaker churches, our whole church is weakened, since we are a connectional body, and one part can not suffer without effecting the other. Since the Domestic Missions and Church Aid Society is for the purpose of aiding the weak and needy churches of our Conference, we believe it to be to the best interest of the Conference, that there be a more definite basis upon which the disbursements of the funds of said Society be made.

We call the attention of the Brethren of the Conference to the report of the treasurer of this society, as shown by the minutes of the Conference. Inasmuch as there are charges paying from $1,000.00 to $2,000.00 salary, which are receiving $200.00 in addition to that amount from this fund; and weaker charges, paying half or less than half that much, are receiving as low as $25.00 and many are receiving no aid whatever from this fund; we urge that the disbursement of these funds be on a basis that shall more directly aid the weaker charges.

Therefore, we recommend that no charge paying $1,000.00 or more cash salary, receive any funds from this society, for ministerial support; and the amount received from this fund by any charge, shall not be considered pro rata charge, with the claims of District Superintendent, Bishop, other preachers or other collections.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education begs leave to report as follows:

Forward Movement.

We recommend a great centralized Forward Movement in the interests of our educational work, and submit our reasons therefor with a suggested plan:

First—The educational institutions of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences are all contemplating forward movements.

Second—We believe that this Conference should recognize in a financial way the work for Methodist students at the University of Illinois.

Third—We believe that a failure to federate the separate movements for funds would hamper and embarrass all concerned, while co-operation would have beneficial results for all.

Fourth—The suggestion for such federation arises from the representatives of the institutions involved after conference with Secretary Nicholson of the Board of Education—they being unanimously agreed upon the wisdom and advantage of co-operation and the ratio suggested.

Therefore, Be It Resolved,

First—The Illinois Conference join with the Central Illinois Conference in a campaign to secure $1,250,000 for the educational institutions, named below by the year 1916.

Second—The raising of this fund shall be by two methods:

(a) By the solicitation of individual gifts designated to particular institutions, each institution being free to push its own campaign under the impetus of the common movement.

(b) By an emergency educational fund aiming to secure an amount equal to one dollar per member throughout the two Conferences, the same to be raised as a part of the benevolences of the Church, taking the place of the collection for local educational interests for the said period of five years.

Third—The emergency fund of $1 per member shall be divided at the Annual Conferences according to the following ratio:

In the Central Illinois Conference—

Hedding College shall receive.....	4/10
Grand Prairie Seminary	2/10
Illinois Wesleyan	2/10
Illinois Woman's College	1/10
Methodist Work at University of Illinois.....	1/10

In the Illinois Conference the ratio of division shall be as follows:

Illinois Wesleyan University shall receive.....	3/10
Illinois Woman's College shall receive.....	3/10
Hedding College shall receive	1/10
Grand Prairie Seminary shall receive.....	1/10
Chaddock shall receive	1/10
Methodist Work at University of Illinois.....	1/10

It is understood that neither of these ratios shall be effective until adopted by both Conferences.

Fourth—A Conference Commission shall be raised to promote this Forward Movement—to lay all necessary plans and provide for their being carried out. It shall be understood that the Commission so raised shall co-operate with the pastors of the Conference in raising the special fund, furnishing them speakers, literature and any other assistance feasible.

Fifth—The selection of the Commission shall be left with the heads of the institutional work involved and the District Superintendents, such selection to be made at the October meeting of the District Superintendents.

Educational Money.

First—We recommend that the regular educational column of the Conference Minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provisions of paragraph 414 of the Discipline of 1908 as the "Local Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gifts, if certified by vouchers, shall be reported as "Special Educational Gifts," and we recommend the insertion of a column in our Conference Minutes for such report.

Second—We ask the Bishop to request each pastor at the sessions of the Conference for the next five years to report specifically the amount contributed by his charge toward the emergency fund.

Institutions—Theological Schools.

We commend the theological schools of our church as representing the true spirit of Methodism—progressive but not destructive. There is a demand in many quarters that our theological institutions readjust themselves to meet the needs of our modern life, and we believe they are thoughtfully and with a safe conservatism making this readjustment. Our complex age more than ever before demands of the candidate for the ministry the special preparation of such schools. Hence with the utmost emphasis we urge our ministerial candidates to seek first the broad foundation of a general course of study in our colleges and following that the special preparation of the theological school.

We nominate the following persons as Conference visitors:

Boston—J. C. Nate, Freeman A. Havighurst.

Garrett—J. F. McNally, C. F. McKown, Merle English.

Drew—G. E. Scringer.

Iliff—J. C. Baker.

Faculty.

Al Verta E. Simpson, Principal; Edith B. Bird, Assistant Principal; Adelaide E. Shigley, Grammar Grades; Emma S. Heverley, B.Di., Intermediate Grades; Mary L. Brewer, Primary Grades; Annie L. Logan, Teacher of Piano, and Librarian; Bessie M. Post, Band Instructor; Mary F. Ganz, Vocal Music Instructor; John W. McGinnis, Supervisor of Manual Training; Lieut. Hugh E. King, Military Instructor; Le Nora McGinnis, Mabel G. Millard, Constance King, "Mothers" to the Students; Marjorie L. McPherson, Matron; Edith C. Neal, Field Workers.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The Illinois Wesleyan University occupies a larger place in the hearts of her constituency today than ever before. Her future is made more secure each year.

Dormitory privileges are now provided for a limited number of young women. The demand for such accommodation is so great that all can not be provided for. The erection of a modern home for young women is one of the pressing needs.

During the past year a new University accounting system has been installed together with the most up-to-date and careful methods of handling the business of the University.

The courses of study have been strengthened and additions made to the faculty so that the school is kept abreast with all modern educational advancement.

The record of the students of Illinois Wesleyan in such competitive tests as Rhodes' Scholarship examinations, debate, and oratory, as well as athletics, is a distinguished one and unrivalled by any other college in the state.

In the death of Dr. R. O. Graham, who for twenty-two years was head of the Department of Chemistry and part of the time vice-president, the Institution and the cause of education have suffered a great loss.

The high educational standards, strong faculty, splendid opportunities for self help, positive Christian influences which safeguard the moral life and other unrivalled advantages commend this school to our Church.

The completion of the central heating plant, the new Science Hall, extensive work of repair and redecoration on the main building, and the beautifying of the campus, make the entire plant more attractive than it has ever been.

The following financial statement is most gratifying:

Value of buildings and grounds.....	$218,500.00
Productive endowment.....	$179,000.00
Non-productive endowment	109,000.00
Total endowment	$288,000.00
Other property subject to life estate.....	59,261.00
Estate now being settled	20,000.00
Total assets	$587,761.00

Indebtedness.

Accumulation of deficits	$ 66,654.00
Interest on debt	4,815.00
Current deficit	261.00
Investments in new buildings.....	25,000.00
Total indebtedness	96,730.00
Net valuation of property.....	$491,031.00

We recommend the following appointments:

As trustees for the term expiring 1914—Sain Welty, A.M., LL.D., Bloomington; Mrs. Martha A. Buck, Decatur; William. M. Dever, Bloomington; William A. Smith, A.M., D.D., Virden.

For Conference Visitors—C. Galeener, George E. Scrimger, J. C. Nate, A. L. T. Ewert, and M. N. English.

Post Graduate Seminar.

The session of the Post Graduate Seminar held last April at Bloomington with Dr. F. C. Eisilen as special lecturer, was the beginning of a most important and promising movement. We urge all the members of the Conference to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the session to be held next spring with President McConnell as special lecturer.

Financial Statement.

We respectfully request the authorities of the Conference Educational Institutions to present to the Committee on Education at the next Annual Conference a full and complete report of the Resources and Liabilities of each institution, together with a report of the enrollment of students of Elementary, Secondary and Collegiate rank.

Educational Banquet.

We recommend the appointment of the following as a committee to arrange for the Annual Banquet to be held during the session of the next Annual Conference: Geo. E. Pickard, A. S. Chapman and A. K. Byrns.

Educational Committee.

We recommend that the Conference authorize a meeting of the Educational Committee for organization immediately upon their appointment by the District Superintendents.

JOSEPH C. NATE, Chairman,
JAMES C. BAKER, Secretary.

ILLINOIS WOMANS COLLEGE.

The Illinois Womens College has made decided advances each year for the past eighteen years. This year this expectation has been more than met. In May the College closed by far, the most successful year in its history, and the outlook promises even greater things. Notwithstanding the erection of the splendid new Harker Hall, and the school year not yet open, the buildings are already crowded to the doors, and workmen are fitting up rooms for students, which were not intended for that purpose.

Not only has this growth been in the student body, but is noted in every line of the College work. The School is keeping in touch with the spirit and plans of the Board of Education. They have adopted the new and complete system of College bookkeeping recommended by this Board. The reorganization of administration, in keeping with the Board's plans, has made the School in every respect a Conference College, and the enlargement of the curriculum has placed this institution on an equal footing with the best Woman's Colleges in America.

The advance in valuation of this plant which is the property of the Conference has been phenomenal. In 1894 the holdings were worth $70,000.00. Today the official valuation is as follows:

Grounds	$ 59,575.00
Buildings	316,265.00
Equipment	43,472.00
Productive endowment	34,700.00
Total	$454,012.00

Indebtedness.

On Buildings$ 68,000.00

Net valuation$386,012.00

There has been no indebtedness on current expenses for the last eighteen years.

The attendance for last year was:

College students 110

Academy students 109

Music and special 190

Total 409

We heartily commend and will co-operate in the proposed Educational Campaign to raise $1,250,000.00 in this and the Central Illinois Conference for their respective schools.

We endorse the wise and effective administration of President Harker, and rejoice with him in the hopeful outlook for the future.

We recommend for Conference Visitors—The District Superintendent of the Jacksonville District, the Pastors resident in Jacksonville, J. C. Willits, A. C. Piersol, J. C. Nate, P. P. Carson and M. G. Coleman.

For Trustees of the Class of 1917, we nominate the following: Mrs. Hortense Bartholow Robeson, Mrs. Susie Brown Dillion, T. B. Orear, J. W. Taylor, Alex Platt, E. E. Crabtree, J. W. Walton, Charles P. Gillett.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

First—That we commend the Sunday School throughout our Conference for the prominent place given to “decision day.”

Second—That we sincerely deplore the absence of the family altar in the majority of Methodist homes and we most earnestly urge the members of the Conference to make the campaign in the interest of family religion.

Third—That we urge the District Superintendents to make some definite plans for an Evangelistic Conference at the time of and in connection with the District Stewards’ meeting, bearing definitely on the Evangelistic campaign of the winter.

Fourth—That the Conference require the Conference Evangelist or Evangelists to present a report of their year’s work to the Annual Conference.

Fifth—We again call the attention of the District Superintendents to the disciplinary requirements concerning the employment of Evangelists within the bounds of their several Districts.

We heartily endorse and insist on the Superintendent planning the co-operation of the pastors in the Evangelistic campaign so the weak charges will have the benefit of the best possible Evangelistic service.

Sixth—That being conscious of the business activities and anxieties of Conference week, we recommend an appointment of a committee of three who will confer with the host of our Conference with reference to securing a suitable leader for, and the arranging of special “upper room” services each day of the Conference session.

The following committee was named by the Conference and accepted this report,

E. K. TOWLE, Chairman.
W. L. EWING, Secretary.

HISTORY OF ILLINOIS METHODISM.

The Conference at its last session appointed the following commission to devise ways and means for the publication of "The History of Illinois Methodism," by Dr. W. N. McElroy; Rev's. Stover, Kemp, Harker, Carson and Brother Prentice.

Rev. Carson, not being able to meet the committee, resigned. Rev. W. A. Smith was elected to take his place.

The committee met a number of times, going carefully over their work and beg leave to report: That they found that McElroy, the historian appointed by the Conference had prepared and finished a vast amount of available material dealing with Persons, Events and Organization of Methodism in Illinois, without which no history can be published.

The committee referred the manuscript after careful reading to the Methodist Episcopal Book Concern at Chicago and to the editors of our church papers at Chicago.

They also sent Dr. McElroy to Chicago at their own expense to present his manuscript.

The committee received bids from The Book Concern at Cincinnati and from the State Register at Springfield.

A sub-committee was also appointed to consult thoroughly with The Book Concern, which they did.

The committee also sent forth an appeal in behalf of Dr. McElroy's unpaid services urging this immediate payment.

The committee wish to report that they are unable to recommend its immediate publication, owing to the fact that the manuscript will need to be re-edited and corrected, and perhaps abridged. And also being without funds with which to publish the work.

The commission wish to express their high appreciation of Dr. McElroy's industry and ability in the preparation of this history. He has with much patience and discernment gathered material of great historic value, and has rendered a great service to Methodism not only in the Illinois Conference, but to the entire state of Illinois.

We urge upon the Conference to take immediate action to discharge its financial obligation to Dr. McElroy.

COMMITTEE.

A. P. Stover, Chmn.,
Theodore Kemp,
W. A. Smith,
H. B. Prentice,
J. T. Harker, Sec'y.

HOSPITALS.

Wesley.

We, your Committee on Hospitals, would call your attention to the splendid work of our Wesley Hospital in Chicago, especially to the excellent surgical work now being done in a manner unsurpassed. The Hospital is operated at an expense of $150,000 a year, and is self-supporting. Contributions for free bed work are solicited.

Mattoon Memorial.

Our Memorial Hospital at Mattoon continues its excellent work. By the sale of a piece of land the Hospital is out of debt and has a good balance in its treasury, but it is not self-supporting. Plans are being made to erect a new building which will accommodate fifty patients at a time. The fact that eighty patients were refused admittance last year because of lack of room, shows the necessity of such a structure. The Hospital is to be congratulated upon the showing made this year. Mattoon Memorial is the only Methodist Hospital within the bounds of our Conference, and hence it has a special claim upon us. Let us not forget it in our prayers and contributions and may its good work continue to bless suffering mankind.

W. H. McGhee, Chairman,
RICHARD S. EGGLESTON, Secretary.

METHODIST STUDENTS AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

The Commission on Work among Methodist Students at the University of Illinois begs leave to report as follows:

We feel that we cannot commend too highly the work of Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor of Trinity Church, who, in addition to the exacting labors of his own pastorate, has done large and efficient service by personal interviews and by conducting Bible classes among students.

We commend also the excellent service rendered by Miss Helen Noon and Ralph C. Scott, student assistants, whose efficient work has aided in bringing more than six hundred Methodist students under the influence of the work which centers in Trinity Church.

We recommend that the Conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to appropriate six hundred dollars to the work among Methodist Students at the University of Illinois:

We recommend the continuance of the Commission for another year.

F. B. MADDEN, Chairman,
JOS. W. VANCLEVE, Secretary.

REPORT ON PUBLICATIONS.

We, the Committee on Publishing Interests, offer to you the following report:

We congratulate the agents of our publishing interests that they have so wisely invested the capital and so carefully conducted the business of our book concern that they have been enabled to pay to the Superannuates of our Conference more than $4,200 this year.

While recognizing the fact that our publishing interests yield much timely aid to your worn out ministers, we contend that the largest service rendered to the church through this agency, is its able defense of the faith and its vigorous warfare constantly waged against every form of evil and of spiritual wickedness in places high and low.

All forms of false doctrines and dangerous heresies are promulgated by the press.

We must meet such foes upon their chosen field. Irreligious, skeptical atheistic and non-religious literature is pouring forth in train loads every day and the Church press is one of our strongest defenses; therefore, we call upon our people everywhere to rally to the support of our publishing interests by buying our books, subscribing for our Advocates and keeping our literature in our Sunday Schools.

W. W. HENRY, Chairman,
O. B. HESS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

A superficial glance at the state of the country would lead to the conclusion that "Right was ever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne"; but the calm study of human affairs disproves this verdict. It is the old and inevitable struggle between the forces of good and evil with abundant promise that God's people will prevail. But the millennium is not yet.

Politics.

We rejoice in the effort of the President to secure treaties of international arbitration with European countries. God's spirit and promise is in these measures; may the day soon dawn when war shall cease forever, its vast expense flow into useful channels, and the legalized slaughter of men stop. Political corruption is evident in many quarters. It is not confined to any place or party and will continue until Christian men shall place Christian principles above party allegiance. We condemn all kinds of corruption, vote buying, vote selling, corrupt courts, the patronage system, whether federal or state, and believe these crimes should be punished in severe measure. We pledge ourselves, will urge the laity and call upon friends of good government to oppose all such practice by example, voice and vote. We regret the exclusion of the Bible from the public school, by the decision of the Supreme Court, but are assured the result will be disastrous to the rising generation. We cannot afford to raise a Godless people, for in so doing, we promote the overthrow of this Christian nation. Our judgment is with the minority decision of the Court.

The Liquor Problem.

We serve notice upon the enemy that we will never cease our warfare upon them, but give battle every morning until the iniquitous traffic is wiped out. We call upon the Federal government to cease giving comfort and assistance to the bootlegger and the dive keeper, by issuing revenue permits to persons who are not recognized by local authority, and by protecting interstate commerce to the defeat of state laws, and hail the day when our government dissolves partnership with the liquor traffic.

The Sabbath.

The Sabbath is fundamental to our civilization; what ever tends to its destruction is inimical to the national life. We gladly commend the action of Postmaster General Hitchcock in closing many postoffices on Sunday. But we emphatically condemn the disposition on the part of large numbers to make the day a holiday instead of a holy day; and protest against Sunday baseball, theaters, beer gardens and the open saloon, secular programs at Chautauquas, automobile excursions and travel either for business or pleasure. The Sabbath belongs to man for rest and religious exercise.

Divorce.

We again put ourselves on record opposing the divorce evil. It is destructive to the family, hence to every sacred relation. The extended notice by the newspapers of a late prominent wedding, proves the rising interest in this important matter. The agitation for uniform divorce laws is a step in the right direction.

The Social Evil and White Slave Traffic.

This blot upon society must be wiped out. Many good men and women are laboring to this end. We have not done our full duty when we have brought the fallen Magdiline to Christ, but must use all the powers of church and state to prevent them from falling. To punish the pirates of virtue and blot out all forms of social evil is the aim of the church. We commend Dr. Reed for his labors in this direction, and ask his reappointment to the work of Social Purity Reform.

R. F. McDANNIEL, Chairman.
C. W. CASELEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES

Whereas, The work of the Sunday School is becoming increasingly important in the instruction which it provides not only for the children, but also for the adult, through the excellent system of "The Graded Lessons" which will be completed and adapted to the Senior grade a year hence, and

Whereas, The increasing circulation of Sunday School literature has made possible a large appropriation to the Superannuate Fund, therefore be it resolved.

First, as pastors who have the oversight of the Sunday Schools in our charges, we will thoroughly inform ourselves on the "Graded lessons" and introduce them into our schools as rapidly as possible,

Second, that, wherever possible, we will see that our own literature is used, not only because it is of the highest grade in matter and in the editorial and publishers' art, but because of the financial help it gives the veterans of the church, the Superannuates, their widows and orphans.

Third, that we earnestly commend the Organized Class Movement in the Senior and Adult departments of our Sunday Schools.

Epworth League Resolutions

Whereas, The Epworth League is the society for the young people of our church; and is of vital importance to their well-being, and also to the local church;

And Whereas, No other society or organization in the church aims at such a well-rounded development of Christian character, and tends toward such practical efficiency in christian service as this does, therefore,

Resolved, That we the District Superintendents, and pastors will heed the ringing cry in two recent issues of the Epworth Herald, "Give the Epworth League the right of way," and will seek to promote the organization and efficiency of Epworth League chapters in all our charges. (See discipline 1908, Par. 447 and 448).

We wish also to call attention to the Epworth League resolutions passed by the Conference two years ago in regard to state organization and the state Epworth League Institute and Chautauqua at Havana and urge that those recommendations obtain now.

Be it Further Resolved, That we the Illinois Conference Memorialize the next General Conference to make the following revisions:

First, that the reports of the Sunday School to the quarterly Conference be so revised as to bring to the quarterly Conference a mention and record of those things that are in full keeping with advanced Sunday School work.

Second, That the Sunday School statistical report to the Annual Conference be revised and such items included as will be of special interest and inspiration to Modern Sunday School movement; and that the same be published in the minutes of the Annual Conference.

Third, That in like manner as heretofore stated the work of the Epworth League be reported and published in the minutes of the Annual Conferences in the same table with Sunday School statistics.

E. L. PLETCHER, Chairman,
W. P. BOWMAN, Secy.

RESOLUTIONS

Joint Meeting

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by our Conference to invite the Lay Electoral Conference to meet with us at Trinity Church, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, following a trolley ride over the Twin Cities.

Be it Further Resolved, That we request the Lay Conference to appoint a committee to act with our committee in arranging for an annual meeting of the Annual Conference and the Lay Association.

Memorial to General Conference

Resolved, That we, the members of the Illinois Annual Conference, hereby memorialize the next General Conference asking that body to restore the time honored and expressive title of Presiding Elder to the office now known as District Superintendent.

Preachers' Aid Society

Whereas, The Illinois Annual Conference at its session held in Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 1907, unanimously adopted the report of the Joint Commission thereby adopting the Revised Constitution and By-Laws of the Preachers' Aid Society, in which the principle of self help was made clear, and urging that each effective member of the conference pay one per cent of his cash salary into the fund of said society, thereby becoming a Beneficiary Member, and

Whereas, The Conference is making an effort to raise a permanent Endowment Fund of $500,000 through the Preachers' Aid Society the interest of which is to be paid to the Superannuated preachers who are beneficiary members of the Society, and

Whereas, The Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society have resolved to make an enthusiastic campaign during the next four years to complete the $500,000 Endowment Fund, therefore,

Resolved, That we do hereby urge every effective member of the Conference to become a Beneficiary Member of the Preachers' Aid Society, by the payment annually of one per cent of his cash salary.

Resolved, That we as members of the Conference, will co-operate with the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society in their effort to complete the $500,000 Endowment Fund during the next four years.

Resolved, That we will assist the Field Secretary of the Society in his work, give him access to our pulpits, and we will urge our members to contribute of their means to this most worthy cause.

Resolved, That we greatly appreciate the generosity of our Lay Members who are rallying with their gifts toward the raising of the Endowment Fund. We thank those who have already given and appreciate the signed promises of those who will yet do their part toward this worthy cause.

W. F. BEADLES,
H. C. GIBBS,
J. W. MILLER.

Publication of Minutes

Whereas, In order that our Conference Minutes may be published without delay and with the greatest measure of accuracy, it is necessary for the contract for the same to be made some time before the session of our Annual Conference, and

Whereas, in order that the Commission may have some estimate of the number of copies for which it ought to contract, herefore be it

Resolved, That each Pastor and District Superintendent and other effective members of the Conference be recommended and required to take and pay for one copy of the Minutes for every hundred dollars and fraction thereof amounting to fifty dollars or more, of the salary claim of his charge, including house rent, and if his quota of the Minutes is not paid for when they are ready for shipment the publishers shall forward them to him C. O. D.

Resolved, Further, That the Commission for the publishing of the Minutes of 1912 shall consist of the Pastors of the churches of Decatur, the Superintendent of that District, together with the Conference Secretary.

Conference Resolutions

Whereas, The Honorable Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, United States of America, has accepted the honorary presidency of the International Brewers' Congress, to be held in Chicago, October 12th to 22nd, 1911, and

Whereas, Secretary of State, Hon. P. C. Knox, has issued a letter, in the name of the government which he represents, addressd to the Diplomatic and Consular Officers at Washington, endorsing said Congress, and inviting the official recognition and the sending of delegates by the scientific institutions and trade organizations interested, in the other nations of the earth, therefore,

Resolved, That we, members of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in session assembled at Champaign, Illinois, Bishop D. H. Moore, L. L. D., presiding, representing over four hundred preachers and more than eighty thousand lay members, do hereby respectfully, but most emphatically protest against this, or any other sanction of, or complicity with, the liquor traffic by our national government.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his Excellency, President W. H. Taft, at Washington, D. C.

Resolution

Whereas, The compilation of the statistics requires a measure of expert ability as accountants, and

Whereas, There has been considerable difficulty in securing aid from among the members of the Conference, be it

Resolved, That this Conference make the members of the Statistical Board a committee appointed by the District Superintendents and that each District Superintendent be requested to appoint three men from his district to aid in this work under the direction of the Statistical Secretary, and such appointees be relieved from any other committee duty.

Respectfully submitted,
LEE MATHENY, Treasurer.

We, the undersigned, Auditors of the Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference, certify that we have examined the foregoing report of Lee Matheny, Treasurer, from September 23, 1910, to September 1, 1911, and compared said report with vouchers submitted and find the same correct.

M. B. CONVERSE,
S. A. BULLARD,

Auditing Committee.

Out of the balance of $531.65, there has been appropriated $420.00 at the last Annual Meeting which the Treasurer holds subject to call.

This report is not for publication in the Minutes, but simply for the information of the Conference Committee on Domestic Missions. My report for the Minutes will include the receipts from Conference Treasurer for 1911 and will be prepared later.

In Memoriam

THE REV. ADONIRAM JUDSON IVES

ADONIRAM JUDSON IVES, son of Titus and Hannah Ives, was born near Bolton Center, Province of Quebec, Canada, July 16, 1850, and departed this life at his home in Stuttgart, Arkansas, Jan. 9, 1911. He was the eighth child in a family of eleven children, eight sons and three daughters. Four brothers and two sisters still survive him. He received his early education in the public schools of Canada. When 20 years of age he came to Illinois with an older brother and his family. Here he worked on the farm, saved his earnings and, desiring to secure a higher education, entered the Illinois Wesleyan University in the fall of 1871 and spent two years and the fall term of 1874. He taught in the public school, and also taught vocal music to secure means to complete his education. While in the University he became acquainted with Miss Rosella Kenady of Hull, Ill., to whom he was joined in wedlock, July 16, 1874. To them were born three children. The oldest, a son, died when about 4 years of age. The others are Dr. Ramond J. Ives of Fancisville, Ind., and Amy Ives Rhodes of Stuttgart, Ark.

Brother Ives entered the Illinois Wesleyan with the intention of preparing for the ministry, but for some reason he gave up the idea and took up the profession of teaching until the fall of 1885, when he entered the ministry and united with the Illinois Conference. When a boy he felt called to preach and always carried a testament with him when at work, and while resting would read from the word of God, and would often go into some secret place and pray. But he never made a public profession of religion until he was a student at the University, and there he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church under Dr. Barnes. He then became an active worker in the Church, filling every office of a layman, leading the choir and trying, according to his ability to build up the Kingdom of God. He often felt that he was called to preach, but he had other ambitions that kept him from answering the call till the spring of 1885, when God took his first born, a beautiful boy of a very religious spirit. Then he gave up all to do what the Lord had called him to do. That fall, at Rushville, he entered the Conference and was assigned to Concord Circuit. He began his ministry under great discouragements, with many doubts and fears; but God so signally blessed his efforts with a sweeping revival in his first meeting that he never after doubted his call to the ministry. He was above the average as a preacher, a careful pastor, and a hard worker. He served faithfully and efficiently the following charges: Concord, 1885-7; Chatham, 1888-9; Edinburg, 1890-2; Neoga, 1893; Humboldt, 1894; Charleston Circuit, 1895-6; Rosemond, 1897-9; Heyworth, 1900; Weedman, 1901-2; Versailles, 1903-5. In 1906 he took a Supernumerary relation and moved to Stuttgart, Ark., in the search of health and a home for himself and his faithful wife. There he engaged in rice farming, having been advised by his physician to live outdoors as much as possible. As opportunity was given he preached, and taught regularly a Bible class at Stuttgart, where he made many warm friends.

Sunday, Jan. 8th, he attended Sunday School, Epworth League, and the preaching service both morning and evening, taking part in each service. He had taken cold, and on returning home from the evening service complained of a severe pain in his chest, and rested but little during the night, but seemed better the next forenoon. In the afternoon, while sitting in his chair his daughter and husband, whom he had married just two weeks before, came in from their wedding trip. He greeted them cheerfully, but while they were greeting the rest of the family he became unconscious and in a few moments was asleep in Jesus. Thus another faithful servant of God answered to the roll call.

The funeral service was held at Hull, Ill., at 2 p. m., Saturday, Jan. 14th. The Rev. J. J. Dugan preached the sermon; the Revs. T. L. Hancock, W. M. Hailey, and D. V. Gowdy taking a part in the services. His body was laid to rest in Akers Cemetery, near Akers Chapel, between Kinderhook and Plainville, Ill.

REV. AUSTIN H. REAT

REV. AUSTIN H. REAT was born in Tar-rollton, Ohio, May 10th, 1838, and died in El Campo, Texas, January 9th, 1911. Mr. Reat was one of a family of six children, of whom two are still living, Nelson Reat of Emporia, Kansas, and Mrs. Wells of Greencastle, Ind.

Mr. Reat was married in early life to Miss Margaret Wells of Greencastle, Indiana, she having died some twelve years before Mr. Reat's death. Six children were born to this union, four of whom are still living: Mrs. Ada Barr of Kansas, Ill., Mrs. Lucy Thompson, Mrs. Margaret Ashbrook and Hugh Reat of Charleston, Illinois.

Brother Reat was received on trial in the Southeastern Indiana Conference in September 1867, and served the following charges: Clarksburg, Hartford, Fairland, Willmington, Columbus, Greenwood, Utica, Edwin Ray Charge, Indianapolis, and Castleton.

In 1880 he was transferred to the Texas Conference and served Dallas, and Gainsville, remaining in that Conference but five years. In 1885 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and served the following charges: Tuscola, Kansas, Jacksonville Circuit, Virginia, Hillsboro, St. Joseph, Sad-erus, Charleston Circuit, Moulton, Shelbyville.

Brother Reat was married a second time to Mrs. H. A. Norvill of Greenwood, Ind., October 1902. At the session of the Conference in 1907, because of failing health he asked for and was granted a superannuate relation, and with his wife moved to El Campo, Texas, where he remained until he was called hence.

Brother Reat possessed a genial disposition that made him the friend of all classes. He was a faithful, earnest preacher of a gospel that could save, and preached it out of his own rich experience, and that one fact added largely to his success in the charges he so faithfully served.

Austin Reat was in everything a good man. He was true to his friends, true to his church, and true to his Master whom he loved and served, and will be remembered, not only by his friends and his Brothers of the Conference, but remembered by what he has done.

He lived in that atmosphere of which some one has said:

Above the surge and din of life,
Above the sorrow and the strife,
From out the blissful realms above,
I feel the broodings of God's love.

Where e'er I go, where e'er to me
Life opens its great destiny,
Like soft white wings of some sweet dove,
I feel the broodings of God's love.

—S. H. Whitlock.

REV. MARCELLUS M. DAVIDSON

REV. MARCELLUS M. DAVIDSON, chaplain at the Soldiers' Home for the past fifteen years and in the effective ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church for over half a century, passed to his reward at the Home hospital at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 26, at the ripe old age of 72 years.

Dr. Davidson was born in Clermont county, Ohio, February 5, 1839, and there spent his boyhood days and attended school. In 1854, when he was fifteen years old, the family came west to Illinois and located in Richfield township, this county. Four years later the deceased joined the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Church—in September, 1858. Fifty-two years later, in September, 1910, at Jacksonville, he requested that he be placed on the superannuated list and his request was granted, regretfully. At that time and for several years prior thereto he had been in impaired health and it was only by the exercise of a strong will power that he was enabled to perform his duties as Home chaplain. He remained on duty, faithful in the discharge of his work, as long as he possibly could and then laid aside his activities and patiently and resignedly awaited the end. His ailment was diagnosed as a malignant internal tumor and the end came as a relief from excruciating physical pain. The ailment took a serious turn only about three days before death and members of the family were summoned.

Dr. Davidson is survived by his wife, who was Miss Ruth L. Laken at the time of the marriage, which took place in the fall of 1860. Surviving also are two sons: Stephen O. Davidson of St. Louis, and Mark Davidson, of Hannibal. T. A. Davidson, M. D., of Timewell, Brown county, is a brother, and there are four sisters: Mrs. Laura Cross, of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. M. S. Orr, of Quincy; Mrs. Ella Threlkeld, of Quincy, and Mrs. Emma Hughes of Topeka, Kansas.

Dr. Davidson's life was consecrated to the service of the Master and from youth to advanced age he taught by precept and example the truths of the gospel and sought to lead men to live the better life. He was an earnest man and true to his religious convictions and profession in all things; conscientious, clean and honorable. He made an ideal chaplain for an institution such as the Soldiers' Home and his place in this capacity will not easily be filled as he filled it. By officers and men and by the trustees and all in authority he was held in high regard and sorrow over his demise is genuine and heart-felt.

Brother Davidson's conference record is as follows: Received on trial Illinois Conference, 1858 Payson; 1859, Summit Grove; 1860-1861, Beverly; 1862, Camargo; 1863-4, Paxton; 1865-6, Champaign Circuit; 1867, Farmer City; 1868-9, Cerro Gordo; 1870, Williamsville; 1871-2, Elkhart City; 1873-4, Mechanicsburg; 1875-6, Virden; 1877, Versailles; 1878-9; Augusta; 1880-1, Warsaw; 1882-4, Carrollton; 1885, Rossville; 1886, Paris; 1887, Virginia; 1888-9, Island Grove; 1890-1, Havana; 1892-3, Atlanta; 1894, Hopedale; 1895, Financial Agent Chaddock College; 1896-1911, Chaplain Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, Quincy, Ill.; 1910, Superannuate (Ill. Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, Quincy, Ill.)

The funeral service was held in the Vermont street M. E. Church in charge of the pastor of the church, assisted by a number of the local clergy and from the nearby charges. Rev. Davidson was buried in the beautiful Greenmount Cemetery.

THE REV. CHARLES WILMER JACOBS

THE REV. CHARLES WILMER JACOBS, son of Samuel and Mary Jacobs, was born at Petersburg, Ind., Sept. 26, 1845, and died at his home in Casey, Ill., Feb. 17, 1911. In his early life he developed studious habits that became lifelong characteristics. He enlisted as a soldier in the war of '61-'65 and was assigned to duty as private secretary of Gen. L. H. Rousseau. He continued doing secretarial work during the entire period of his enlistment. After the war he completed his education at Indiana University at Bloomington, Ind. He was for many years a school teacher in which vocation he was eminently successful.

In September, 1869, he married Miss Sattie Marguerite Rice, who with their adopted daughter, Miss Elma, survives him. In 1881 he entered the Christian ministry and connected himself with the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of which he continued a faithful and honored member until his death. His appointments were: Alexander, Roodhouse, Mechanicsburg, Hillsboro, Greenfield, Saybrook, Casey, Grove City, Bellflower, and Oakland. In 1908 he took a place among the Superannuates, but at the time of his death was chaplain of the House of Representatives of the legislature of Illinois.

As a preacher of righteousness, he attracted a large hearing. His sermons were scholarly, fervent and convincing. In evangelistic work he was generally successful and there are many who attribute their conversion to his efforts. As a pastor he was heartily welcomed in all homes, and delighted everyone with his genial, cheerful spirit and refined inspiring Christian conversation. He was a warm friend of many distinguished Americans, among whom was Gen. O. O. Howard whom he delightfully entertained in his own home. Among the ministers of the conference, the members of the churches he served and the large number of friends and associates outside the Church he was a well loved and sweet spirited brother. He was everybody's friend and his residence in the community was a strong moral, social, intellectual and spiritual uplift to all with whom he came in contact. He belonged to the fraternal order of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and among his brethren of that order was held in high esteem. He kept in close touch with his comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic and thoroughly enjoyed their association.

He spent much time in study and literary pursuits and was for a number of years a member of the Board of Examiners of the Conference. He was an occasional contributor to several of the best daily and weekly periodicals and monthly magazines. He was the author of one book, "From Pillow to Throne," a biography of the late well known missionary worker and philanthropist, Miss Lizzie L. Johnson, of Casey, Ill. The book, as now published, is an abridgement of the original writing, but clearly reveals the literary qualities of which he was possessed, as well as his tender sympathy and deep piety.

While attending to the duties of his position as Chaplain at Springfield, he contracted a cold that, combined with other serious ailments, made his return to his home in Casey an immediate necessity. On the day following his return he rallied somewhat and was as genial and cheerful as ever; but his vitality was not sufficient to complete his recovery and on the second day after his return home, with praises to God on his lips, and in sure hope of eternal life, he passed from earth to join the innumerable company of the redeemed and bloodwashed company that surround the throne on high.

Funeral services were held in the First M. E. Church of Casey, Feb. 19th, in charge of the pastor, Rev. Daniel D. Canfield, who was assisted by pastors of the local churches and the lodge of A. F. & A. M. Interment was made in the Casey cemetery.

THE REV. ARCHIBALD SLOAN

ARCHIBALD SLOAN was born in Crawford Co., Ind., Oct. 13, 1828, and came, when a child, with his parents to Georgetown, Ill. When a young man he graduated from Georgetown Seminary, and began the practice of law in Vermilion county. In his practice in Danville, Ill., he became associated with Abraham Lincoln, at one time winning a case from that noted man, to which fact he would with his characteristic humor sometimes modestly refer. In January, 1852, he was united in marriage with Malvina Desire Norton. To them six children were born, only one of whom, Charles Norton Sloan of Palmyra, Ill., is living. In 1887, while Brother Sloan was pastor at Ashland, this companion of years died. In 1889 he was married to Miss Carrie Redmond of Ashland, who survives him.

In the year 1855 the greatest event of his life, as he came to regard it, his conversion, occurred in the Methodist Episcopal church in Georgetown. It was during a revival conducted by the Rev. Hiram Buck. Owing to certain influences he was skeptically inclined; as he expressed it, seeing so many converted and hearing them testify to a changed life he thought he would "try the experiment to see if there was any reality in it." He was completely changed, and soon, under adverse circumstances, and at great sacrifice and self-denial, he reluctantly entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Few have exemplified more unselfish devotion or endured more cheerfully extreme hardship for the Master. His labors as an itinerant Methodist preacher continued uninterruptedly from 1855 to 1895, and during about 13 years of his superannuated life he preached acceptably once every two weeks at his home town in the Ashland church.

The Rev. W. H. Webster, a close friend and former Presiding Elder of Brother Sloan, said in part, in a letter sent to be read at the funeral service: "He became a preacher when to him it meant a life of self-denial, sacrifice and toil. For years he refused to receive any more than a most meager support, as he thought he ought to set the people an example of self-denial. His extreme modesty and disposition to shun any kind of promotion were such that by many his real merits were unknown, and he did not pass for what he was worth. But a few days ago in a meeting I was attending something was said about saints on earth. I replied 'that if there were any saints among the people I have known then Archibald Sloan was surely one of them.' He certainly was a real saint. His modest and unassuming life has been a blessing to thousands and heaven will be richer because of those he has won to Christ."

Death claimed this servant of God, Feb. 10, 1911 at his home in Ashland. The funeral was held Sunday, Feb. 12 in the Ashland M. E. Church where Brother Sloan had been such a faithful laborer during his pastorate and such a benediction through the closing years of his life. The services were in charge of the pastor, H. W. McPherson, who was assisted by Pastors R. L. Steed of Green Valley and A. S. Chapman of Beardstown. Fitting tributes from the Rev. W. H. Webster and former Pastor, W. A. Boyd, were read. The body was laid to rest in the Ashland cemetery.

Brother Sloan is gone, but thanks to his God and ours, his influence and works remain. A fitting tribute to him seems contained in the following lines:

"To the beloved memory of a righteous man
Who loved God and truth above all things.
A man of untarnished honor—
Loyal and chivalrous—gentle and strong—
Modest and humble—tender and true—
Pitiful to the weak, yearning after the erring,
Stern to all powers of wrong and oppression,
Yet more stern to himself—
Who being angry, yet sinned not—
Who lived in the presence of God here,
And passing through the grave and gate of death
Now liveth unto God forevermore."

THE REV. JOHN NELSON DEWELL

THE REV. JOHN NELSON DEWELL, at the age of 69 years, 9 months and 28 days, died very suddenly at his home in White Hall, Ill., January 24, 1911. He had apparently been in the best of health and only the members of his family and a limited number of close personal friends knew that he had at times been afflicted with heart trouble which was the immediate cause of his death.

The deceased was a native of Pike county, Ill., where he spent many years as school teacher, and as County Superintendent of Schools. He likewise taught in Madison and Montgomery counties. During the period of his educational work he spent two years at the State Normal University at Normal, Ill., from which he graduated in 1874.

In 1872 he was united in marriage with Miss Mabel R. Ross, at Barry. She and six children survive him. These are Mrs. Ida G. Stewart, Kirksville, Mo.; Ross, of Chicago; Harvey, Kirksville, Mo.; Paul, Mrs. Clara Davidson and Harry, at home. Besides these he is survived by one brother, C. C. Dewell of Barry, and two sisters: Susie Bilderback of Barry and Mrs. Elizabeth Denny of Rushville.

Brother Dewell was converted at about the age of 15 years. In 1885 he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference and served the following charges: Ogden, Palmyra, Rushville Circuit, and West Point. In 1892 he went on the Supernumerary list and engaged in child rescue work. In 1898 he was made effective and received his appointment as Superintendent of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society, and continued in that work until 1903 when he became the founder and Superintendent of the White Hall Orphan's Home Society.

The deceased possessed a bright mind; he was a ready speaker and was full of energy. He was a hard worker and did much good in his chosen field of labor, gathering dependent children and finding good homes for them. His family and the communities in which he has lived and labored have in his memory a rich heritage, and in the years to come many, who were gathered in his arms and placed in good christian homes, will speak his name with loving gratitude.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Hy. S. Alkire, pastor of the White Hall Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Haley of Barry, and others. The body was buried in the south cemetery, Pittsfield, Ill., where lay the dust of two daughters whose spirits had preceded his to the other shore.

THE REV. R. P. DROKE

REV. R. P. DROKE was born in Sullivan county, Tenn., Nov. 9th, 1835. He was married to Mary Elizabeth Pulliam Oct. 6, 1859. Brother Droke was converted at Cattetsburg, Ky., in 1855. He was a soldier in the Civil war, being one of four brothers who enlisted in the cause of their country. He fought in the battle of Shiloh, where one of his brothers was mortally wounded. Soon after the close of that carnal war, he enlisted in a spiritual one, being received on trial in the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1869. He continued in active service until 1890 when he took the Superannuate relation and made his residence near Waverly, Ill. He sustained the sad loss of his companion, Feb. 17, 1904. During his ministry, he served the following charges: White Oak, Chesterfield, Camden, Lima, Kinderhook, Beverly, New Hartford, New Salem, Concord, Versailles, Camden for a second time, Mendon, and Harristown.

Brother Droke was a good man, a kind pastor, and a revivalist of considerable strength. He served well, his country, his Church and his God. On April 13, 1911, he went from his home at Hettick, Ill., to meet his loved one who had preceded him, and to the reward of those who are faithful in that which is committed to their care.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Lewis G. Adams, of Waverly, assisted by the Revs. Wassel, a local pastor, and C. L. Bell of Palmyra. Burial was made in the Pulliam cemetery, near Modesto.

THE REV. DAVID COLE BURKITT

DAVID COLE BURKITT was born in Quincy township, Franklin county, Penn., July 4th, 1834.

He grew to manhood in that section of Pennsylvania and was united in marriage with Ellen Early at Graefenberg, Adams Co., Penn., Oct. 18th, 1860.

He came to Illinois with his family about the year 1864, the two elder children, Maude E. and Clara E. having been born in Pennsylvania. The family settled in Spring Bank, Logan county. His mother came with him to this state, and died at Middleton, which was his first appointment after entering the ministry. The companion of his earlier life, and mother of his children, died Jan. 8th, 1899, and he was married to Mrs. Sarah Baxter, Sept. 26, —, who survives to mourn his departure. He leaves the following children: Mrs. Maude E. Stillwell of Urbana; Mrs. Clara E. Zoll, of Champaign; David E. of Pleasanton, Kansas, and Robert E. of Danville. He is also survived by two brothers, H. T. of Lewiston, Penn., and Michael of Iowa, and two sisters, one in Pennsylvania, and one in California.

Brother Burkitt was converted in Franklin county, Penn., and was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1870 and appointed to Middletown. His other appointments were: 1871, Littleton; 1872, Chili; 1873, Lima; 1874, Shelbyville Circuit; 1875-7, South Shelbyville; 1878, Marshall; 1879, Pilot; 1880, Marysville; 1881-2, Catlin; 1883, Georgetown; 1884, Fairmount; 1885-6, Grove City; 1887-9; Bellflower; 1890-1, Seymour; 1892, Sadorus; 1893, Cisco; 1894-6, East Lynn; 1897, Lincoln and Asbury streets, Danville; 1898-9, Murdock. In 1900 he took the Supernumerary relation and made his home in Murdock, but seven years later moved to Tuscola, where he has since resided, and where death came to him.

The friendships of our deceased brother were strong and abiding, and in all the churches that he served he left many whose love for him will continue through the years. The record of his life in its routine aspect is easily written, but only eternity can reveal the full measure of that life as it is wrought out in the lives of those who by his life and ministry were called to seek for themselves higher and nobler things than they would have known had they not come under the influence of the life and ministry of Brother Burkitt.

As a sermon maker he was studious and industrious—consulting books that gave him not only the best, but the latest thought upon the topic under consideration, and the construction of his sermons was such as to make them interesting, instructive and effective. His utterances were distinct, his delivery easy and natural, his earnestness was such as to lead to the conviction that he was conscious of more than human authority to preach the Gospel. He was evangelistic in thought and evangelistic in method and manner. His pulpit ministrations were plain, simple, practical and spiritual. He was intense in the presentation of the truths that he believed that God had communicated to him. His sound judgment, extensive acquaintance with human nature, and deep piety, fitted him admirably for the work the Master gave him to do.

He was a man of sterling worth, upright in character, generous, and yet walked according to the strictest rules of integrity. To those who knew him well, especially in the fellowship of the ministry he was a most genial and delightful friend. A successful preacher and worker, a valued friend a devoted husband, and affectionate father has left us. A gospel trumpet which gave no uncertain sound among us for many years has become silent. But its influence will live on and on through the years. Despite approaching years and suffering he was always triumphant in faith, his definite Christian experience served to brighten the sure hope which constantly found expression in a cheerful outlook and good fellowship toward all. He was highly esteemed by all classes, and his departure will be sincerely lamented.

Brother Burkitt had a sincere desire to meet once more with his brethern of the ministry at Champaign at the coming session of the Conference, but, he said if I do not I shall attend a greater conference. How true to the fact was this statement. I presume that Brother Burkitt did not know one half of the members of the Conference at the present time, so many young men having entered since he retired from the active work, and the record shows that over one hundred and ninety have died since Brother Burkitt entered the conference—practically all of whom he knew. What a greeting there must have been over there among them—Buck, Prentice, Davies, Crane, Heath, Wood, Akers, McElfresh, Leaton, Hawes, Noble, Dimmitt, Rutledge, Short, and a host of others equally worthy.

"Life's work well done. Life's race well run. Life's crown well won." The highest eulogy that could be pronounced upon our brother would be the simple recital of the facts of a life well lived and duty well done. During his last illness he received the tenderest ministrations from his companion and daughters. Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock the chariot swung low and David Cole Burkitt stepped in and entered the gates ajar.

MRS. JOSHUA AKERS

MRS. AKERS, wife of the Rev. Joshua Akers, departed this life at the home of her son, the Rev. E. W. Akers of Crookton, Minn., Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1910. She had reached a ripe age, full of labors and sacrifices. Her husband is a son of the renowned Dr. Peter Akers of early Illinois Methodism. Mrs. Akers shared the hardships of the itineracy in a new country with its frontier inconveniences; as her husband had spent most of his ministerial life in the North and Northwest, where distances were great, comforts rare, and winters rigorous. In 1900 they came to Illinois where her husband served for some years as pastor, and later retired and made his home at Barry.

The body of this weary pilgrim was laid to rest at Jacksonville, Ill. She is survived by husband and son.

BLANCHE BELLE WARLICK

BLANCHE BELLE WARLICK was the daughter of E. R. and Rhoda Saylor of Springfield, Ill. She was born at Cerro Gordo, Ill., August 8th, 1878, and died at Curran, Ill., January 20th, 1911.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bement, Ill., in 1897. She was married to the Rev. J. R. Warlick at Missouri City, Texas, Oct. 22, 1899. To this union were born two children, Robert Saylor, and Alice Mae, both of whom, with their father, survive.

Sister Warlick was a most devoted christian, a loving wife and faithful mother. She always manifested a deep interest in the work of her husband and was to him a real help-meet. She endured the cares of the ministry without complaint and in a most cheerful manner. Everywhere she went she scattered sunshine, and numerous hearts were brightened by her smile. Truly her life was a blessing to many.

Her last illness was brief and her death a great surprise and bereavement to almost countless friends.

Funeral services were held in the church at Curran, and her remains were laid to rest in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, Jan. 22nd.

MRS. J. S. AKERS

CYNTHIA WRIGHT AKERS was born near Carlinville, Illinois, August 19, 1833, and died at the home of her son, Rev. Edwin W. Akers, Crookston, Minn., Jan. 12, 1911, aged 77 years, 4 months and 27 days. While quite young she removed from Carlinville with her parents to Kankakee, Illinois. Here on March 7, 1859, she was married to Rev. Joshua S. Akers, son of the celebrated Peter Akers, of the Illinois Conference. For some fifty years she shared the trials and triumphs of her husband in the Illinois, Wisconsin and Dakota Conferences. There were two sons born to Brother and Sister Akers, both of whom are still living. Rev. Edwin W. now Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Crookston, Minn., and Samuel, who lives in southern Oregon.

Rev. Akers took a Superannuated relation in 1910, and for a time he and his wife made their home at Barry, Illinois. During the year, however, their son Edwin took them to Crookston to live with him, where Sister Akers died. Funeral services were conducted at Crookston by the Pastor of the Methodist Church there. The body was then brought to Jacksonville, Illinois, accompanied by her husband and son. Funeral services were conducted at the home of Charles Clampit on Tuesday morning, Jan. 17, in charge of F. A. McCarty, Pastor of the Centenary Church, assisted by Rev. J. C. Nate, Rev. C. R. Morrison and Rev. W. S. Phillips.

Mrs. Akers was a woman of beautiful Christian character, and was greatly beloved wherever she labored. The body rests in the Diamond Grove cemetery, Jacksonville, which she has considered her home for so many years.

Conference Rules

Your committee on rules appointed at the last session of the Conference, begs leave to submit the following report:

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommend, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1), when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the denial of the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negative and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The district superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the conference in advance of the conference session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the conference.

"22. Vacancies in the conference board of trustees, the conference board of stewards and the conference deaconess board shall be filled by election of the conference on nomination by the district superintendents.

"23. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"24. The statistical secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the conference session immediately following the organization of the conference.

"25. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"26. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the conference.

J. W. VAN CLEVE, Chairman.

Conference Studies

Board of Examiners

Chairman—W. A. Smith, Virden.

Registrar—J. F. McAnally, Buffalo.

Examniers—Walter Aitken, C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, W. D. Fairchild, A. S. Flanigan, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, J. F. McAnally, R. F. McDaniel, C. F. McKown, J. W. Miller, J. C. Nate, C. D. Robertson, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, W. N. Tobie, M. M. Want.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examinations for 1912-13

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the Chairman and Registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assit as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual onference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the Chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the Chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the Chairman shall arrange with a member of the Conference as Special Supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

(a) Before the day of examination the Registrar will supply the Supervisors with questions on all the books on which examinations are to be conducted, which shall cover the books for the whole Course of Study for the August Period.

(b) As early in the Conference year as possible all applicants for admission on Trial shall send to the Chairman of the Board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the Chairman.

(c) Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the Chairman of the Board.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the Chairman of the Board. Such appeals shall be decided by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner, preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. No syllabus or book Review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period:

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....

(Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.

(Signed.....

These certificates will be forwarded by the District Supervisors to the Registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in the Methodist Review.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. "All Grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the Conference Examiners, shall be designated by the letter 'P,' as an indication of Passing Grade."

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board copies of two sets of questions on each text to be used in examinations two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the Chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the Chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the Chairman; and the financial accounts of the Chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the Board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of Orders, at least thirty days before Conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the Chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of District Superintendents to report to the Chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference Classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Examiners shall be held at the seat of the Annual Conference at 2 o'clock P. M., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock A. M.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at each Annual Conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors. Rule Fifteen to be amended by adding the clause, "and no one can be 'Honour Man,' who shall not have (50) Fifty Per Cent. Conference Grades."

Course of Study

Assignment of Studies for the Year 1912-13

Of the following studies, those unindented are the subjects for examination at the first mid-year district period, the first Tuesday in June, and the written work to be sent in before that time.

All other studies and written work, indented, are assigned to the second period, the first Tuesday in August.

HINTS FOR 1912-1913

1. The Board will deduct 10 per cent. or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing and general execution is slovenly, deduction being made as to each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15, a deduction of 5 per cent. and after Sept. 1, 10 per cent., will be made from the grades. Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p.m. on day preceding Conference.

2. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made as indicated above. These limits are: For sermons, from 2,000 to 3,000 words. For essays, 1,500 to 2,000 words.

3. All essays and sermons shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the Chairman at the seat of the Conference.

Reports

A. District Superintendents

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

One year ago thirty-six preachers were assigned to their respective charges in the Bloomington District. At the opening of the conference year by consent of Bishops, Superintendents and charges, Rev. W. A. Smith and Rev. R. Y. Williams exchanged appointments, the former going to Virden and the latter to Delavan.

Rev. E. P. Hall, of Saybrook, transferred to Baraboo, Wis., and S. A. Ross of that place came to Saybrook. In the middle of the year Rev. G. E. Hughes, of Middletown, and Rev. C. R. Booth, of Chestnut, transferred to the North Indiana Conference. I placed Rev. W. A. Allen, of Weldon, at Chestnut, Rev. J. E. Evans at Weldon, and Prof. P. C. Somerville at Middletown. At Ebenezer a point between McLean and Minier the people desired more service than could be given by the Minier pastor, and this necessitated the formation of Ebenezer Circuit which will include Ebenezer, Mt. Hope and Funks Grove. By this change McLean and Minier become stations.

At Clinton a very fine pipe organ was installed. It is a beautiful instrument and will add much to the auditorium services.

At Chestnut a commodious church costing $13,000 was dedicated June 30th. At Covell the contract has been let for the remodeling of their church at a cost of $5,000.

Revivals were held in all the charges. In the face of unfavorable weather the meetings were well attended and much good was accomplished. The Sunday schools are in a prosperous condition. The many teachers and officers are to be commended for their loyalty and devotion. The Epworth League in the face of many counter attractions is still going forward. Bloomington District is well to the front.

The Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid Society is found in almost every charge on the district. These women, consecrated and devoted, have shown their loyalty in a most practical way. They work for the good of the church, the parsonage and the pastor. Being interested in their reports, as given at the Quarterly Conferences, I find that they have raised during the year the aggregate sum of $6,000.

The Missionary Societies

The Foreign and Home Missionary Societies have continued in their love to the great missionary enterprise of the church and have given liberally and largely to the cause so near to the heart of Him who said, "Go ye into all the world." They make possible greater advance in the Kingdom of our Lord and Christ.

Educational Forward Movement

The Educational Campaign has been well launched in the Bloomington District. Had the plans of operation been matured earlier in the year, and a time set in November for a simultaneous collection on a given day, the result, no doubt, would have been far greater. However, many have done noble work. Rev. M. N. English, of Grace, reports a subscription of $1,000. Rev. G. E. Pickard, of First, reports $1,300. Rev. W. N. Tobie, of Lincoln, secured $400. Many smaller amounts—but much larger than heretofore—have been secured in most of the other charges. May I be permitted to suggest that for the coming conference year a fixed date in the month of November be agreed upon in order that a simultaneous effort may be made in all the charges of the conference. I have no doubt that this unity of concerted action would give larger interest and greater force to the movement.

Wesleyan University

The Illinois Wesleyan University is facing in the right direction and is making notable progress. Never has a brighter future seemed more certain than now. Never have more friends rallied to the help of the institution. President Theodore Kemp is directing the work with wise discretion and strong leadership. He is thoroughly optimistic. He is a man of faith and works. The purchase of the DeMange mansion was a fine bit of statesmanship. Even this commodious dormitory, however, is not now ample enough for all who wish to enter; and we are hoping for other property additions in the near future adequate to the needs of the growing school. The University has secured as its financial agent, Rev. Dr. G. H. Myers, of the North Indiana Conference, who was eminently successful in the work of the DePauw campaign. He will devote his entire time to the financial agency of Illinois Wesleyan. This campaign for which Dr. Myers is working is not alone for the "Educational Forward Movement," but especially for the raising of half a million needed endowment for Illinois Wesleyan.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Father Uriah Warrington is exceedingly feeble in the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. N. Bear, in Ludlow.

In April C. S. Baughman, of Bellflower, and H. G. Beck, of Cushing, Okla., granted exchange transfer at request of former, on account of failing health.

District Superintendent laid corner stone of new church in Fisher. Bishop McDowell dedicated the new $5,000 pipe organ of Trinity church in Urbana, November 26.

Bishop Anderson dedicated new $27,000 church in Monticello December 10. All of this sum is paid except $300 on pipe organ. W. E. Bell, pastor has been invited to return at an increased salary.

On the same date Bishop McIntire preached a jubilee sermon in First church in Urbana and raised $5,000 for remodeling work. The church has purchased a lot for $3,000 and is moving the parsonage there on. Parsonage is being remodeled at a cost of $5,000.

W. D. McIntosh, Seymour charge, dedicated new church in Centerville December 24. Old building purchased by Misses Grace A. and Laura M. Caldwell for $2,000 and converted into monument in memory of their mother.

Church Burned

On December 31 last the church at Rankin was burned. New brick building now being erected and will be dedicated shortly.

Ludlow parsonage burned to ground January 31. New modern church has been erected on site.

Bishop Anderson dedicated the new $10,000 church in Fisher February 4. The plans were drawn by the pastor, the Rev. D. H. Hartley, who also, at "Clergymen's rates," drew blue prints for new church in Pesotum.

Grace church in Urbana was dedicated April 28 by the district superintendent, who raised $1,700 to finish paying for remodeling work.

Contract let May 27 for new modern church in Pesotum.

Rantoul church has improved basement of building at expense of $500 and has raised $3,000 more than the usual annual budget, under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. A. K. Bryns.

In the cash salaries paid pastors as fixed by the first quarterly conferences there was an advance last fall of $1,505. The year previous the advance was $2,220. Two years ago I reported an advance of $1,340, making an advance for the three years of $5,045. Last fall the 31 charges allowed $37,540 for pastoral support—an average per charge of $1,210.96. Every charge has paid in full.

$2,048 For Education

J. C. Baker, A. K. Bryns and W. D. Fairchild were the committee in charge of the forward educational campaign. They report that 29 charges gave $2,098. The largest sums were: Trinity church, Urbana, $500; First church, Champaign, $500; Mansfield, $155; Urbana First $75; Weedman $61; Fisher, $55; Sidney, $51; Gifford and Penfield, $50 each.

Last year under the emergency and debt appeal for $200,000 Bishop Moore sent me an apportionment of $719, an average of $23.20 per charge. Twenty-three charges gave $446.

Pastors of the district report total offering not counting "special gifts," for foreign missions of $4,317 (an advance of $631 over the previous year).

Woman's Foreign Missionary society reports $6,136, an increase of $1,695 over previous year.

All benevolent offerings of the district total $23,908, an increase of $5,431 over previous year.

The total raised for foreign missions is divided as follows: From church and Sunday school, $4,317; debt and emergency, $446; special gifts, $1,104; W. F. M. S., $6,136, making a grand total of $12,003.

Twenty-four pastors spent 100 weeks in revival work in the year. Pastors report 5,261 conversions and 375 received into full membership on confession of faith and 85 from other denominations.

No licensed saloons in this district. Abridged edition ordered by Conference.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

Pastoral Changes

Last June W. T. Beadles, owing to the condition of his own health and his wife's also, asked to be released from his pastorate at Potomac that he might accept the Chaplaincy of the Soldiers' Home at Quincy, Illinois, a position which would mean much less physical exposure for himself and also relieve Mrs. Beadles from many household cares and other duties. J. A. Hutchins, of Evanston, a member of this Conference, left without appointment last fall to attend school, was secured to take his work for the remainder of the year, and has served this charge with credit to himself and great acceptability to the people.

Material Progress

The church at Newman has been enlarged, remodeled, frescoed and provided with pipe organ at the total cost of $7,000. This handsome edifice was reopened by Bishop Shepherd June 30th, Rev. Robert Stephens being in charge of the finances. The inspiring leadership and unsparing toil of the pastor, W. L. Ewing, together with the liberality of the people, made these things possible.

Our church at Sidell is being enlarged and beautified at a cost of $2,500 and will be ready for the reopening service soon after Conference.

The First church, Danville, has been frescoed and repaired at a cost of about $1,500.

The church at Oakwood has been frescoed, its basement fitted up for the use of the Sunday School and League at a cost of $700.

The total amount raised this year throughout the District and applied on improvements and indebtedness alone will amount to $18,000.

A new church is now in the process of erection at Georgetown, which will probably cost above $20,000. When finished it will be one of the most complete and beautiful churches in the District. The patience and industry of the pastor, E. S. Vorbeck, has been a strong factor in this enterprise.

Revivals

Revival services have been held in nearly all the charges during the year. Some of the pastors have called to their assistance evangelists, others have conducted their own meetings. The charges reporting the largest number of conversions are: Allerton, Kimber Church, Danville, Logan and Scotland on the Edgar work, Henning, Hoopeston, Metcalf and Tuscola.

Benevolences

Nearly every pastor at his fourth Quarterly Conference reported some increase in his benevolent collections.

Educational Forward Movement

Nearly all of the pastors of the District have presented the Educational Forward Movement and taken the Educational collection.

While the collection will not amount to $1 per member it will show a great increase over last year.

Deaths

Rev. W. W. Roberts, a superannuated preacher who had been a resident of Danville for thirty-eight years, passed to his reward June 13th.

The beloved wife of D. W. English departed this life a few months ago. She was a consecrated woman, one whose life was made a blessing to many souls.

H. C. GIBBS.

DECATUR DISTRICT

The Decatur District came to me from the hands of my predecessor well manned, well organized and in as smooth running order as could be expected of human mechanism.

Of the forty-two charges in the District only two were to be provided for. Lintner and Adkins had been left to be supplied and Sanner Chapel was without a pastor through the refusal of H. B. Ambler to accept his appointment. About Jan. 1st I secured the services of P. J. Rinehart for Sanner Chapel. With Lintner and Adkins I joined Asbury, from the Hammond charge, thus gratifying the wish of Hammond to become a station, and furnishing to the new charge a greatly needed support. For this charge I secured Geo. W. Erb as pastor and he has wrought well under almost insuperable difficulties.

Only a few pastoral changes have taken place. Early in the year, Jas. D. Reed was, at his request, released from the Ficklin charge and J. M. Goodspeed was appointed to the work.

In April, G. M. Calhoun was compelled to seek a climate more favorable for his little daughter and was transferred to the Wisconsin Conference. The vacancy was filled by the appointment of J. C. Brown, a member of the Conference. In May, I. S. Haverfield gave up the work at Oconee and accepted a charge in Utah, and the circuit was supplied for the remainder of the year by Harry S. Wise.

I come now to that change which touches the Conference with a sense of personal loss. One year ago Dr. S. W. Thornton was appointed to Cerro Gordo. He threw himself into the work with such fervor and abandon that things were always happening. A debt for church improvements was wiped out; a Men's Bible class was organized and sprang to more than two hundred; a great campaign for Benevolences was on when the busy worker heard the call, "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Since his death the pulpit has been supplied by the volunteered services of the brethren, and the Benevolences and other interests of the church have been cared for by the Official Board.

One of the first and most important questions to face a District Superintendent is that of salaries. Our congregations are demanding a measure of ability and preparation which in any other calling would command an income far greater than that of the average preacher. To maintain a sacrificing ministry we must have a sacrificing church. It is a spiritual service to many a church to secure an increase of the pastor's salary. I have followed out the plans of my predecessor and they have worked out so that the salaries exceed those of last year by nearly $2,000.

Methodism in many places has been almost criminally careless in its neglect of church records. This, I have labored as far as possible, to amend. I have met with committees on church records, have personally inspected the records, wherever possible, and am now engaged in making an abstract of the deeds by which our property is held.

For the most part the District is well churchied, but concerning the parsonages less is to be said, and in some places our property has been burdened with harassing debts. Notable improvements have been completed at Cerro Gordo, Forsyth and Stonington. At Hammond a new church has been finished, and at Maroa $12,000 have been subscribed for a new church. LaPlace and Cerro Gordo have parsonages, the former a building purchased and remodeled, the latter entirely new. Minor improvements bring up the sum raised for building and improving to nearly or quite $30,000. Debts have been extinguished at Blue Mound Chapel on the Elwin circuit, at Blue Mound, and at Latham. The amount raised for the payment of debts is $6,000.

In the matter of Benevolences, the administration has been benevolent. No special pressure has been applied other than the expressed expectation that each man would do perfectly conscientious work. I have not been disappointed. For the most part the Benevolent Claims were faithfully presented. Particular pleasure is taken in announcing that the increase for Foreign Missions is more than $700.

In spite of the extraordinary weather, few of our churches have been without distinct evangelistic effort, which has reacted favorably upon the life of the church, and in some cases has yielded great results, especially at Hammond, Elwin, Macon, Hillsboro and Grace church, Decatur. Good revivals were held also at Niantic, Cowden, Atwood, Stonington and at Fairview, on the Rosemond circuit.

The year has been full of work and of pleasant associations and of the "joy unspeakable."

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. W. VAN CLEVE.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop McDowell and Brethren of the Illinois Conference:

With gratitude to God who has given me strength to be about my Father's business during the past year, I present a brief summary of what has been accomplished.

Regarding Ministerial Support—because of the great advances during the previous three years only $800 has been added to pastoral support this year.

The most notable revivals were held at Chesterfield, Centenary and Grace churches, Jacksonville, Brooklyn church, Jacksonville, Murrayville, and Hettick; while successful efforts with varying results have been held in other parts of the District, resulting in about 800 conversions.

New churches have been built at Roodhouse, Ashland, Virginia, Murrayville, and Scottville.

It would be a delightful task to recount in detail the wisdom, sacrifice, devotion and energy of the pastors and people necessary to produce these results, for without their leadership, such results would not have been brought to such a successful issue.

Twenty thousand dollars has already been subscribed to build two new churches at Waverly and Franklin. Centenary church, Jacksonville, has added additional room for its growing Sunday school. Improvements have been made on the churches at Ebenezer and Centenary, on the Ashland charge, Garner Chapel, Exeter, Riggston, Astoria, Astoria Circuit, Berdan, Kilbourne, and McKendree Chapel. These have all caught the spirit of improvement, making their buildings more attractive, and adapted to modern methods of work at a cost of $4,200.

The disposition to provide a comfortable home for the preacher prevails. Brooklyn parsonage has been enlarged. Pastor Rigg is happy because he occupies the best manse in the District, his people paying $2,500 to make it such. Franklin Circuit has purchased a new parsonage, costing $1,700. The parsonage at Astoria, which was almost totally destroyed by fire, has been rebuilt and is one of the best in the District.

The pastors have faithfully and wisely presented the Benevolent Interests of the church and the indications are there will be a generous advance in many of the charges; especially is this true of Grace church, Jacksonville, who raises the largest benevolent offering in its history.

The Educational Forward Movement has been introduced in nearly all the pastoral charges. By the distribution of pertinent literature, sermons, speeches, and personal effort, we have brought the question prominently before our membership, and a very large increase over any former period will be reported.

But we have not overlooked the great and growing school located in Jacksonville. Every Methodist must view with pride its imposing plant, but still greater satisfaction arises from its growing influence upon the women of the church. Special effort, with encouraging success, is being made to raise $180,000—$50,000 of which has already been secured—the remainder is anticipated by the time of commencement, 1913.

As in former years our relation with the pastors has been cordial and fraternal, going in and out among them, partaking of their bounty, being permitted to share their burdens and realizing their intense desire for the welfare of their flock, we unhesitatingly declare them a truly consecrated band of men, worthy of the traditions of the fathers—workmen that needeth not to be ashamed.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. WHITE.

MATTOON DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

In presenting this, my first annual report as District Superintendent of the Mattoon District, I desire a personal word. I have been appointed to some of the most difficult fields within the bounds of the Illinois Conference. I have gone to these appointments without a murmur; but I hesitated, I seriously objected to accepting this field of labor; not because of the difficulty of the job, but because I have always had a high estimate of the office and felt my inability to do justice to the work, remembering Bishop Foster's words: "The office of a Methodist Presiding Elder is the most important in the church, not excepting the office of a Bishop; because he comes into direct contact with both the pastors and the churches and is their real leader, counselor and educator; and so his opportunity for good is immeasurable." I realize how far short of that ideal I have come. I believe if a man would fill this office perfectly a Paul would have to arise, saying, "I die daily, I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ."

Pastoral changes involving twelve men were effected following the last session of the Conference.

Twelve superannuates live within the bounds of the Mattoon District. All these brethren render good service to the churches where they are located.

Death entered two of the parsonage homes during the year. The wife of Parker Shields quietly fell to sleep April 17th. Foster Mills was drowned July 19th. Dr. P. A. Thornburg passed to his reward January 16th.

Material Improvements

Two new churches were dedicated during the year. One at Hindsboro November 12th. One at West Union Sept. 8th. A fine new church is in process of erection at Windsor and will be ready for dedication in November.

Missionary Campaign

In March a District Missionary Campaign was conducted under the direction of Dr. J. C. Floyd and a force of nine returned missionaries. The campaign opened with a central meeting in First church Mattoon, then practically every church in the District was reached in a follow-up campaign. One result of the campaign was the adoption of the new financial plan by some of the churches. I hope for a large number of the churches to adopt the plan at the beginning of the new year. I am firmly convinced that the adoption of the plan will very largely solve our financial difficulties.

Educational Campaign

Pursuant to the action of the last Conference a District Commission was appointed early in the year. The plans of this Commission were presented to and approved by the District Ministerial Meeting in March. The result of the campaign was the more than doubling of the givings to education and the putting of the educational proposition before the people so as to produce results in future years.

The Sunday School

This is one of the most hopeful departments of the church life. It has been a source of constant pleasure to observe the development in this important field of operation. Increased attendance, better organization, increased emphasis on evangelism and the world-wide extension of the kingdom, and especially increased attendance on the part of the men. I believe that a very large per cent of our church problems may be solved through the Sunday School.

The Epworth League

This department of church activity is still quite alive in the Mattoon District. While much of the enthusiasm of former years has passed away there is some very effective service rendered the church and the kingdom through this organization. Our District Convention was one of the best ever held. During the convention a number of the young people gave themselves to some definite form of Christian service.

Woman's Work

No record of the year's work would be complete without mentioning the faithful and effective service rendered the church through the Ladies Aid and kindred organizations. The money contributed by the women has made possible may a forward step in the work of the kingdom. The Woman's Foreign and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies are doing aggressive work.

Memorial Hospital

This institution has just completed its seventh year of service. The past has been one of the best years since opening. Definite steps have been taken toward the erection of an up-to-date building during the next year.

Soul Winning

Special evangelistic meetings were held in nearly every one of the churches of the District. In almost every instance the pastor was his own evangelist. I am not able to tabulate the results of these meetings. This I do know, that never a set of men labored more faithfully than the preachers of the Mattoon District in their efforts to win men to Christ. The results will show several hundred persons brought into the kingdom.

May each of us possess more of the spirit of David Brainerd when he cried out: "I wrestled for the ingathering of souls. For multitudes of poor souls, personally, in many distant parts. I was in such agony, from sun half an hour high till near dark that I was wet all over with sweat; but O my dear Lord sweat blood for such dear souls: I longed for more compassion."

"The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain:
His blood-red banner streams afar;
Who follows in his train:
Who best can drink His cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears His cross below,
He follows in His train."

C. F. BUKER, Dist. Supt.

QUINCY DISTRICT

Dear Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

In summarizing my fifth annual report of the Quincy district the following items are to be noted:

There are forty-four pastoral charges, with an aggregation of ninety-three churches. These churches have had the services of whole-souled, whole-hearted, and spiritual pastors. They have been men of vision, common sense, and burning enthusiasm. They have been measurably successful, although many of them have labored in trying situations.

The benevolences of the church will show a commendable increase, especially that of education, over former years. The number of titlers has been increasing in the district.

The conversions in the district number more than 750; and over 500 of them have been received into full connection. The largest meetings were held at Rushville, Augusta, Camp Point, Griggsville, Quincy, (both churches), Hadley, Kingston, La Prairie, West Point, Basco and Rockport. Other charges not specially mentioned were cultivated as assiduously as the rest; but adverse conditions, for which the workers were not to blame, prevented what we should be pleased to chronicle. At Barry, Camden, Columbus, Golden Lima, Loraine, Mt. Sterling, Paloma, Payson, Perry and Rushville circuit, a larger or smaller number were converted. At most of these points the pastors held their own meetings; a few were assisted by their neighboring brethren or outside evangelists. Over $2,000 was paid out by the churches employing evangelists.

Parsonages and churches have been improved, and some church debts have been paid. Over $7,000 has been paid out on improvements; and over $2,000 in paying off old debts. There are but few encumbered properties in the district. At Camp Point they spent over $2,800 in making improvements. And at Clayton, Barry, Loraine, Mt. Sterling, New Salem, Nebo, Pearl Payson and Rockport more or less was done to improve the properties. At Warsaw they put in new art-glass windows. At Camden they sold the old church and are building a new one. Rushville has bought an adjoining lot and is looking toward the building of a more modern church. Quincy, Vermont street, has increased the membership of the church over 13½ per cent. The Sunday schools and the Epworth Leagues are flourishing and increasing their attendance, all over the district. Very little other than Methodist literature is used in any of our schools. But outside of our schools in the homes of our people, we are sorry to say, there is little of our literature to be found. We are hoping that the reduced price of our Advocates, and a thorough canvas by the pastors, will correct this evil.

Chaddock Boys' School has had another good year. There were three graduates who finished the course in June. Miss Simpson, the former principal, on account of failing health, resigned. Mrs. Eva Friedls, of Fall River, Mass., has been elected to her place. She will open the school in our 24th street property, and we expect great growth under her administration. The other property will be disposed of as soon as we can find a buyer.

Dr. W. T. Beadles has been elected to the chaplaincy at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home. He is beloved by all the old veterans.

The outlook for another year is full of promise, and if by the grace of our good bishop I shall be appointed for another year, I shall try to make the sixth and last the best of all.

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Note.—Upon request of Dr. Christie Galeener, District Superintendent, his report of the Springfield District has been omitted from the Minutes.

B. Committees

BENEVOLENCES

We rejoice in the privilege of being co-laborers with God in the great work of His kingdom among men. The personal devotion and gifts of God's people are potent factors in the progress of His kingdom. This responsibility should be met in the spirit of enthusiastic good will and according to the noblest standard of service and benevolence. A careful study of the field of Christian benevolence reveals both hopeful and discouraging facts; in many instances a noble generosity is seen, but in the main, Christian men and women fall short of their duty in the light of their resources and the needs of God's kingdom.

Missions

We are grieved that, on account of the lack of generosity on the part of the church at home, the Board of Foreign Missions was compelled to make a cut of 3 per cent. in the support of the work in the field, and that we are facing a greater deficit this year. We urge both pastors and people to greater interest in, and larger giving to this great cause that the conquest of the Kingdom may not suffer the disgrace of retreat. We urge that the cause of Home Missions is complementary to that of Foreign Missions and should have our hearty support.

Freedmen's Aid

We call the attention of the Conference to the Semi-centennial of Emancipation to be observed next year in the interest of the Freedmen's Aid Cause, which was authorized by the last General Conference. We urge our preachers to due diligence in their effort to make this event fruitful of results.

Domestic Missions

We cannot, without great loss to the church, neglect the weak churches in our Conference. Therefore, we urge that the apportionments for Domestic Missions be met in full, and that the money be used strictly for its original purpose, the supplementing of the small salaries given by weak churches.

Education

We recognize the value of the Forward Educational Movement which has been made apparent by the results of this first year's campaign, both in the lively interest which it has created in our Conference Educational Institutions, and in the splendid increase of 9 cents per member which it has effected. We endorse the movement as a vital part of our church benevolence.

Methods

We urge that systematic methods of giving on the part of the entire church are necessary in order to meet the needs of the world-wide opportunity of Christ's kingdom today. The small gifts regularly received is the method we urge upon the pastors and church officials. The Duplex Envelope System, which has brought good results wherever it has been conscientiously used, is recommended. We, also, urge that the Laymen's Missionary Movement be given our hearty support and that through every legitimate effort we strive to interest the men in the heroic movement for the redemption of the world.

Finally, we urge the faithful presentation of all the benevolent causes, that the people may become more intelligent in their giving and broader in their religious outlook.

D. V. GOWDY, Chairman.
C. W. HAMAND, Secretary.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD

We recommend that every pastor organize a Brotherhood Bible Class in the Sunday School, and provide men teachers for boys of fifteen years of age and over, and give particular attention to the "Boy Problem" of the church.

We recommend also that the men of the church become active in social service, and co-operate with all Christian social agencies of the community life.

We urge that the men of the church create and foster genial comradeship among all the men of the congregation, and attract and interest out-side men.

Recognizing the need of the age to be intelligent church-men, we recommend the circulation of our church papers, the Discipline, "Methodist Men" and other religious literature.

We nominate for Conference officers the following:

President, M. G. Coleman. Secretary, C. E. Taylor.

CHURCH LITERATURE

The wisdom of the agents of our publishing interests and the patronage of our publications resulting in dividends for our Conference claimants of more than $5,000 are worthy of high commendation. Moreover, it is a matter of satisfaction that most of our Christian Advocates by their recent reduction in price to one dollar a year are made so accessible to the rank and file of the church. And, we urge that the pastors use their best efforts to secure subscriptions for these—especially the Central and the Northwestern—not forgetting the claims of that very excellent paper of all Methodism—The Epworth Herald. The pastors, and all officials, so far as may be, should be subscribers and readers of one or more of these papers. The strengthening of the defenses of our church demands this. Our pulpits and also our presses must co-operate here against all forms of modern heresy and unbelief, and work to strengthen our people, socially, politically, morally and spiritually—never forgetting the extensive significance of all this in the world about us.

We recommend that our Sunday School publications, which are considered second to none, be used in all our Sunday Schools, and that a lofty conception and worthy patronage of the Methodist Episcopal Book Concern be maintained. Faithfulness to our own can wrong no other.

GEORGE E. SCRIMGER, Chairman.

J. N. MEAKER, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS AID SOCIETY

Your committee has the following report to submit: We recognize the growing demands upon the funds for necessitous claims, the advance in offerings for this worthy cause, and urge conscientious recognition of disciplinary plan for providing for this collection in every charge. Also with much appreciation for services rendered, we commend our Field Secretary, the Rev. Robert Stephens, to the confidence of both the ministers and laymen, within the bounds of our Conference, that he may have access to our pulpits and people, in presenting the claims of this fund. Let every member of the Preachers' Aid Society actively co-operate in the interests of building a permanent fund that will eventually yield for each a comfortable support in time of need. It is also necessary that these sacred funds receive the greatest care, to guard against the encroachment of claims that are not necessitous, hence the guardians of such funds must require all claimants to give a bona fide statement of their true condition in every respect, so, that proper action may be taken intelligently, thus causing no embarrassment to either party concerned. In view of the facts that confront us, there are over one hundred seventy-five claimants on our records, with prospects of an increase each year,

Therefore be it Resolved, First, That the committee on Conference Relations, use all honorable means to secure such information in every case as will justify the claim on the merits of necessity.

Resolved, Second, That we urge every preacher of the Conference to join in the Preachers' Aid Society, and thus become a benefactor of a cause that will sustain and maintain itself, yielding fruit under such conditions as will produce solid comfort.

E. S. COMBS, Chairman.

T. L. HANCOCK, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS

We, your Committee on Conference Relation, submit the following report. We recommend:

First—That the relation of D. D. Canfield be changed from Effective to Superannuate.

Second—That the relation of M. V. B. Hill be changed from Effective to Superannuate.

Third—That the relation of W. E. Rose be changed from Supernumerary to Superannuate.

Twenty-fourth—That J. E. Morgan be changed from Effective to Supernumerary.

Twenty-fifth—That T. B. Wright be changed from Superannuate to Effective.

A. K. BYRNS, Chairman,
J. L. SETTLES, Secretary.

COURTESIES

It is with a deep sense of personal gratitude that we welcome Bishop William F. McDowell as the leader of Methodist hosts in the Illinois Conference for the next four years. We anticipate large things under his residential supervision. His presidency at this session of our Conference has been a fitting and inspiring introduction of the work in which he will lead us during this quadrennium. We will ever remember the unique and illuminating addresses upon the minister's life and work, which he has given us morning by morning, as well as the heart-searching sermon of Sunday. We feel that Bishop McDowell will maintain the keenest interest in every enterprise engaging the attention of our Conference, and we pledge him our most loyal service in every good work. We shall be glad if, frequently, he may be the presiding bishop of our annual session.

We are sincerely thankful to Dr. J. C. Willits and to his associates, ministerial and lay, for their most painstaking and gracious provision for this annual Conference. This commodious and beautiful church has been found a most satisfactory place for all our work. The noteworthy program throughout has deserved the highest praise, the addresses of Dr. Marcus D. Buell deserving special note.

Whereas, Rev. J. M. Bennington, a brother beloved, and for several years the Statistical Secretary of the Conference and Registrar of our Board of Examiners, is about to go from among us to a new and distant field of labor, be it Resolved, That we appreciate the efficient labors of Bro. Bennington as a member of this Conference, and that our prayers and well-wishes will ever follow him.

We desire to express our appreciation of the hospitality of the homes of this city. It has been most graciously extended to us and will remain a happy memory among us.

The Conference is indebted to the Citizens' National Bank for the generous courtesies extended to us. The Daily Herald and the Daily Review have furnished excellent news reports of our gathering, and the citizens of Decatur have proved themselves our friendly helpers in many ways.

JOSEPH C. NATE.
W. J. DAVIDSON.
A. C. PIERSEL.
C. F. McKOWN.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE

The licenses of the following Deaconesses were renewed: Miss Edith C. Bird, Miss Alverta F. Simpson, Miss Mary L. Brewer, Miss Lenora McGinnis, Miss Anna J. Davidson, Miss Anna L. Logan, Miss Constance King, Miss Myra A. Newton, Miss Emma S. Heverly, Miss Mabel J. Millard, Mrs. M. J. Kreidler, Miss Mary Ledgerwood.

Miss Emma S. Heverly was transferred from the Wisconsin Conference to the Illinois Conference. Mrs. M. J. Kreidler was transferred from the Minnesota Conference to the Illinois Conference.

The two Deaconess Institutions of the Conference, at Quincy and Urbana, are reported in prosperous condition. They are worthy the hearty support and prayerful sympathy of the church and we urge the ministry and laity of the Conference to co-operate with them in furthering their work this year.

J. W. MILLER, President.
MRS. S. A. BULLARD, Secretary Pro tem.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS

Recognizing the importance of this department of our benevolence organization, and its helpfulness to our weaker circuits and stations in the past.

For its maintenance, we urge a more active interest on the part of the pastors; and further recommend that its funds be used at the discretion of the District Superintendents in their most needy fields.

J. A. BIDDLE, Chairman.
W. A. ALLEN, Secretary.

EDUCATION

The Committee on Education reports as follows:

The Forward Educational Movement.

First—One year ago the Illinois annual Conference entered upon a great centralized forward movement, acting in conjunction with the Central Illinois Conference and adopting plans which are to have their culmination at the close of the present quadrennium. The organization of this movement by Conference Commissions, and its advancement generally, has proceeded in accordance with the measures adopted by the Conferences. The past year has, of necessity, been a year of foundation work. It was originally planned to place in the field of each Conference territory an Educational Secretary to promote the movement within its boundaries. It was found, however, that the organization of the work could not be completed for some months after the adjournment of the conferences, and the movement for the present year has been conducted by a Joint Executive Committee composed of the executive heads of the schools and officers of the respective Conference Commissions. The plan of "One dollar per member" has by no means been realized in this the first year of the undertaking, but the faithful efforts of all concerned will result in the report, at the present sessions of the two Conferences, of a most gratifying increase over any total of local educational offerings ever before realized. It is gratifying to note that the individual campaigns of the several schools, worked out under the impetus of the general movement, are already meeting with excellent success. The institutions associated in this Movement have received the pledges of gifts in the past year Making an aggregate total of $390,000, and the estimated total Public Educational Offerings of the two Conferences should afford $20,000 additional.

Second—We hereby join with the Central Illinois Conference in the following plans, new or renewed, for the continuance of this mutual educational effort.

Third—The raising of the agreed fund of $1,250,000 shall continue to be by the following methods:

(a) By the solicitation of individual gifts designated to particular institutions, each institution being free to push its own campaign under the impetus of the common movement.

(b) By an emergency educational fund aiming to secure an amount equal to $1.00 per member per year throughout the two Conferences, the same to be raised as a part of the benevolences of the church, and being the regular Public Educational Collection of each conference for the period of five years which has been designated by both Conferences for this Movement.

(c) It is hereby agreed and directed that all gifts in amounts up to and including the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) made by or in the name of members of any of our churches within either Conference for the cause of education as maintained by and within these Conferences shall be regarded as a part of the Public Educational Collection of the Conference in which said amount is contributed, and shall be for the benefit of all of the educational interests mutually included in this movement and prorated among them as hereinafter provided. It is also agreed that whenever in any charge the full apportionment has been reached, contributions may be made for any amount to any particular institution.

(d) The Public Educational Collection, of $1.00 per member as heretofore provided, shall be divided at or before the respective Annual Conference sessions among the institutions to be benefited in accordance with the following ratio as established at the conference sessions of 1911:

In the Central Illinois Conference

Hedding College shall receive.....	4/10
Grand Prairie Seminary shall receive.....	2/10
Illinois Wesleyan University.....	2/10
Illinois Woman's College.....	1/10
Methodist Work at University of Illinois.....	1/10

In the Illinois Conference

Illinois Wesleyan University shall receive.....	3/10
Illinois Woman's College.....	3/10
Hedding College	1/10
Grand Prairie Seminary.....	1/10
Chaddock Boys' School.....	1/10
Methodist Work at University of Illinois.....	1/10

Fourth—It comes to us as the unanimously expressed conclusion of the Illinois Conference and Central Illinois Conference Commissions of the past year, that the work for the future will be greatly facilitated by the appointment of an Educational Secretary who shall have general oversight and direction of the work for both Conferences, subject to the Conferences and their Boards of Education. We hereby approve such recommendation of the Commissions, and pledge to any such Secretary, so appointed, the hearty support of this Conference.

Fifth—The General Conference of 1912, at Minneapolis, Minn., enacted a provision whereby 20% of Public Educational Collections of our church shall go to the Board of Education for its General work, under the proviso, however, that the board of Education shall have power to remit all or any portion of the said 20% in cases where the institutions of the Conference concerned depend largely upon said Public Educational Collection in lieu of endowment. The Board of Education at a special meeting held in New York City Aug. 22, 1912, by a special action declared our Conference and the Central Illinois to be clearly within this special provision. It was further enacted that, especially in view of our Educational Forward Movement, the Board will accept the sum of $1,400 per year from these two Conferences combined during the continuance of this special campaign, or not to exceed the period of five years, in lieu of 20% educational collection authorized by the General Conference, said sum to be divided between the two Conferences in the ratio of $900 for the Illinois and $500 for the Central Illinois. We extend our thanks to the Board of Education for their co-operation with our work, and concur as to the amount stated for our own Conference.

Sixth—The General Conference of 1912 at Minneapolis, Minn., made careful provision for what is known as an "Annual Conference Board of Education." This Annual Conference Board shall consist of one minister and one layman from each District or two ministers and two laymen as the Conference may determine, and the presidents or principals of such educational institutions within the conference as are approved by the University Senate ex officio. It is hereby recommended that our former method of promoting the Educational Forward Movement by means of Conference Commissions shall be, and is hereby, modified, so that the Annual Conference Boards of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences, respectively, when organized shall become the special agency of the two Conferences for promoting the Forward Movement, in the place of the respective Conference Commissions as heretofore. These Annual Conference Boards of Education shall succeed to all the powers and obligations of the former Commissions, respectively, and shall have authority hereby to make all necessary plans for the future conduct of the Movement and to provide for the carrying out of such plans. The Annual Conference Boards may meet in Joint session to consider the mutual relations of the Forward Movement, and shall have power to constitute such Joint Executive Committee, or other executive agency, as the work of the Forward Movement shall seem to them to require.

Seventh—It is understood and directed that the several educational institutions included in this Forward Movement, and the Conference Boards of Education having its direct promotion in charge, shall co-operate actively throughout the year with the pastors of the Conference in raising the special fund equal to $1.00 per member as contemplated by the Movement. Our pastors will take pride in regarding this great movement peculiarly as their own Conference enterprise but will feel entitled, under it, to such assistance of special speakers, literature, and official direction, as our colleges and Conference Boards may find it possible to furnish.

Eighth—The Conference hereby authorizes the Annual Conference Boards to incur, in the name of the Movement but not of the Conference, such reasonable financial liabilities as may seem to them to be in keeping with a vigorous and thoroughly effective promotion of the enterprise, including literature, Board and Committee meetings, and the employment of such secretarial oversight and direction as may seem expedient. It is hereby directed that these and all other expenses of the Forward Educational Movement shall be expressly assumed by the institutions to be benefited by the same in the proportion that each institution shall receive of the total Public Educational Collection of the two Conferences under the ratio herein provided. The respective Boards of Trustees of each institution, or other official body able properly and legally to represent it, shall make formal acceptance of this liability on its own part for the entire period of the Movement. The participation of any beneficiary institution named herein in the proceeds of the Movement shall be conditioned upon its having previously enacted such guarantee, in manner and form acceptable to the Board of Education of the Conference in which the institution is located.

Ninth—We appreciate the hearty interest of District Superintendents and pastors in this Movement during the past year and shall be gratified at their continued co-operation with the new Conference Board of Education to secure an adequate presentation of the cause in every charge.

Tenth—It is understood that these resolutions, in so far as they are mutual in their relation to both the Illinois and the Central Illinois Conferences, shall not be binding upon either Conference until they shall have been adopted by both. And the mutual consent of both Conferences shall be necessary to any future modification of such mutual features of the Forward Movement plan.

Theological Schools

We commend the theological schools of our Church as representing the true spirit of Methodism—progressive but not destructive. There is a demand in many quarters that our theological schools readjust themselves to meet the needs of our modern life, and we believe they are thoughtfully, and with a safe conservatism, making this readjustment. Our complex age more than ever before demands of the candidates for the Ministry the special preparation of such schools. Hence with the utmost emphasis we urge our ministerial candidates to seek first the broad foundation of a general course of study in our colleges and following that the special preparation of the theological school.

We nominate the following persons as Conference visitors:

Boston—J. C. Nate, F. A. Havighurst.

Garrett—J. F. McAnally, C. F. McKown, M. N. English.

Drew—Geo. E. Rainsberger.

Illif—J. C. Baker.

J. C. NATE, Chairman.

A. C. PIERSEL, Secretary.

CHADDOCK COLLEGE

The Chaddock Boys' School has enjoyed a year of progress. This most excellent school fills a real need and its fame for excellent work in its respective field is constantly widening, and, as a result, the present plant falls far short of supplying the demand. This year, of the number of students desiring to enter, not more than half the number could be accommodated. We would, therefore, commend the school to the attention and support of our people.

The following are nominated for trustees, terms to expire 1915—Rev. E. A. Hedges, Rev. N. M. Rigg, J. W. Henry, H. B. Dines, D. A. Wheeler.

Conference Visitors—A. S. Flanigan, T. L. Hancock, J. S. Tharp, J. C. Nate.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

The increasing popularity of this historic Institution is attested by the increased loyalty of its constituency and the large number of new friends that have been made during the year.

The high standards, both educational and religious, have been maintained and the institution is fully abreast of the most advanced educational policies of the day. The increasing strength of the various departments makes a strong appeal to those who are seeking the best.

During the year, a magnificent residence and grounds was secured by the President and other friends of the institution for a dormitory. It is one of the finest halls for women in the United States and is presided over by a capable matron. It offers all the refinements and comforts of a cultured home. Forty-two young women were accommodated the past year. All rooms have been engaged for next year and many are on the waiting list.

Hon. Owen T. Reeves, L. L. D., President of the Board of Trustees, and Dean of the College of Law, died during the year. Hon. Sain Welty, L.L.D., was elected President of the Board of Trustees and Hon. Charles Capen, L.L.D., Dean of the College of Law.

Rev. G. H. Meyers, of the North Indiana Conference, has entered with enthusiasm and success upon his work as Endowment Secretary. He is pre-eminent in this position, and has made substantial progress with the campaign for one-half million dollars for the Illinois Wesleyan.

The following are nominated as Trustees for the term, expiring 1915:

Joseph C. Nate, Chalmers C. Marquis, Joseph W. Van Cleve, William Cathcart.

Conference Visitors—Christie Galeener, George E. Scrimger, A. L. T. Ewert, M. N. English, William H. Wilder.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Illinois Woman's College is entering upon its 67th year with the most hopeful prospects. A gracious Providence has smiled upon this noble institution. No contagion, no serious illness among the students or the faculty have disturbed the peace of this family of Christian Culture for a generation. Each year the number of students is larger, crowding the capacity of the College. The faculty is composed of well-trained, enthusiastic instructors. President Harker and the Board of Trustees frame the progress of the Illinois Woman's College with great care and wisdom. Thorough business methods prevail in the management, and the growth of the college is solid and genuine. Visitors to the college are surprised and gratified at its splendid equipments for the comfort and culture of students and faculty. A beautiful social and genial spirit prevails in the institution. Parents and friends may well feel secure of the character of the environment and influences that surround the young women who attend the Illinois Woman's College. This great Methodist Woman's College is worthy of the sympathy and enthusiastic support of the ministry and laymen of our church. In the present movement to lay the foundation for a substantial endowment, President Harker should have the hearty support of all friends of the college.

The honorable record of the past is secure. The responsibility rests upon the church today to make the future of the Woman's College secure through prayers and gifts.

STUDENTS' WORK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

We are highly gratified with the work being done among the Methodist Students at the University of Illinois, by Trinity Church. The efficient Pastor, Rev. J. C. Baker, has besides the exacting work of his own pastorate, done a wonderful work in the way of conducting Bible classes, and personal interviews among the students. He has been ably seconded in his work by his two assistants, Miss Helen Noon, and Mr. Ralph C. Scott.

We recommend the continuance of the Commission on Students' Work, and furthermore that the Commission be given the authority of the Conference to incorporate at once.

We also request that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension appropriate a liberal sum toward the support of this work.

We point out to our people the imperative duty to support this vital work, and urge our Pastors to send the names of students coming out of Methodist homes, whether they are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church or not, to Trinity's Pastor, and also to speak to their young people concerning the work of Trinity church.

We herewith submit the report of the Treasurer of the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. McCARTY, Chairman.

T. N. EWING, Secretary.

EVANGELISM

We desire to express our conviction that no form of Evangelism is more generally effective than Pastoral Evangelism, and that usually no one can so successfully lead a church to victory in a campaign for souls as can the pastor of the congregation. When it seems necessary to secure help let the Pastor when possible get the assistance of a neighboring pastor, or some approved Methodist Evangelist.

We believe that the fall rather than the spring is the logical time for holding District Meetings, and again recommend that the District Superintendents plan a Fall Meeting in connection with the District Stewards' Meeting, of sufficient duration to allow for Conference and Prayer for the Winter's work, and to lay plans for the most effective way of evangelizing the various fields of the district, and especially to arrange and work out a scheme whereby pastors may cooperate with each other in the matter of holding special meetings, and whereby pastors on the stronger charges may assist the pastors in their work on the weaker and more difficult charges.

We believe that the employment of the professional evangelist has robbed many a pastor of his power as a soul winner, and in order to bring the employment of such men to a minimum, we request that the number of Conference Evangelists be not more than four for the ensuing year.

We would again ask for one hour each day during the Conference week of next year be set aside for a special program on Evangelism.

J. S. THARP, Chairman.
E. K. TOWLE, Secretary.

HOSPITALS

Wesley

Resolved, That we appreciate the good report brought to us by the representative of Wesley Hospital, Brother M. W. Satterfield, D. D., showing that this institution stands among the great hospitals of America. We rejoice in the Christ like mission of the more than one hundred nurses administering to four thousand five hundred and fifty-five patients during the past year. We call special attention to the fact that more than twenty-six thousand dollars annually are spent for free or part free patients coming from all parts of the world. We trust that their plans for enlarging the work, thereby increasing its usefulness, may be realized.

Mattoon Memorial

We are glad to know that our Memorial Hospital at Mattoon is doing a splendid work, and the management is to be commended for the success attained. We are pleased to learn that plans are being made to erect new buildings that will increase its efficiency and help place it in the fore-front of Methodist hospitals. Mattoon Memorial is the only Methodist hospital within the bounds of our Conference, and this should commend it to our special care and attention. Our prayers, our sympathy and our means should be freely offered in its behalf so that the good work may go on and the institution prove a larger blessing to mankind.

J. M. DUFF, Chairman.
LEO HOWARD, Secretary.

PUBLISHING MINUTES

We recommend: First, that each District Superintendent be requested to prepare a summary of his annual report to be inserted in the Minutes, which summary shall not occupy more than one page of the Minutes.

Second: That the four pages of Section Five (5) and all of Section Six (6) be printed but once in each quadrennium, and that, in the copy of the Minutes preceding the session of General Conference.

Third: That the Secretary be authorized to edit any other reports.

T. N. EWING, Chairman,
PRESTON WOOD, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY

First—We heartily commend the splendid work of our honored brother, Dr. Horace Reed, in his efforts to suppress the White Slave Traffic, and the Divorce Evil, and to propagate the principles of the American Vigilance Association; and we recommend his re-appointment to this important field.

Second—We offer our congratulations to the States Attorneys of New York, Detroit, Denver and other cities who are struggling to expose and to punish municipal vice and crime, and we pledge our moral support to all that makes for clean and honest government.

Third—We reiterate our devotion to the time honored Temperance Society of our Church, and we recommend that our pastors observe the annual temperance Sabbath and take an offering for the Society. We urge our people to return to the old plan of pushing the total abstinence pledge, and to keep up an educational campaign upon the physical and moral evils of strong drink.

We have heard with pleasure the address of Dr. Thompson who represents the American Sunday Closing League, and we assure him of a hearty welcome to our conference. We call attention to the commercializing influence of the Sunday Chautauqua, Base Ball, and all secular business and urge our pastors to oppose these things. We extend our fervent thanks to the postoffice department for its recent ruling regarding Sunday mail.

Fourth—We recommend the work of the Anti Saloon League and pledge our every assistance to further its splendid work. Having received a communication from a committee from the Southern Ill. Conference relating to the further extension of the organization, we recommend that Rev. W. A. Smith, a member of the Illinois Headquarters Committee of the Anti Saloon League, be instructed to present this plan before the national board, and if approved by it, to be accepted by this conference.

Fifth—We desire to register our emphatic disapproval of the Sunday picture shows. They more and more detract from the wholesome and educational teachings of our christianity and destroy the influence of the restful Sabbath.

Sixth—We note with increasing pleasure the growing tendency of our pastors to be their own evangelists and commend the plan of cooperation between pastors in the harvest of souls.

Seventh—We praise the worthy efforts of our Laymen to provide comfortable homes and sufficient competency for our pastors.

Eighth—We urge our pastors to spare no pains to correct the growing indifference to the rights of religion and the claims of Christianity upon the home, the school, and the state. A nation can never be better than its moral standards and the church of Christ must furnish these for all mankind.

Ninth—Whereas, President Taft has called for the organization of a National Labor Commission. We heartily endorse the president's action, and,

Whereas, The honorable John B. Lennan is a Christian gentleman and an enthusiastic temperance worker.

Resolved, That this conference send a message to President Taft urging the appointment of Mr. Lennan as a member of the National Labor Commission.

GEO. PICKARD, Chairman.

HY S. ALKIRE, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE

Sunday Schools

We affirm that the Sunday School is not a substitute for the public preaching service, although in the practice of many, it has become such.

We commend the Adult Bible Class Movement as one of the greatest opportunities of the church for reaching and winning men.

The Graded Lessons published by our Book Concern we consider an improvement over the Uniform Series, and more in harmony with modern methods of teaching, and we advise their introduction into all the departments of our Sunday Schools wherever practicable.

We also wish to record our appreciation of the great work that the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church is doing in organizing new schools and in providing literature for such as are unable to pay for their own. Therefore, we recommend that our pastors and Sunday School Superintendents see that our Board receives a more liberal support: First, by taking a collection for the work of the Board on Rally Day (or some other Sunday) that shall at least equal what our schools give for the interdenominational work. Second, to pay to the Board 10 per cent of the missionary offerings as provided by the last General Conference.

Epworth League

Whereas, The aim and intent of the Epworth League is to develop a well rounded Christian character, and,

Whereas, It pledges our young people to strive to attain to the highest New Testament standard of Christian living; be it

Resolved, That we seek to promote the organization and efficiency of the Epworth League Chapters in all our charges, and that we pledge ourselves to encourage and assist in the organization of Mission and Bible Study Classes.

We also heartily endorse the Epworth League Institute at Havana, and pledge our co-operation and loyalty in its promotion.

C. M. BARTON, President.

PETER KITTEL, Secretary.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference held their annual meeting in First Church, Decatur, Sept. 13, 1912. Present, W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock, C. B. Taylor, Geo. E. Scrimger, Horace Reed and W. H. Webster. The President, W. A. Smith, in the chair.

The Treasurer, C. B. Taylor, made his annual report and on motion of S. H. Whitlock, it was received and placed on file.

On motion of G. E. Scrimger, the Treasurer was directed to pay over to the Board of Stewards the accrued interest for the past year amounting to $900.00.

On motion of Horace Reed, Preston Wood was nominated to preach the annual Strawbridge Sermon, with Royal W. Ennis as alternate.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock, R. Y. Williams and J. E. Artz were requested to look after the funds from the sale of the church at Greenview and have the same sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Conference Trustees.

On motion of W. H. Webster, duly seconded, it was ordered that the treasurer procure a bond in the amount of $15,000 from a responsible bonding company to cover his accountability as treasurer, the expense of same to be paid out of the treasury.

On motion of G. E. Scrimger the Bishop was requested to reappoint C. B. Taylor agent of the investment funds in charge of the board of Trustees.

On motion of W. H. Webster the District Superintendent of Champaign District and pastor of First church, Urbana, were nominated auditing committee of Trustee funds.

Motion was made by S. H. Whitlock that the Treasurer's report be published in the minutes. Motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted,

W. A. SMITH, President,
HORACE REED, Secretary.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

Your committee is glad to report that both these societies are in good condition, growing in membership, and in all lines of activity. That their collections are better than ever before is, we think, the result of their excellent methods persistently worked.

Your committee recommends that these elect ladies be encouraged by all our pastors in every proper way.

ARBITRATION

Whereas—Differences and discussions have arisen concerning the relations between the Preachers' Aid Society and the movement for the fund known as the Conference Claimants' Fund, and concerning the duties of the corresponding Secretary for these two forms of relief,

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That all such matters be referred to a committee of five laymen to be nominated by the Cabinet, whose decision shall be final on all the matters involved.

Resolved, That all persons having statements or information relative to the afore-mentioned subjects, be requested to present the same to the said Committee on Arbitration.

J. W. VAN CLEVE.

APPRECIATION

Resolved, That we hereby express our high appreciation of the fraternal disposition manifested by the South Illinois Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in the greetings sent us by its fraternal representative, the Rev. Daniel N. Turnley, D. D. We wish to assure the members of that body of our reciprocal good will, and of our prayers for their continued joy and prosperity in the work of one common Lord.

J. W. VAN CLEVE.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

To assist the Board of stewards in their efforts to meet the pressing needs of the necessitous cases before them,

Be it Resolved, 1st, That all persons filing a claim on either the annuity or necessitous fund be required to answer all the questions submitted to them by the board of stewards to the best of their ability.

2nd, That claimants must answer questions as to their income, including income of wife and dependent children, and that the stewards be authorized to require such information before considering their claim.

3rd, That the board of stewards be instructed to make no distribution from any funds in their hands to any one having an income of $600.00 or more per annum until after the necessitous cases shall be properly cared for.

R. Y. WILLIAMS,
WALTER MITCHELL,
S. R. RENO.

DEAF MUTE MISSION.

Resolved, That we commend the faithful and efficient work of Rev. Philip J. Hasenstab among the deaf mutes and urge that our ministers offer him room for his service and render him such assistance as is needed.

Be it further resolved, That we urge the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to consider this important interest and if possible make more adequate provision for this noble branch of Christian activity. Also that we urge the Woman's Home Missionary Society to co-operate in taking better care of this noble work.

Be it further resolved, That we urge the Domestic Missionary Society of the Illinois Conference to consider the claims of this mission within the bounds of the conference in their annual appropriations.

PETER CARTWRIGHT MEMORIAL

Whereas: There is a move to build a Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church in Pleasant Plains, Ill., in memory of Peter Cartwright.

Be it Therefore Resolved, That the members of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church give our hearty endorsement and support, as far as possible, to this worthy enterprise. C. L. YORK.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Whereas, the ashes of that eminent Servant of God, of the Illinois Conference and of our Church, Dr. Hiram Buck have sepulcher in Greenwood Cemetery in this city.

Therefore, Resolved, That appropriate exercises be held at his grave, at five o'clock, P. M., Sunday, September 15, in his honor, and in memory of our other ministerial brethren who are sleeping there; and that all the members of this Conference, as far as possible, be in attendance.

Resolved, That Horace Reed, Robert Stephens and Hiram Buck Prentice be made a committee on program and our city pastors, a committee on arrangements for such services, and that announcement of the same be made in the city papers.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the journal, and that a copy of the same be sent to the widow of our sainted brother, who resides in this city. W. A. SMITH.

SECRETARIAL EXPENSE FUND

Whereas, It requires considerable ability as an accountant to serve acceptably upon the Board of Statistics and Treasurer's work, and requires no little amount of money to secure such expert ability,

Be it Resolved, That this Conference be asked to request each pastor in effective work to contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent. of his annual salary each year to a fund known as the Secretarial Expense Fund. Such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants and defraying expenses of the Statistical Secretary, Treasurer and Conference Secretary.

In Memoriam

THE REV. GEORGE LEWIS MILLER

GEORGE LEWIS, son of William and Lauriana Wilson Miller, was born near Columbia, Monroe Co., Ill., in 1848, and died Dec. 2, 1911. His father died near Jacksonville, Ill., when George was a lad of fourteen years, leaving him in charge of a family of six.

He was converted in 1871, near Virden, Ill., during a meeting held in a school house by the Free Will Baptists. He soon afterwards united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1873 he sought and obtained the experience of perfect love, the doctrine of which he was a faithful exponent.

As a child he felt the call to preach. He was licensed to preach in 1874, admitted to the Illinois conference in 1875, ordained a deacon in 1877, and an elder in 1879. He served the Church in pastorates ten years, and gave the remaining years of his life to evangelistic work.

That the liquor traffic "Could not be licensed without sin" was his belief, and this furnished his text for many discourses.

He was the author of a number of gospel hymns, which were effectually used in his revival meetings.

His was a busy life, and preaching was his glory. He was fluent in speech and intense in spirit, and he presented the simple Gospel with great zeal. As a result of his labors, several are in the pulpit; some in the mission field; many in the deaconess ranks, and thousands of converts will rise up to call him "blessed."

In 1892 he was united in marriage with Miss Blanche Cloud at Wichita, Kan. The widow, a daughter and three sisters survive him.

In 1908 he moved to California and was soon after stricken with a disease which finally resulted in his death.

During his last days many heard his testimony to the saving power of Christ, and a desire to "go home." A few days before his death he said to the writer: "My accounts are all settled and the sky is clear."

Services were conducted by the writer, assisted by the Rev. M. L. Haney and Dr. G. D. Watson. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery, Glendale, Cal.

J. F. HUMPHREY.

THE REV. JAMES W. SINNOCK

REV. JAMES W. SINNOCK was born near Hastings, England, October 12, 1833, and died in Raton, New Mexico, January 3, 1912. When twenty years old he came to America, locating in Quincy, Ill. In 1857 he was married to Mary R. Baker of Payson, Ill. Four children were born to them: Charles W., now a resident of Raton, N. M.; Myrta, now Mrs. Edgar W. Fulghum of Raton; and Adah and Emma both deceased. The mother died in Raton July 7, 1909.

"Father Sinnock" was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1855. October 4, 1857, he was ordained Deacon at Decatur, Ill., by Bishop Scott. He received Elder's Orders September 25, 1859, at the hands of Bishop Simpson at Danville, Ill. He labored faithfully in the Illinois Conference until 1883, when he moved with his family to New Mexico on account of the ill health of a daughter. He accepted work in the New Mexico English Mission in which he rendered faithful and efficient service until 1893, when he took the Superannuate relation. His first charge in the Mission was Raton, where the family has lived ever since they came to New Mexico. Here he finished the church, and strengthened the work for years. He was then stationed at El Paso, Texas, where he built the church which is still in use. He then served Silver City, Springer and Blossburg in the order named. After he was superannuated he continued to preach as there was opportunity.

"Father Sinnock" was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost. His presence in the home and in the church was always a benediction. The doctrine of full salvation through faith in Jesus Christ has had no more earnest and clear exponent than "Father Sinnock." He was for twenty-eight years a resident of Raton, though much of that time he was away preaching. During all these years his simple goodness has worked as a leaven, influencing the entire populace. He was our best known and best loved citizen. His character was so heavenly, his communion with the Father so close and sweet that he must hardly have known that he was dead "until some visiting angels told him the surprising news."

The funeral was conducted in the First M. E. Church by the writer, assisted by other ministers of the city. A large company of people, "Knit into one great brow of sorrow," smiled through their tears as they remembered the beautiful life of their friend.

BERNARD GIBBS,

Pastor First M. E. Church, Raton, N. M.

THE REV. P. F. THORNBURG

OR. P. F. THORNBURG was born in Morgan County, Indiana, May 9, 1823, and died at his home in Martinsville, Ill., Jan. 16, 1912. He was twice married. The first time to Marie McCreedy in 1847. To them six children were born. In 1881 he was again married, to Miss Kate Hamilton, who survives him, with other relatives and a host of friends who mourn his departure.

In 1847 he was licensed to preach and began his ministry. He was received on trial in the Indiana Conference in 1851 and served various charges in that Conference until 1860, when he took a superannuate relation and moved to a farm near Martinsville, Ill. Soon afterwards he located. He enlisted as a private, in the Union army, in 1864, but having studied medicine before this time, he was at once detailed for hospital service. He was honorably discharged in 1865 and returned home and took up the practice of medicine. In 1867 he moved to Casey and continued his practice. He was always eager to preach the Gospel, and, in 1869, he was appointed to supply Martinsville Circuit. He was received into the Illinois conference in 1870 and returned to Martinsville. He served the Mattoon and Grandview circuits, each one year, when nervous prostration compelled him to again take a superannuate relation in which he continued until his death, except that from 1884 to 1890 he held the supernumerary relation and supplied Greenup and other points. He loved the Sunday-school work and was prominent in the organization of the Clark County Association. Brother Thornburg, all his life, did the drudgery of pioneer work as preacher, physician and farmer, and acquitted himself well.

His declining years were spent in well earned peace and comfort. He was a staunch supporter of the Church, a conscientious adviser of his pastor and a good neighbor. He will be greatly missed.

Funeral services were conducted at our church in Martinsville, in charge of the Rev. A. M. Ewert, pastor, assisted by the other pastors of the town, and other ministers from abroad, the sermon being delivered by the Rev. H. T. Wilson of Neoga, a former pastor.

THE REV. AUGUSTUS PATTERSON STOVER

AUGUSTUS PATTERSON STOVER was born in Waukesha, Wis., Jan. 31, 1844. His father, the Rev. Seymour Stover, was among the pioneer Methodist preachers, and a member of the Rock River Conference. His mother, Lucy Augusta Patterson Stover, died at the time of his birth.

One year after the outbreak of the Civil War, when he had just passed his eighteenth birthday, he enlisted in the 91st Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and served to the close of the war. He was mustered in as orderly sergeant, when he was but nineteen. He was promoted over the first lieutenant, and when but twenty, for faithful and gallant service, was admitted to the rank of captain.

Soon after the close of the war he was united in marriage to Miss Annie Longworth, April 26, 1866. Three children were born to this union; Mary Ellen, who died in infancy, Mrs. Annie Haywood of Pana, Ill., and Robert of California. At the close of the war he took up the study of law and practiced for a time at Auburn, Ill. It was during his residence and practice at Auburn that he was graciously converted under the ministry of the Rev. Sampson Shinn, and he at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He immediately felt himself divinely called to the ministry, and answered the call in the fall of 1876, and at its session at Paris, united with the Illinois Conference. For thirty-four years he faithfully and tirelessly did the work of a Methodist preacher. The last two and one-half years he sustained a sweet spirited, cheerful superannuated relation to the conference.

In the effective years of his ministry he served Chili Circuit, Fowler Circuit, Griggsville Circuit, Payson, Greenfield, Taylorville, Brooklyn church, Jacksonville; Hillsboro, Delavan, Pana, Paris, Kumler church, Springfield; Lincoln, and Rushville. His wife died during his pastorate at Paris.

Brother Stover was thoroughly evangelistic in his ministry. In almost if not every charge he served there were gracious results in genuine conversions, and the quickening of the life of the Church. He personally enjoyed a deep spiritual life, believed in a definite work of grace, and preached a conscious salvation that really and knowingly saves one from his sins. His whole ministry was inspired by lofty ideals of the transforming power of divine grace that saves to the uttermost.

In 1899 Bro. Stover was married to Mrs. Mary Nicoll of Delavan, to which city, after his superannuation, he returned, and where he proved a blessing to the Church and community.

On the night of the fifth of February he was stricken with a severe attack of the grip and soon lapsed into unconsciousness. For several days it was feared he would never rally. Though unexpected, he sufficiently recovered as to be able to go about and receive and enjoy his friends. About ten days before the end he commenced to decline again and rapidly grew worse until near noon of Thursday, April 11th, when he passed away.

The same faith and hope, courage and happiness that characterized him in health, characterized him in sickness and death. His death was his triumphant entrance into that "City, not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Funeral services were held from our church in Delavan, April 12th, in charge of the Pastor, the Rev. R. Y. Williams, assisted by eight other members of the conference and the pastors of the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches of the city. The local G. A. R. Post conducted a part of their simple, brief and solemn service.

The remains were taken to Pana, Ill., where by services of "The Grand Army of the Republic" and of our pastor, the Rev. P. P. Carson, they were laid to rest.

R. Y. WILLIAMS.

THE REV. WILLIAM ROBERTS

WILLIAM W. ROBERTS, son of Joshua and Hannah Roberts, was born near Mt. Holly, New Jersey, Oct. 27, 1839, and died in Danville, Ill., June 12, 1912. In 1848 the family located in Wabash Co., Ind., where he grew to manhood.

His first conference appointment was from Bishop Morris to Wabash in 1863. During this year he was transferred from this charge and appointed to Windsor. His health failing he was compelled to resign this charge the next year and after resting for some months, he accepted a position as a member of the faculty of the Fort Wayne Methodist College. He resigned this position in 1866 and entered the Missouri and Arkansas Conference and was appointed to Laclede and Plattsburg, Mo. In the fall of 1869 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and held the following charges: Camden, Beardstown, Petersburg, Brooklyn, Jacksonville, Green Valley, where his health completely broke down and at the session of the Conference in 1873 he was compelled to ask for the superannuated relation, which relation he sustained the remainder of his life, though preaching frequently and occasionally supplying pulpits during the absence of the pastors. He supplied First Church, Valparaiso, Ind., for six months, and Wheatland St. Church Logansport, Ind., for three months.

Brother Roberts came to Danville, Ills., Dec., 1899, and engaged in business and continued till his last illness.

October 8, 1863, Brother Roberts and Miss Fannie Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Holmes of New Corydon, Ind., were married and continued for over 48 years to live together most devotedly. To them were born one son, Mr. A. S. Roberts of Pueblo, Colo., who with the widow, two brothers and one sister survive.

The funeral services were conducted from his late residence in Danville, in charge of his pastor, Preston Wood, assisted by Revs. W. H. Webster, Walter Aitkin and Wilbert Dawson. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery.

THE REV. SAMUEL WATSON THORNTON

SAMUEL WATSON THORNTON was born in Van Buren, Hancock Co., Ohio, June, 1841, and died at Cerro Gordo, Ill., July 3, 1912. He was the son of the Rev. Samuel W. and Mary Ann Donaldson Thornton. The father was a member of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. His great-grandfather was a Revolutionary soldier, who married Jannett Montgomery, a cousin to General Montgomery who fell at Quebec. His grandfather received a land grant of 160 acres in Iowa for service as a United States soldier in the war of 1812, and moved to Iowa and died there.

On his mother's side his great-grandfather, Reid, served as one of Morgan's riflemen in the Revolutionary war.

His father died when he was ten months old and his mother when he was at the age of four years. He had no brothers or sisters and he was reared, until he was sixteen years of age, by his mother's mother, Mary Reid Donaldson, who was of Scotch descent, of the McDonald line, early settlers of Virginia.

At sixteen years of age young Thornton had to begin life for himself. He taught school in school seasons and did other work at other times, in the mean time studying and educating himself. In 1861 he enlisted in the 13th Indiana Infantry and was warranted a Sergeant of Co. E. He served in Gen. Reynolds' Brigade, under Gen. Rosencrans, in the first campaign of Gen. McClellan through West Virginia. Late in October of 1861 he was discharged for disability. He enlisted again in 1864 as a Second Lieutenant in the 137th Indiana Infantry. Most of his service thereafter was in Tennessee in command of a detail at Duck river. He was mustered out of service in 1865. Returning to Indiana he taught school until 1869, when he was received on trial in the Missouri conference.

His long itinerary is as follows: Rockport circuit, Mo., 1869-71; Oregon circuit, Mo., 1872-73; Maryville, Mo., 1874; St. Joseph, Mo., 1st church, 1875-76; Maryville, Mo., 1877; Utah Conference, at Evanston, Wyoming, 1878-79; Colorado Conference, Greeley, Colo., 1880-81; Central City, 1882; North Denver, 1883; Central City, 1884; Superintendent New Mexico Mission, living in Las Vegas, 1884-85; Albuquerque, 1885-87; Denver, Col., 5th Avenue, 1888-89; Superintendent Greeley District, 1890-92; Golden, Col., 1893; Illinois Conference, Danville, 1st Church, 1894-96; Jacksonville, Grace Church, 1897-1900; Hoopeston, 1901; Chaplain Illinois State Penitentiary, Joliet, 1902-06; Springfield, Kumler Church, 1907-10; Cerro Gordo, 1911.

Dr Thornton was one of the strongest preachers in the Illinois Conference. He was a brother dearly loved by all who knew him, an earnest and forceful speaker, very versatile and at times very eloquent. It was his privilege and honor, and their joy that he served some of the strongest churches while among us.

The deceased was married in Indiana Nov. 14, 1861, to Sarah A. Jackson who, after a lingering illness, died in Denver, Colo., Jan. 8, 1890. On Dec. 1891 he was married to Miss Mary Ellen Nicol of Denver. He is survived by his widow and three sons: H. L. Thornton of LaFayette, Ind., The Rev. Jesse B. Thornton of Chicago and Earl C. Thornton of Hoopes-ton, Ill.

Dr. Thornton was stricken with nervous prostration Sunday, June 9th. Complications set in and, as he had suffered to a certain extent ever since his war service, he was weaker physically than at first realized. Until a few hours before his death his mind was clear and he talked much of his life and of his faith and hope. He requested that he be buried simply, without display, in Cerro Gordo, where he had last worked, among the people he had grown to love.

The funeral service was in charge of Dr S. H. Whitlock; the arrangements, being in the hands of the Men's Bible class, which Dr. Thornton had organized since coming to Cerro Gordo last fall. The assemblage being too large for the church, adjournment was taken to the park where public services were held. Dr. J. W. VanCleve and the Rev. Preston Wood delivered addresses and Dr. Horace Reed, the Rev. T. N. Ewing, and the Rev. Walter Aitkin assisted in the service. The Men's Bible class requested the privilege of buying the burial lot. Drs. Whitlock and VanCleve conducted the last rites at the grave.

On Sunday following the burial, memorial services were conducted at First Church, Danville, and Kumler Church, Springfield, charges which he had formerly served.

JULIA M. BAKER

MRS. JULIA M. BAKER, widow of Rev. John C. Baker, died at her home in Normal, Illinois, January 12, 1912. Sister Baker was born January 7, 1830, in Millersburg, Kentucky. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis. At the early age of three years she came with her parents to Shelby County, Illinois, and here spent her girlhood days. September 7, 1849, she was married to the Rev. John C. Baker of the Illinois Conference. For eleven years she shared the joys and sorrows of the itinerant life during which time she proved a most efficient helpmeet to her husband. On the retirement of Brother Baker from active work in 1869, they moved to Normal, Illinois. Five children were born to them, only one of whom survives, Miss Anna L. Baker, who has made her home with her mother. Her husband died October 2, 1870. During all the years of her long widowhood sister Baker maintained an active and appreciative interest in the affairs of the Conference and the Kingdom.

Mrs. Baker was a most estimable woman. She bore the love of all who knew her. To a beautiful and absolute trust in God she added an affectionate disposition, refined taste, and in a remarkable way adorned and beautified the christian religion. So appreciative and grateful was she of every favor shown that it was a pleasure to serve her in any way possible.

Her membership was in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Normal, and she was a regular attendant upon the services. Her presence was an inspiration to pastor and congregation. Funeral services were conducted in the Normal church Sunday, January 14, and the remains were laid to rest beside her husband in Evergreen Cemetery Bloomington, Illinois. The services were conducted by her pastor Rev. J. T. Jones, Rev. M. N. English, Rev. G. E. Pickard, and other resident ministers.

MRS. EMILY FRANCES CONNER

EMILY FRANCES, daughter of John P. and Eleanor Weagley, was born at Perry, Ill., June 23, 1846, and died at Dwight, Ill., Feb. 27, 1912. She was united in marriage Sept. 16, 1869, with Rev. Charles W. Conner at Griggsville, Ill.

Bro. Conner continued in the ministry but a few years on account of failing health, and died January 27, 1876. One son and one daughter were born to this worthy couple. The son died at the age of four years. The daughter remained as the companion of her mother through all the years of her widowhood.

Soon after the death of her husband Mrs. Conner and daughter, Miss Fanny, moved to Dwight, where they have since resided.

At the age of 21, Mrs. Conner was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and was an active worker therein all the rest of her life. She was always at the Sabbath services and at the mid-week prayer meeting, when her health permitted, and never failed to do her part to make of every meeting a success for the Master's sake. She was a daily reader of her Bible, the book she used being full of markings and clippings from religious literature.

Her death came as a surprise after a short, severe illness. She was certainly ready to hear the welcome plaudit, "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

The funeral was conducted from her late residence, by her pastor, the Rev. R. A. Brown. The body was taken to Griggsville, Ill., for interment by the side of her husband and little son.

MRS. PARKER SHIELDS

EMMA L., daughter of P. Q. and Phoebe Austin of Mendon, Ill., was born February 20, 1870, on a farm near Mendon. She was a graduate of Chaddock College, Quincy, Ill., where she first met Parker Shields. She made her decision for Christ while she was at college during a revival at Vermont Street church, under the leadership of the Rev. A. C. Byerly, pastor. Her abiding faith in the Savior was her constant support through life; and through the years of the training of her children, and of her relation to the work of the Church as the wife of a Methodist pastor, she never wavered nor faltered. She was a daily student of the Bible, and in the absence of her husband always conducted family worship with the children. For ten years she was a sufferer from a complication of diseases that baffled all medical skill, tender nursing and loving care. Mrs. Shields was of a quiet, undemonstrative disposition, with a deep loving nature, and she proved a stay and support to her husband and children in all the perplexities of the ministerial life.

She was married to the Rev. Parker Shields on May 7, 1890, at the old farm home near Mendon, by the Rev. S. H. Whitlock, at that time presiding Elder of the Quincy district. She leaves her husband, three sons, Paul A., Harold P. and Lewis W., one daughter, Dorothy Luella, besides her mother and two sisters. Her last message, spoken to her husband just before she slipped away, was: "Don't forget to be holy."

The funeral was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, Ill., where her husband is pastor, in charge of her life-long friend, the Rev. S. H. Whitlock, assisted by a number of the pastors of the Conference, thirty of whom were present to offer their sympathy. Addresses were delivered by the Reverends S. H. Whitlock, Robert Stephens and C. F. Buker. The body was laid away in Mound cemetery.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

MRS. JOSEPH C. KELLER

ON June 2, 1912, Nancy E., wife of the Rev. Joseph C. Keller, a Supernannate member of the Illinois Conference, was called from earthly scenes. The summons came while she was on an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James W. Goodwin, near Clarence, Ill. She was stricken with apoplexy, and passed away after lingering four days, surrounded by her children and husband. After brief services at the Goodwin home, the body was taken to Bloomington for burial, the Rev. H. F. Cusic, of Rankin, having charge.

Nancy Evans Braucher was born at Defiance, Ohio, April 10, 1840. At the age of 14 years she came with her parents to Illinois, locating near Broadwell, in Logan county. She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of nineteen. On her twentieth birthday anniversary, she was married to Joseph C. Keller, of Broadwell, Ill. To this union were born three daughters: Mary, wife of Samuel Ijams of Bloomington, Ill., Maude, wife of the Rev. J. L. Hardesty of Naples, Ill., and Lena, wife of James M. Goodwin of Clarence, Ill. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Lewis Sutfin of Tobias, Nebr.

It takes diligence and faithful courage to perform with patience the tasks that fall to the lot of an itinerant preacher's wife. These qualities were the heritage of this faithful woman. The shadows of ill health were often thrown across her pathway, but when the shadows came there were brave spirits to cheer and comfort; there were loving hands to minister to her needs.

As the end drew near she looked into the future without fear. She was resigned to the will of her Father, and talked of the life to come with perfect confidence. As it was said of one of old, so it has been said of this daughter of the King, "She hath done what she could."

ELIZABETH FRAZIER McCALL

ELIZABETH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frazier, was born near Salem, Ind., Oct. 4, 1828, and died, from the infirmities of old age, at her home in Decatur, Ill., being more than 83 years of age.

When a young woman she came with her parents to Illinois, and on Oct. 8, 1857, was married to the Rev. S. McCall, one of the pioneer Methodist ministers of the State, and a member of the Illinois Conference, which at that time embraced all of the state of Illinois, the most of Iowa, and parts of Missouri. He was a contemporary of Peter Cartwright, Peter Akers, and Hiram Buck, men whose names have for a half century been household names among Methodists.

Mrs. McCall immediately entered into the spirit of the ministry and was a faithful and untiring worker in all that was expected of a minister's wife. She was ever ready to respond to the call of duty, and by her husband's side went forth to sow the seed from which this generation is reaping its best harvests of civilization.

During the war of the Rebellion she was a true heroine, and displayed her patriotism by offering herself for hospital service, and was assigned to the Federal hospital at Columbus, Ky., where her brother-in-law, Dr. John Frazell, was chief surgeon. While there she was a great inspiration to "the boys in blue," and always delighted to recount to her intimate friends her experiences there.

When her husband's health failed they retired to Decatur, where she continued to live after her husband's death, in 1883. She leaves two daughters, the Misses Sally McCall, supervisor of music in the Urbana public schools and Elva, who has made her home with her mother. She also leaves a niece, Miss Oka Calvin of the Chicago public schools, and one brother, Henry Frazier, of Gays, Ill. Mrs. McCall lived a consistent life, and could always be counted upon the side of right. She was a member of First church, Decatur. She will be greatly missed by the older people of the community.

MRS. D. W. ENGLISH

MRS. WINNIE F. ENGLISH, wife of the Rev. D. W. English, died at her home in Paris, Ill., July 5, 1912, following an illness of more than four months.

Miss Winnie Minear was a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Solomon Minear, and was born at the Minear homestead on East Wood street, Paris, Ill.

She was educated in the old Paris Academy and also in what is now the Illinois Womans' College at Jacksonville. There were two brothers; Edwin, now deceased, and Philip, who is still living at Harwood, Texas, both soldiers of the Civil War, and two sisters, both deceased.

Miss Minear was married Jan. 1, 1867, to the Rev. D. W. English. The first two years of their married life were spent at Saybrook, Ill., where Mr. English was principal of the Academy. In the year 1868 Mr. English joined the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and together they served the Church in Central Illinois for 43 years. During these years of itinerancy they found them homes in the following places: Atlanta, Charleston, Beardstown, Waverly, Jacksonville, Shelbyville, Danville, Bloomington, Rushville, Quincy, Mattoon, Farmer City, Mahomet and Kansas, all in this state. Seven years ago Dr. English took a superannuate relation and moved to Paris.

Through all these years Mrs. English was very active in church life, and was an efficient helper to her husband in the many duties incident to the prominent churches he served, and as District Superintendent. She was identified with many progressive movements, and was one of the original Crusaders of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She organized and was for many years National Superintendent of the work among miners. Her work brought her in contact with some of the most prominent women in public life in the United States. She was a woman of an especially bright mind, and a platform speaker of no mean ability. For years she appeared annually on the program of the National Convention of the W. C. T. U. She was also prominent in the work of the Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, and held many offices of a local and general character. She was identified with the Eastern Star, Friends in Council, and other local organizations. Her church work claimed her first attention at all times.

She was the mother of three sons and one daughter, the latter having passed away in infancy. The surviving sons are: P. M. English, E. B. English and the Rev. M. N. English.

The closing days of Mrs. English's life were characterized by most remarkable Christian triumph. Her faith in God was most implicit; her hope was buoyant and almost ecstatic; her resignation was beautiful and serene. She died well, the end being most peaceful and tranquil. So "He giveth his beloved sleep." Of her departure it may truthfully be said:

"Night dew's fall not more gently to the ground, Nor weary, worn-out winds expire so soft."

The funeral was held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Paris, Ill., Monday, July 8th. Several of the Women's organizations to which Mrs. English belonged attended in a body. Many friends were present from a distance, representing many places where Dr. English had held pastorates, as well as many ministers who had been associated with Brother and Sister English in the conference. The interment was made in the Edgar cemetery at Paris, Illinois.

LAURA H. EWERT

MRS. LAURA H. EWERT, wife of Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, D. D., Superintendent of Bloomington District of the Illinois Conference, passed to her heavenly home Sunday morning, September first, 1912. Laura Hildgarde Miller was born in Chicago, Illinois, March 27, 1859, and resided in that city during her girlhood. Thanksgiving Day, 1878, she was united in marriage to Albert Louis Theodore Ewert and with him moved to Colorado in 1881. Mr. Ewert became a member of the Colorado Conference and held a number of important pastorates. In 1891 the family returned to Illinois. The following charges have been her home in the Illinois Conference—Taylorville, Shelbyville, Centenary Jacksonville, Hoopeston, Mattoon, and since 1909 the Bloomington District.

Mrs. Ewert was the mother of seven children, six of whom are living: Mrs. Anna Louise Ervin, of Riverside, California; Arthur Frederick, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Carrollton, Illinois; Albert Merritt, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Martinsville, Illinois; Carroll Joyce and Ethel Julia, who are students in the Illinois Wesleyan, and Earl Cranston. A sister, Mrs. Eugene Martin, resides in Chicago, Illinois.

Sister Ewert was a woman of deeply religious experience. From earliest childhood she has been a christian. Raised in the Episcopal Church, she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at the time of her marriage. She was a woman of high ideals. She was quick to sense a wrong and injustice that others might be suffering and was known in all their pastorates as a sympathetic friend of the distressed and the needy. The many virtues of the christian life found full flower in her. Her faith in the Heavenly Father was childlike in its sympathy and illuminated the Gospel. Her one desire was to be of service to others. In every charge she left multitudes of friends. She loved life and would have lived longer. But her desire was not for herself but that she might continue to be of service to others.

Her devotion to her home and family was complete and beautiful and the memory of her companionship will be the cherished possession of husband and sons and daughters.

Beautiful and tender services were held at the home in Bloomington Tuesday morning, September 3d. Her pastor, Rev. M. N. English, of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, had charge of the services. Rev. W. W. Theobald, Rev. Theodore Kemp, and Rev. G. E. Pickard, resident ministers, assisted in the service. Nearly all of the pastors of the District of which Dr. Ewert is Superintendent, were present. Six of these acted as pallbearers and the others assisted as honorary pallbearers. It was a touching service but such was the beauty of her life and the triumph of her going out that all felt it to be an hour of victory. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Bloomington, Illinois. M. N. ENGLISH.

MRS. URIAH WARRINGTON

SARAH HALDERMAN, who was of Pennsylvania lineage, was born at Georgetown, Brown county, Ohio, March 7th, 1829. In her childhood her parents moved to Campbell county, Ky., where, on June 20th, 1848, she was married to Uriah Warrington. In the autumn of 1850 they moved to Quincy, Ill.

Mrs. Warrington and her husband were both converted in the year 1849, and united with the Baptist Church. Upon removal to Quincy, they joined the Vermont Street Methodist Episcopal Church, declaring: "These are our people." Mr. Warrington's earnestness, zeal and usefulness were soon recognized. First by a license to exhort, and soon after by a license as a local preacher. After the Civil war, in which Mr. Warrington served as Second Lieutenant, Co. G, 73rd Regt., Ill. Vol. Infantry, he returned to the ministry of the Church in the Illinois Annual Conference, and served the Church until health conditions and age made it necessary to superannuate. Mrs. Warrington, in addition to the care of the home, with a large family, shared the toils, anxieties and joys of an itinerant ministry.

In 1893 this aged couple took possession of a little home at Harvey, Ill., near Chicago, having selected this location that they might be easily accessible to their children, and there they resided until Mrs. Warrington's death, which occurred October 27th, 1911, the primary cause of which was a hardening of the arteries, which undermined her nervous system and resulted in paresis. Over two years of physical and mental helplessness resulted. Hypostatic cogestion of the lungs finally culminated in death.

The funeral service was held at the Church in Ludlow, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Robert Stephenson. Interment was in the near-by cemetery.

After a married life of more than sixty-three years, and a walk with God of over sixty-two years, life's journey is over. "The memory of the just is blessed."

Mr. Warrington survives in age and feebleness. He is at present with the daughter at Ludlow.

Conference Rules

Your committee on rules appointed at the last session of the Conference, begs leave to submit the following report:

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1), when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The district superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the conference in advance of the conference session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the conference.

"22. Vacancies in the conference board of trustees, the conference board of stewards and the conference deaconess board shall be filled by election of the conference on nomination by the district superintendents.

"23. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"24. The statistical secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the conference session immediately following the organization of the conference.

"25. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"26. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the conference.

Proceedings of 1913 Session

Daily Journal

FIRST DAY

Wednesday, Sept. 10, 1913.

Opening Service—The Illinois Annual Conference convened for its ninetieth annual session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Shelbyville, Illinois, September 10, 1913.

Bishop William F. McDowell called the Conference to order at 8:30 o'clock. Hymn No. 560 was sung and the Bishop, assisted by A. C. Piersel, J. W. Miller, R. H. Schuett, B. F. Shipp and the host of the Conference, A. S. Chapman, administered the Lord's Supper. The service closed by singing the Conference Hymn, written by C. D. Robertson, music composed by Albert M. Ewert.

Roll Call—After the sacramental service the Secretary of the last session called the roll and two hundred and twenty-six members responded to their names.

Organization—A. B. Peck was re-elected Secretary on motion of J. A. Lucas. The secretary nominated W. D. Fairchild and C. M. Barton as assistant secretaries, and the nominations were confirmed.

F. M. Harry was re-elected Statistical Secretary on motion of R. W. Ennis. The statistician named A. A. Heinlein as assistant, and the nomination was confirmed.

Secretarial Expense Fund—F. M. Harry presented a resolution asking the Conference to collect the sum of one-tenth of one per cent of each pastor's salary per year as a secretarial expense fund. On motion of J. C. Willits rule seventeen was suspended and the Conference adopted the resolution. (See resolutions.)

F. M. Harry moved that each District Superintendent designate a man to collect the secretarial funds in their respective districts. The motion prevailed and the following were appointed:

G. W. McConkey, F. L. Cook, H. G. Beck, W. P. Bowman, J. A. Biddle, M. D. Tremaine, Fred Reed and B. E. Williams.

Treasurer—On motion of E. A. Hedges the Conference re-elected William Landiss Conference Treasurer. The Treasurer named the following as his assistants, and his nominations were confirmed: J. H. Pence, J. W. Armstrong, C. A. Ward, A. S. Maxey, T. L. Knotts, W. R. Johnson, W. W. Drake, J. S. Smith, D. L. Jeffers and C. S. Boyd.

Official Program—A motion offered by S. H. Whitlock that the printed program, subject to such modifications as may be necessary from time to time, be made the official program of the Conference, prevailed.

Bar of Conference—W. N. Tobie moved that the bar of the Conference be fixed to include the main room of the church, which motion prevailed.

Standing Committees—A motion was made by H. S. Alkire that the list of printed committees become the Standing Committees of the Conference, which motion carried.

Resolution; Endowment Secretaries—As a matter of privilege J. W. Van Cleve was given the floor and presented a resolution relative to the appointment of endowment secretaries for Illinois Wesleyan University, with the request that the same be referred to the Committee on Education which committee shall report tomorrow morning. (See resolutions.)

Excused—R. W. Ennis asked to be excused to attend a funeral on his charge, and his request was granted.

Resolution; Statistical Tables—A resolution touching the matter of the statistical tables for pastors' salaries corresponding with the amounts shown on the printed Cabinet Sheets was presented by J. W. Van Cleve, and on his motion was adopted. (See resolutions.)

Illinois Woman's College—Upon request of F. A. McCarty the Conference by common consent granted Dr. Harker the privilege of making a statement regarding moneys paid to the Illinois Woman's College.

Substituted—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, the name of W. S. Phillips was substituted for that of W. T. Beadles as chairman of the Committee on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid.

Publication of Conference Minutes—J. W. Van Cleve presented recommendations made by the Committee on Publication of Minutes relative to the basis of distribution, the printing of historical matter, and copies to be furnished gratis to officers of the Conference. He moved the adoption of the recommendations, excepting the last paragraph, which was referred to the Committee on Church Literature, and his motion carried.

Substituted—At his own request, J. P. Edgar was released from the Board of Stewards, and on his motion the name of G. W. Flagge was substituted.

Order of Day: Memorial Services—The bishop announced the order of the day, and in accordance with the plan of the official program conference business was suspended and a memorial service held. R. L. Steed, acting as chairman, announced Hymn No. 556, and the conference was led in prayer by J. O. Kirkpatrick.

The conference stood while the roll of honored dead was called, including the names of the following, who were deceased during the past year: Joshua S. Akers, Daniel W. English, Theodore F. Garrett, William N. McElroy, John B. Pawson, William H. Swartz, O. H. P. Smith, Augustus P. Swartz and Thomas D. Weems. The names of the deceased wives of ministers were also read.

In an address by W. A. Smith high tribute was paid to the memory of these men who were honored members of the Conference. The service closed with prayer by the Bishop.

Conference Claimants: Resolution—Walter Mitchell read the resolution on page 78 of the conference minutes of 1912, regarding the Conference Claimants' Fund, and on his motion the Conference adopted the same for this year.

Episcopal Fund—To the motion offered by F. B. Madden that the statistical secretary be authorized to make the claim for the Episcopal fund, two per cent of the pastor's cash salary, J. C. Nate offered as a substitute that the pastors be requested to raise and remit early in the next conference year any shortage under the two per cent apportionment, and to treat the amount as an excess over the apportionment for next year. The substitute was accepted and adopted, and it was ordered that the district superintendents be instructed to make the apportionment upon the two per cent basis.

E. O. Clark: Retired—The request of E. O. Clark for a retired relation was presented by District Superintendent Madden, and on his motion the request was granted and his case was referred to the Board of Stewards for special consideration.

Change of Relation—The motion offered by A. M. Wells, that all preachers desiring a change of relations, whether supernumerary or retired, be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, was adopted.

Book Concern—As a matter of privilege W. R. Graham was given the floor and made a statement relative to the interests of the Book Concern.

Methodist Review; Canvasser For—The bishop announced A. H. Flagge as canvasser for The Methodist Review.

Drafts Ordered—Bishop McDowell announced a remittance from the Treasurer of the Chartered Fund for $30.00, and one from the Book Concern for $5,093.00. Drafts for these amounts were ordered paid to the Board of Stewards.

Statistical Reports—The statistical secretaries and treasurer collected the statistical reports.

Illinois University: Committee—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the Committee on Methodist Work at the State University was merged in the Committee on Education.

Announcements—The committees were called and announcements made of their meetings.

Adjournment—After some fitting and impressive remarks by the Bishop the Conference stood adjourned, with the benediction by S. H. Whitlock.

SECOND DAY

Thursday, Sept. 11, 1913.

The Conference assembled for the second day's session at the stated hour and place, with Bishop McDowell in the chair. The session opened with the singing of hymns Nos. 249 and 186. The Bishop read from the Gospel according to Matthew 8:18, and brought a morning "conversational message."

Journal—The Journal of the previous session was read, corrected and approved.

Delinquent Reports—As a matter of privilege A. A. Heinlein called for the delinquent statistical reports and the same were gathered.

Order of the Day—The order of the day was taken up, being a report of the Committee on Education. J. C. Baker made a partial report for the committee, and on motion of J. W. Miller the same was adopted. (See report of committee.)

J. C. Nate presented a report of the Committee on Education approving the financial campaign for the Illinois Wesleyan University, and requesting the bishop to appoint Parker Shields, W. A. Smith, and J. W. Henninger as Endowment Secretaries of the University. The report was adopted on motion of Secretary Nate. (See report of Committee.)

Fourteenth Question—"Was the Character of Each Preacher Examined?" was taken up. The names of A. L. T. Ewert, superintendent of Bloomington District; H. C. Gibbs of Danville District; C. F. Buker of Mattoon District; F. A. McCarty of Jacksonville District; F. B. Madden of Champaign District, and J. W. Van Cleve of Decatur District, were called, the character of each passed, and his report heard.

The report of each Superintendent was followed by the call of all the effective Elders in his district who are in pastoral relations, their characters were passed, and reports heard, with the following exceptions:

On motion of C. F. Buker the case of John S. Mulcahy, who has surrendered his parchments, was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

The case of George U. Greer was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations on motion of F. A. McCarty.

On motion of F. B. Madden the case of Edwin A. Weaver was referred to his District Superintendent for investigation.

On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the request of Fred A. Enslow to withdraw from the ministry was granted.

Order of the Day—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the hearing of the representatives of our Commission on Finance was made the order of the day at 11 o'clock a. m.

Leave of Absence—On motion of F. A. McCarty a leave of absence was granted J. E. Strevey to attend a funeral on his charge.

Committee on Education Report—J. C. Nate presented an additional report of the Committee on Education relative to the financial campaign for Chaddock Boys' School and the endowment effort of the Illinois Woman's College, with the request that the bishop appoint Milton Wilson as Financial Secretary for Chaddock Boys' School, and E. B. Houck as Financial and Endowment Secretary for the Illinois Woman's College. The supplementary report was adopted on motion of Secretary Nate. (See report of committee.)

Transfers—The bishop announced the following as having transferred to this Conference: John P. Carson, from the Wisconsin Conference; C. E. Parsons, from Oklahoma Conference, and George F. Oliver from the West Virginia conference. These brethren were introduced to the Conference.

Order of the Day—At 11 o'clock the order of the day was taken up, being the hearing of the representatives of our Commission on Finance.

Dr. John Lowe Fort, District Superintendent of Saratoga District, Troy Conference, and Dr. J. B. Trimble were introduced.

Dr. Fort addressed the Conference on "The New Plan as Understood and Operated by a District Superintendent."

Extension of Time—By common consent the time of the session was extended, and Dr. Trimble addressed the Conference upon "The Financial Conditions in Our Church and a Suggested Solution."

On motion of F. B. Ward, Dr. Trimble was asked to meet the preachers in the Masonic Hall from two to three o'clock to more fully explain the financial plans of the Commission on Finance.

Finance Commission; Nominations—J. W. Van Cleve moved the appointment of Conference and District Commissions on Finance, and read the nominations of the District Superintendents for such commissions.

Committee on Education; Report—By common consent J. C. Nate was granted the privilege of presenting an additional report of the Committee on Education relating to the interest of the Chad-dock Boys' School and the Illinois Woman's College. On his motion the resolutions embodied in the report were adopted. (See report.)

Introduction—Dr. J. G. Floyd, representative of the Board of Foreign Missions was introduced by the Bishop.

Adjournment—After announcements the session adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Floyd.

THIRD DAY

Friday, September 12, 1913.

The Conference met at 8:30 a. m., for the third day's session, with Bishop McDowell in the chair. Hymns 539 and 568 were sung, after which the bishop read from Ephesians 4:11-15, and brought another morning 'conversational' message on "Speaking the Truth in Love."

Journal—The Journal of the Thursday morning session was read and approved.

Fourteenth Question Resumed—The fourteenth question, "Was the Character of Each Preacher Examined?" was resumed. Under this head the names of Chris Galeener, Superintendent of Springfield District, and J. F. Wohlfarth, Quincy District, were called, their characters were passed and they presented their reports.

There being nothing against the characters of any of the effective Elders in these districts, the names of those in pastoral relations were called and they reported their collections.

The names of the members of the Conference in detached service were called and their characters passed.

Presentation—J. O. Kirkpatrick, in a fitting address in behalf of the preachers of Quincy District, presented J. F. Wohlfarth, the retiring Superintendent of the District, with a library desk, a chair and a purse of money as a token of their esteem and friendship. Dr. Wohlfarth, in a few words of appreciation, made reply.

Lester G. Black—The case of Lester G. Black, who asked leave to withdraw from the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Leave of Absence—Upon request of their district Superintendents, J. C. Willits, William Brandon, W. H. McGhee and C. L. Bell were granted a leave of absence to attend funerals in their respective charges.

Eleventh Question—The chair took up question eleven, "What Members Have Completed the Conference Course of Study?" Under this question the names of Wilbert Dowson, Frank Lathrop, John O. Lehman, Royal L. Shores, Edwin L. Tobie, and Albert M. Ewert were called. They were graduated from the Course of Study and elected to Elder's Orders upon recommendation of the Board of Examiners.

Andrew L. Simmons, Joseph C. Brown and Charles E. Liston were called, their grades were announced by the Registrar, and upon motion of the chairman of the Board of Examiners they were passed from the Course of Study, having previously been ordained Elders.

The Tenth Question—The bishop called the tenth question, "What Members Are in Studies of the Fourth Year?" The following names were called, their characters were passed, they reported their collections, the Registrar reported their grades, and on motion of the chairman of the Board of Examiners they were advanced to the studies of the fourth year: E. J. Campbell, Carl M. Corrie, Charles W. Gant, Charles J. Lotz, Burl D. Mallinson, William R. Shores, Oscar Steward, Horatio G. Swope and Alvin R. Wassel.

The following were continued in the studies of the third year: Howard Adair, Horace W. Kruzan, George E. Pennell, Arthur F. Waters and Ray O. Wyland.

Question Eight—The chair took up the eighth question, "Who Have Been Admitted Into Full Membership?" The following names were called, their characters passed, they reported their charges, the Registrar reported their examinations and upon motion of W. A. Smith they were advanced to the third year and elected to deacon's Orders: Peter G. Batty, A. B. Carlberg, Orlando H. Meyers, John H. Noltsmeyer, Alva E. Pepping, A. R. Wassel and Frank H. Lathrop.

Greeting—On motion of S. H. Whitlock the Secretary of the Conference was instructed to send greetings to brother E. S. Wamsley, who is detained at home, seriously ill.

Withdrawn—The request of Claude A. McKay, asking permission to withdraw from the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church was granted upon motion of J. L. Settles, and it was ordered that his credentials be returned to him.

Order of Day—On motion of H. S. Alkire the fixing of the seat of the Conference for next year was made the order of the day following the reading of The Journal Saturday morning.

Introductions—The bishop introduced to the Conference Dr. J. B. Hingeley, Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants; Dr. W. S. Bovard, Secretary of the Methodist Brotherhood; C. E. McCammon, Executive Secretary of Wesley Foundation; Dr. James T. Docking, President of Rust University; Mrs. Kate Hadaway Fowler, of the Cunningham Home, Urbana; Mrs. T. H. Asher, Superintendent of the Baby Fold, Normal, and Mrs. Eva C. Fields, Principal of Chaddock Boys' School, and each represented the interests of the work with which they are severally connected.

Commission on Work Among Students—R. H. Schuett presented a report of the Committee on Work Among the Students at the University of Illinois, and upon his motion the report was adopted. (See reports.)

Financial Plan—E. K. Towle introduced a resolution, providing that the District Superintendents be instructed by the Conference to present the financial plan proposed by the finance commission to the first quarterly conferences in the several districts, and on his motion the same was adopted as read. (See resolutions.)

Historical Sketch; M. W. Everhart—On motion of C. B. Taylor the fraternal greetings of the Conference were extended to Brother M. W. Everhart, and as the year 1914 marks the semi-centennial of his membership in the Conference, he was asked to prepare a historical sketch to be placed in the custody of the Conference Historical Society. (See resolution.)

Adjournment—The chairmen of the various committees made their announcements, and the Conference adjourned with the singing of the Doxology and the benediction by J. A. Kumler.

FOURTH DAY

Saturday, September 13, 1913.

Morning Session

The Conference assembled for the Saturday morning session at 8:30 o'clock, Bishop McDowell in the chair.

Address to Class—The class of seven young men for admission into full membership came to the front. The bishop read a portion of the fourth chapter of the Gospel of Luke, and addressed the class on the subject of "Interpreting Life." The address was followed with prayer by Dr. M. S. Rice, and the service closed with the singing of hymn No. 222.

Journal—The Journal of the Friday morning session was read and approved.

Order of Day—The order of the day was taken up, being the fixing of the seat of the next Conference. S. H. Whitlock moved that the matter of the location of the next Conference be referred to the Board of District Superintendents. G. W. Flagge offered an amendment that the board be requested to consider the matter of the permanent location of the Conference at some suitable point with a view of adopting the self-entertainment plan. The mover of the motion accepted the amendment offered, and the motion prevailed.

Special Committees—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve a special committee was appointed to consider a communication relative to Dr. W. N. McElroy's historical work prepared for the conference. The committee named was Preston Wood, Jr., W. T. Beadles and M. C. Coleman.

On motion of F. B. Madden a Committee on Resolutions was appointed, consisting of George Scrimger and P. P. Carson.

Property; Sale Of—F. B. Madden asked permission for the sale of church property on the Savoy charge known as Wesley Chapel and the proceeds to be turned over to the trustees of the Savoy church. On his motion the permission was granted.

Superintendent Madden also asked the Conference to order the sale of Alice Chapel on the Philo charge and the proceeds to be turned over to the trustees of this charge. On his motion it was so ordered.

Special Appointment—On motion of A. L. T. Ewert the bishop was requested to appoint O. D. Ross Agent for the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana.

Order of Day—The order of the day was taken up, being the report of the Committee on Education.

J. C. Nate presented his report as Corresponding Secretary for the Educational Forward Movement, and on motion of W. A. same was adopted. (See reports.)

J. C. Baker presented the report of the Committee on Education, and on his motion it was adopted.

Hiram Buck Prentice made a partial report as treasurer of the Educational Forward Movement, and on motion of J. C. Nate the same was adopted.

Laymen's Association: Committee—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the bishop was asked to appoint a committee to wait upon the Laymen's Association and invite them to a joint session with the Conference. The chair named S. H. Whitlock, J. A. Kumler and W. T. Beadles as such committee.

Afternoon Session—W. N. Tobie moved that when we adjourn it be to meet at 1:30 p. m., and it was so ordered.

Greetings—On motion of W. A. Smith, Theodore Kemp and H. B. Prentice were appointed a committee to send greetings to Mrs. Hiram Buck.

JOINT SESSION

S. H. Whitlock announced the presence of the laymen who had arrived to participate in the joint session.

The Bishop introduced G. S. Tarbox, president of the Laymen's Association, who presented George H. Wilson, and he addressed the Conference. Following this Senator Hugh S. Magill was introduced and made an address.

Time Extended—On motion of F. C. McCarty the time was extended and Bishop McDowell addressed the joint session.

Introductions—The Bishop introduced to the Conference Theodore Kemp, President of the Illinois Wesleyan University; E. Robb Zaring, Editor of The Northwestern Christian Advocate; Edwin R. Thompson, Secretary of the Sunday League of America; Wilbur F. Sheridan, General Secretary of the Epworth League, and Miss Sui Wang, Representative of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

Committee Meetings—On motion of F. B. Madden, the committees were asked to hold their meetings at the close of the afternoon session.

Adjournment—The morning session adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Sheridan.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session convened at 1:30 o'clock, with Bishop McDowell in the chair. The congregation joined in singing "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," and repeated the Lord's prayer in unison.

Fifth Question—Question five, "Who Have Been Received on Trial?" was called. District Superintendent Gibbs presented the name of Clarence R. Williamson, recommended by the Miamisburg Quarterly Conference, Dayton district, Cincinnati Conference. The Board of Examiners reported favorably upon his examinations, and on motion of W. A. Smith he was admitted on trial and placed in studies of the first year.

J. F. Wohlfarth presented the name of P. Raymond Powers, duly recommended by the Quincy Grace Church Quarterly Conference. The Board of Examiners reported favorably upon his studies, and recommended his admission on trial. On motion of the chairman of the Board the Conference adopted the recommendation and he was placed in the first year's class.

F. A. McCarty presented the name of Howard Leach, duly recommended by the Literberry Circuit Quarterly Conference. The Board of Examiners reported approved examinations and on motion of the chairman he was admitted on trial in studies of the first year.

C. F. Buker presented the name of James F. Reynolds, properly recommended by the Etna Circuit Quarterly Conference, his examinations were reported, and on motion of W. A. Smith, he was admitted on trial.

Question Six—"Who Have Been Continued on Trial?" was taken up. Charles W. Haney, Arthur R. Grummond, Verne P. Mitchell, Pearl C. Somerville, were represented by the Board of Examiners, continued on trial and advanced to the studies of the second year.

William H. McLean, having been ordained Deacon in the New England Conference and retransferred to this Conference, was continued in the studies of the first year with permission to take his examinations in the New England Conference.

James M. Phillips, Earl E. Reisner, Carl J. Williams, Francis J. Watkins were continued in the studies of the first year.

Discontinued—George W. Erb and Hugh T. Keen were discontinued on their own request.

Question Twelve—"What Others Have Been Elected and Ordained Deacons?" was asked. The names of Orley E. Laird, Kumler church, Springfield; William Cross and John F. Long were presented for ordination as Local Deacons. The Registrar reported on these cases and on motion of W. A. Smith they were elected to Deacon's Orders as local preachers.

Fourth Question—"Who Have Been Received on Credentials and From What Churches?" was asked. Joseph D. Butler was received on credentials as Deacon of the United Evangelical church and placed in studies of the first year, and Francis G. Peters was received, his orders recognized and he was referred to the Board of Examiners, who classify him in studies of the first year.

Elders' Orders: James E. Willey—In the case of James E. Willey, the chairman of the Board of Examiners moved that he be graduated from the Course of Study and elected to Elder's Orders, and the same was ordered.

Transfer—The bishop announced the transfer of David F. Nelson from the Maine, and O. L. Clapper from the Southern Illinois Conference.

Excused—On motion of F. B. Madden the conference excused R. H. Schuett from further attendance upon the sessions of the Conference.

Committee on Conference Relations—J. L. Settles presented the report of the Committee on Conference Relations, and on his motion the same was adopted, excepting in the case of John S. Mulcahy. In this case S. H. Whitlock moved a substitute permitting him to withdraw under complaints. J. W. Van Cleve offered an amendment that the case be referred to his District Superintendent for investigation. F. B. Madden moved the previous question and on vote the amendment was adopted. Upon vote of the Conference the substitute as amended was accepted and adopted.

Appreciation—J. F. McAnally presented a resolution expressing the appreciation of the Conference of the work performed by Dr. W. A. Smith as chairman of the Board of Examiners. On his motion the Conference adopted the resolution. (See resolutions.)

Adjourned—On motion of F. B. Madden the Conference adjourned after announcements were made, with the benediction.

FIFTH DAY

Sunday, September 14, 1913.

Missionary Sermon—Sunday afternoon the annual missionary sermon was preached by A. H. Flagge, a missionary message full of merit.

Ordination—At 3:30 p. m. Bishop McDowell ordained a class of seven Elders and nine Deacons. (See Certificate of Ordination.)

SIXTH DAY

Monday, September 15, 1913.

The Conference convened at 8:00 o'clock Monday morning with Bishop McDowell in the chair.

After the singing of a hymn the Journal of Saturday's sessions was read and approved.

Shelbyville Invites Conference—The Conference host, A. S. Chapman, in behalf of the Official Board of the First Methodist church of Shelbyville extended an invitation to the Conference to hold its next annual session in their church.

S. H. Whitlock moved a reconsideration of the action of the Saturday morning session, referring the matter of the location of the next session to the Board of District Superintendents. J. W. Van Cleve offered a substitute that the question referred to the Board of District Superintendents be divided, considering first: The location of the next session of the Conference; second, the matter of its permanent location. On motion of W. T. Beadles the substitute was accepted and adopted, and Shelbyville was selected as the seat of the next annual session.

Nominal Appointments—J. W. Van Cleve moved that the amendment to the rules instructing the Committee on Conference Relations to report all cases of nominal appointments, shall be applied to subsequent sessions, and by common consent the same was approved.

Property; Sale Of—C. Galeener asked permission that the proceeds of the sale of an old church, known as the Palmer church, near Morrisonville, be given to the Morrisonville church, and on his motion it was so ordered.

Question Twenty-Four—"Who Are the Retired Preachers?" was asked. The names of the retired preachers were read and their characters passed by a standing vote of the Conference.

Trustees—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the following were elected Conference trustees: G. W. Flagge, E. L. Pletcher and Preston Wood.

Horace Reed tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of Trustees. On motion of F. B. Madden his resignation was accepted and the Conference expressed a vote of thanks for his valued services.

On nomination of the District Superintendents, J. F. Wohlfarth was elected to fill the vacancy.

Field Secretary; Preachers' Aid—On motion of A. M. Wells, the Bishop was requested to appoint Robert Stephens as Field Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Question Five—"Who Have Been Admitted on Trial?" was again taken up. W. A. Smith presented the name of Henry W. Olinger and on his motion the candidate was admitted on trial and placed in the studies of the first year.

Official Journal—On motion of H. S. Alkire, the minutes of the secretary, as approved by the Conference, were made the official record of the session.

Board of Examiners; Rules—J. F. McNally presented some desired changes in the rules of the Board of Examiners (see rules 3 to 6), and on his motion the same were adopted.

Committee Retires—The Committee on Conference Relations was excused and retired for transaction of special business.

Deaconess Board of Nine: Report—W. N. Tobie presented the report of the Deaconess Board of Nine, and on his motion the report was adopted. (See report.)

Introductions—M. W. Satterfield, Corresponding Secretary and Chaplain of Wesley Hospital; Theodore Kemp, President of the Illinois Wesleyan University; Harry G. McCain, Extension Secretary of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; also Dr. Boswell and Dr. J. W. Hancher were introduced and addressed the Conference.

Telegrams—The Bishop announced the illness of the son of Dr. M. S. Rice, and on motion of J. W. Van Cleve it was voted an expression of sympathy be sent Dr. Rice by telegram.

In reply to a telegram from W. H. Wilder, inquiring the date of the Conference, W. T. Beadles moved that the Secretary be instructed to wire a reply giving the date of the session.

Retired—C. B. Taylor arose on a question of personal privilege and asked to be placed on the retired list. His request was granted by the vote of the conference.

Resolution: Horace Reed—M. G. Coleman offered a resolution relative to the fifty years of Dr. Horace Reed in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a request for him to preach a sermon commemorative of the event at the next session. On his motion the resolution was adopted.

General Conference: Ratio of Representation—J. W. Van Cleve offered a resolution to be submitted to the Annual Conferences and Lay Electoral Conferences to change the ratio of representation as provided in Par. 38, Sec. 1 of the Discipline, striking out in line 4 of said section the word "fourteen," and inserting therefor the word "forty," and by striking out in line 5 of the said section the word "forty-five," and inserting therefor the word "seventy-five." On motion of Dr. Van Cleve the Conference adopted the resolution by a standing vote of 185 for and 1 against the resolution. By vote of the Conference the Bishops were requested to submit the amendment to the Annual Conference. (See resolution.)

Bishop Retires—The Bishop called J. W. Davidson to the chair and retired with the Cabinet.

Committee on Arbitration—Preston Wood presented a report of the committee appointed to consider a communication from the administrator of the estate of the late W. N. McElroy, recommending that J. W. Van Cleve and F. A. McCarty be appointed arbitrators in the case. On motion of Preston Wood the report was adopted. (See report.)

Time Limited—W. T. Beadles moved that all speeches on reports be limited to two minutes. Horace Reed offered as a substitute that the time be limited to five minutes, and on vote of the Conference the substitute was accepted and adopted.

Bishop Resumes Chair—At 10:30 o'clock the Bishop entered and resumed the chair.

Reports—The Committee on State of the Country presented its report through Grant Johnston, and on motion of R. Y. Williams was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Evangelism was presented by A. A. Heinlein, and on motion of F. M. Harry was adopted.

J. S. Smith read the report on Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid, and on motion of J. A. Kumler the Conference adopted the report.

H. W. McPherson read the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues and on his motion it was adopted. C. S. Boyd offered a supplement to this report, nominating F. B. Ward as president and E. G. Sandmeyer as secretary, and on his motion they were elected.

The following committees reported through their respective chairmen, and on their motions the reports were adopted: Courtesy, through George E. Scrimger; Brotherhood, through C. E. Taylor.

The following committees reported through their respective secretaries, and on their motions the reports were adopted: Benevolences, through C. W. Hamand; Domestic Missions, through C. W. Caseley; Home Missions, through N. M. Rigg; Woman's Missionary Societies, through W. A. Boyd.

Conference Relations: Report—J. L. Settles presented a report of the Committee on Conference Relations recommending that C. B. Taylor be changed from effective to the retired relation, and that J. H. Howsman be changed from effective to supernumerary, and on his motion it was so ordered.

Upon the report of the case of Dr. G. W. Dunn, S. H. Whitlock moved that the case be continued in the hands of the Committee on Conference Relations, owing to lack of information at the present time, and that the committee make a report next year.

Reconsider: Election of Trustee—On motion of W. A. Smith it was voted to reconsider the election of J. F. Wohlfarth as Conference Trustee. On motion of Dr. Smith the name of W. H. Webster was substituted for that of J. F. Wohlfarth, and on vote of the Conference he was declared elected.

The bishop subsequently made the following ruling: "I am of the opinion that the vote to reconsider was out of order, and should not have been put; that the action displacing Brother Wolfarth and electing Dr. Webster was null and void, first, for the reason mentioned, and second, because under your rules the trustees must be nominated by the District Superintendents. It is my judgment therefore that Dr. Wolfarth was and remains the legally elected trustee."

Statistical Report—F. M. Harry, Statistician, represented his report by summaries, which was adopted. (See statistical tables.)

Treasurer's Report—William Landiss, Treasurer, presented his report, which was adopted on his motion. (See report of treasurer.)

Resolution: Paying Statistician and Secretary—A. S. Maxey presented a resolution providing for the payment of twenty dollars each for the services of the statistician and treasurer of the Conference, and on his motion the same was adopted.

Minimum Salary—J. C. Nate presented a resolution requesting the District Superintendents to appoint a committee to consider the matter of a minimum salary for pastors and to report at the next session of the Conference and on his motion it was adopted. (See resolutions.)

The Deaf—J. C. Nate presented a report of the work among the Deaf, and moved that the same be referred to the Board of Home Missions, asking for a liberal appropriation. On his motion the report was adopted. (See report.)

Mrs. Butler—The Bishop announced the death of Mrs. William Butler, and the Secretary was ordered to incorporate an expression of sympathy for the family.

Conference Historian—On motion of F. B. Madden, R. W. Ennis was elected Conference Historian and an assistant secretary to edit the historical matter in the minutes.

Suspension of Rule—J. F. Wohlfarth moved a suspension of the rules, and that Lewis Campbell be granted a supernumerary relation without reference to the Committee on Conference Relations. On vote the rules were suspended and the relation was granted.

Church Location Board—J. W. Van Cleve presented the nominations for the Board of Church Location, and on his motion the same were elected. (See list page.)

Triers of Appeals—The Triers of Appeals were nominated as follows: S. H. Whitlock, W. D. Fairchild, E. K. Towle, A. A. White and B. F. Shipp, and on vote of the conference the same were elected.

Transfers—The following transfers were announced by the bishop: R. C. Pierce to the Colorado Conference, Earl E. Reisner to the Southern Illinois, and J. C. Willits to the Michigan Conference. The bishop also announced the following as having transferred into the Illinois Conference: E. M. Antrim from the Detroit, Oscar M. Buck from the North India, and Milton Beebe from the New Hampshire Conference.

Conference Evangelists—On motion of A. L. T. Ewert the Bishop was requested by a vote of the Conference to appoint Fred L. Buck and Robert Stephens Conference Evangelists.

Left Without Appointments—J. W. Van Cleve presented a list of name of brethren, with the request that the Bishop leave these without appointments to attend school. (See list at school.)

Journal—On motion of M. N. English the minutes of the morning session were approved without reading.

Final Adjournment—No further business appearing, the Bishop conducted the closing devotional exercises, and with the reading of the Appointments the Conference stood adjourned without date.

Conference Studies

Board of Examiners

Chairman—Willard N. Tobie, Lincoln.

Registrar—J. F. McAnally, Buffalo.

Examiners—Walter Aitken, C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, W. D. Fairchild, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, J. F. McAnally, R. F. McDaniel, C. F. McKown, J. W. Miller, J. C. Nate, A. C. Piersel, C. D. Robertson, R. L. Steed, W. A. Smith, M. M. Want.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examinations for 1913-14

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the chairman and registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of district supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named; except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board three different sets of questions, thirty days or more before the examinations take place in June, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in the examinations. After approval by the chairman, he shall send them to the registrar for issue and distribution and the registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the conference session.

5. Before the day of examination the registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on all books on which examinations are to be conducted at that period, which shall cover the books for the whole course of study for the August examinations. In case an undergraduate wishes to take in June an examination on any book assigned to the August period, he shall notify the registrar in ample time where he will take such examination, that the latter may send the questions to the supervisor.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the examiner preparing them, and subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

10. No syllabus or book review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books.....)
(Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.

(Signed)

These certificates will be forwarded by the district supervisors to the registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in The Methodist Review.

11. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P," as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to, nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

12. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

13. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

14. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the board of examiners. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

15. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

16. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

17. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors; and no one can be

"Honór Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board.

18. The board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deduction being made as to each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15, a reduction of 5 per cent and after Sept. 1, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. Examinations deferred to the day before conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding conference.

(1.) All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made as indicated above. These limits are: For sermons, from 2,000 to 3,000 words. For essays, 1,500 to 2,000 words.

(2.) All essays and sermons shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the conference. (Undergraduates read all rules, especially Rule 3, with great care.)

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and members of the Conference.

Bloomington District has sixty churches valued at $476,350 and thirty-three parsonages valued at $92,950. The membership is about 11,000. We have thirty-three Epworth League Chapters, with a membership of 1,600. In our Sunday Schools we have 950 officers and teachers and 9,000 scholars.

The work of the year has been successful and will show a gain in almost every department. At First Church, Bloomington, Rev. Dr. Havighurst has had a most excellent year. One hundred and forty were received into the Church. The Church subscribed over $20,000 to the Wesleyan Endowment Fund, and will report on Benevolences between two and three thousand dollars. Besides there has been expended about $7,000 in the repairs of the church. A hardwood floor has been put down; the church has been refrescoed and in every way made very attractive.

Rev. Walter Aitken at Grace has also had a most prosperous year. Seventy-one were taken into the church; $33,000 were subscribed to the Wesleyan Endowment Fund, while the sum total for benevolences will aggregate $1,450.

Rev. Theobald at Park has had a good year with fifty-one additions. This church has been burdened with a debt for years. It is reduced now to $4,000 and the future is bright.

At Lincoln Rev. Tobie has had a fruitful year. A new church project was launched, but had to be set aside for awhile. The regular church did not suffer. Fifty-seven were added to the church, while the benevolences will reach $2,100.

At Clinton, Rev. Towle has had a very busy year, replete with evangelistic fervor. He held special services in his own church and then in a union service of all the churches he continued the revival. He has had a good year.

Rev. Frank Harry is, amid difficulties and oft discouragements, working nobly to build a new church edifice at Atlanta. His task is a hard one, but we have hope that he will triumph and before another annual conference the building will be ready for dedication.

Rev. Jonathan Glick, who for thirty-three years has faithfully labored in the itinerancy, feels that the time has come for him to join the Superannuated list. He has been a successful minister of the Gospel.

The Sunday Schools are in a prosperous condition. The many large adult Bible Classes are an inspiration to the school and a most wholesome influence for good. The Baraca Class Movement finds a notable example in Havana, where Rev. Settles organized a class of boys some years ago. To-day he has a fine class of 35 young men. Some of these, inspired by instruction and associations, are qualifying themselves in some of the higher schools of learning. This is a strong testimony to the efficiency of the pastor's work.

The rural situation demands our keenest interest and wisest solution. What to do to save the country church is the problem of our day. In one instance I have found the solution. One year ago I organized Ebenezer Circuit between McLean and Minier. Here in the heart of the country next to the church, the people built a beautiful up-to-date parsonage. I annexed Mt. Hope and Funk's Grove. Rev. William Shores was appointed pastor. The work has been such a success that they voted at the Fourth Quarterly Conference to raise the salary from $800 to $1,000.

The salaries in the Bloomington District were increased $1,200 during the year. In four years the advance has been $8,000. The average cash salary, including student appointments, is $1,100. Eliminating the student appointments, the average is a little over $1,200. This shows not only the prosperity of the people, but the willingness to give their pastors a good support.

The Ladies' Aid Societies continue their noble work throughout the district. Were it not for these in some charges the financial problem would be extremely difficult. At Park Church the society raised this year $850, made over 900 sick calls and sent 250 bouquets to the sick. The Missionary Societies, both Foreign and Home, evidence their devotion by large contributions to their respective fields of labor. They constitute a loyal band of consecrated workers in behalf of Christ's Kingdom.

On April 28 death entered the parsonage at Waynesville and removed the beloved, cultured and consecrated wife of Rev. G. J. Janssen. She was a noble Christian worker, worthy of the tribute paid her by the entire community. A little later, August 8, death came again and took the only child, thus leaving the husband and father desolate and alone.

The Educational Campaign led by Rev. Dr. J. C. Nate has been duly recognized in nearly all our charges. This year First and Grace gave so largely to the Special Endowment Fund that it was thought expedient not to try for an additional collection as last year, when the two churches gave nearly $1,000 each. Could we have had the same collection this year we would have shown a large increase over last year.

Illinois Wesleyan University is facing the real turning point in its history. The situation demands imperative attention, the interest and co-operation of the entire Conference. The conditional offer by Mrs. Buck of $200,000 must be met. It is the intention of Dr. Kemp that this should be realized by next June. In order that Wesleyan may become the pride of the two Conferences and remain in Central Illinois the strong and important educational institution to give our young men and women a Christian Education, every minister and layman of the two Conferences should use every effort to encourage and aid in raising the required amount of $200,000, then at the Commencement of 1914 we will enter the Jubilee and rejoice over the victory won.

A. L. T. EWERT, District Superintendent.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

When you handed Champaign District its list of appointments one year ago, Bishop McDowell, you gave us perfect fits. Today, with a few exceptions, there is no imperative need for a change in the pastorate of any charge. Nevertheless, certain brethren are so magnanimous that they would rather move than have you lose your job of making the appointments.

Brother E. O. Clark, of Fithian, is compelled by failing health to ask for a superannuate relation. Otherwise the pastors, their families and the honored veterans of the district have been blessed with good health. On June 5th Rev. L. F. Walden celebrated his eightieth birthday and on June 28th Rev. M. W. Everhart his seventy-first. On the same day Brother and Sister Everhart celebrated their golden wedding. These anniversaries were occasions of glad family reunions and fraternal gatherings and greetings. Here I record my sincere appreciation of the holy fellowship of the Christian ministry and acknowledge gratefully my indebtedness to the brethren of the district for their uniform courtesy and hearty co-operation.

Salaries

That the laymen appreciate the efficient service rendered is evidenced by the salaries paid the pastors. I am happy to report an increase of $2,235 in the Quarterly Conference allowance for pastoral support, which makes an increase of $7,280 in four years. The increase this year is as follows: Gifford, $35; Fithian, $50; Fisher, Monticello, Paxton, Rankin, Savoy, Sidney, Tolono, Urbana, Grace, each $100; Seymour, $150; Champaign, Mahomet, Mansfield, Sadorus, each, $200; Bondville, $400. The allowed salary, not including missionary money, of the thirty-three charges is $40,600, an average of $1,230.30. I regret that $700 of the above is not Quarterly Conference allowance. It came from independent but associated churches. Yet, it has been earned and received by the pastors and should be reported as a part of their salary.

Material Improvements

Dr. W. J. Davidson, of Garrett Biblical Institute, dedicated on November 10th the new church at Rankin. The building has a concreted basement containing five rooms, is brick veneered, has a slate roof, is steam heated, and has an adequate auditorium and league room. The material and workmanship are first class. How such an edifice could be built for $8,000 is a marvel wrought by the chairman of the building committee, Mr. Scott Johnson, and, best of all, the building is paid for and the membership of the church is increasing in numbers and efficiency under the leadership of Pastor Hunter. The Pleasant Grove Society on this charge has caught the fever and is building a new church.

Pesotum has a new modern brick veneered church that cost $5,000. It was dedicated November 24th by the District Superintendent. Dr. Parr preached and had charge of the finances. This building is an honor to the pastor, Rev. J. M. Judy, and a credit to the heroic little society. The small debt is provided for.

Under the inspiring leadership of Bishop McDowell, Dr. J. M. Rowe and Pastor Schuett, First Church, Champaign, subscribed over $20,000 in less than thirty minutes Sunday morning, November 24th, to pay off their debt, and more than half of it has been collected.

Sunday, February 2nd, was reopening day at Ludlow. The new parsonage, that rose from the ashes of the old, had been completed, and the church remodeled. This day the heroic little band resumed worship in the modernized and beautiful sanctuary. The District Superintendent, Rev. W. L. Fairchild, and Pastor C. J. Lotz did the preaching and soliciting. It will not be long until this well equipped plant will be entirely paid for.

Rev. J. W. Armstrong has had two reopenings on his charge. December 17th the White Heath Society subscribed over $1,200 to finish paying for the modernizing of their church, and on July 27th the Seymour people rejoiced in the completion of a remodeling enterprise that cost $2,200, and have a spacious and well-appointed basement.

That experienced church-builder, Rev. E. L. Pletcher, and the Gibson City Methodists have wrecked their old frame church and have the foundation laid for a large modern brick building. Tuesday afternoon, September 2nd, Honorable C. W. Fleming of Danville delivered an appropriate address and the District Superintendent, assisted by the pastor and visiting ministers, laid the red granite corner stone.

Sunday, August 31st, Rev. Robert Stephens had charge of the formal re-opening of the church at Rantoul. The improvements on church and parsonage cost about $1,500, and Pastor Byrns has all bills paid. The principal items of the expenditure were roofing the parsonage barn, painting parsonage and the wood and iron work on the church, plastering and concreting the large basement, extending the electric light equipment and frescoing the entire interior of the church. The whole plant so perfectly resembles in neatness and efficiency the pastor that it is scarcely possible to divorce them.

Deland sold their old parsonage, used the lumber in their old frame church and now have a beautiful and commodious modern parsonage worth at least $5,000, with a present cash investment of less than $3,000.

Farmer City sold its parsonage for $2,000 and purchased a much larger and better residence for $4,000.

St. Joseph sold their little old parsonage for $1,000 and bought a very comfortable new house for $2,550.

The removed and rebuilt parsonage at First Church, Urbana, is spacious and palatial, and the property, easily worth $10,000, is nearly paid for. Pastor McDaniel has been indefatigable in raising the money to pay for the extensive improvements made in church and parsonage during the last two years.

First Church, Champaign, spent $700 renovating and redecorating the interior of their parsonage, that it might be comfortable until their fond dream of a new modern dwelling in a residence district of the city can be realized.

Ten parsonages are now furnished with both furnaces and bath rooms and the laymen are recognizing the fact that without these necessary conveniences no parsonage is adequately equipped. As one layman phrased it, "We ought to launder and warm the preacher in this country and then let him shift for himself in the next."

These and other lesser improvements represent a cash investment of $41,552. Paid on old indebtedness $15,553—a total of $57,103 for improvement of property. The only formidable indebtedness on $590,000 worth of church and parsonage property is the sum of $7,500 on the parsonage property of Trinity church, Urbana: and this will doubtless be provided for in the near future. The elect ladies of the Aid Societies of the district have raised nearly $10,000 for the financial advancement of the church.

Evangelism and Membership

Three district convocations were held during the year: A School of Evangelism, October twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth, at First church, Urbana; the Ministerial Association, April twenty-first and twenty-second, at Paxton, and the Epworth League Convention June twelfth and thirteenth at Deland.

Among the visiting speakers were Bishops McDowell and Lewis, Dean L. J. Birney, Dr. J. F. Goucher, Dr. J. O. Randall and Dr. E. H. Richards. The imperative need of personal evangelism in both the local and the world parish was accented in all these gatherings. Sane methods of work were taught. The messages were inspirational. We, who heard, went forth resolved to heed. Pastors united in team work and labored faithfully. Rev.

Robert Stephens, one of our conference evangelists, rendered efficient help in three charges, and Evangelist L. C. Moore assisted in one meeting. In all 119 weeks were spent in revival meetings and a few of the pastors have faithfully pursued the work of personal evangelism through the entire year. The number of conversions reported is 684, of whom 101 were in the classes of baptized children. There have been received into full membership 441 persons, of whom 72 came from the classes of baptized children. The number enrolled by certificate is 392, from other denominations 108. Total number of accessions 941. Of the 33 charges only 13 report Junior Epworth Leagues. Membership 509. Of the 52 Sunday schools only one superintendent, Miss Myrtle Rayburn, of Bondville, had an alphabetical roll of the pupils and could tell how many of the scholars are church members or probationers. Of the 33 pastors only 10 reported classes for the instruction of baptized children as probationers. Are we not therefore forced to the conclusion that we are not caring in any definite and efficient way for the spiritual life of our children? "Not less emphasis on money raising but more on the nurture of the childhood of the church," would be a wise slogan for us. In this connection it gives me pleasure to commend the methods successfully applied to this task at Bellflower by Rev. H. G. Beck and his wife.

The Cunningham Orphan's Home at Urbana is doing a blessed work, and Superintendent Fowler and his most estimable and efficient wife are worthy of confidence and generous support.

Benevolences

Rev. S. H. Baker, of India, made a tour of the district from February 16 to March 17, and delivered a series of stereopticon lectures on missionary life in that land. In the autumn Bishop McDowell brought us a truly great message from the same land. In the spring Dr. E. H. Richards of Africa conclusively proved to the business man that missions pay as a commercial investment. In the summer Bishop Lewis and Dr. J. F. Goucher told how the Gospel leaven is raising the Chinese nation toward a Christian civilization. The Epworth League mission study classes and those of the women's societies are creating missionary intelligence and benevolence. The results of this wise seed sowing are gratifying. The spiritual life of the church is enriched and its interest is intensified in the progress of the Kingdom of God. The offerings of the people increase as their knowledge and enthusiasm increase. The offerings this year are, in part:

For Foreign Missions:

From the Church.....	$ 3,390
From the Sunday School.....	1,130
As Special Gifts.....	1,109
From the W. F. M. S.....	5,508
Total	$ 11,137

For Home Missions and Church Extension:

From the Church.....	$ 2,465
From the Sunday School.....	697
For Domestic Missions.....	531
From the W. H. M. S. (Cash).....	1,001
Total for all missionary work.....	$15,831

For Education:

From the Educational Collection.....	$2,012
As Special Gifts:
For Goucher College.....	48
For Illinois Woman's College.....	2,404
For Illinois Wesleyan University.....	591
Total	$5,055

For flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana $724 were given.

Methodist Students

The work among Methodist students at the University of Illinois advances steadily and wisely under the leadership of Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor of Trinity church, Urbana. The commission will report in detail.

Literature

The number of subscribers for our advocate is 656, an increase of 424. Of the total all but 35 are Northwesterns. Epworth Heralds, 513. At Mansfield, Rev. A. M. Wells, pastor, every member of the official board takes a Northwestern but one, and he takes an Epworth Herald and many of them take both.

To God be all praise! May His benediction abide on the offerings and labors of His servants.

F. B. MADDEN.

DANVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

Last September thirty-five faithful men were assigned to pastoral charges, within the bounds of the Danville district. Soon after assuming his work at Grace church, Danville, Rev. T. F. Garrett was taken sick. He lingered until May 26, 1913, when he went to his eternal rest. In this connection I desire to thank all who rendered financial aid during his long and tedious illness. Rev. T. F. Shouse of Danville took up Brother Garrett's work in December and served the charge until the close of the year. Rev. W. H. Swartz, a retired minister living at Hoopeston, highly respected and very useful in his home church, was suddenly called home January 7, 1913. Rev. J. B. Pawson, retired minister living at Sidell, greatly beloved by a very wide circle, was removed from this world of suffering and sorrow March 24, 1913.

Material Progress

April 20th a new and beautiful temple of worship was dedicated to the service of God at Georgetown by Dr. W. D. Parr. This building is after the most modern type, and cost $20,000.

At Homer a commodious and thoroughly modern parsonage costing $5,500 will be ready for occupancy by the pastor soon after conference.

Improvements to the amount of $3,000 are being made on the church at Allerton. Eight hundred dollars has been expended on the Plainview church, East Lynn charge. Substantial improvements have been made on the following churches, namely: Metcalf, McKindly Memorial, Danville, and Mt. Olive on the Ridgefarm charge. The church at Tuscola has been frescoed, recarpeted and otherwise improved. The amount spent in building and improvements throughout the district will total more than $33,000.

Lincoln church, Danville, under the leadership of the pastor, Wilbert Dowson, raised the last dollar of a long standing indebtedness and held a jubilee service over the victory July 20th.

Church Burned

June 8, our church at West Ridge on the Camargo charge, was burned. This church was insured for $1,500 in the National Mutual Church Insurance Company. This company has been slow to make a settlement, but has at last paid over the entire sum. Subscriptions are now being taken, and it is hoped that within the next conference year a new church building will be erected in the place of the one destroyed by fire.

Revivals and Membership

A majority of the pastors of the district have conducted special revival services at sometime during the year. A few have sought the ends of a revival by laying special emphasis on the regular means of grace, coupled with a house to house canvass for souls. Where such work has been pushed aggressively, faithfully and enthusiastically good results have been obtained.

The churches reporting the largest number of additions during the year are Hoopeston, Edgar, Catlin, Homer and Chrisman.

At Embury on the Collision charge, the pastor, C. M. Corrie, has put into operation methods calculated to stimulate general interest in the neighborhood and church, and has met with gratifying success in his attempt to handle the rural problem in this community.

Reports of Pastors sent in March 1, enable me to make the following summary as to membership:

Number of members received from probation, 328; by letter, 305; on confession of faith, 38; dismissed by letter, 183; deceased, 39. Total membership on the district, 11,242. Total membership at last report, 10,847. An increase of 395. Number of conversions reported, 539. Twenty-three charges made a gain during the first six months of the year of 445 members. Twelve charges decreased in membership to the number of 50.

Baptized Children

A close investigation reveals the fact that greater attention should be given to the children of our church.

Twenty-eight charges out of thirty-five have kept a record of the baptized children. Seven charges have none. Fifteen charges out of thirty-five have organized children's classes. Six have partially organized classes. And fourteen have none at all.

Connectional Benevolences

On account of the drought which has prevailed throughout the district this season there will probably be some decrease in the benevolent collections.

But few of the charges have as yet fully adopted this financial plan recommended by the General Conference.

A majority of the pastors follow the every member canvass but too frequently wait until late in the year before taking up this work.

Church Literature

The number of subscribers to our official Advocates has been considerably increased this year. At the end of the first six months the whole number taken upon the district was 570. The new subscribers reported numbered 298.

In twenty-four charges a diligent canvass was made for the Advocates. In seven charges the work was partially done, while in four charges no special effort seems to have been made.

Missionary Societies

For a number of years the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Danville District has made the largest offering of any district in the North-western branch. This year it is expected that the offering will be fully up to standard and will reach $7,000.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has done excellent work and will be able to make a good report.

The year has been one of faithful toil on the part of the pastors, with a fair degree of success to all. Much has been accomplished, yet there remains heroic tasks before us.

We come to the close of the year with the conviction that our great need is a baptism of power which will enable us to live and preach more effectually a crucified and conquering Christ, as the Saviour of men.

H. C. GIBBS.

DECATUR DISTRICT

Decatur District began the year with new pastors in fourteen charges, one-third of the whole number. Of the six charges left to be supplied two were supplied by the pastors who had served them during the preceding year, Cadwell by W. A. Reynolds, Jr., and Lakewood by P. L. York. The other places were filled within a short time after conference, Forsyth by Ernest Blackman, a student at Wesleyan; Garrett by C. H. Ragsdale; Lintner by A. M. Sinclair, and Sanner Chapel by J. V. Willis. F. A. Enslow, who was appointed to Witt, did not go to his appointment. I arranged with J. J. Dugan to fill the pulpit temporarily and later to supply the charge until conference. Some time in the second quarter A. M. Sinclair gave up the work at Lintner to accept a position with the American Sunday School Union. The vacancy thus occasioned was filled by the appointment of H. M. Peterson.

I have endeavored to give careful attention to the details of the work, especially to ordering and systematizing the finances in every place. I have declined to accept the conventional and meaningless term "disciplinary" as properly descriptive of "the financial plan adopted by the stewards", because it reveals nothing at all of the actual method of handling the finances and because it very often stands for a total absence of intelligent and purposeful planning. In every Fourth Quarterly Conference the plan of "the every member canvass" has been presented and an effort made to secure its adoption with the preparation to put it in force for next year. Some charges have decided to try it and a general interest has been awakened.

Some increase has been made in pastors' salaries. Bethany and Cowden increased $200 each; Arthur, $180; Argenta, $150; Blue Mound, Elwin, Hillsboro and Stonington, $100 each; Butler and Tower Hill, $50 each, and Cadwell $25, making a total of $1,255. There is a large apparent decrease at Lintner, but the estimate last year was largely nominal, so that the figures just given represent the real advance of the district. But even with this the average salary of the preachers in the district is only $996, about what the minimum ought to be. There is not much here for intellectual refreshing and replenishing.

Increased emphasis has been placed upon the requirement for the pro-rating of the claims for ministerial support. In every Quarterly Conference session of last year, attention was called to this provision of the Discipline, but when the minutes appeared I had the disagreeable surprise of finding that one-half of the charges in the district had failed in this regard. In a few cases the failure was more apparent than real, because some of the pastors, trusting in the assurances of official members, had reported salaries paid in full which, in fact, never were so paid. It will be found this year that the number of charges failing to pro-rate is materially diminished.

It seems proper to mention here a condition which has arisen in consequence of the new urgency with which this system of pro-rating is being pressed. The custom of our preachers for a long time has been to raise the amounts apportioned for the support of conference claimants and bishops in an omnibus collection with the benevolences. In many charges this method persists, because the stewards either evade or positively refuse the responsibility for these claims laid upon them by the Discipline and throw it back upon the pastors to be handled as formerly. We have in consequence this undesirable result; the full amounts for the support of conference claimants and bishops are first taken out of the omnibus collection and the remainder is then divided among the benevolences. Wherever there is a deficit in the omnibus collection the benevolences now bear the whole of it and not, as hitherto, a proportionate part of it. The advance in prorating this year is, to some extent, at the expense of the benevolences. This is precisely contrary to the intention of the discipline. Two things we ought to do. We ought to insist that these claims be kept separate from the benevolences, and we ought to demand that these claims be held as no less sacred and righteous than our own. The debt to the retired preachers and to our distant head-pastors is as certainly a debt as are the claims of us who are on the ground.

The interests of our great connectional enterprises I have sought diligently to guard and promote. I have not driven the preachers because they have not needed driving. They have seemed, almost without exception, to know what the administration expected of them and to desire to do it. A few weeks ago indications were that the very wholesome advances of last year would be maintained by a like advance this year, but as the continued drought curled up things on the edges, a little shrinkage became manifest and the final reports show the gains to be slight. The total benevolent contribution of the district is less than $1,000 in advance of last year. In some localities we have suffered a serious decline.

The Educational Forward Movement has come in for special attention as a matter vastly more important to our churches and our people than to our schools. The invaluable assistance of Dr. J. C. Nate, the efficient secretary of the Forward Movement, and the watchful and tireless service of Rev. C. M. Barton, chairman of our District Board of Education, have left the superintendent little to do, but to "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." The total offering for the year is more than $2,500, about one hundred and fifty per cent in advance of last year. Besides, a goodly number of special gifts have been made to the various institutions and I feel safe in predicting that when we celebrate the success of this great movement, nearly one-fourth of the million and a quarter will be found to have come from Decatur District.

In building and in improving our church property the record of the year is fair. The church building enterprise at Maroa, which a year ago was trembling on the verge of uncertainty, was entered upon soon after conference. The building is nearing completion and will be one of the most beautiful little churches in the conference. At Bethany a new and modern parsonage of six rooms is waiting for the preacher to move in. The church at Epworth on the Argenta charge has been raised and beneath it has been built a basement fairly equipped for the social needs of a rural church. In the spring the parsonage at Argenta, a cramped and inconvenient building of one story with three small attic rooms, was considerably damaged by fire. The church at Argenta, taking advantage of the situation, added a little to the money received from the insurance company and remodeled the house, putting in an additional story and adding greatly to its comfort and convenience. Some slight repairs were made in the parsonage at Arthur. At Butler both church and parsonage have been freshened in appearance by a liberal use of paint and paper. At Hillsboro the interior of the parsonage has received some attention, but much of the effect is already lost, owing to the wretched condition of the walls. The interior of the church at Harristown has been redecorated and both that and the church at Niantic have installed electric lighting. The church at Warrensburg has made some improvements in order to provide additional room for its growing Sunday school. The total amount expended in building and improving is a little more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

Slowly but surely we are crowding the indebtedness on our church property toward the vanishing point. The debt at Assumption is now less than three thousand dollars and this year ought to witness its extinction. Moweaqua has a debt of seven hundred dollars on its new pipe-organ, but that will not linger long. The debt at Cowden is worn down to the two thousand mark and ought soon to disappear. A small debt, the legacy of an unfortunate past, remains at Lovington, but we hope to "see its finish" during the coming year. If I have all the figures, and they are correct, about nine thousand dollars of debt has been paid this year and the total remaining indebtedness of the district is slightly less than twelve thousand dollars.

This year I have felt a little more acutely than before the problem of the rural church. One church has been closed: It was built some years ago in a community that was already occupied by a church of another denomination. This other church was already moribund, but it was a mistake to try to administer on the estate in advance of the funeral. The result is two corpses in a community where one was quite enough. Another church will be dropped from the preaching plan, because the people around it will not attend its services. At least two other churches are in a dangerously weak condition.

Some preparation has been made for a definite attack on this rural problem. In the last quarter of the year I sent to each pastor a brief list of questions for the purpose of gaining a general conspectus of the church situation throughout the district. As a result I have on hand material for a church map of the district, showing the location and field of every church and the disposition of all the religious forces within the bounds of the district. I have prepared a more extensive and detailed questionnaire, adapted to bring out in detail the exact religious situation in each community, to show each church definitely what are its possibilities, and it is my purpose, with the bishop's permission, to proceed with this community survey as rapidly as I can secure the necessary support. We have some rural churches that are thriving. Two in particular have this year made marked gains in membership without special revival services and are manifesting healthy growth in almost every department of churchly activity. In each case the church has a pastor's full time, and the pastor seems to have taken his charge as a work into which he can put his life rather than as a place to get away from as speedily as possible.

As a part of the work of looking after details I have given some attention to the membership rolls. In this task we continually confront the difficulty of the non-resident members who cannot, according to the Discipline, be recorded as non-resident. We find an almost incredible number of Methodists who have not religion enough to go into the churches where they live or loyalty enough to support the churches in which they hold their membership. We need more strenuous efforts of pastors at both ends of the line to land all our floating members in the churches where they reside.

While I have been engaged with the details of church life and organization, I have endeavored to keep in mind constantly as the first object of our allegiance and the final object of all our work, the Kingdom of God. The question which we have all treated somewhat facetiously, "Have the rules respecting the instruction of children been observed?" is making upon me such an impression of its primary importance that I find myself disposed to follow it with a more particular inquiry into what actually is being done. Shortly after the Annual Conference session an Evangelistic Conference was held in connection with the meeting of the district stewards. The presence and words of Bishop McDowell and of Secretary Randall of the Commission on Evangelism gave great impetus and interest to the meeting. This was followed by a series of group conferences in which were presented the evangelistic possibilities of the various organizations within the church. Finally a paper embodying in definite and detailed form the practical findings of these meetings was sent to each pastor. So far as I am able to discern, the results have been less than we had a right to anticipate.

We are inclined to give up too soon and too easily. Continuous evangelism cannot be reached by sudden effort. It is a question whether it can be developed in the brief pastorates which are so common among us. In only a few cases, so far as I know, have any definite plans for systematic evangelism been put in operation, but in no case have they been without results. The whole number of conversions in the district is only 675, and the increase of membership is a trifle over 200.

We have great cause for gratitude in the health which, for the most part, has prevailed in the homes of our preachers, but among us are some whose thanksgiving must be chiefly for present help in trouble and for comfort in grief extreme. The wife of C. H. Ragsdale, our pastor of Garrett, has had literally a year of suffering, has been twice under the hands of the surgeon and even yet the outcome is uncertain. The wife of E. E. Strevey, pastor of Rosemond, after a similar but slightly briefer experience, seems to be returning to health and strength. H. M. Peterson, supplying Lintner, went home for a week's visit early in the summer vacation, was taken with typhoid fever and has just recovered sufficiently to be able to return to the charge. On three homes of preachers the shadow of death has fallen. Shortly after conference the angel of release came to the room where lay the wife of our brother, S. N. Wakefield. Her brave endurance of long and constant suffering touched the hearts of all who witnessed it and her beautiful final testimony would have warmed the heart of the patron saint of our Methodism, who made much of the fact that "our people die well." A few weeks later Brother T. A. Adams was driving from Lovington to Decatur with his family in his automobile. A little slip and a sudden twist of the front wheels threw them over a high embankment. All crept out from under the wreck but one. The bright spirit of their loving and lovable boy, Joyce, had taken its flight. The third home invaded by death was that of Brother Daniel E. May, one of our honored company of veterans. A few weeks before conference his beloved wife finished her long and glorious pilgrimage and entered into the city that lieth four-square.

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee, by faith, before the world confessed,
Thy name O Jesus be forever blessed.

Bear with me for a few personal words. I am beginning to find out why some men cling to this office. Its inconveniences showed themselves very early, its desirable features are just beginning to appear. The great thing in it is its fellowship with the preachers. In my association with these loyal and splendid men, I have found one of the keenest pleasures of my life. They have been a joy and a benefit to me. Furthermore, I have found a new viewpoint from which to look into the life of the church and the work of the ministry. If there were nothing else in this office, it is worth all that it costs the church to have a body of men with the peculiar knowledge of the church and its living problems which is gained through this experience. More than once it has compelled me to call myself into court. Continually I am having driven in upon me with new force the demand for what I will call a terrible consecration. This impression fixes itself; we are sincere and studious and industrious and loyal, but we are lacking in uttermostness, we do not "hit the line" hard enough; we are lacking in the spirit of the "sacrifice play"; we are not willing personally to fail if thereby the cause may succeed. If it should be that I am returned to this service, I pray that God may make me fit to be the leader of a company of men who will thoughtfully and deliberately put all upon the hazard.

J. W. VAN CLEVE.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

The anxiety with which the district work was taken up one year ago, was in no way lessened by the fact that twenty-eight men faced new jobs.

However, it was soon apparent that the appointing powers had adjusted a splendid company of men to suitable fields.

Literberry circuit was left to be supplied. Howard Leach, a Wesleyan student, took the work. G. U. Greer, appointed to the Greenfield circuit, went to Lebanon to school his children. J. L. Albin supplied the charge. O. T. Hatfield did not go to Astoria circuit. At the end of the first quarter G. A. Cox asked to be relieved from Bluffs, and went cheerfully to this six point circuit. E. B. Houck of West Jacksonville circuit supplied Bluffs on Sunday evenings.

The Autumn Preachers and Stewards' meeting was held in connection with Founders' Day at the Woman's College. Bishop McDowell's addresses were most inspiring. Evangelism was the keynote.

The pastors have prosecuted the revival work with great enthusiasm. The first meeting was at Murrayville, where Pastor Biddle was assisted by Evangelist Beadles. Over one hundred gave their hearts to God, and the results have been wonderfully permanent. Brother Beadles also assisted Brother Hubbard at Waverly, where there were sixty professions, also Brother Simmons at Virginia.

At Ashland Pastor McPherson planned a campaign with Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Rees of Rochester, N. Y. This was not only a great meeting, but most healthy in methods and results. Again over one hundred conversions and permanent outcome. Both these meetings followed immediately upon church building enterprises. Dr. and Mrs. Rees begin a union revival in a large tent at Jacksonville next Sunday. Rev. Hugh Knowles held a fine meeting at Bath, Evangelists Ross and Porter, Rev. Haley and Miss Nora McGinnis also helped in revival work. For the most part the pastors conducted their own meetings, or assisted each other.

On June 15 the church at Ebenezer was rededicated. It had been repaired and beautified at a cost of $3,000. The church at Franklin is erecting a handsome $20,000 church home, which is to be dedicated Nov. 15. In June our church at Alexander was burned. The small membership felt doubtful about their ability to rebuild, but Pastor Johnson has led them to attempt heroic things, and they are now building a completely modern church at a cost of $10,000. Nearly all the money has been subscribed. It will be dedicated during the year.

The board at Bluffs sold the old parsonage and lot and purchased a property adjoining the church, and have erected a new house equipped with furnace and modern conveniences. Other charges have made repairs on their church and parsonage buildings. The church at Winchester has a plan to clear off the old and troublesome debt.

The Epworth Leagues are doing a more systematic, but less spectacular work. There are thirteen Junior Leagues training the boys and girls for church membership.

The Ladies' Aid Societies are always wide awake, always doing things, always solvent. The Woman's Missionary Societies, both Home and Foreign, are doing a work far out of proportion to their size, and by their quiet prayer and gift each week, often eclipse the offering of the church.

The Illinois Woman's College has had the most remarkable year of its history. The campaign for $180,000 has been the event of the year. Jacksonville and Morgan county started the movement by contributing one-third of the amount. The campaign was closed June 3 by the trustees making up a small deficit, and the victory was duly celebrated in the reception given Dr. and Mrs. Harker in honor of their twenty years of valued services. Dr. Hancher and Secretary Nicholson rendered fine assistance.

The faithful work of the devoted pastors has made a good year. The difficulty arises from the fact that the college cannot always tell whether people are Methodists from whom money comes. If pastors will frankly report that persons making gifts less than $100 are members of their churches, the proper adjustment will be promptly made. This will require some care and patience.

The faithful work of the devoted pastors has made a good year. The fellowship of the pastorate has been made up by the big-hearted brotherliness of the pastors, and the cordial welcome to the parsonage homes accorded the superintendent by the pastors' families.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. McCARTY,

MATTOON DISTRICT

"And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and they declared all things that God had done with them."

Gathered here at this Jerusalem I desire to set forth to you, Bishop McDowell and brethren of the conference, some doings of the kingdom within the bounds of the Mattoon District.

There are forty pastoral charges and one hundred and three churches in the district. More than eighty of these one hundred and three churches are in the country. But we are pleased to note that our Lord frequented not only the City of Jerusalem, but also the paths and lanes of the country. And most of His illustrations were drawn from country life. He is still interested in "The Church of the Open Country."

These forty charges were all supplied with pastors. Not, however, without some adjustment after conference. E. G. Hibbens, for health reasons, was transferred to Nebraska; C. E. Parsons was transferred from Oklahoma to take care of the work on the Findlay circuit. He has accomplished good work and greatly pleased the people. Early in the conference year an exchange was effected between A. W. Mills of Mattoon and Geo. F. Oliver of Wheeling, W. Va. Dr. Oliver has done a good year's work and has greatly endeared himself to the people of the church and community.

In June J. S. Mulcahy gave up his work at Casey and J. A. Stout was appointed to complete the year's work. J. T. Carson was secured to take charge of the Redmon charge, where he has done a good year's work. D. W. Hussong has had charge of the Clarksburg circuit. E. O. Hobbs was released from the Lerna charge and H. A. Litherland took his place, greatly to the delight of the people. C. O. Price gave up the Marshall circuit and E. S. Walmsley was placed in charge. This superannuate has shown some of the younger men how to manage a large circuit. He has been in labors abundant and has gone to his task with a glad heart and a willing mind.

A. G. Dempster gave up the Shelbyville circuit and A. S. Chapman and J. C. Bell have been caring for the work. S. W. Balch has done a hard year's work on the West Union charge. Six charges advanced the salary of the pastor at the beginning of the year. Sullivan, $300; Mattoon, $100; Findlay, $150; Etna circuit, $125; Martinsville, $100; West Union, $80. I am sorry to relate that in one or two instances the salary was reduced.

Brother P. A. Swart passed to his reward during the year. Shortly after conference the little daughter of Brother and Sister Morrison of Oakland was taken sick and after several weeks' illness she passed to her reward.

The spirit of the Lord has inspired some of the churches to rise and build. March ninth the beautiful new church at Windsor was dedicated, Dr. Kemp preaching the morning sermon, Dr. W. D. Parr having charge of the finances. This is one of the most beautiful and best equipped churches in the district. The cost was twenty thousand dollars. There is a debt of about eight thousand dollars remaining on the property all provided for in reliable subscriptions. Much of the credit of this building enterprise is due the pastor, C. S. McCollom.

As soon as he was settled in his new field of labor Rev. H. E. Crane began to lay plans to provide for the debt remaining on the Tabernacle church, Paris. This debt raising enterprise culminated in a splendid rally of all the forces June ninth. Dr. Parr was again in charge of the finances and the day's work was entirely successful, the entire indebtedness being provided for. This was made possible by a gift of $1,000 from the Church Extension Society and a gift of one thousand dollars from an elect lady of First church, Mrs. Clara Eads. Many other members of First church helped in a substantial way.

Immediately following a successful revival in the Martinsville church Rev. J. S. Sharp and his loyal people undertook the task of erecting a new home for the pastor. The old parsonage property was disposed of and a new lot purchased adjoining the church. The building is now completed and is one of the finest parsonage properties in the district. Six or seven years ago this church was part of a large circuit paying something over three hundred dollars on salary, now the salary paid the pastor is $1,100 and all other causes supported in proportion.

Our people at Redmon were unfortunate in having their church burn last spring, but fortunate in having the building well insured. With three thousand dollars insurance and the subscriptions of the people a beautiful brick structure will soon be erected.

As a result of a gracious revival at Strasburg, conducted by the pastor, assisted by Rev. L. C. Moore, the church was so strengthened that it was found necessary to enlarge and remodel the building. More than $1,000 has been spent in repairing the building. This may be considered a great victory as our church here has been very weak for many years, and a large majority of the people in the community are quite unfavorable to our denomination. Rev. Robert Stephens preached and had charge of finances.

A beautiful addition has been made to the Oakland church at a cost of about $2,000. This new addition will be used largely for social purposes. The St. Mary's church on the Findlay circuit has been remodeled at a district. First Church, Shelbyville, has been repaired and beautified at a cost of about three thousand dollars. About three hundred dollars were spent improving the church and parsonage property on the Etna charge. Other improvements have been made involving smaller expenditures.

Three profitable district gatherings were held during the year. The fall evangelistic conference held at Mattoon was of value in giving direction to the year's work. Dr. Harmon, Dr. E. R. Zaring, Dr. J. O. Randall and others from outside the district contributed to the success of the meeting. Our ministerial meeting, held at Hindsboro in May, was one of the most of Secretary Oldham at this meeting. Our Epworth League district meeting was held at Arcola and was pronounced by all those present as the best ever. Dr. Joshua Stansfield of Indianapolis and Dr. J. C. Willits of our own conference added much to the success of this gathering.

The Benevolences have been presented by all the pastors with varying results. Advances have been made at First Church, Paris, Mattoon and Marshall. The work of the titling band in the Marshall church is worthy of special notice. Fifteen members have given over seven hundred dollars. The Sullivan, Charleston, Arcola, Toledo, Martinsville and Shelbyville churches will come up to last year and probably make some advance. The Oakland church will make the best benevolent report in forty years. Just as faithful work has been done on other charges, but results will not be as good as there is indifference and in many instances positive opposition. In other cases there is inability to give.

Those women, who have labored with us in the gospel, have done excellent work. The Woman's Foreign and the Woman's Home Missionary Societies will report advance over other years. Auxiliaries of First church, Paris, and Charleston, are worthy of special mention. The Paris societies will give more than thirteen hundred dollars for all work. The work of the Ladies' Aid Societies cannot be too highly commended. In many instances they have made possible advancement and maintenance of the church. These organizations are becoming more and more social and religious helps in the church. The Lizzie Johnson fund will this year total $4,710.

With very few exceptions the Sunday schools are doing better work than ever. Many schools have adopted the graded system of lessons. The superintendents are pushing for better things and the officers and teachers are devoted to their work.

The Mattoon hospital has done a good year's work. Three hundred and fifty patients were admitted during the year; free service given to 38. Total receipts for year, $10,073. The great need is a new building.

A few of the chapters of the Epworth League are doing effective work. Mr. Chas. R. Athey, our district president, has large plans for next year and we are looking for good things to be accomplished through this organization. There are twenty-two chapters of the Junior League on the district, with more than 800 members. I believe there is need for this organization. If we are to have a membership of intelligent Methodists in the tomorrow we must give careful attention to the training of the children today.

There has been a large increase in the subscriptions to our church papers, but it is still matter for regret that so many of our people either neglect or refuse to take some one of our church papers.

Evangelism supreme. I still believe that the normal state of Methodism is the spirit of revival. Rule ten, for a preacher's conduct, says, "We have nothing to do but to save souls; therefore we are to spend and be spent in this work." The following figures represent the number received into membership from all sources during the year: Arcola, 102; Brocton, 8; Charleston, 114; Charleston circuit, 48; Etna, 44; Findlay, 23; Findlay circuit, 12; Gays circuit, 34; Grandview, 20; Greenup, 11; Humbolt circuit, 7; Kansas circuit, 17; Marshall, 27; Martinsville, 63; Martinsville circuit, 7; Mattoon, 140; Oakland, 3; Paris, 80; Tabernacle, 121; Redmon, 2; Shelbyville, 42; Stewardson, 199; Sullivan, 40; Toledo, 9; Toledo circuit, 2; Vermillion 43; Windsor, 3. Despite these increases some churches will report fewer members than last year. For instance First church, Paris, reported last year nearly 1,100 members, this year 900. The difference is due to a careful revision of the records.

"There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." We need better Sunday schools, better equipped buildings, better trained teachers. In many of the charges we need a more liberal allowance for ministerial support and a more prompt payment of salary. I trust the day is not far distant when this Conference will take action making the minimum salary $800. We need a better use of our strong laymen. There is much talent going to waste. There is still a large field for evangelism. I sent out blanks some time ago for a brief survey of the field. Among others I asked the two following questions: (1) Give number of non-members in families of your own church; (2) give number of families not members of any church. I received responses covering forty-eight churches. These responses reveal more than two thousand persons in our families not members of the church and seven hundred and ninety-two families not members of any church. An Irish policeman said to a crowd of men on a street corner one day, "If you men want to stand here you must keep moving." If Methodism expects to stand she must keep moving.

Lead on, O King eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home.

Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King eternal,
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er thy face appears:
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might."

C. F. BUKER.

QUINCY DISTRICT

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

This is my final report of the work done during my six years as superintendent of the largest district of the conference. I have felt keenly the responsibility of this great charge. When I took it it was not so large as now. After my first year, as you know, the West Jacksonville district was merged into the other districts of the conference, and I received the larger part of it, and like the man who grew so much during a night that when he got up in the morning he didn't have a suit of clothes to fit him; so this district, by a bishop's act, became the biggest proposition I ever had anything to do with. I trust I have handled it all right.

We have in this district many over-churched towns. And, as you know, energy used in competition cannot be used in progression. You have heard of the tug boat captain who put an ocean liner's whistle on his boat, and he used so much steam in blowing the whistle that the boat stopped. That is what has happened in some of our over-churched communities. Competition has used up so much energy that things are well nigh at a standstill. Churchianity has crowded out Christianity; and multiplicity has destroyed effectiveness. The difficulty will be to determine which church shall give up the territory to the other. Here is a problem for our future churchmen.

The present year has been one of achievements.. There have been close to a thousand conversions; but we are sorry to report that only about half of them have been brought into full connection. In the main the pastors have held their own meetings. In the ten churches where evangelists have been employed the total cost to the churches has been $1,352.

At Augusta the pastor held his own meeting and had a good revival. The parsonage was painted, a new piano was purchased, many subscribers to our church papers were secured, and all departments of the church are flourishing. At Barry the lecture room of the church was reroofed and the parsonage debt was provided for. Beverly has had a great advance in membership, and there has been a twenty-three per cent increase in the benevolences. Bowen spent $400 in evangelistic services and has the membership pledged for the full amount of its budget for next year.

Camden built a new church costing $6,500, and the pastor organized a new society of more than forty members. At La Prairie they remodeled the church at a cost of $1,250. Brother Robert Stephens, our brother of the "Big Thing," was the money-getter at the dedication and the reopening of these churches. He is a big success.

At Golden the membership has been increased, and the Sunday School is a third larger than a year ago. They are planning to enlarge the church at a cost of several thousand dollars. Kinderhook has greatly increased its giving along benevolent lines. Paloma spent several hundred dollars in improving the manse, and they purpose paying their preacher $100 more salary another year. Payson entertained the District Epworth League, and did it well, although an inland town. Plymouth has reduced its debt to $265, and would have carried it off altogether if the long dry spell had not frightened the farmers.

Quincy, Grace Church, has increased its membership forty per cent, and nearly trebled its benevolences. Vermont Street Church has continued its good record along all lines, and surpassed its offerings in some particulars. Rockport has painted up the home of the pastor. Rushville is steadily marching on, and doing some helpful things for the regions beyond. Stillwell has built a second story to its parsonage and thus enlarged the home by adding three rooms. And Chili has improved their house of worship. At the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home Dr. W. T. Beadles has done effective service. He is beloved by the Superintendent and the old veterans.

Excellent work is done in most of our Sunday Schools, the Senior and Junior Epworth Leagues, the Ladies' Aid Societies and the Missionary organizations throughout the district. The subscriptions to our Advocates are more numerous in all charges since the reduction of the price. And yet there are many of our people who do not take any of our church papers. Much liberality was shown by our people when the call was made to help the flood sufferers of Ohio and the tornado sufferers of the West.

I will not take your time to speak at length of our Chaddock Boys' School. Mrs. Fields, the principal, will do that at some time during the session. But let me say in passing, that this school, through its deaconesses and other helpers, is doing a good work. We graduated seven bright boys this year. They come to us from many different states, even from far away China. Our great need is more room and more money. During the year we sold the State Street property, and we are now out on our beautiful Twenty-fourth Street campus of thirty-one acres. We now need new buildings and a larger endowment. The trustees of the school are going to ask this Conference to appoint Pastor M. Wilson, of Augusta, financial secretary, and we want you to help him find the friends of boys who will give us $60,000 for buildings and $100,000 for endowment.

As I review the work of my incumbency, please pardon the little pride I have in the men who toiled with me during the last six years. They are entitled to all the honors; I have only quietly directed them. The membership has increased from 5,801 to 9,985. The Sunday Schools from 55 to 81. The Epworth Leagues from 19 to 36. The church property from a valuation of $215,000 to $343,100. The parsonages from a valuation of $31,535 to $71,500. The cash salary of the preachers from $20,533 to $37,733. In other words, the average salary of the district at the beginning was $712.60; it is now $853.70. And in the benevolences we have made a like increase.

I have never been associated with a more painstaking and conscientious body of men. The men who have served with me during the six years have been, in the main, men who loved their work. I have loved them and have tried to be a real brother to them. I have shared their burdens and helped them to surmount their difficulties. I have had to harmonize differences and to pour oil on some troubled waters. I knew I would make some mistakes, for I was but a fallible man, and nobody knew it better than myself.

In the administration of the district I have always tried to be kind and conciliatory. But there have been times when I have had to say things that have hurt. But they have hurt me to say them. Every man whose duty it is to decide questions involving the interests of many persons will sometimes be charged with arbitrary exercise of power. I have not willingly hurt any man. I know the trials of a Methodist minister, for I have been one for more than thirty years. And, beloved brethren of the Quincy District, and you who have been intimately associated with me during the six years past, may I ask you to pray for me in the future as you have done in the past. And may we all be found faithful to Him who has called us to be ambassadors of Christ.

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

District Superintendent.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT

Bishop W. F. McDowell and Brothers in the Ministry:

This is the fifth time I am coming before you with a report of affairs of the Kingdom as they appear within the bounds of Springfield District. Or at least so much of it as falls directly within our jurisdiction.

This has not been a revival year. I believe the pastors have been as diligent as I have ever known them to be. I think most of them have done their very best. They have preached their best sermons and made their best endeavor, but large results have not followed. In Kumler Church there was a very fine ingathering, number over 300. Rochester work also had a very good meeting early in the year and the fruits of the work remain to be seen. Also at Pawnee there was a splendid revival, that gave the charge a momentum that is still felt. Elsewhere the pastors made fairly good gains, but they were the result of daily plodding and the fruits were largely hand-picked. On the whole, I am certain that the statistics will exhibit a fairly good gain in membership.

Nor has this been a year of spectacular material gain.

Soon after Conference the remodeled church at Mechanicsburg was reopened. Pastor Metzel and his people were very happy over the improvement, which cost near $3,000, and the marvel of it all is that every dollar was collected and the bills all practically paid when the work was done.

At Chatham, Pastor Wehrman has succeeded in getting his people to begin work in reconstructing the old church at that place. They expect to spend somewhere between six and eight thousand dollars, and when complete the church will be a model of beauty and convenience.

Minor improvements have been made on many of the churches and parsonages in the district, so that I may say that our property is in very good condition at nearly every point. But I have no report of any great advance in the values save at the points named.

Pastors' salaries were moved up a notch or two at several places at the First Quarterly Conference, and I think in every instance they will be paid in full. I am as much convinced as ever, however, that many of our pastors are required to work for too small pay. Considering the amount of work that most of them do and the expense of living and the outlay that is required of them, I am thoroughly convinced that they are not receiving their just dues. I wish I could make some of the leading laymen within the district exchange places with their preachers for a couple of years; I am certain that they would concede that the demonstration of my proposition was complete.

The severe drought affected a large part of the district very seriously. What the heat did not destroy the chinch bugs devoured, and thus the southern part of the district was almost devastated. However, the good people did not withhold their contributions, and in spite of scarcity, the benevolent reports will be creditable, and I think the district will show an advance. Not so large as the pastors and superintendent could desire, but sufficient, I hope, to aid in the general forward movement of the Kingdom.

At the close of their two months of revival the Kumler Church people together with their energetic pastor, began to look about for other worlds to conquer, and discovered an old and run-down mission in southeast

Springfield. Here was a small property, admirably situated for mission work among a neglected population. Some consecrated laymen of that church got under the financial obligation and took over the property for Methodism. Since then a good meeting has been held in the neighborhood and several have been awakened and set to work, a Sunday School has been organized as a department of the Kumler Church School, and a splendid work inaugurated, which gives promise of a glorious future. This church has also organized and maintains a Sunday School in northeast Springfield. These two centers ought to be carefully cultivated, because they afford fine fields for doing good.

"There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun." Eccles, v:13.

As I have gone my rounds with my eyes open, I trust, both to the good and the evil that may come before me, I have seen this: A flourishing Sunday School held just before the hour for public worship. Splendid attendance, good discipline, excellent order and apparently real enthusiasm. Superintendent proud of his school ready for the congratulations of the visitor. So far, good enough. With the closing exercises that mass of enthusiastic humanity vanishes like a mist in the morning; merry youth trooping away, followed by teachers and often the Superintendent himself, if perchance these older people do not lead rather than follow. The helpless pastor who has done his best to make the Sunday School a success is left behind to pry a lifeless and dull congregation out of a rut that is all but bottomless. I protest this is not a square deal. If the people of any church want their preacher to preach, I insist that they try to supply him with a congregation. It is the duty of Sunday School Superintendents to do all that they can, together with the teachers of the school, to hold these young people in the preacher's congregation. To do otherwise is rank disloyalty and will soon result in the devastation of the church. But, some one will say, "The preacher himself ought to be magnetic enough to hold the Sunday School contingent to his preaching." As if the preacher could exercise some magnetic magic that could completely overcome the modern tendency to run mad after the pleasures of the world. In some instances I have known Sunday School teachers to hurry away from the school, leaving behind them the lonely preacher to cope with a most embarrassing vacancy, in order that these teachers and their pupils might get an early dinner and attend a ball game in the afternoon. I fear that the preaching of the Master Himself could not hold people whose gravitation pulled so strongly toward the world. This condition calls for true devotion on the part of all Sunday School workers. Unless the tide is restrained or turned in ten years we shall have no use for preachers in our churches. If we preach at all we shall have to go to the pleasure grounds and ball parks for our congregations.

Another great evil also have I seen under the sun, namely:

I have attended the Epworth League on a Sunday evening just before the time for the evening sermon. I have listened to a program of song, prayer, scripture, testimony and often the reading of slips cut from some religious paper. Forty-five minutes up. Great bustling about among the young people who compose the meeting, much chatter, and then a pairing off of male and female, and then, just as the church organ peals out the prelude to the evening service, out these couples go, to meander in the moonlight or stroll in the starlight, far away from the vacancy that stands where the preacher ought to have a good congregation augmented by these same Epworthians.

Verily the Epworth League ought to stand loyally by the pastor and the regular services of the church, or it should have no place in our economy.

I am happy to say that the conditions outlined above are not universal. In many places the Sunday School authorities are steadfast in their support of the preacher and the teachers remain at the service and hold most of their pupils, and where such is the case, there is generally an inspiring congregation for the preacher. And also in some places the Epworth League is an arm of power to the pastor. Its members do their very best to build up the night congregation, and where such is the case there is no trouble with the night service; it is one of enthusiasm and power.

And yet another evil have I seen under the sun, namely:

I have asked most of the pastors what proportion of their official members were regular or even frequent attendants on the prayer meeting. I have learned with alarm that it is less than 20 per cent. What military man would ever win a battle with such a per cent of his officers acting as non-participants? The great marvel is that our preachers are not suffering defeat everywhere.

These remarks are not the croakings of a pessimist, but the warnings of an optimist, who believes in the resistless power of the Church of God when all her energies and resources are consecrated and concentrated.

O, watch and fight and pray,
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.

Ministerial Efficiency

Perhaps it would be profitable to report as to what the laymen want in the way of preachers; it might act as a stimulus for the brethren to know just what kind of men are in demand. It has been my lot to listen to more than a score of Quarterly Conferences and committees while they represented the sort of a preacher who should be sent to them for the next year, and the specifications appear to have been drawn up by some ministerial architect of no mean ability. Now to enumerate some of them:

The laymen want brains; you might spell that with capital letters. The demand is for preachers who can preach. They want men who know books without being bookish. They tell me that they would like to have a preacher who can present a few ideas that are not covered with the must of antiquity. They are not fond of antiquities; they are living in the present and want modern thought; hence the demand for the up-to-date preacher. They insist that there is no sale for platitudes and the market for truisms is more than glutted. Then, they ask for "mixers," whatever that may mean. Preachers who know how to get acquainted. But at the same time, they do not want even "mixers" who loiter aimlessly in public places or loaf with the mottled multitudes. They want the man with a message who knows how to put the emphasis in the right place. They want leaders who can lead rather than bosses who can give orders. They want big, brotherly men; consecrated men; men with lively sympathies; men who know the Christ and live His life over again. Even the remote rural circuit is demanding a grade of talent that would do credit to the city parish.

For men who fill the above specifications there are plenty of good places waiting. Such men will not long be kept down.

Now, by way of variety, I may be permitted to speak of the sort of charge that the average talented preacher would like to have; I have more than thirty preachers in the Springfield District who would like to have charges that will come up to the following specifications (laymen please give attention):

Paying a living salary, with a slight margin to put away for a rainy day.

Possessing a comfortable parsonage, not a dilapidated, run-down shack; modern conveniences are no objection.

A charge that offers a liberal salary and pays it with sufficient promptness to make it unnecessary for the preacher to take up his belt to prevent his feeling the pangs of hunger.

A charge whose official members are intelligent enough to want to read the church papers and pious enough to want to go to prayer meeting.

A charge whose officary are loyal enough to the Kingdom of God to contribute of their earthly substance to the various benevolences of the church without having to be run down by the preacher.

A charge in which the preacher does not have to furnish all the sociability. A charge that is willing to be mixed, inasmuch as the demand is for a "mixer."

Most of the preachers in my district are biologists rather than geologists. They prefer to deal with living organisms rather than fossiliferous remains. I do not mean to say that Springfield District offers no attractions for the geologist, for we have a few curious fossils even here. It might produce a harmonious effect to place fossiliferous preachers into charges where there are the largest number of fossiliferous laymen. The effect would certainly be restful.

Perhaps the best thing to do, however, with these fossiliferous beds is to get energetic, wide-awake preachers who can work them up into fertilizer. This has been done in many instances by the largely increased circulation of the Advocates. In some charges the increase has been as much as five hundred per cent., or even more. "If these things be in you and abound (all but the fossils) they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

It is neither necessary nor expedient that I take up the time of the Conference by speaking in detail of the work of each faithful pastor. Where all have done so well, perhaps the selection of a few for special mention might be misunderstood. To our Master, who alone is our judge, we stand or fall. May our work well stand the scrutiny of His eye.

The Death Angel

Early in the winter the King's messenger called for that venerable knight of the cross, Rev. William N. McElroy, D. D. He found the old veteran ready for his coronation. His illness was brief and his death triumphant. The companion of his life lingers still in the twilight awaiting the summons from the throne, when she also shall walk in the light ineffable.

At the season when spring had clothed the earth with a robe of beauty, that saintly woman, Mrs. Edna Gilmore, wife of Rev. W. F. Gilmore, heard the summons from the sky and turned away from the beauties here to walk amid the splendors yonder in the heavenly world.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. They rest from their labor and their works do follow them. The world is poorer for their departure, but heaven is greatly enriched by their presence there.

In Conclusion

The Methodist Ministry is the most wonderful fraternity on earth. They do not parade before the world in plumes and glittering tinsel or gorgeous robes. They do not engage the eye with fluttering banners nor greet the ear with blare of trumpets. But with constant heart and sturdy faith they stand true for God and humanity.

I desire to express to the preachers of Springfield District my deepest gratitude and the profound thanks of my family for their unani-mous and cordial support. Especially so when the sable-winged angel threw his shadow over my own home and plunged me and my loved ones into deepest grief. Then their sympathy and prayers supported us. I can never forget their presence in large numbers at that solemn hour when kind hands bore away all that was mortal of my beloved son. Their very presence was a benediction to all who sat in the shadows. To several of our chief pastors, including Bishop McDowell, I must also express devout thanks for expressions of kindly sympathy in that hour of trial. I have felt like appropriating to myself Thomas Kelly's lines:

In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight.

CHRIS GALEENER.

B. Committees

BENEVOLENCES

We call attention to the fact which has so gripped our hearts during this session of Conference, that those affairs of the church to which we habitually give the name "Benevolences" are not to be thought of as side issues in our Christian work, but rather as the King's Big Business. Let us, therefore, pursue this business with that degree of consecrated enthusiasm and intelligence which become the co-workers of the Christ. Let it not be by any fault of ours that the Church shall be compelled to sound retreat.

Home and Foreign Missions

The world conquest for Christ embraces all of our endeavor. Foreign missions is no more and no less vital to the Kingdom than the work at home. We therefore urge that, in our giving, we have as our slogan, "As much for others as for ourselves." Larger beneficence and greater sacrifice must be made by us if we are to do our share of the glorious task of winning the world to Christ in our generation.

Freedmen's Aid

We rejoice in the success of the Emancipation Semi-Centennial Jubilee, which brought increased funds into the treasury of the Freedmen's Aid Society. We recognize our peculiar obligation to the people whom this board serves.

Domestic Missions

Whereas the Domestic Missions Fund has a vital relation to the rural church problem, we urge that the apportionments made by the District Superintendents be met in full, and that the money so raised be used strictly for its original purpose.

Board of Sunday Schools

We call attention to the splendid pioneering being done by the Board of Sunday Schools and to the importance of our co-operation with and support of that Board.

Church Temperance Society

In the battle royal now being fought against the saloon our great Methodistism has a large part. Let us strengthen the hands of our leaders by giving the Church Temperance Society due encouragement and support.

Forward Educational Movement

We commend the Forward Educational Movement in its campaign for the strengthening of our institutions for Christian training which make for leadership in all our work.

Church Finances

We desire to express our appreciation of the work done by the Commission on Church Finances in devising for the Church the splendid system of financeering which was so ably presented to us by its representatives, Drs. Trimble and Fort. We urge the adoption of the Commission's recommendation in all our churches, and welcome the leadership of the District Superintendents in establishing it. We will welcome the day when the King's Business shall have the same systematic care applied to it that is making for such marked success in the commercial world today.

J. EDWARD ARTZ, Chairman;

CHARLES WESLEY HAMAND, Secretary.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD

The country swarms with fraternal organizations of various kinds, and millions of men are embraced in such memberships, proving the usefulness and popularity of the idea. From time remote, men of similar desire have joined hands and effort, and the Church would be wise to recognize the fact and incorporate this principle into its system.

Bishop Neulsen well says: "It seems to me that one of the greatest tasks before the Church today is to enlist and sustain the genuine interest of strong men. We must place before them a program which is really worth while, give them a vision of the work large enough to challenge attention, and to call out their strength. There is a vast amount of undeveloped resources in the manhood of Methodism."

We heartily indorse the Laymen's Convention, announced to be held in Indianapolis October 28-31. Its program promises large things, and the names of the men in charge are a guarantee that it will be carried out. We urge our laymen and ministers to attend.

We extend thanks to Dr. W. S. Bovard for his presence, and the inspiration attending his address. We believe that a chapter of the great Methodist Brotherhood which he represents should be formed in each of our churches, thus furnishing a helpful organization providing methods by which culture may be gained, an avenue of helpfulness provided, and the men of our Methodism developed in the service of our Christ.

We nominate M. G. Coleman for Conference President and A. L. Casely for Secretary.

CHARLES E. TAYLOR, Chairman;

A. L. CASELY, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE

The splendid record of our Book Concern is a cause for gratitude on the part of the Church, and we recommend that all our Methodists should give it a large measure of patronage, and that our churches should be a bureau of information in regard to our books and papers.

Our periodicals are among the best published and the reduction in price puts them within the reach of all our families. We urge that one of our church papers should be taken in every family, and especially by official members.

We do not inflict an injustice on other societies or publishing houses when we recommend that our Sunday Schools should buy our own literature, because our book concern is a co-operative institution and we are partners in the concern.

We also suggest that a copy of our Conference minutes be sent to each of our theological schools and to the superannuated ministers and the widows of deceased ministers; all others to be had at the price fixed by the Conference.

E. M. JEFFERS, Chairman;
C. S. McCOLLOM, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The increasing demands upon the funds for the Conference Claimants and of the Preachers' Aid Society, with the great need of our worthy necessitous claimants, impels us to urge that these causes be faithfully presented to the people of our congregations, and that the disciplinary provisions shall be enforced by the District Superintendents in every charge.

We commend the advance in the collection for Conference Claimants and hail with delight the dawn of a new day for our worthy brethren on the retired list.

We appreciate the strenuous and self-sacrificing labor of our Field Secretary, the Rev. Robert Stephens, and commend him and his work to confidence and support of both our ministers and laymen, that he may have access to the pulpits and homes within the bounds of our Conference. We urge every preacher to actively co-operate in the building up of a permanent fund that will eventually yield to each a comfortable support in the time of need. We are grateful for the increasing number of friends among our laity who are showing a tangible interest in the effort to build up this permanent fund.

Since these funds are sacred to the use of the worthy, necessitous ministers; their widows and children, we urge that extreme care be used in the distribution of them, and again urge that all the facts needed be given to those who are entrusted with the distribution.

Since the number of Claimants will increase from year to year, be it

Resolved, That we urge every preacher of the Conference to become a member of the Preachers' Aid Society, and thus become a part of this great organization for self help, that will eventually be the means of certain aid in the time of the preacher's retirement.

W. S. PHILLIPS, Chairman;
J. S. SMITH, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

To assist the Board of Stewards in their efforts to meet the pressing needs of the necessitous cases before them; be it

Resolved, first, that all persons filing a claim on either the annuity or necessitous fund be required to answer all the questions submitted to them by the board of stewards to the best of their ability.

Second, that claimants must answer questions as to their income, including income of wife and dependent children, and that the stewards be authorized to require such information before considering their claim.

Third, that the board of stewards be instructed to make no distribution from any funds in their hands to any one having an income of $600 or more per annum until after the necessitous cases shall be properly cared for.

R. Y. WILLIAMS.
WALTER MITCHELL,
S. R. RENO.

CONFERENCE MINUTES

Your Committee on Publication of the Minutes beg leave to present the following recommendations:

We recommend that the basis for the distribution of the minutes be the same as that of last year, one copy for each one hundred dollars of the pastor's salary (house rent included), and two copies additional, and that the price of the same be fifteen cents the copy.

We recommend that the historical matter heretofore printed in the minutes, and which was omitted from the minutes of last year, be brought down to date and printed in the minutes this year.

We recommend that the conference give definite instructions as to whether or not copies of the minutes shall be furnished gratis to the officers of the conference, and, furthermore, that the conference shall designate the officers who shall receive such free distribution.

JOS. W. VAN CLEVE.
T. N. EWING.
J. C. WILLITS.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, submit the following report. We recommend:

First—That Brother Claude A. McKay be permitted to withdraw and his credentials be returned to him.

Second—That the relation of George U. Greer be changed from effective to supernumerary.

Third—That R. S. Eggleston be granted a location at his own request.

Fourth—That the relation of W. A. Allen be continued as supernumerary.

Fifth—That the relation of C. B. Taylor be changed from effective to retired.

Sixth—That the relation of F. B. Wright be changed from effective to retired.

Seventh—That the relation of John A. Kunler be changed from effective to retired.

Twenty-fourth—That the relation of J. B. Horney be continued a supernumerary.

Twenty-fifth—That the relation of G. W. Dungan be changed from effective to retired.

Twenty-sixth—We recommend that the following brethren, whose relations are now supernumerary, be continued in the same relation:

H. H. Young, G. E. Burton, Jasper Miller, E. L. Darley, J. D. Hennesey, T. K. Holliday, J. S. Bicknell, T. O. Holley, J. P. Morton, A. W. Gilliland, W. M. Hailey and H. C. Augustus.

Twenty-seventh—We recommend that the case of Lester G. Black be referred back to his district superintendent.

Twenty-eighth—H. H. O'Neal asks to be retired. The committee so recommends.

Twenty-ninth—That the relation of T. F. Hartman be changed from supernumerary to effective.

COURTESIES

We record our grateful appreciation of the presence and presidency of Bishop Wm. F. McDowell. We are glad that he could say at the opening of this session in the language of Paul, "This is the third time I am coming to you." We recognize his leadership of our Methodist hosts, in great movements committed to our hands, as both wise and inspiring. His presidency at this time has been such as to command not only respect, but to endear him to our hearts as a Christian brother, who, as a chief pastor, sympathizes with the trials and problems of his brethren in the ministry. We will ever remember his searching and helpful addresses on the life and work of the minister which he has given us morning by morning, as well as his masterful sermon on Sunday. We will ever welcome him to our conference. We extend our thanks to Rev. A. S. Chapman and the officials and committees associated with him, for the gracious provisions made for this Annual Conference. This beautiful and commodious church has been found well adapted to our work. We are grateful also that the Presbyterian and Christian churches, the High School building, the Chautauqua Auditorium and the Masonic Temple have been placed at our disposal for such use as we might desire. The timely and stirring addresses of Dr. M. S. Rice has furnished a notable feature of the conference program and will be productive of more efficient service on the part of the pastors and laymen who heard them. We desire to express our appreciation of the hospitality of this city and congratulate the citizens on the banishment of the saloon from their midst and the fidelity of the mayor, city council, sheriff and state's attorney in seeing to it that their righteous will is executed. The conference is under obligations to the Shelby County State Bank for the generous courtesies extended. We appreciate also the kindness of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company for the use of their machines and for the courtesies of the Sparks Business College, so kindly extended. We are grateful to The Daily Times for its excellent reports of our proceedings. We desire to thank Rev. W. S. Phillips, who has served us so efficiently as conference chorister, and all who have contributed to our pleasure and profit by special music. The many kindnesses of the people of Shelbyville will remain a happy memory with us forever.

GEO. E. SCRIMGER, Chairman.
PRESLEY CARSON, Secretary.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE

The licenses of the following deaconesses were renewed: E. May Comfort, Ada Abrey, Amelia Dettman, Emma Heverly, Anna L. Logan, Mabel G. Millard, Myra A. Newton, Lenora McGinnis, Anna J. Davidson, Lillian V. Chapin, Constance King, Mary Brewer, Addie Griffith, Edith Neal, Muriel Forrester, Mary Ledgewood.

The following were transferred: E. May Comfort from the Wyoming Conference, Addie Griffith from the Rock River Conference, Ada Abrey from the Baltimore Conference. Myra G. Newton was transferred to the Rock River Conference and Edith Bird to the Puget Sound Conference.

We recommend as members of the Board of Nine, Mrs. S. A. Bullard, Mrs. H. L. Haywood and the pastor of the First Methodist church of Urbana.

The deaconess institutions of the conference are reported to be in prosperous condition and are worthy of the hearty support of the church. The report of the Chaddock Boys' School appears in the report of the Committee on Education. Following is a statement of the financial condition of the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage at Urbana:

WORK FOR THE DEAF

Hereby I beg leave to report to the Illinois Conference the work that has been carried on among the deaf within its territory during the past conference year.

Nine tours have been made by myself, and one by the assistant pastor when we exchanged our fields in July last. Thus ten services have been conducted at Clinton, Decatur, Springfield and Jacksonville, each, and eight at Illiopolis.

Water baptism, by sprinkling, has been administered to an infant in Jacksonville and two adults in Springfield and by immersion to four adults in Decatur.

Five have been admitted on probation in Decatur, making a total of seven in this city; five probationers in Springfield and eight resident and three non-resident probationers and seventeen resident and three non-resident members in Jacksonville.

The territory within your conference is a part of the field wherein we labor. The general work necessarily calls for at least five men, and yet employs only two, beside a deaconess in Cincinnati.

Assured that the conference will continue its care for the deaf, I remain,
Fraternally yours,

PHILIP J. HASENSTAB.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID

No one acquainted with the history of our church and its well known determination to push into the regions beyond and hold territory already gained, will fail to recognize the value of this organization. John Wesley struck the Methodist keynote when he said, "The world is my parish."

We submit the following for the consideration of the district superintendents who control the disposition of the funds.

Denominational rivalry has created an overchurched condition in many localities. Such situations are to be deplored and as far as possible eliminated. They are frequently destructive to all concerned, and recognizedly unchristian. We would, therefore, recommend that financial assistance be withheld as below specified.

First—Where our church is weak and a sister denomination of evangelical character is overwhelmingly strong, unless there is sufficient promise to justify such action. Our protest is against the policy of indefinitely continuing financial assistance under such circumstances.

Second—Only under extraordinary circumstances should any pastor receiving a salary of one thousand dollars be allowed help from the society.

Third—The fund is for the creation and development of strategic points whose near future will bring returns to the church.

We urge the brethren to active interest in securing subscriptions for its maintenance.

C. W. CASELEY, Secretary.

EDUCATION

Educational Forward Movement

The Forward Educational Movement ratify and renew all of the mutual agreements by which this conference is united with the Central Illinois Conference in the Educational Forward Movement, as heretofore agreed in the Annual Conference sessions of 1911 and 1912. The plans and methods of the movement shall continue as heretofore agreed, including the total goal of $1,250,000, by Oct. 1, 1916, and the apportionment in the churches throughout the two conferences of an amount equal to $1.00 per member thereof, and subject to the following special agreements for the ensuing conference year:

1. (a) That item 3 (c) of the educational legislation in the conference sessions of 1912, be amended by striking out the words "and including" in the sentence, "It is hereby agreed and directed that all gifts in amounts up to and including the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100), made by or in the name of members of any of our churches within either conference, etc.," meaning hereby to allot to the colleges the privilege of hereafter receiving the sum of $100, the even amount, as pledges under their individual campaigning for special gifts in their debt-raising and endowment campaigns.

(b) That we renew the legislation of the One Hundred Dollar Rule, as thus amended, with the most earnest feeling that not only the strength of the local educational effort in the churches, but also all the other regular benevolent interests are vitally concerned by this agreement.

(c) In order to assure the continuous maintenance of the rule we recommend that all amounts received by institutions at any time during the year, which under the terms of the Conference One Hundred Dollar Rule should go to the general movement for mutual distribution, shall be promptly reported to the secretary of the Forward Movement, and the amount promptly transmitted to the treasurer of the movement, who shall hold same subject to all rights or adjustments subsequently presented by or for donors of such amounts.

(d) It is further recommended that special effort be made by the officers of the movement and by our pastors in the early part of the ensuing year to give the fullest possible publicity to the One Hundred Dollar Rule among the officials and members of all the churches.

2. In the distribution of the Public Educational Collection of the conferences, the present ratio shall continue, except that Chaddock Boys' School shall hereafter receive five per cent of the total collection of the Central Illinois Conference, to be deducted prior to the division of the collection among the other institutions, by tenths, as now provided.

3. It is recommended that the heads of the institutions, the secretary of the Educational Forward Movement, and the officers of the Boards of Education of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conference, respectively, shall constitute an Executive Committee having general direction of the Educational Forward Movement, subject to the Boards of Education of said conferences. The present Executive Committee is similarly empowered until the new committee is completed.

4. The attention of our pastors is again called especially to the arrangement the conference has with the general Board of Education, by which that board receives the lump sum of $900 from the total educational collections of the Illinois Conference for the year, in lieu of the 20 per cent of the collection of each charge which would go to the board except for this special arrangement.

5. We would call to the earnest attention of all our pastors and laymen in the ensuing year the special endowment and debt-raising campaigns which many of the institutions must wage in order to complete their great endowment efforts or to save large conditional pledges already subscribed. We would urge the absolute necessity of such campaigns for the salvation of these institutions in the attainment of the sums now required of them by our Educational Boards, or otherwise. We bespeak for their representatives the heartiest possible cooperation of our pastors in the attainment of the special gifts sought by the institutions in these campaigns, these latter being, of necessity, always for the sum of $100 and upwards.

It is understood that there is no requirement upon our pastors for the presentation of such special gift campaigns in the pulpits or before the public congregation or any board or committee of the church. The Public Educational Collection at an apportionment of an amount equal to $1.00 per member fairly claims the full attention of our pastors and churches under the above stated relations so far as the movement plans such official or congregational effort. But all that our pastors may undertake beyond this requirement, in connection with the special gift campaigns, will be of unusual helpfulness during the remaining period of the movement, for these arduous and vital campaigns of the respective schools.

6. The united interest and cooperation of our college officials, district superintendents, pastors, and many laymen in the past year has resulted in the great advance it has witnessed, both financially for the schools and in a rising sentiment for them throughout all the territory of these conferences. We thank God and take courage, bespeaking from all these friends of Christian education a steadfast continuance of interest and favor until this great battle of our schools is fully won.

We desire to record our great appreciation of the work of the secretary of the Forward Movement, Rev. J. C. Nate, during the past year. His minute grasp of every detail of the Forward Movement, his masterly organization and untiring efficiency are worthy of all praise. He has more than fulfilled our expectations and we ask the Bishop to reappoint Dr. Nate to the secretaryship of the Forward Movement.

Recommendations

Whereas, The Special Endowment Campaigns of several institutions contemplate the appointment of certain brethren as financial agents, who are now pastors,

Resolved, That this conference request that all such pastors so appointed for the educational work, be regarded at the conference session of 1914 as sustaining in all respects the same relation to the appointive work of the cabinet as though they had continued in the pastorate.

Educational Statistics

We recommend that the column for Special Educational Gifts, in the conference minutes, be placed alongside of the column for the regular Educational Collection.

Conference Board of Education

The following are recommended as the Conference Board of Education:

F. A. Havighurst	E. G. Ransdell
R. H. Schuett	C. W. Groves
M. N. English	Geo. England
J. W. Van Cleve	W. C. Outten
F. A. McCarty	J. W. Breckon
A. S. Chapman	G. S. Tarbox
C. Galeener	S. A. Bullard
A. S. Flanigan	D. L. Musselman
Theodore Kemp, Ex-officio	J. R. Harker, Ex-officio

It is recommended that the following constitute advisory members of the board, especially in relation to the Educational Forward Movement, and that the advisory members constitute the standing Committee on Education for the next annual session: Mrs. E. M. Frieids, James C. Baker, W. N. Tobie, E. H. Lugg, C. M. Barton, E. A. Hedges, C. M. Duncan, M. G. Coleman, A. C. Adams, J. W. Miller, T. N. Ewing, A. C. Piersel, N. M. Rigg, W. D. Fairchild.

Whereas, Illinois Wesleyan University is engaged in a campaign to raise $200,000 by next June to save and complete all present gifts to her half-million fund, we give cordial approval of this great and necessary undertaking, and pledge our hearty cooperation in it in every way consistent with our large educational program as a conference. We call upon our people throughout the conference to aid in this all-important work.

Whereas, the time is very short in which to complete this campaign, and the university desires that Rev. Parker Shields, Rev. W. A. Smith and Rev. J. W. Henninger give the ensuing year to promote its success, we hereby request that these brethren be appointed by Bishop McDowell as endowment secretaries of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

Our Chaddock Boys' School has inaugurated plans for a special campaign to raise $150,000.00 in special gifts, for building and endowment, a campaign to be formally launched in the City of Quincy in November and to be extended throughout the district and, later in the conference year, throughout the widest territory found possible to reach.

This institution is the one special school for younger boys maintained by Methodism in the central west. It is a work which appeals to our hearts and to our highest aspirations for the Kingdom.

Whereas, The trustees of the school desire that the Rev. Milton Wilson give his services for the ensuing year to this great work, we request that Bishop McDowell so appoint him, and we pledge to Chaddock Boys' School and to Brother Wilson, if appointed, our hearty cooperation in every way consistent with our large educational program as a conference.

Whereas, The Illinois Woman's College desires to secure the services of Rev. E. B. Houck as financial and endowment secretary for the ensuing year, we request Bishop McDowell to make such appointment. We congratulate the Woman's College upon the completion of her recent great endowment effort and assure President Harker and Brother Houck, if appointed, of our continued interest and cooperation in their plans for the welfare of the Woman's College.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL

The old Chaddock College buildings were sold last June, and in October the school was moved to a suburban location where there are $31\frac{1}{4}$ acres of land, including a beautiful wooded campus, an athletic field and several acres of good farm land. The property disposed of was not well adapted to boy's work and was constantly decreasing in value. Through the sale of that property the trustees were enabled to pay off the indebtedness on the original farm of $26\frac{1}{4}$ acres. There is now no mortgage on any of the property. The trustees carry a note of \$8,000, with interest at 4 per cent, on a corner lot of five acres fronting on Twenty-fourth street adjoining the original property. The financial report shows they have cash on hand almost sufficient to balance that indebtedness. Much has been gained through concentrating the work in one place. We recommend that the conference approve of the increase of the number of trustees from sixteen to twenty-five.

Chaddock Boys' School had boys last year from fourteen states and territories, as well as a fine Chinese lad, and this, in spite of the fact that there was no advertising for students at all, owing to the limitations of buildings. The fact that the boys have passed into advanced grades in elementary schools as well as into some of the best high schools from Massachusetts to California and have measured up to the requirements of these schools, carrying forward their work with efficiency, is the best testimony as to the grade of work done at Chaddock.

The school holds the unique position of being the only Home School for boys from six to sixteen years of age, in Methodism, of this country.

In the campaign for $160,000 for building and endowment purposes, now on, we bespeak the sympathetic interest and thoughtful consideration of all who value boys at their true worth. The day of the elementary and secondary schools in America is dawning and Methodism has a wonderful opportunity for service through Chaddock Boys' School.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

The Illinois Wesleyan has made steady progress the past year. The graduating class from the College of Liberal Arts was forty-two, the largest in sixty years. About thirty students were preparing for the ministry, and several expect to go into the deaconess work or to the foreign field.

About one hundred students earned their way wholly or in part. The Woman's Dormitory was filled to overflowing. Annually Illinois Wesleyan gives hundreds of dollars in the way of half-tuition rates to candidates for the ministry and to the sons and daughters of ministers.

A very helpful series of meetings was conducted at the school by Rev. James C. Baker D. D., Urbana. Great and lasting good was done under his masterly leadership.

About $145,000 has been raised the past year towards the $350,000 to be secured for the school. $200,000 is yet to be raised, and by vote of the Conference, Reverend Parker Shields, W. A. Smith and J. W. Henninger of this Conference are to be appointed as endowment secretaries. The campaign is to close Commencement Day next June. Under the Providence of God and the gracious response of God's people this great task can be accomplished.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The past year stands out pre-eminent as the most notable year in all the history of the Illinois Woman's College. The college received special recognition last March for high scholastic standing from the North Central Association of Colleges.

The religious life of the college is especially active, and it is a matter of frequent remark that the students return to their homes and home churches eager to take part in the religious activities of the community.

The greatest interest of the year centered in the financial campaign to secure $180,000, of which $80,000 was to provide for indebtedness incurred for buildings and equipment, and $100,000 for clear endowment. Students, alumnae, and hosts of friends vied with each other in loyalty and sacrifice so that on commencement day, June 4, 1913, the total sum was fully subscribed. Two years ago the trustees announced the need of the college for at least $400,000 for endowment and equipment to be secured by 1916, the seventieth anniversary of the college. The successful completion of last year's campaign inspires renewed courage for the completion of the task, and hope of an equally successful final campaign. The trustees have decided to put a secretary into the field in the special interest of this endowment fund.

The college greatly appreciates the interest of the conference and the support it has received from both ministers and laymen. It recognizes its obligations, and seeks in every way to send out its students both ready and anxious for Christian service, and for usefulness in the church. It also seeks to show its appreciation by helping especially in the education of the daughters of ministers, by scholarships and by reductions in tuition whenever possible. In the past year the college assisted in this way to the value of $1,140, and is anxious for increased endowment so that it may do still more in this direction.

We recommend for appointments as trustees:

T. J. Pitner, Jacksonville	Lawrence Y. Sherman, Springfield

We recommend as visitors:

The district superintendent of Jacksonville District.

The above report was made June 1, at the close of the college year, by a certified auditing company and showed the exact condition of the college properties at that time. Since then there has been collected of the subscriptions due nearly $60,000, and this has been applied as rapidly as the money has come in to the payment of the bonds and notes above mentioned, so that at this time, September 4, 1913, the above liabilities of $49,500 have been all provided for. This puts the Woman's College entirely out of debt and gives it a total of clear assets of $485,318.69, with more than $100,000 of endowment subscriptions still due.

It will be seen from the above statement that in the year just closing the college has made a gain of assets equal to nearly one-half (44 per cent) of the entire assets accumulated in all the preceding sixty-seven years of its history.

METHODIST STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

A report of the work among Methodist students at the State University properly falls under two heads: (1) The work now being done at Trinity; (2) the plans formulated by the commission representing the four conferences of the state.

The Work at Trinity

The central purpose of all the activities which go on at Trinity is personal contact with our Methodist students for religious culture, social life under wholesome conditions, and the enlistment for a program of definite service, both while in school or in the communities to which these students go after school days are past. Bible and Mission Study Classes are maintained, the Epworth League is aggressively active, and students by the hundreds attend the services of public worship each Sunday. The pastor is constantly dealing in personal conference with the ethical and religious problems which face all thoughtful young people. The parsonage, recently purchased, is just off the campus and has furnished a splendid basis for an approach to the students which can be made only through a home. The two assistants working with the pastor are a great factor in whatever success is being achieved.

We recommend that the conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and the Board of Domestic Missions to continue their appropriation for the support of these assistants.

We also recommend that the conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to aid in lifting the debt on the parsonage. We further recommend that the conference request the Board of Education to continue its appropriation.

The Commission and Its Plan

The plans formulated by the commission contemplate increasing the efficiency of our work along the lines now being followed at Trinity. The chief additional feature is the plan for curriculum work in religious and moral education. The courses offered will be complementary to the university courses, for which it expected that credit will be given by the university.

Bishop McDowell is chairman of the commission and will be chairman of the new Board of Trustees. The commission has decided to incorporate under the name, "The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois." Land costing $20,000 has been bought, and a campaign for $200,000 for building and endowment is being inaugurated. Rev. G. E. McCammon has accepted the position of executive secretary and began his work September 1. All the plans have been worked out with the approval of the Board of Education in New York City and the work is incorporated as an "Auxiliary" to the Board of Education. The board is also officially represented on the new Board of Trustees by the Hon. W. A. Rankin.

We recommend that the Illinois Conference appoint as trustees, F. B. Madden, J. W. Van Cleve, F. A. Boggs, John W. Stipes and James C. Baker.

We recommend that the present commissioners continue until the process of incorporation is completed.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION

The church does not yet fully comprehend the rapidly enlarging scope of the work actually done by the Board of Education under the legislation of the last two general conferences. The Children's Day Loan Fund, the administration of which was formerly the chief concern of this board, is of increasing value and was never more worthy of our contributions. It continues to aid more than 2,000 students a year. But important as it is, it at present stands as only one of a number of equally valuable activities.

The Board of Education now directs and supports the mission schools among the mountaineers of the South, a work certainly worthy of the liberality of our people. In addition the board is striving to aid our Methodist colleges, universities and secondary schools to meet the ever increasing financial burdens incident to maintaining the higher degree of educational efficiency demanded by modern conditions. A few grants in aid have been made; more would be if the board had the funds. But more helpful even than this has been the policy of the board which, during the last school year has placed the experience and personal aid of its secretary and others under his direction at the service of our schools, in the actual work of counseling, inspiring, publicizing, organizing and assisting in manifold ways in the campaigns which have actually saved several of them from disaster—all this, as a rule, without expense to the institutions. This personal aid and sympathetic cooperation has been more than gifts of money, but if it could be accompanied by small conditional gifts which would inspire local effort, it would be worth still more.

The assistance rendered our institutions through the literature of the board, notably "The Christian Student"; through the advice and cooperation of men of wide educational experience; through its teachers' bureau, and through its efforts in cooperation with the Commission on Evangelism to promote the moral and religious care of Methodist young people in all institutions of learning, entitles the Board of Education to the increasing consideration of our people and ought to indicate to us the need of raising the collection for this board in full.

Theological Schools

We commend the theological schools of our church as representing the true spirit of Methodism—progressive but not destructive. There is a demand in many quarters that our theological schools readjust themselves to meet the needs of our modern life, and we believe they are thoughtfully, and with a safe conservatism, making this readjustment. Our complex age, more than ever before demands of the candidates for the ministry the special preparation of such schools. Hence with the utmost emphasis we urge our ministerial candidates to seek first the broad foundation of a general course of study in our colleges and following that the special preparation of the theological school.

We nominate the following persons as conference visitors:

Boston—F. A. Havighurst, J. C. Baker.

Garrett—M. N. English, J. W. Miller, E. S. Combs.

Drew—Geo. E. Rainsberger.

Illif—A. C. Piersel.

EDUCATIONAL BANQUET

We commend the banquet of this year, and recommend that the arrangements for next year's banquet be referred to the Conference Board of Education.

Recommendations

We recommend that the conference request the bishop to appoint Dr. E. M. Smith president of Carleton College, Farmington, Missouri.

W. N. TOBIE, Chairman,
J. C. BAKER, Secretary.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Report of Commission

The Commission on our University Work representing the four conferences of the state, has been studying carefully these past years our responsibilities and opportunities among the hundreds of Methodist students there. We have been in counsel with the general Board of Education at New York City and our honored presiding bishop has been our chairman.

The commission has contracted for the purchase of lots adjoining the campus at a cost of $20,000. On these lots we purpose to erect buildings for the social and religious care of our students. To accomplish that purpose a campaign for $200,000 is being launched this fall. At the invitation of the commission Rev. G. E. McCammon has given up one of the leading charges of the Southern Illinois Conference to become our executive secretary.

Articles of incorporation for "The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois" have been drawn up. Provision is made in these articles for a board of thirteen trustees—two from each conference in the state and five at large. One of the latter is nominated directly by our general Board of Education. The incorporation is "Auxiliary" to the Board of Education, and all our plans have had the direct approval of Secretary Nicholson.

We recommend the approval of these plans by the conference and ask for the discharge of the commission immediately upon the completion of the incorporation.

R. H. SHUETT.
JOS. W. VAN CLEVE.
F. B. MADDEN.

EVANGELISM

We are convinced that the commission of the Methodist ministry finds its prime expression in a soul winning search for the boys and men, girls and women, who are not loyal to God, being uninspired by the love of Jesus Christ. Only the "ancient passion" for all men will restore the lost world "to the Lord and Master of us all". Animated by the consuming zeal of the indwelling Christ we are certain of the victory that conquers the world.

We believe that some essential elements enter into an adequate conception and development of a pastor's evangelistic endeavor, whether the pastor be his own evangelist, interchange with another brother pastor, or employ some approved Methodist evangelist. Hoping to be of specific benefit we venture to suggest that each of our pastors, at the beginning of the conference year, compile a constituency and a prospective list of those whose persuasion to Christ he covets, remembering that his enrollment of the baptised children as probationers and their subsequent organization and training in catechism classes, and the advent of frequent decision days for them in the Sunday School, furnish the first fruits.

We are persuaded that special continuous evangelistic campaigns, born in the official board, developed in the petitions of house-to-house prayer meetings in the weeks preceding pulpit evangelization, baptised by the Holy Spirit, accompanied by personal interviews, may enter, appropriately, into the pastor-evangelist's program.

We earnestly request our District Superintendents to arrange for district meetings early in the fall for conference and prayer and for the direction of aggressive evangelistic campaigns throughout their districts.

We have greatly enjoyed and have highly profited by the addresses of Dr. M. S. Rice and we recommend that an hour each day of the next annual conference week be given to a called speaker on evangelistic methods, and we further recommend that the chairman of the committee on conference evangelism be made a member of the committee on conference program for the selection of such a man. We ask also that the committee on conference evangelism have full charge of the street meetings.

We request that no more than two conference evangelists be appointed this year.

E. B. RANDLE, Chairman.

A. A. HEINLEIN, Secretary.

MATTOON MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

We greatly appreciate the good work that is being done by our Mattoon Memorial Hospital, and that we are pleased to learn through one of its representatives that larger plans have been made for future efficiency. We are also glad to learn of its financial standing, and that it enjoys the confidence and hearty support of the community in which it is located.

We are proud of this institution as it is the only one of its kind within the bounds of our Conference.

We desire to commend it to the attention of our pastors and people, and urge that our prayers, our sympathies, and means should be freely offered in its behalf so that the good work may go on and prove a larger blessing to mankind.

W. O. ROUSH, Chairman.

H. W. KRUZAN, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORMS

We desire to express our unqualified approval of the reform work of the federated church as represented by that splendid organization known as the Anti-Saloon League—"the church in action against the saloon." We rejoice in its past triumphs, our warranted anticipation of still greater victories in the near future, and are in hearty sympathy with the inclusive program which it favors, along with all the other temperance movements that are doing things. We will welcome its representatives to our pulpits, and will further the great cause for which it stands, in every way within our power.

Sunday Closing League

We heartily endorse the efforts of Dr. Thompson, representing the American Sunday Closing League, in his work of sustaining the sacredness of the Christian Sabbath; and hereby enter our protest against ministers of the gospel lecturing at Chautauquas and Assemblies on Sunday where admission is charged for the same.

Vigilance Association

We further command the faithful work of Dr. Horace Reed as Secretary of the American Vigilance Association to lessen the divorce evil, to suppress the white slave traffic and to protect the purity of the home, and request the Bishop to re-appoint him to this field of work.

W. D. FAIRCHILD, Chairman.
GRANT JOHNSTON, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES

We, the members of your committee, regarding the Sunday School as the strong arm of the Church, and the widest open door through which our people pass into the Church and the Kingdom of God, make the following recommendations:

First. We heartily commend the worthy leadership of Sec. Blake in entering new fields, assisting needy schools, placing new emphasis upon Sunday School Evangelism, which has resulted in the conversion of 800,000 scholars since 1900, and especially in his prophetic vision of the yet greater opportunities which lie before us. We urge our pastors to follow carefully the General Conference instructions as to the support of this work, and insist upon no diverting of funds belonging to this Board.

Second. That we declare it as our conviction that there is great lack of attendance upon the preaching of the word and sacrament of the Lord's Supper on the part of our children and young people, as there once was a slackness on the part of adults in attending the Sunday Schools, a problem that we are glad to say seems near a proper solution. We urge upon pastors and parents in all our churches an earnest effort to solve this problem, to the end that the children of our Sunday Schools be kept not merely for the preaching service, but for the church and the Kingdom of tomorrow.

We reaffirm that the Epworth League affords the best opportunity, of our church, for the development of our young people in character and Christian Service, and whereas it seeks to lead them into higher standards of experience in the Christian life: be it Resolved that we, the pastors of the Illinois Conference continue to co-operate with the Epworth League to this end: and be it further, Resolved, that we assist our Epworth League cabinets in carrying out the campaign which is being planned for, by our General Secretary known as the "Win my chum week" from the 9th to the 16th of November, which plan is more specifically outlined in the last issue of the Epworth Herald.

Whereas, the Epworth League institutes at Quiver Lake have proven to be of great value to the young people of our church: be it further Resolved that we do all we can to have every charge in the Illinois Conference, represented at the institute to be held in July, 1914.

C. S. BOYD, Chairman.

H. W. M'PHERSON, Secretary.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference met in annual session in annual meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Shelbyville, Ill., Sept. 11, 1913.

Present, W. A. Smith, W. W. Webster, C. B. Taylor, S. H. Whitlock, George Scrimger and Horace Reed. The President, W. A. Smith, in the chair.

The Treasurer, C. B. Taylor, read his annual report, which on motion of S. H. Whitlock was accepted and placed on file.

S. H. Whitlock moved that the draft for accrued interest amounting to Eight Hundred Dollars be passed over to the board of stewards. Motion carried.

Rev. P. N. Minear, a superannuate member of the Illinois Conference, presented a transcript of a paragraph in his last will and testament to be kept on file for future reference. (See exhibit 1.)

S. H. Whitlock moved that Royal W. Erins be selected to preach the annual Strawbridge sermon and John W. Miller, alternate. Motion carried.

S. H. Whitlock moved that we adjourn, subject the call of the chair.

The Trustees met in adjourned session Sept. 15th.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock, B. F. Shipp was elected Secretary, Horace Reed having resigned.

S. H. Whitlock moved that H. C. Gibbs be elected Treasurer of the Board. Motion carried.

COMMITTEE ON ARBITRATION.

Whereas, misunderstanding has arisen concerning an alleged derangement between the Illinois Annual Conference and the late W. N. McElroy, relative to the compiling and publishing of the History of Methodism in Illinois, and

Whereas, The administrator of the estate of the said W. N. McElroy has addressed a letter to this Conference through the President of its Historical Society, presenting and pressing a claim against the conference for an unpaid balance, alleged by him to be due said estate, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in our opinion every legal and moral obligation of the Conference has been fully discharged, and we propose that any and all claims now brought against the Conference on this account, be submitted to a committee of five arbitrators to be chosen in the following manner: Two to be selected by the family of Dr. McElroy, two to be selected by the Illinois Conference, and the fifth to be selected by these four. We recommend the appointment of Revs. J. W. Van Cleve and F. A. McCarty, as Conference arbitrators.

PRESTON WOOD,

APPRECIATION.

Whereas, The year 1914 will mark the semi-centennial anniversary of the membership of our Esteemed Brother, M. W. Everhart, in the Conference;

Resolved, That with this expression of our fraternal greetings we cordially request him to prepare a historical sketch to be filed with and preserved by the Conference Historical Society.

C. B. TAYLOR.

Whereas, At the next session of the Illinois Conference it will be fifty years since the Rev. Dr. Horace Reed began his ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church, forty-two of those having been spent in this Conference,

Therefore, Be it resolved that he be requested to preach a sermon commemorative of this event at the next session of the Conference,

M. G. COLEMAN.

W. A. SMITH.

THEODORE KEMP.

Resolved, That in the discharge of his duties as Chairman of the Board of Conference Examiners, Dr. W. A. Smith has endeared himself, personally to the members of the board by his genial and brotherly spirit, and has compelled their admiration of his close attention to and skillful administration of the mass of detail appertaining to the work of the Board.

That in his handling of the difficult and delicate matters which constantly arise in the work of the Board he has consistently manifested the spirit of the Christian gentleman; That his own wide scholarship and ripe experience have been of inestimable value and helpfulness to the examiners and the undergraduates, which help has been always extended unhesitatingly and cordially;

That we extend to Dr. Smith our thanks for the service he has rendered the Board and the Conference, particularly in the matter of systematizing and organizing the work for the present quadrennium.

That we regret the severing of pleasant relations, shall miss his counsel and his personality, and wish for him complete success and perfect happiness in the work which makes necessary his retirement from this office.

J. F. M'ANALLY.

MINISTERIAL REPRESENTATION IN GENERAL CONFERENCE

Resolved, That the Illinois Annual Conference hereby requests the Bishops to submit to the Annual Conferences and to the Lay Electoral Conferences, the following amendment:

Be it enacted by the General Conference, through the required constitutional majority of its members, duly authorized by the required constitutional majority of the Annual Conferences, and of the Lay Electoral Conferences, that Par. 38, Sec. 1, of the Discipline be amended by striking out in line 4 of said section, the word "fourteen" and inserting therefor the word "forty", and by striking out in line 5 of the said section, the word "forty-five", and inserting therefor the word "seventy-five", so that the section shall then read as follows:

Par. 38, Sec. 1. Each Annual Conference shall be entitled to at least one ministerial delegate. The General Conference shall not allow more than one ministerial delegate for every forty members of an Annual Conference, or less than one for every seventy-five; but for a fraction of two thirds or more of the number fixed by the General Conference as the ratio of representation, an Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate.

FINANCE COMMISSION

In view of the fact that so few of the charges in our Conference have adopted the financial plan proposed by the Finance Commission enacted by the last General Conference, be it

Resolved, that this Conference request the District Superintendents to present the Financial Plan proposed by the Commission to each of the Quarterly Conferences where the same is not already in operation.

E. K. TOWLE, Chairman.
W. N. TOBIE, Secretary.

ESTIMATE OF PASTORS' SALARIES

Resolved, That the Statistical Secretary be and hereby is instructed, in making up the Statistical Tables on Ministerial Support, to enter in the column of claims for Pastors' Salaries, the amounts estimated for the charges severally by the First Quarterly Conference as shown in the printed Cabinet Slips.

J. W. VAN CLEVE.

MINIMUM SALARY CLAIM.

Resolved, That the District Superintendents be requested to name a committee of five to make a thorough study of the matter of a minimum salary claim of pastors in our Districts and Conference, and to bring a report to the next annual Conference.

SECRETARIAL EXPENSE FUND

Whereas, It requires considerable ability as an accountant to serve acceptably upon the Board of Statistics, and Treasurer's work and it requires no small amount of money to secure such expert ability, be it

Resolved, That this Conference be asked to request each pastor in effective work to contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent. of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund. Such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers or assistants to the Conference in any way. It being understood that no other collection shall be taken for this purpose during this Conference session.

In Memoriam

JOHN BREWSTER PAWSON

REV. JOHN BREWSTER PAWSON, was born in New Albany, Ind., January 5, 1852. He moved with the family to Delavan, Ill., when he was about 13 years of age, Delavan then becoming his permanent home. After completing his literary education he taught school for a few years, then for thirteen years was clerk for one of the prominent business firms, where he became known far and wide, earning for himself a well-deserved popularity in business circles, and the friendships he formed while thus engaged were singularly abiding up to the time of his death. In 1887 he matriculated in the Garrett Biblical Institute, where his affable nature continued to increase his stock of friends and his beautiful spirit wielded a helpful and lasting influence over the lives of the men with whom he associated. In 1890 he completed his theological course and joined the Illinois Conference that year. He was ordained Deacon at the Conference in Bloomington in 1891 by Bishop Warren and ordained Elder at the Conference in Champaign in 1894 by Bishop Bowman. He served the following charges in the order named: Westfield, Minier, Wapella, Hume, Allerton, Sidell and Macon. It was while at Macon that his health became impaired, and he made a trip to California with the hope of regaining his health, which proved of no avail. He therefore retired from the active ministry in the fall of 1911 and made his home in Sidell. John B. Pawson was a Christian from an early age, entering into a more definite Christian experience in his youth, which continued to ripen until in more mature years he enjoyed the rich fruition of the soul resting in perfect love, and though his active ministry was discontinued owing to failing health, yet his real ministry of winning souls to Christ by his ripe Christian experience and personal influence continued until the last, so that his last hours were spent in the Sanctuary of God and at his post of duty. In spite of the storm, he attended the morning Sunday School, teaching a class, offering a prayer in the morning church service, and left as his last legacy to us all, in the evening service, a rich testimony of unflinching faith in his Savior and sang with sweet earnestness the old hymn, "O, Master Let Me Walk With Thee," expressive of the longing of his heart.

Brother Pawson was married November 3, 1892, to Emma Kate Orr, and to this union two children were born, Helen and John. These dear ones, together with four brothers and one sister, survive him. His mother died about nine years ago and his father more recently. Brother Pawson enjoyed a deep spiritual insight. To him the Scriptures were the living Word. His preaching was impressive because of its sympathy and tenderness, revealing the character of which the Apostle John was a type. His prayers were also marked by this same sympathy and tenderness and he talked to God as one intimately acquainted with him, even as a friend with friend.

He died in the triumph of faith Monday morning, March 24, 1913, only his family being present, and his last words were in sympathy for others. His departure came only a few hours after the celebration of the resurrection morning, and he, like his Savior, laid down his life only to take it up again in glory. He belonged to earth and his earthly friends; now he belongs to all humanity and all the ages.

The spirit of the man can better be understood by a brief quotation from his own testimony following a great spiritual triumph, "The years since have been testing, but He abides. He led me from home, kindred and business, but He has been with me. He is mine today, and there I stand this very hour. Kept by Almighty keeping power. Temptations come, but the blood's my plea, the precious blood now cleanseth me."

P. AUGUSTUS SWART

REV. P. A. SWART, one of the oldest members of Illinois Conference, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Driskell of Paris, Ill., May 20, 1913. He was born at Middleburg, N. Y., April 23, 1829. He was married to Miss Adaline Van Horn on April 8, 1851. This union was blessed with two children, Mr. C. O. Swart of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. E. B. Driskell of Paris, Ill. These both survive him. Mrs. Swart having died about fourteen years ago. He came from New York to Christian County, Illinois, in 1864, and spent about four years in farming, joining the Illinois Conference in 1868. He served the following places in the order given: Shelbyville Circuit, Milton, Tower Hill, Mt. Auburn, Waynesville, Fairmount, Vermillion, Irving and Butler, Rosemond, Cerro Gordo, Palmyra, San Jose, Hindsboro, Windsor, Oconee, Stonington, Irving and Lynnvile. He was given a supernumerary relation in 1896 and was superannuated in 1897. He resided at Butler for a few years after superannuation. Later he took up his residence in Paris and more recently making his home with his daughter, Mrs. E. B. Driskell.

Brother Swart, in his pastoral duties, was faithful; in his preaching he was instructive and helpful. In the vast territory over which he traveled and in the many charges which he served, large numbers bear testimony to the abundance of his labors and own him as their spiritual father.

In character and temperament he was humble and meek, gentle and tender. In spirit sweet and kindly, unselfish and sympathetic. During his closing years the Christian graces in him ripened with rapidity, and when the harvester came he was as the shock of corn ready to be garnered in. So his departure, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, was in great peace, characterized by beautiful serenity of soul and tranquility of spirit.

The funeral service, which was conducted from the home of his daughter, on May 22, was in charge of the District Superintendent, Rev. C. F. Buker, assisted by the Revs. H. E. Crane, W. E. Means and J. S. Mulcahy. The interment was at the Edgar Cemetery at Paris, Ill.

THEODORE FRANCIS GARRETT

THEODORE FRANCIS GARRETT was born at Louisa, Ky., May 27, 1850, and died at Danville, Ill., May 26, 1913.

He was the son of Barton and Martha Susan Obrian Garrett. When 2 years of age his father died and the family moved to Ashland, Ky., where he spent his boyhood days.

He was carefully trained by a devout Christian mother, whose daily habit was to gather her children about her and retire to some quiet place for a season of prayer. The memory of her life and prayers he carried through life.

When 15 years of age he was converted at the Ashland camp meeting and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He received his early education at the Ashland Academy and was employed as a clerk seven years.

He early felt a divine call to the ministry and in 1873 was licensed to preach by the Ashland Quarterly Conference, and began his ministry in March of that year on the Prestonburge Circuit. He was admitted into the Kentucky Conference on trial in 1874, receiving full orders in 1878.

Having served this first charge three years, which was then the time of limit, he was left without work to attend school at the Northwestern University.

Eighteen years of his ministerial life was spent in Kentucky, and while there he filled some of the most important charges in the Conference.

In 1901 he was transferred to the Ohio Conference and continued in that Conference until 1905, when he was transferred to the Illinois Conference.

The following is a list of his long itinerary: Prestonburg, Lexington, Shelbyville, Louisville, Sardis, Covington, in the Kentucky Conference; Zanesville, Newark, Syracuse, Cheshire, Proctorville, Amesville, in the Ohio Conference; Bethany, Tower Hill, Humbolt, Indianola, Danville, in the Illinois Conference.

He was beginning the fortieth year of his ministry when he began his pastorate at Grace Church, Danville. After seven weeks of faithful work and service among his new people he was compelled to resign his charge, having preached his last sermon on the second Sunday morning of November, 1912.

During his long illness of seven months he was patient and heroic and seemed more concerned about the personal welfare of his family than his own.

He often spoke of his life work and of his faith in God. He believed in conversion and in a personal knowledge of the same. He believed in Heaven for the believer and in a hell for those who rejected Christ.

He had been a student of God's Word from boyhood and was able to quote freely from any part of it. He loved the Church, its history, its hymns, its doctrines.

The discipline was not ignored by him, and during his long ministry its rules were read once a year to his congregation.

As a preacher he felt called to preach against sin and to hold up Christ, the Savior; at the same time he was gentle and loving in his ministrations.

He had an inborn courtesy which was plainly evident to all who met him. He was a strong preacher and eloquent in prayer.

During his last hours he spoke encouragingly to his family, and among his last words were these: "There is nothing to fear."

In 1881 he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Duncan, daughter of the Rev. Charles Duncan, at Lexington, Ky. To this union were born three children, Horace Theodore of Chicago; Haven Francis, deceased, and Grace of Danville.

Funeral services were held at Grace Church, Danville, Ill., May 28, 1913, at 2:30 p. m. Brief addresses were made by H. C. Gibbs, District Superintendent, and Robert Stephens. A number of the local clergy were present and from nearby charges and took part in the services.

WILLIAM H. SCHWARTZ

REV. WILLIAM H. SCHWARTZ was born in Columbia County, Ohio, January 11, 1850, and died in Hoopston, Ill., January 7, 1913. He was the son of John and Catherine Schwartz. He married Martha E. Bales June 30, 1872. To them were born four daughters, Esther Catherine, Grace Eleanor, E. Elizabeth, L. Zerita, all of whom are living. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church when 9 years of age. The Christian life was to him a real fact, and anyone who knew him knew he lived in home, Church and business life what he professed to be, a Christian man. In Butler Township, what was known as the Schwartz Church for years, this man attended the preaching services, Sunday School, prayer and class meetings, gave of his means to the support of the Church, at home and abroad, so that both in his young Christian life and the closing he was a model layman, speaking by his actions what man should do in and for the Church. In 1879 he was licensed as a local preacher and was diligent in that line of Church work; 1883 the call came from God to him to enter the ministry of the Methodist Church, and though the prospect before him as a farmer was attractive, both because he loved the farm and because of the outlook for a comfortable life, yet he faltered not, but came into the ranks of a Methodist preacher to share with them the joy and hardships they had to contend with and for eighteen years he did his best to make the world better through his ministry. The following charges were blessed with his ministry: Ogden, Cisco, St. Joseph, Mahomet, Fisher, Camargo, Homer and Franklin. When he retired it was not because of dissatisfaction with the work of the ministry, but because of physical reasons. As a minister he ranked high, he never entered the pulpit unprepared, he worked diligently during the week as a pastor among his people and in his study, and when the Sunday came he was ready to preach. He loved the work of the ministry, he loved the brethren of the ministry, and was loved by them. He was a remarkable Bible student. He loved the Book, and to teach it to others was his great delight. This was manifested in the interest he took in the Bible classes, of which he was the teacher, in connection with the Epworth League and Sunday School of this Church.

DANIEL WILBUR ENGLISH

REV. DANIEL WILBUR ENGLISH, D.D., died at the home of his son in Bloomington, Ill., September 22, 1912. He was born near Marshall, Clark County, November 22, 1837. His father was a pioneer Methodist minister, who came to Illinois from New Jersey in 1837, and served for many years as a local preacher. He was one of the founders of the Methodist Church at Marshall. Daniel English was the youngest of a family of fifteen children. His boyhood was spent at Marshall. After finishing the academy course he went to Greencastle Ind., and graduated from DePauw University in 1866. He was a thorough scholar and was known for his definite Christian principles and religious activities. Following his graduation for two years he was principal of an academy at Saybrook, Ill.

New Year's day, 1867, he was united in marriage to Winnie F. Minear of Paris, Ill., whose father was distinguished as a preacher and physician. A daughter who died in infancy, Phillip M., Edward Bowman and Merle N., a member of the Illinois Conference, constituted the family. His wife died a few weeks previous at their home in Paris, Ill.

From his youth Brother English was an ardent Christian and member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His mother was a remarkable Christian woman and left her impress upon her son. He united with the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1868. He served the following charges: Atlanta, Charleston, Beardstown, Waverly; Centenary Church, Jacksonville; Shelbyville; Kimber Church, Danville; Presiding Elder of Bloomington District; Rushville; Presiding Elder of Quincy District, Mattoon, Farmer City, Mahomet and Kansas. In the fall of 1905 Brother English requested that he be allowed to retire from active work, and was given a superannuated relation. He moved to Paris, Ill., which was his home at the time of his death. These latter days were among the best and most enjoyable in his entire ministry. He continued to preach, serving the church as supply on the Redmond Circuit, Oliver and Patton and the Georgetown Circuit. During no period of his ministry was he more abundant in labors and successful. He was greatly loved by the people to whom he ministered. Throughout his long ministry Brother English served the church with distinction and was honored by the church in many ways. His ministry was one of large usefulness and he was chosen for many positions requiring discrimination and good judgment. His religious experience was of a victorious type and he adorned the gospel he preached.

Brief services were held in Bloomington under the direction of Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, District Superintendent, assisted by other pastors. The body was taken to Paris, Ill., where services were conducted in the First Methodist Church by B. F. Shipp, assisted by Theodore Kemp, H. C. Gibbs, W. H. Webster, S. H. Whitlock, C. F. Buker and a number of other pastors. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Paris beside that of his devoted wife.

OLIVER HAZARD PERRY SMITH

OLIVER H. P. SMITH, son of Stephen and Evelina Smith, was born at Port Washington, Wis., May 5, 1851, and died at Wauwatosa, Wis., October 1, 1912. His father, who was a physician, was a native of New England, and served as surgeon through the Mexican and Civil Wars. His mother, Evelina M. Wheeler, was a descendant of William Whipple, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Early in life his parents moved to Milwaukee, where they lived until Oliver was 8 years old. After this he grew to manhood on a farm where now stands the city of West Allis. He received his early education from his mother, private teachers and the public schools, and later he attended one of the state normal schools and the University of Wisconsin, but, owing to delicate health, did not complete the course. This was only the beginning of a life of close mental application, his favorite line of research being philosophy in the broadest sense, including metaphysics, psychology and physical science. Early in life he manifested a passion for music and began the composition of songs. He received instruction from some of Milwaukee's best vocal teachers and developed a fine lyric tenor voice. Later he taught classes in the villages of the surrounding country. In 1880 he opened a studio in Dubuque, Iowa. He was the author of many poems, songs and magazine articles.

Oliver received from his mother careful religious training in his childhood, and at the age of 15 years he publicly confessed Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. For some years he felt the call to preach. Later he yielded and was granted a license and spent a few months at Gibson, Wis. He was then appointed a supply at Anahpee—now Angona. His first conference appointment was Green Bay, Wis., in 1882. From this time on he was in the "effective work" of the ministry, serving the following charges: Merrill, Wis., and from there was transferred to the West Wisconsin Conference and stationed at Medford in 1886; thence he was transferred to the Minnesota Conference in 1889, and served at Litchfield, St. Charles and Dover. In 1899 he was transferred to Illinois Conference, and served at Latham, Harristown, Raymond, Rockbridge and Topeka. He made hosts of friends in these charges, who remember him as an able and inspiring preacher of the Word. Upon many, and particularly young men, he left the impress of his splendid character. His change from Conference to Conference was largely in search of health. In 1904 he took the superannuate relation and returned to West Allis, where he finished out the life of suffering till he heard the Master say, "It is enough. Come up higher."

Brother Smith was married May 25, 1882, to Agnes C. Guilbert of Dubuque, Iowa, who died about a year later, leaving a son, Edward Guilbert Smith, who is now pastor of the First Congregational Church at Nekoosa, Wis. On July 21, 1886, he was married to Miss Martha Johnson of Greenfield, Wis., who, with their two daughters, Mrs. Agnes E. Dodge of Milwaukee and Mrs. Isabel C. Telfer of Eau Claire, Wis., and the son, survives him. He leaves also one brother and four grandchildren. Funeral services were held in the Wauwatosa M. E. Church, the Rev. Webster Millar of West Allis making a beautiful and appropriate address.

JOSHUA SOULE AKERS

JOSHUA SOULE AKERS, son of the famous pioneer preacher, Peter Akers, was born March 8, 1837, near Ebenezer Church, north of Jacksonville. When the war broke out he was one of the first to offer himself as a volunteer in his country's service. He was rejected, however, for physical disability. In 1861 he was licensed to preach under Rev. Chauncey Hobart, and for seven years did pioneer missionary work in the state of Wisconsin. In 1867 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and was stationed at Carrollton. He afterward served pastorates at Beardstown, Taylorville, Georgetown, Paxton and Roodhouse.

On account of the failing health of his wife, Rev. Mr. Akers moved to Dakota in 1882. In this new country he did most efficient work in laying the foundations for the Methodist Church and her educational institutions. He served for six years as Presiding Elder of the Aberdeen District of the South Dakota Conference.

In 1900 he was appointed financial agent of the Illinois Woman's College and returned to this state to assume the duties of the position. Three years ago Dr. Akers and his wife moved to Minnesota to be with their son. Within a few months thereafter the wife died very suddenly and the decline in Dr. Akers' health dates from that time. For the last few years he had been in Jacksonville, where he received the treatment and care which his condition demanded. For the last several months he has been watched over and cared for by his son, Rev. Edwin W. Akers, who came to this city for that purpose.

Rev. Joshua Akers was a man possessed of a warm heart, a genial disposition and a sympathetic nature. He was a man of scholarly attainments and was ever ready to use his abilities for any cause that was worthy. He was especially devoted to the church of his choice, to which he gave fifty-three years of his life as a minister. He counted no labor too arduous and no sacrifice too great to advance its interests.

The deceased, his father, Rev. Peter Akers, and his son, Rev. E. W. Akers, have together spent 130 years in the Christian ministry. This is a phenomenal record, seldom equaled in one family.

He came to life's close at Jacksonville, Ill., Thursday afternoon, July 31, 1913. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon following from the home of his son, the Rev. E. W. Akers, Dr. F. A. McCarty being in charge.

THOMAS D. WEEMS

REV. THOMAS D. WEEMS, son of David H. and Isabel Weems, was born in Uniontown, Pa., May 18, 1833, and died in Holdenville, Okla., Thursday, May 29, 1913, aged 80 years and 11 days. When he was young he moved with his parents to Wilmington, Clinton County, Ohio, where he attended the public schools, and from which he received a common school education. In his young manhood he learned the trade of a cabinet maker and for a number of years followed his trade and was known as an expert in this line of business. From Wilmington, Ohio, he moved with his parents to Westfield, Ind. It was here he met, and on April 14, 1851, was united in marriage to that sainted woman, his wife of blessed memory, then known as Mary Rees, and who died in holy triumph in Holdenville, Okla., February 2, 1905. To this union were born nine children.

When Brother Weems was 8 days old he was consecrated to God in baptism and his name remains on the old church record. When he was 8 years of age he testified that he experienced a change of heart. This took place in his old home in Pennsylvania. This adoption into God's family was so clear that those who ever heard him preach will remember how definite he was on the doctrine of the new birth. His call to preach came to him very early in life and was so clear that he never doubted his call of God to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In 1859 he was licensed as a local preacher, and for six years he supplied charges as a regular supply. In September, 1868, he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference and for thirty-one years served the following charges: Camargo, Dewitt, Mt. Pulaski, Decatur Circuit, Philo, McLean, Lincoln Circuit, Griggsville Circuit, Jacksonville Circuit, Waverly, Cerro Gordo, Assumption, Illiopolis, Moweaqua, Mahomet and Tolono.

In 1899 he retired from the active work of the ministry, but at times he acted as supply to different charges, among them Holdenville, Okla., which he served for two years. Brother Weems' ministry was a ministry of life to the people. They heard him gladly. He was a preacher who saw most wonderful revivals. In every charge he served great revivals took place, until it is safe to say that 4,000 people came to Christ under his ministry and a number of young men entered the ministry through his influence.

During his ministry of thirty-one years he built twelve churches, always paying for them before he left the charge. He raised the apportionments for the benevolence always in full. He sent a large number of subscribers toward church periodicals from every charge. He could preach the Old Gospel with power from the Holy Ghost. Hundreds will hear of his death and thank God that such a man lived. He became a Master Mason in 1864 and honored that fraternity by a consistent life.

When Mr. Lincoln called for 300,000 men this man came to the front and was First Lieutenant of Company G, Twenty-eighth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and died a member of the G. A. R. Brother Weems was a remarkable man. He was a true American, a great Gospel preacher, a worthy Christian, a man of great faith in God and the truths of the Bible, a loving husband, a kind father, a friend to all, a foe to none. He died as God's children die, a victor over all things. His funeral was conducted by the writer in the First Baptist Church, Holdenville, Okla., June 1, at 2 p. m. The church was crowded by old and young, who came to testify of their love for this good man. He died as he lived, a man of God.

WILLIAM N. McELROY, D.D.

THE DEATH of William N. McElroy, one of Methodism's most distinguished men, occurred Monday, January 6, 1913. The messenger of the King summoned him and he obeyed the call. Today he wears the crown of victory.

Dr. McElroy was widely known as one of the wise leaders and builders of his chosen church. He was a most loyal Methodist, but never a bigot. He could always see the good that others did and most heartily co-operated with all denominations in the building of the Kingdom of Heaven.

He stood as a power for righteousness within the bounds of the Illinois Conference for more than half a century, and now that he is crowned, the seed that he has sown will go on to fruition.

Dr. McElroy was born in Harrison County, Ohio, June 10, 1832. His parents were of rugged Scotch-Irish stock, who transmitted to their son their own sturdy qualities.

His father was Robert McElroy and his mother bore the name of Mary. The parents removed with their family to Illinois in 1840 and settled on a farm in Pike County, near Griggsville. In 1852 William N., in company with his elder brother, crossed the plains to California, from whence he returned to Illinois by way of Panama, Cuba and New Orleans in December, 1854.

He was united in marriage with Miss Stasira M. Pacteur at Griggsville October 7, 1856. To them were born five children, three daughters and two sons. The three daughters preceded their father in death.

For a few years after marriage he taught school, serving one year at the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Ill, as teacher of the President's classes.

In 1860 he united with the Illinois Annual Conference and began that long career as an itinerant Methodist preacher, which proved so full of labor and of honor.

The first appointment served by Brother McElroy was Naples 1862-4; Havana 1865-6; Shelbyville 1867-9; Bloomington, First Church, 1870; Campaign 1871-2; Danville, North St., 1873; Decatur, First Church, 1874-5; Champaign 1876-7; Champaign District 1878; Bloomington, First Church, 1879-82; Bloomington District 1883-5; Jacksonville, Grace Church, 1886-9; Springfield, First Church, 1890-5; Springfield District 1896-1901; Jacksonville District 1902-3; Springfield, Kumler Church, 1904; Supernumerary 1905-7; Laurel Church, Springfield, and City Missions, 1908-12; Supernuated, 1912.

The foregoing list of appointments shows in what esteem he was held by his brethren and by the appointing power of the church. He filled many of the most responsible positions in the gift of the church and in every case filled his place with acceptability.

Dr. McElroy possessed fine literary ability. This was shown in his sermons and demonstrated in the many productions of his pen. He was a power in the pulpit and on the platform. He was familiar with the best literature of the day and often drew upon it for the embellishment of his sermons. He was a frequent contributor to the church press, and his communications were usually read with interest.

Six times he was chosen by his brethren of the Conference to represent them in the highest councils of the church. In the General Conference he was a man of recognized ability and was selected to serve on some of the most important committees.

In 1881 he was selected as one of the delegates to the first Ecumenical Conference of Methodism, held in London, England. This was a high honor, worthily bestowed and fully maintained by the ability of the incumbent.

Dr. McElroy was a diligent student of all the great questions of his day. He was always fully abreast of the times, and, with voice and pen, he entered heartily into the conflict with injustice and wrong. There were very few men who knew more about his beloved Methodism than he.

For the last few years of his life he was engaged in writing a history of Methodism in Illinois. To this task he brought a wealth of information gathered from his wide reading and from personal contact with many of the pioneers who laid the foundations of that great superstructure upon which he and his contemporaries so faithfully wrought.

Last June Dr. McElroy celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary by preaching in the First Methodist Church in Springfield. The sermon will long live in the memories of those who heard it. At that time he appeared hale and hearty and as if many years were yet left to him of life.

On October 7 he and his wife celebrated, in a quiet fashion, their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary.

Few men in the ministry have extended the years of their usefulness over a longer period than has Dr. McElroy. Thousands have listened to the message of salvation from his lips; hundreds have been led to the Lamb of God by his hand, and no doubt today, in the glory world, he is being greeted by myriads of redeemed souls who were led into the Kingdom by his influence.

MRS. ELLEN P. BAUMANN

MR. ELLEN PORTER BAUMANN was born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, February 17, 1841. In 1854 she came with her father's family to Bloomington, Ill. In 1864 she was married to the Rev. John V. W. Baumann of the Illinois Conference, and together they served congregations in Danville, Paxton and Mattoon. When Mr. Baumann died, in 1867, Mrs. Baumann and her two children, Charlotte and Rachel, took up their residence at her father's home, Bloomington, Ill. In this home she was ever the one to whom all went for advice and help, for she gave unstinted her time and energy.

During the forty-five years of her widowhood she was a member of the First M. E. Church of Bloomington. In this church she helped to organize, and was for many years president, of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. She was also for several years president of the Ladies' Aid Society. Her patient, quiet, intelligent planning made her an acceptable leader. When others saw that she worked as well as planned and that she appreciated their help they gave her willing support. She was a member of the Board of Stewards and a dependable helper of the pastor.

In 1908 a nervous breakdown made it necessary for her to relax her efforts in church work and she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Greenlee of Denver, Colo. Here she remained until her death, May 26, 1912. The Rev. Frost Craft, her former pastor in Bloomington, conducted a short service at her daughter's home in Denver, and further services were held at her home in Bloomington in charge of the Rev. G. E. Pickard. She rests beside her husband and her daughter Charlotte in the Bloomington cemetery.

When Mrs. Baumann realized that she was stricken, active though she had been and much as she longed to do for others, there was no complaint from her. "It is all right," she would say to loved ones, and she would often read or have read to her a favorite hymn, "My Times Are in Thy Hand."

Absolutely true to her family, her church, her Christian faith, hers is a blessed record.

MRS. ALLIE WAKEFIELD

MR. ALLIE WAKEFIELD, wife of the Rev. Silas N. Wakefield and daughter of Simeon and Susan Dowell, was born near Lakewood, Shelby County, Ill., October 7, 1870, and died in Maroa, Macon County, Ill., November 22, 1912.

She was united in marriage with Silas N. Wakefield on March 15, 1891.

In the autumn of 1892 Mr. Wakefield was admitted on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Wakefield began her experience of the troubles and pleasures incident to the life of the wife of a Methodist preacher. She stood side by side with her husband as he served the following pastorates: Bruce, two years; Stewardson, three years; Westfield, one year; Shelbyville, Moulton Church, one year; Mendon, three years; Astoria, two years; Petersburg, two years; Neoga, four years; Latham, one year, and a little more than a year in Maroa.

She came to Maroa weak and ill, and has been more or less a sufferer during the whole time of her residence here. Last winter was a season of great physical suffering. With the fairer summer days came a considerable measure of relief, which for a few months made her condition more tolerable; but as the falling leaves began to herald the approach of another winter the distressing symptoms seemed disposed to return. She was contemplating a visit to the Southwest for the purpose of trying the experiment of a change of climate, when her plans were suddenly cut short by a severe seizure which completely prostrated her. Everything that kindness and skill could do was done; she made a struggle which was a marvel of steady patience and quiet courage. In spite of it all she continued to grow weaker, until at length the tired heart gave up the struggle and she went to rest.

The desolate parsonage holds in its group of mourners, besides the husband, two daughters, Verna Juanita and Mona Naomi, and two sons, Roscoe Haven and Nelson Dowell.

Mrs. Wakefield was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church about two years before her marriage. She maintained an interest in the Church and its work even in her hours of weakness and suffering.

In the daily relationships of the home tenderness and trust were strikingly manifest.

For some time the conviction had been growing in her mind that she was not to be well again. Once she said, "I would have liked to have one year of quiet life before I go." When she neared the end her soul was not shaken. She had tried to do the best she could, she said, for the sake of the children, and since it was not to be she was well content with the Father's will. She spoke calmly of the arrangements for her own funeral. She spoke to the children such words as come only from a mother-heart which knows Jesus Christ. Then, with failing breath, she said, "Don't worry; I'm ready." Later on she spoke again: "The end must be near. I want to go to sleep," and, closing her eyes, she entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

"Rest for the toiling hands,
Rest for the anxious brow,
Rest for the weary, way-tired feet,
Rest from all labor now."

Funeral services were conducted by District Superintendent J. W. VanCleve. These services were held at the parsonage in Maroa, November 23, and at Lakewood, November 24. A large number of ministers assisted in or attended the memorial services. The body was laid to rest in Red Bank Cemetery.

MRS. ANNE JANE HAMILL

MRS. HAMILL was born in 1819 and died in September, 1912, at the home of her daughter in Cullman, Ala., at the age of 93. Her ancestors came of sturdy Methodist Scotch-Irish stock, and were noted in the old camp meetings of Georgia and Alabama. She was a lineal descendant of Robert Burns, bearing as a girl the family name, and was a woman of finest culture and a reader of great books. She mastered French after she was 80 years old, and to the end of her life had much interest in passing events and literature. She was converted at a Georgia camp meeting as a child, and, with ten brothers and sisters and a father, all unconverted, she asked and received the privilege of conducting the family worship for the sake of her loved ones, all of whom, including the father, she lived to see devout Christians. She was married to E. J. Hamill, a Methodist preacher, then member of the Alabama Conference, later member of the Illinois Conference until his death in 1891. As a follower of the Union in the South before the Civil War and during the four years of that conflict, Mrs. Hamill shared in the persecutions of her husband, and the two came to the West when it was ended.

She was the mother of eight children, several of whom died in the South. Two of her sons became Methodist preachers, one of these being Dr. H. M. Hamill, for ten years a member of the Illinois Conference, now a Sunday School specialist in the South. He and his sister, Mrs. Gillespie, of Alabama, are the only survivors of the family.

Mrs. Hamill lived the typical life of a devoted wife of a Methodist preacher, enduring patiently its hardships and always grateful to God that she was accounted worthy to have such a large part in the ministry of the Methodist Church. Her Christian life was singularly beautiful and influential upon family, kindred and friends, and she died in great peace and joy, glad after so long a life to rejoin her loved ones and to be ever with the Lord.

MRS. EDNA GILLMORE

SUDDENLY summoned July 2, 1913, at Auburn, Ill., Mrs. Edna Gillmore, wife of Dr. W. F. Gillmore, pastor of our Church, passed to her coronation.

Of her it can be written with emphasis: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yea, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Hers was a busy life, from which she has entered into a deserved rest. All over the great Illinois Conference the blessed influence of her words, works and personality have built imperishable monuments in lives that have been regenerated and inspired to like fellowship with the saints and to consecrated service.

Born in Little Sandusky, Ohio, April 8, 1846, coming to Illinois in early childhood, where she developed into a strong, refined Christian womanhood, she was married to the Rev. W. F. Gillmore on March 3, 1867, and with him entered upon the varied and exacting duties of the pastoral life. For nearly a half century she served her Master and the Church with a conspicuous and constant devotion in important charges throughout the Conference.

Endowed by nature and fitted by grace and literary attainments with the necessary traits, she measured up to the great opportunities for service which come to a pastor's wife with marked efficiency. Affectionately devoted to the interests of her home, conscientiously loyal to her Church in the service which her varied talents qualified her to give, she never the less found time, despite the busy and persistent exactions of the pastoral life, to bestow the benedictions of her literary, social and benevolent gifts upon the wider public circle contiguous to, though not a part of the church.

Early and continuously manifesting a passionate concern in the work of the W. F. M. S. she was a prominent figure in its operations, serving the auxiliaries and larger fields in an official capacity through a long period of years. President of the Champaign and Springfield District organizations, she was peculiarly successful in winning the co-operation and love of her co-laborers in an unusual measure.

She was an inspiration to the young people of the Church and her interest in and love for them never abated with the increasing years. Upon the evening preceding her death she led the meeting of the Epworth League in her home church.

For forty-five years out of the fifty years of her membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church she was a teacher in the Sunday School.

In that organization of women which has done so much for the world in the way of social, temperance and political reform, the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Gillmore was a valued and wise counsellor and efficient worker, while toward the movement familiarly designated as the Woman's Club she maintained an important and helpful attitude.

An indication of her remarkable capacity for usefulness is afforded in the fact that she left 100 manuscripts of addresses which she had prepared and delivered before and in the interests of these various societies. One who was ever privileged to listen to her addresses need not be reminded of their literary, spiritual and practical excellencies, and the delight and profit with which her hearers received her message. Chaste, eloquent and inspirational, her addresses were sought for with eagerness and received with enthusiasm.

Through an itinerant life of forty-four years the graces of her personality, the devotion of her consecrated life, the productions of her brilliant mind and ministries of her hands have bestowed upon the Church and world an invaluable and undying service.

No less conspicuous and devoted was this gracious life in the parsonage home, in which she presided with the affection of a loving wife and mother and a refined dignity and friendly hospitality, alike precious to the members of the home and charming to their guests.

The husband; one son, Louis R. of Springfield, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Grace Ullman of Des Moines, Iowa, survive, and a host of friends, won through the years of her service within the bounds of the Illinois Conference, offer sorrowful condolence to them.

Memorial services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal Church at Auburn, Ill., Friday, July 4, 1913, at 3 p. m., Dr. C. B. Taylor of Urbana, Ill., officiating, assisted by Dr. C. Galeener, District Superintendent, Springfield, and Dr. Horace Reed of Decatur, Ill. The church was filled with a sympathetic audience, a large number of neighboring pastors and friends from former charges being present.

Interment took place in the Auburn Cemetery.

MRS. SUSAN MULL BURKITT

MR. D. C. BURKITT passed to her reward at an advanced age, May 21, 1913.

Susan Mull was born in Washington County, Indiana, January 19, 1837. She was united in marriage to Samuel Baxter May 5, 1853. They settled in Clark County, Indiana. She lived according to the custom of those days, when the people spun, wove and made the cloth for their clothing, and she was not above gathering the flax in the field. Her industrious habits followed her to the end of life.

In 1873 she and her husband moved to Illinois and settled in Douglas County, where Mr. Baxter engaged in farming until his death, on June 5, 1892. To this union were born five children, William of Washington, Ind.; John of Vandalia, Ill.; Sarah Helm of Tuscola, Ill.; Samuel of Murdock and Mary Young of Newman. In October, 1901, Mrs. Baxter was united in marriage with the Rev. D. C. Burkitt, a member of the Illinois Conference. They made their home at Murdock for six years, and in 1907 they moved to Tuscola, Ill., where she has since resided. Brother Burkitt departed this life July 26, 1911.

Mrs. Burkitt was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1875. She was a faithful Christian, and, so long as her health permitted, a regular attendant at the church. She was a true helpmate to her husband in his declining years. During her last sickness she was cheerful and patient, and expressed her perfect readiness for whatever God in his providence saw was best.

"And while the soul retains the power
To think upon each fading year,
In every bright or shadowed hour
The heart shall hold the mother dear."

The funeral services were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Helm, in Tuscola, conducted by the Rev. J. M. Goodspeed, assisted by the Rev. A. A. White and the Rev. Mr. Hole. The interment was at Murdock Cemetery.

MRS. SARAH ANN MAY

SARAH ANN (MARICA) MAY was born in Page County, Virginia, September 27, 1834, and died at her home in Mt. Zion, Ill. July 9, 1913. After an illness of a few weeks she fell asleep in Jesus and is at rest. She was of sturdy stock, and during her life of almost four score years was distinguished for resoluteness and faithful persistence in the course she believed to be right. She was converted to God in early life and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when but 11 years old.

She was married to Daniel E. May August 10, 1852, and came with him to this state in the year 1858, settling at Oakland, where they lived until entering the ministry, in 1865.

To her were born seven children, two of whom died in infancy and one in childhood. The other four were reared and educated out of a rather meager income. Two of these died in later life, Dr. W. T. in 1900 and Dr. E. W. in November, 1912. Dr. S. R. and Mrs. Clara J. Henry survived to look upon the folded hands which so untiringly ministered to their wants.

Sister May really went into the ministry with her husband, sharing his labors and privations without a murmur, and wrought heroically with hands and heart for thirty years. These labors began at Martinsburg in 1865 and closed at Green Valley in 1895. Since that time they have lived the superannuate life at Mt. Zion, Ill. Her aged and feeble husband still lingers on these shores, but the happy reunion is not far hence.

"Life's labors done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While Heaven and earth combine to say,
'How blest the righteous when he dies.'"

MRS. LYDIA CHAMBERLAIN McCOY

MRS. LYDIA C. McCOY, widow of the Rev. Asa S. McCoy of the Illinois Conference, went to her glorious reward July 31, 1913. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Judge John R. Dixon, Denver, Colo. Private funeral services were held at Mrs. Dixon's home August 1, conducted by Rev. M. D. Hornbeck, formerly of the Illinois Conference, now of the Colorado Conference. Two daughters, Mrs. Huston B. Watt of Creston Iowa and Mrs. William C. Mussy of Chicago, Ill., escorted the remains to Jacksonville, Ill., where in the family lot she was buried by the side of her husband. The Rev. George W. Flagge and other Methodist ministers of Jacksonville conducted the burial service.

Mrs. McCoy was born April 13, 1834, at Silver Lake, Susquehanna County, Pa. She was converted when a girl, was given a substantial education and was married to Rev. Asa McCoy on May 18, 1859. Brother McCoy, after long service in the Illinois Conference, retired from the active ministry in 1881. A few years after he came to Colorado, whence he went to his blessed inheritance.

Mrs. McCoy was a very bright woman, intellectual and of very forceful character. She was devout and found her chief delight in the study and practice of the spiritual life. She was in every way a true helpmeet to her husband, and a most faithful mother to her children. Her buoyant love of life and her deep interest in human affairs brought to her many friends. There remain the following named children to mourn her loss: James C. McCoy, Nayatt Point, R. I.; Col. H. B. McCoy; W. Asa McCoy, Mrs. Anna M. Campbell, all living in the Philippine Islands; Mrs. John R. Dixon, Denver; Mrs. H. B. Watt, Creston, Iowa; Mrs. W. P. Mussy, Chicago; Lillian died in young womanhood.

MRS. CAROLINE FRANCISKA JANSSEN

CAROLINE FRANCISKA BARZ was born June 19, 1885, in Spring County, South Dakota. In early youth she was blessed with Christian training. Continual sorrow and bereavement experienced in early life caused her to be deeply interested in the suffering and affliction of others. This desire, which finally grew into a definite life's purpose, caused her to counsel with her only living brother, whose Christian encouragement directed her attention to the Christian work of the city. At the age of 19 she entered the Bethesda Hospital of Cincinnati, Ohio, for training. After completing her course she at once took up the work of a trained nurse, and also served as a church deaconess and city missionary in the poor district and the slums of Cincinnati. Five years of hard and self-sacrificing labor were spent in this noble work and fruitful field. On August 26, 1908, she married the Rev. Gerald J. Janssen of Waynesville, Ill. To this union was born one daughter. Since the severe nervous shocks, which came into Mrs. Janssen's life during her girlhood, she never enjoyed the best of health. For the last four years she had been afflicted, during which period she endured untold suffering. She died April 28, 1913, at the age of 28 years. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Virginia Grace, and one brother, the Rev. F. O. Barz of Charles City, Iowa. The brief, but beautiful life of the deceased, can best be described by those who knew her intimately. There was but one purpose for which she wanted to live in spite of her severe and continual suffering, and that purpose was to do good and help bear the burdens of others. She was constantly searching for persons who were in sorrow and who needed a friend, and yet even her most intimate associates seldom, if ever, heard her complain or even speak of her own affliction and sorrow which was crushing her heart. Her winsome disposition made friends instantly which she never lost. Her greatest joy and most serious concern next to making a good Christian home was her interest in the moral and religious development of young boys. Everywhere she had been she at once organized a class of boys in the Sunday School. It was to this blessed work that she seemed to be so well fitted. As a friend she was unselfish and true. As a wife and home-maker she was devoted, patient and cheerful. As a mother she was tender, loving and brave.

MRS. ELIZABETH ELLEN MILLER

MRS. ELIZABETH ELLEN MILLER, wife of the Rev. J. Wesley Miller, after a brief illness was called to her heavenly home Saturday morning, June 14, 1913. Elizabeth Ellen Jones was born near Shelbyville, Ill., June 20, 1848. In her early young womanhood she became a disciple of the Master, and for half a century confirmed the testimony of her lips by a refined, sincere and unselfish Christian life. On November 8, 1871, she married the Rev. J. Wesley Miller, who some years later entered the Illinois Conference. For twenty-seven years she shared the self-denials of an untiring Methodist minister in active service. Together with her husband she followed the call of the church to many difficult fields of labor. Cheerfully and with earnest endeavor she sought to perform the noble tasks devolving upon a faithful pastor's wife. Her noble Christian life, her gentle spirit, her ideal qualities as a Christian mother left their impress upon the communities where she lived. She was affectionate and sympathetic in spirit and by her genuine devotion to every interest of the church she won the loving esteem of many friends in the charges served by her husband. In 1904, because of her failing health, her husband felt it necessary to retire from the active work of the ministry, and for nearly nine years Mr. and Mrs. Miller have made Bloomington, Ill., their home, where they have been greatly devoted and exceptionally loyal to the work of our Church.

Pre-eminently did Mrs. Miller's life reveal its influence as a mother in the home. She was blessed with six children, and to the training of these children she gave herself with rare devotion and wisdom. The oldest child died at the age of 5 years. The five who have grown to maturity are: Prof. W. P. Miller of Champaign, Ill.; Toney R. Miller of St. Louis, Mo.; George W. Miller of Peoria, Ill.; Miss Goldie Mays Miller of Bloomington, Ill., and the Rev. Ray N. Miller of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Miller's health had been failing for many months, but her serious illness was of brief duration. On Wednesday morning she was stricken with apoplexy, and though most skilfully and tenderly cared for at Brokaw Hospital she never recovered consciousness, and peacefully passed away early Saturday morning.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Freeman A. Havighurst, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Bloomington. Her four sons acted as pallbearers. Her body was laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery, Bloomington, Ill.

MRS. RUTH L. DAVIDSON

RUTH L. LAKEN was born about seventy years ago, and died Dec. 1912, at the home of her son, Mark, in Hannibal, Missouri. She was married to the Rev. Marcellus M. Davidson in the fall of 1860. Two years before this her husband had united with Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

After more than an half century of service in the Master's vineyard, that man of God entered into his rest, February 26, 1911. For a brief time Mrs. Davidson was left, waiting in widowhood for the reunion of the saints in light. During the many years of her wedded life she had been the faithful wife and mother, and helper in the Kingdom of God. With her great work done, in her lingering she may well have sung:

"So I'll wait a little longer 'till His own appointed time,
And will glory in the prospect of a future so sublime."

She was the mother of three children, one of whom, Mark L. Davidson, resides in Hannibal, Mo.

The body was taken to Quincy, Ill., for burial, where funeral services were held in Vermont Street Church in charge of the pastor, the Rev. A. S. Flanigan, assisted by the Reverends J. F. Wohlfarth, W. T. Beadles and others. The body now rests in Green Mount cemetery, Quincy.

Conference Rules

Your committee on rules appointed at the last session of the Conference, begs leave to submit the following report:

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order, but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1), when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided; (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is but shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes, recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendens shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"27. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."
